

RUSSIANS CHECKED AT BERESINA RIVER

Poles, However, Are Forced to Evacuate Two Towns, Warsaw Admits

KRASSIN GOING TO MOSCOW

By the Associated Press
Paris, July 1.—Attempts by Russian Bolshevik forces to cross the Beresina river between Bobruisk and Borisov have been repelled with heavy loss, according to an official Polish statement issued today and received here by wireless.

The statement admits the retirement of the Poles from Moir and Kalenkovits, and says the Poles in counter-attacking the Bolshevik captured prisoners and machine guns in this region.

In the neighborhood of Szepletowka the enemy has occupied territory evacuated by Polish troops, the statement says.

London, July 1.—While anti-soviet newspapers here are convinced that the mission of Leonid Krassin, Russian minister for trade and commerce, has failed, and that negotiations probably have been ended, the new Bolshevik press is equally positive Mr. Krassin is going to Moscow today merely to confer with his government.

He will explain the present position of the negotiations, which, according to these journals, are proceeding quite satisfactorily.

Zurich, July 1.—(By A. P.)—An intercepted wireless from George Chicherin, soviet foreign minister at Moscow, to Leonid Krassin, minister of trade, deplores the fact that the extremely imperfect communications between Moscow and London make satisfactory negotiations impossible. Chicherin consequently says he must postpone any decisive statement with regard to the indebtedness of Russia to Great Britain until he receives an answer to some questions he intends to submit to the British.

GERMANY WANTS BIG ARMY

Fehrenbach Will Demand Return of Occupied Territory

Paris, July 1.—(By A. P.)—Konstantin Fehrenbach, German chancellor, will insist at the Spa conference to be held next week upon the maintenance of a German army of 200,000 men, restitution of territories now occupied by allied troops and deduction of the cost of allied occupation from the amount of reparations due, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Petit Parisien. It is said he will oppose French and Polish claims to coal mines in upper Silesia and will urge an international loan.

The conference of ambassadors, it is asserted by the Matin, has agreed upon a formal refusal of Germany's demand that German troops be permitted to remain longer in the neutral zone east of the Rhine.

BRITISH LABORITE ELECTED

Fills Vacancy in Commons Caused by Illness of Party Whip

London, July 1.—(By A. P.)—Labor won a victory in the bye-election held recently in the Nelson and Colne constituency, Robinson Graham, candidate of that party, being elected by 14,134 votes. F. N. Wainwright, coalition Unionist, was second, having 8,777 votes, and W. R. Rea, Independent Liberal, was third with 5,805.

The election was held to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Captain Albert Smith, the Labor party whip, who was forced to relinquish his seat in the House of Commons because of illness.

Farmhands Get $150 Yearly in Spain

Avila, Spain, July 1.—The wage demands of agricultural laborers at the annual hiring fair yesterday reached an extraordinary height or Spain. Some of the laborers succeeded in securing contracts at 150 pesetas ($150) yearly, while others obtained 120, with the addition of thirty bushels of wheat. This compares with the former wages of ninety pesetas and eighteen bushels of wheat annually.

Seen in the Chestnut St. Shops

The newest way of trimming a summer frock, the most interesting of the new sports togs, or the latest in summer rugs for the porch! Would you know where to find them? Why, at the Chestnut Street Shops, of course.

Deborah Baan

WHAT kind of vacation are you planning for the glorious Fourth? It's a safe bet that some kind of sport will figure in it. Are you planning to play the best golf that you have played this season? Or have you made up your mind to make a real score in tennis? Perhaps baseball is your long suit. Whatever may be the game in which you shine your brightest, you know that the kind of golf club and ball or the kind of tennis racquet and ball or the kind of baseball and bat you use are going to make a vast difference when it comes to "holes" or "games" or "home runs." That is why I'm advising you to buy your athletic goods at the store of A. G. Spalding & Bros., 1210 Chestnut Street. You will find there the newest and best of things in this line.

THIS summer footwear you are looking for, you say. A pair of one-eyelet ties for wear with dainty summer frocks? Well, I saw just the thing you want at the second-floor shop of Del Mar & Co., 1211 Chestnut street. You may have either white canvas or white kid, and they are extremely smart looking—and so reasonable in price. Their white kid pumps, too, are very graceful—just the thing for summer dances. For wear with linen suits and dresses white oxfords have lost none of their popularity. Very trim looking are the Del Mar oxfords and quite sturdy, too. Black patent leather pumps are very much in favor for wear with darker dresses, and I saw some at the Del Mar Shop with most attractive buckles.

