JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of Parties and Various Plans for the Week-End Holidays-She Sees a Pretty Costume on Chestnut Street

EVERY ONE is preparing to leave before his return, the latter part of Sep.

L town today if, to be explicit, every one did not leave town yesterday, because you see tomorrow will be the

And, let me put you on, it will be the same next year, too, for the Fourth will come on a Monday then, so there will be Saturday, Sunday and Monday once more!

mONIGHT there will be the dance

I which Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Coxe. of Malvern, will give at their place. Willisbrooke Farm, for their daughter, Jane Gordon Coxe. Jane is be a debutante of next season, and this will be her first out party, as it were. She is a very attractive girl and has not been fed up with a lot of and has not been fairs because she has gone to boarding school for several pre-debutante affairs because she has gone to boarding school for several have closed their house on De Lancey place and have gone to Jenkintown to spend a couple of months.

Easter festivities at home. She is a sister of Eckley B. Coxe, 3d. who married Mary Owens, of Savan-mah, Ga., last year. Jane is bound to have a very good time this winter, to have a very good time tive, she is and being extremely attractive, she has likely to be much entertained. She has so many uncles and aunts and cousins to give parties for her and there is to be big ball in her honor the last day of ron and family will pass July and Au-December, at least I think that is the date scheduled. Mr. Charles E. Weyman announces the

By the way. I heard some people the other day wondering how they could get other day wondering now they could get to Willisbrooke Farm by train, and perhaps this information would help them: The Coxes will have motors meet the 8:15 train from Broad Street Station at Paoli, so there will be no prob-lem for the "trainites" after all.

T HAVE heard of any number of house HAVE heard of any number of house parties planned for this week-end. The Harrison K. Caner, Jrs., will have Mrs. Caner's cousins. Margaretta and Elizabeth Jeannes, with them at their Cape May cottage, and William Caner and William Baird, Jr., brothers, of Mr. and Mrs. Caner. The Francis B. Reeveses have invited a number of young people to their home a number of young people to their home at Buck Hill Falls, which, you know, is near the Water Gap. Jo Reeves's is near the Water Gap. Jo Reeves's week engagement to Henry Walton, Jr., was bec. announced just a few weeks ago.

WAS so glad yesterday to hear that Isabella Wanamaker came through her operation for appendicitis safely and is now well on the way to recovery. e was operated on last Monday, and, though such operations are usually successful, one always feels a certain anxiety until they are well over-that is, several days later. Isabella is very sweet looking. I think. She has fair curly hair and blue eyes, and has loads of friends. I have always heard the very nicest things said of her. She is a great horsewoman and owns quite is a great horsewoman, and owns quite a number of prize-winning steeds.

door with the maid and engage in a long conversation with sa'! postman, postman. seems to love Peter as much as Peter loves him. Well, Peter went walking with mother the other day. And as they strolled along they spied coming in their direction a certain well-known doctor, who is still in the army and, therefore, still wears his uniform. He was particularly shining and bright with brass buttons and bars and spurs and everything, and looked the proud young soldler every inch. Well, Peter went walking with young soldier every inch. Peter saw the uniform, and his eyes danced with joy. "Oh, mummy!" said he, in a large voice, easily heard by said soldier, "isn't he a cute little postman?" NANCY WYNNE. little

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Latta and her daughter, Mrs. Reese, have taken a house in Devon for the summer. cause you are the fourth and it will price and Mrs. Harry E. Schock, of 2048 price at each will go in a few days to Ocean City, where they will spend the

Mr. and Mrs. Aden Roberts Clawson, whose marriage took place on Wednes-Cay evening, are touring Lake George and the Adirondacks. They will go later to Seneca Lake, N. Y., where they will spend the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Clawson will be remembered as Miss Ruth Orden Martin, daughter of Mrs. Howard B. Martin. and Mr. and Mrs. Barton Hoopes, 3d, are as it the guests of Mrs. Hoopea's parents. Mr. girl and Mrs. Robert G. Gilfillan, at their ot of cottage at Ocean City.

