

HERE ON BIG SCALE

Seventy Sections Plan Independence Day Celebrations. Plenty of Oratory

EXERCISES AT STATE HOUSE

Philadelphia, birthplace of American independence, will lead the nation Monday in celebrating the 144th anniversary of American freedom.

There will be in all seventy celebrations in various sections of the city and suburbs.

Orators, aided and abetted by concert bands, carefully trained children in traditional tableaux, will vie with parades, ball games, bicycle races and other sports events for favor.

The crowd in abundance will be served and lemonade will gush in the parks in a manner never inspired by the water fountains or even McKeesport oil wells.

Edward A. Nappert, assistant director of the war relief, will have charge of the city-wide celebration, for which Council made appropriations ranging from $25 to $400 and totaling $89,000.

Celebration at State House As in 1776, the largest celebration will center around the independence hall from whose tower news of the action of the republic's fathers rang out.

Thousands of men, women and children from all sections of the city, together with pilgrims from other cities, will gather at the nation's shrine at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning.

Twenty descendants of signers of the Declaration of Independence and members of the French colony will be accorded special seats of honor at the exercises.

Major A. Krause, of 4036 North Twelfth street, a student in the Northeast High School, will read the Declaration of Independence. The Rev. H. Johnson, pastor of the St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, will deliver the invocation.

Major Angelo H. La Guardia, president of the Board of Education, will preside at the exercises as the principal speaker, notified Mayor Moore today that he will not be able to attend, due to the illness of his wife.

Mayor Moore will participate in the celebration arranged by the Hunting Park Safe and Sound Fourth Association, to be held in Hunting Park at York road and Wingochock street.

The Mayor will make an address at 2:30 o'clock in connection with the exercises at the State House. The Hunting Park program will begin with a street parade, forming at Erie avenue and York road.

William T. Seagle, president of the celebration committee, will preside at the opening exercises at the park. The Rev. J. Kinker, pastor of the Erie Avenue Methodist Church, Miss Martha Rampf, of the Alexander K. McClure School, will read the Declaration of Independence.

DROWNING VICTIMS' FUNERAL TODAY

Children of the Cynwyd Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will attend the services for Althea Elizabeth and Walter E. Searl, of 521 Bryn Mawr avenue, Cynwyd, who were drowned in Oceanview creek, near Washington, on Wednesday while on a motor trip with their parents

POSTOFFICE HOLIDAY HOURS

No Mail Delivery Monday, Except of Perishable Goods Independence Day will be observed at the Philadelphia postoffice on Monday.

All substations will be open for the sale of stamps, transaction of money order and registry business, etc., until 11 a. m.

No deliveries of mail will be made by carriers on that day. One delivery, however, of perishable parcel-post matter will be made in the afternoon.

The inquiry, registry and general delivery sections (central office) will be open for the transaction of business until 11 a. m. The stamp window will open from 7 a. m. until 12 o'clock midnight, after which time stamp supply can be purchased at window No. 15.

The money order section (central office) will be closed all day, as well as all postal savings depositories.

FOURTH AT LANGHORNE

The Bucks County Country Club at Langhorne is making unusual arrangements for their Independence Day celebration Monday.

The morning will be devoted to the usual golf and tennis tournaments. At 2 o'clock there will be a flag raising, followed by a parade.

William T. Seagle, president of the celebration committee, will preside at the opening exercises at the park. The Rev. J. Kinker, pastor of the Erie Avenue Methodist Church, Miss Martha Rampf, of the Alexander K. McClure School, will read the Declaration of Independence.

Another main celebration will be held at the Logan Playgrounds, York road and Loudon street, to be preceded by a parade in which hundreds of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and 1000 school children will march.

The program will open at 10:15 o'clock with an invocation by the Rev. Francis J. Storer, of the Logan Baptist Church and chairman of the Logan Boy Scouts, A. E. P. Logan Boy Scouts will give their salute to the flag, and Mr. Storer will read the Declaration of Independence.

After the afternoon there will be a baseball game and band concert. At night there will be a band concert and fireworks display at the Logan Playgrounds, York road and Loudon street, to be preceded by a parade in which hundreds of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and 1000 school children will march.

The parade will start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon from the Thomas Holme Library, Frankford avenue and Harrel street, and will proceed to Pennypack Park.

Members of the G. A. R., American Legion, school children in costume, fraternal, patriotic and civic societies, Holmesburg will be in line. M. G. Ayres will be marshal of the parade.

Legion Post to Get Praise Following a review of the parade at Pennypack Park, George A. Morrison will present to the Charles P. McKeeney Post, No. 178, American Legion, a check of $2000 donated by the people of Holmesburg toward the post's building fund.

JUL 4 EXERCISES IN SOUTH JERSEY

Shipyards Will Be Closed Monday—National Park Arranges Novel Events

OTHER TOWNS CELEBRATE

There will be many Independence Day celebrations in South Jersey towns on Monday. All of the shipyards and manufacturing plants will be closed and many towns will hold patriotic exercises.

Belmont Fire Co. of National Park will have a corner stone laying at their new $10,000 building, pennant raising and parade starting at 12:30 o'clock. The newly organized fire company, school children and residents will participate in the parade, headed by the Camden Band.

The National Park A. A. will conduct athletic events and there may be a special three-cornered running race between Justice of the Peace Jacob Bentz, former Councilman Sydney A. Martin and Charles Chisom to decide who is the borough speedster.

Highland Park, a suburb of Gloucester City, will have an all day and evening celebration. Nearly every man, woman and child in the town will take part. The program will open with a flag raising at 10 o'clock.

Brooklyn and Fairview will also have community celebrations. The Brooklyn Fire Co. will have its annual field-day events. They will be in charge of the fire association of the heights. It will be a community celebration and the various events will start at 1:30.

Special Policewoman Will Be Put on Guard in Fairmount Park A woman social worker with police powers will be stationed at Strawberry Mansion, to watch the vicinity in an effort to keep from that part of the Park young girls at late hours.

Alleged Cloth Thieves Lose Race With Police in Taxi Two men were held in $800 bail each for furthering the suspicion of larceny by Magistrate Dougherty today as the result of an early morning telephone call to the Fifteenth street and Snyder avenue station, and a race up the stairs at 1410 Chestnut street.