A SUITCASE fitted with all those little things that one is certain to leave behind when starting on a week-end trip is a very useful article to own. It saves one's time and temper on warm summer days. You may have an inexpensive case of a very fine quality leather with French ivory fittings (I saw a very good-looking one at the store of Bailev, Banks & Biddle Co.) or you may have a suitcase of grain seal with gold fittings. Between these two there are many other traveling bags and suitcases at Bailev's in various sizes, from the smallest over-night bag to the suitcase which holds quite enough for even the gayest of week-end house parties. For summer birthdays a gift of this kind is most timely and useful.

QUITE unlike that plebeian fabric which we associate with the housewife's apron are the imported gingham which I saw made up into the daintiest of summer frocks at the Blum Store, 1310 Chestnut Street. One of cool-looking green-and-white checked gingham had its waist made in over-blow effect. A black-and-white frock had collar and cuffs of sheer white organdie. Bouffant buttonholes gave it a well-tailored air. A lavender-checked gingham had a simple waist, and its vest was of white organdie. Most refreshingly cool in appearance are the dotted organdies. A youthful-looking little affair of blue and white showed touches of white organdie in its trimming and a blue-and-red one had a white organdie collar and vest.

SI SMENTISCE LA CADUTA DI VALLONA

La Citta' Albanese e' Tuttoro Occupata Dalle Valorose Truppe Italiane

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 341, authorized by the act of October 3, 1917, on file at the Postoffice at Philadelphia, Pa.

A. S. BURLERON,
Postmaster General.

Roma, 1 luglio.—L'Agenzia Stefani ha diramato un comunicato con il quale smentisce tutte le notizie poste in giro relativamente alla cattura della citta' di Vallona, che un dispaccio da Belgrado annunciava fosse stata occupata dagli insorti albanesi i quali, si diceva, avevano catturato anche la guarnigione italiana.

La stessa Agenzia annuncia che il Barone Allotti e' stato inviato a Vallona con le funzioni di plenipotenziario.

London, 1 luglio.—I rapporti secondo quelli la citta' di Vallona sarebbe stata catturata agli italiani dagli insorti albanesi, non sono stati confermati dagli ultimi telegrammi giunti da l'Italia.

Un dispaccio da Milano al London Times, in data di ieri, annuncia un messaggio da Vallona riportante che un emissario di Giolitti e' colà giunto per prendere cura dell'amministrazione civile ed ha già intervistato albanesi. Si asserisce che questi ultimi hanno riconosciuto l'occupazione militare della citta' da parte dell'Italia.

Roma, 30 giugno.—Ha avuto luogo un importante Consiglio dei Ministri sotto la presidenza dell'on. Giolitti. La riunione e' durata oltre quattro ore.

E' stata discussa la grave situazione interna del paese e sono stati deliberati provvedimenti per decisamente ristabilire la calma e qualsiasi costo. Dopo la riunione e' stato diramato un telegramma circolare a tutti i Prefetti del Regno. Sembra che il Consiglio dei Ministri non si e' mostrato restio a proclamare lo stato d'assedio in quelle regioni dove i disordini hanno assunto un carattere piu' allarmante.

Un comunicato dell'Agenzia Stefani annuncia che la calma scendeva rapidamente in tutte le citta' ove si sono avuti a deplorare i gravi disordini dei giorni scorsi. Le truppe ovunque hanno dato prova di fedelta' e di alto spirito di abnegazione. L'ammutinamento del battaglione di bersaglieri ad Ancona resta un fatto isolato, dovuto a condizioni locali.

FRENCH TO OBSERVE JULY 4

Troops to Parade and Parisians to Decorate Homes

Paris, July 1.—(By A. P.)—Newspapers of Paris today called the attention of the people to the fact that Sunday is American Independence Day. The Matin declares the French Government will do its utmost to secure proper recognition of the occasion, the exercises including a parade of troops before the statue of Washington. The newspaper asks Parisians to decorate their homes with flags on July 4.