Mrs. Clara V. Taylor, of Lansdowne, announces the engagement of her daugh-ter, Miss Helen Estello Taylor, and Mr. J. Norman Stephens, of Wallingford, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers Cart-wright, of Chestnut Hill, have opened their cottage at Bay Head, where they will spend the remainder of the summer Mr. and Mrs. William Thomson Sherengagement of his daughter, Miss Helen Francis Weyman, to Mr. Norman Ten-nent Busby, son of Mr. and Mre. Augus-tus Crane Buzby, of 4528 Spruce street. Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Lowthrop, of Trenton, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Low-throp, to Mr. William Henry Brooks, Jr., son of Mr., and Mrs. William Henry Brooks of Crossways St Davids

Brooks, of Crossways, St. Davids. Mrs. Hervey Leian Bates, of 134 Manheim street, Germantown, will give a birthday party in honor of her son, Master John Cavender, on Tuesday next. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Collins, of 1553 South Gunther street, are spending the week-end at the home of Mrs. Collins's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Brennan, of Olney.

Mr. and Mrs. Percival Roberts, Jr., of Penshurst, Narberth, will go next month to Canada, where they will spend several weeks in and about the province of Que-

> ALONG THE MAIN LINE ALONG THE MAIN LINE Miss Adelaide Shiras Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn West Jones, of Wynnewood avenue, Wynnewood, left on Thursday for Haines Falls, N. Y., where she will be the gutst for two weeks at a house party given by Miss Gertrude Blunt, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. A. C. Blunt, of Morristown, N. J. About July 15 Miss Jones will go to Nantucket, Mass., where she will be en-tertained by Miss Dorothy Davis, of Glen tertained by Miss Dorothy Davis, of Glen

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas May Pelree, Jr., Mr. and family, of Ithan, will leave July 13 for Atlantic City to remain there for some time.

ome time. Mrs. Frederick Treat, of Wayne, is en-striaining Mrs. M. J. McLees at her ome for the summer. Mr. Louis Bullinger and Mr. Lyman Ballinger, of Bremerton, Wash., will be

MISS LOIS G. SMITH Of Smithville, N. J., whose engagement to Captain Edmund E. Barratt, of New York, has just been announced several days in Buffalo, will leave rext week with their small daughter. Miss Lillian Hollowis, for Ocean City, where they will spend the remainder of the summer as the guests of Mrs. Hollowis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. DuBois.

Mrs. John Murphy and her daughter, Miss Margaret Murphy, of this city, left on Wednesday to spend the re-mainder of the summer at Mt. Pocono, Miss Pauline Finkel, of 5315 Baltimore avenue, will spend a few days at Atlantic City, visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Johnson and heir family, of 3808 Chestnut street, their have gone to their cottage at Allenhurst, where they will spend the month of July, going later to the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kneass, of the Stoneleigh Court, Forty-fifth and Wal-nut streets, are spending the summer at the Dennis, Atlantic City. Mrs. Harry Turner and her daughter, Miss Ethel Kneass, will leave in a few days for

Ocean City, where they will remain until September Miss Miriam B. Greenewald, of Long Beach, Calif., who is visiting here, will be the guest of Mrs. Rosalind Greene-wald and Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Miller, at their summer home, 111 South Baton Rouge avenue, Atlantic City, and Mrs. I. M. Loner, of 132 South Forty-sixth street.

> SOUTH PHILADELPHIA A pretty wedding took place on Wed-nesday, at 5:30 o'clock, in St. Stephen's Catholic Church, wheir Miss Kathryn Elizabeth Noonan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Noonan, of 4022 Old York road, became the bride of Mr. Joseph F. Murray. The bride was given in mar-ringe by her father and was sitended

The bachelors of the Aquinas Catho-lic Club will spend the holidays at their cottage at Atlantic City. The club in-cludes the following members: Mr. cludes the following members: Mr Arthur F. Johnson, Mr. John Magee, Mr

JULY AND LATE JUNE uptil the completion of their bungalow at Maple Shade, N. J. WEDDINGS RECORDED HISS-HELVESTON

HISS-HELVESTON The marriage of Miss Mabel K. Hel-venton to Mr. Charles A. Hiss, of Baltl-more, took place Tuesday evening at 7 o'colck, at the home of the bride's par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Helves-ton, 931 South Fiftleth street, the Rev. E. W. Rushton officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Elsie Holsington was the maid of honor. Mr. Paul Roberts, of German-town, attended Mr. Hiss as best man. A reception followed the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Royle to Marry Mr. Arthur Malaby-Other Weddings

