Stevedores Attack Workers at Third and Federal Streets. Pitched Battle Follows

BYSTANDER IS KILLED

Trouble brewing ever since the longhoremen went out on strike about a month ago came to a head last night in the vicinity of the Delaware river front, in the form of a pitched battle etween several hundred striking stevedores and strike-breakers, in which one man was killed, four others shot, one so seriously he may die, and six perons injured.

The principal scene of the trouble vas at Third and Federal streets. Revolvers, clubs, stones and fists were used in the fight.

The Dead Godel Stein, thirty years old, of 303 queen street, a bystander. Leaves vidow and four children in Russia. The Injured

Daniel Donahue, of 2336 South Broad street; shot in the chest; may die. Mount Sinai Hospital. Harry Steinhart, of 314 Manton street; shot in left arm. Mount Sinai Hospital.

Sinai Hospital. With the exception of Steinhart and the Kilodroff boy, all the patients are under police guard.

Godel Stein, the dead man, was an innocent victim of the rioters. He was walking in Jefferson Square, just oppo-site the scene of the fight, and in trying to get out of range of flying bullets, ran directly into the group of strikers who were on the run,

Stein fell with a bullet in his face. Witnesses say he was kicked in the face after falling, and hammered over the head with a bucket. He died a short later in the Pennsylvania Hospital. The trouble began shortly after 6 o'clock. A garg of sixty strike-breaking stevedores left the Spreckels and the International Navigation Co. piers, at the foot of Federal street. When they got to Moyamensing avenue and Fed eral street they were rushed from all directions by the strikers. The rioters diln't even stop fighting when the po-lice arrived, but kept it up for twenty

SUFFRAGIST LEADERS HOME

Mrs. Catt and Mrs. Josephus Daniels Return From Europe

New York, June 28 .- (By A. P.)-American delegates to the International Woman Suffrage Alliance congress, held in Geneva last month, headed by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association, and Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy, returned here today on the steamship Lafayette.

Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese minister to the United States, who has been in Europe representing China at the League-of-Nations conferences, also reurned on the Lafayette.

Twenty-eight of the delegates remained in Europe touring the war-devastated territory, Mrs. Daniels said. "The achievements of the alliance in gaining political equality for women was evidenced by reports from twenty two nations that they had been granted equal suffrage since the last congress in 1913." she added. "This promises wel for the success of a program of legis-lation for political economy, civil and ducational equality which was adopted at this meeting as the work of the organization until its next congress in Paris in 1922."
