COLLEGE NET MEET COMPLETE SUCCESS

Lawn Tennis Meeting Conducted Smoothly by Dr. P. B. Hawk-Finals in Singles Today Between Representatives of Harvard and Yale

By SPICK HALL

THE intercollegiate lawn tennis tournament which came to a close this afternoon with the finals singles match between D. P. Robinson, Jr., Harvard, and L. Maxwell Banks, Yale, has been and L. Ma and L. Maxwell Banks, Yale, has been one of the most successful ever conducted. This was the first time that the tournament had been held directly under the auspicees of the United States Association, although the intercollegiate body had previously been associated with the national organization.

Dr. P. B. Hawk was appointed official referee and he gave up the entire for their fine work, particularly in viory.

Dr. P. B. Hawk was appointed offi-cial referee and he gave up the entire week to see that the tournament was run off properly, and it was. In all of the important matches, regardless of the round, umpires and linesmen were used. Among those who sat in the umpires were Al Hoskins, Julian S. Myrick. president of the national association; Carl Fischer. Percy Osborne. Paul Gibbons, Ehret Howell, Marshall Van-neman, Jr. and T. H. Martin. The tournament this year drew a

The tournament this year drew a wider field of entries than usual. Besides the college of the east and middle west, the University of California sent Edmond Levy, Wallace J. Bates, Tevis Martin and James Rothchild. The University of Texas was represented by McNeil Drumwright and Granger. Martin and James Rothchild. The University of Texas was represented severe, was in fine working order, and this gave his partner many opportunities to make kills after the first return; many of them were weak because of the excellence of Drumwright's delivery. permission was given to Wallace Bates to play in the tournament. Bates is a freshman and the new regulations gov-erning the intercollegiate lawn tennis association specifically state that fresh-men shall not compete. However, Bates was given permission on the ground that when he left California it was not known that this rule was in

As it turned out no harm was done. As it turned out no narm was done, because Bates was eliminated in the singles by L. M. Bates, Yale, and Bates and Levy were beaten in the doubles by Robinson and de Turenne, the Har-

No one objected to Bates competing, but many did object to Bates's being allowed to enter and other freshmen being barred. The ruling certainly did not seem just, and it kept Carl Fischer, the crack left-hander of the University of Pennsylvania, out; also Andy Morthage 10-8. 6-3. Like the preceding and the score was almost the same. This bracket was won by A. Wilder and A. Wiley, Yale, who trimmed Kirk Reid and W. N. stated. Bates was beaten in both singles and doubles, consequently everything was lovely, but there would have been some very bitter feeling if he had won one of the titles after other freshmen had been forbidden to play. However, it's all over and nobody was hurt.

A. Wilder and L. Wiley won doubles yesterday. They beat the University of Texas team. Charles K. Gran-ger and McNeil Drumwright. It was a ger and McNeil Drumwright. It was a spectacular match, going five sets. The score was 2-6, 7-9, 6-1, 7-5, 6-3. This afternoon the finals in singles will be played between D. P. Robinson, Jr., Harvard, and L.