The marriage of Miss Dorothy A. Royle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judson S. Royle, of 5624 McMahon avenue, to Mr. Arthur L. Malaby, of 75 West Sharpnack street, will take place at the home of the bride at 8 o'clock this eve-ning. Mrs. Russell Rhoads will give matron of honor and Mr. Royle will give Russell and Mr. Royle will give a reception followed the ceremony. BRENNAN-HORN

BRENNAN—HORN Ah interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Helen V. Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Horn, of 1414 West J. Brennan, Jr., of 3650 Old York Road, which took place in the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, Broad street and Sus-quehanna avenue, on Wednesday after-noon, with the Rev. John W. Dimond in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Horn. Mr. John J. Brennan was his brother's best man. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride; Mr. Kelso Clever, of Shippensburg, act-ed as best man and Mr. C. F. Hahn, of this city, was usher. matron of nonor and Mr. Royle will give his daughter in marriage. Mr. Russell Rhoads will act as best man. A recep-tion for the immediate families will fol-low the ceremony. Mr. and Mra. Malaby will be at home in Glenside after in marriage by her father, was stiended by her sister, Miss Margaret Horn. Mr. John J. Brennan was his brother's best man. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's AMAN-BEATTY The wedding of Miss Lillian Beatty. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Beatty, Jr., of Wayne, and Mr. Herbert Aman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Aman, of Wayne, will take place at 5 o'clock this aftermoon in St. Mary's Me-morial Church, Wayne. The Rev. Dr. George W. Anthony will perform the ceremony. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and will be at-tended by Miss Dorothy Lynch as maid of honor. Mr. Harold Downing will act as best man, and the ushers will include reception at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Brennan left for Atlantic City, and upon their return They will be at home at 1414 West Sus-quehanna avenue. The bridegroom nerved two years in the United States army in the world war.

FLEMING-HANNA An interesting wedding was solem-nized in the Nativity B. V. M. Church at 5 o'clock, on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Marie R. Hanna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jenser Heana because the

as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. Charles Beatty and Mr. George Aman. A small reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mra James Hanna, daughter of bride of Mr. James E. Fleming. Miss Helen McElwee attended the bride as Helen McElwee attended the bride as maid of honor and Miss Catharine Trap-ler and Miss May Fleming, a sister of the bridegroom, were the little flower firls Mr. George Fleming acted as best man for his brother and Mr. Henry Foley was the usher. A wedding supper for the bridal party and families took place at the home of the bride's parents at 7 o'clock, and a large reception at s o'clock. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Fleming will live at 2115 East Or-leans street. A wedding of interest, which took place this morning at the St. Columba's place this morning at the St. Columba's Church, at 8 o'clock, was that of Miss Napela Hurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hurley, of 2954 North Jud-son street, and Mr. John Thomas Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Lee, of 409 Clearfield street. Miss Eulalia Hurley, sister of the bride, acted as the maid of honor, while Mr. James Ready acted as the best man. After the cere-mony a breakfast was served after leans street.

SCELSI-BARAGIN

AUSTERMEHL-ZIEGLER

this city, was usher.

father of the bride.

was Miss Elizabeth U. Thring, of 430 Seville street. NORRISTOWN Miss Lydia E. Conrad, daughter of Mrs. Elwood Conrad, of 500 West Main street, was married Wednesday after-noon to Mr. C. Raymond Vandegrift, of Germantown. The marriage was solem-bized in St. John's Episcopal Church. the rector, the Rev. H St. Chir, officiat-ing. The bride was given in marriage were no attendants. Upon their return from an automobile trip haong the At-lantic coast Mr. and Mrs. Vandegrift will be at home at 26 Walnut lane. Was Miss Hizabeth U. Thring, of 430 woke up to see the sky beginning to turn gray in the East. "Hurry!" Hurry!" whispered Judge Owl, and he led them through the dusky dawn to the chicken coop of the farm. They got behind an apple tree so they could watch the chicken coop door, without being noticed by any one who might come. "Sh-h-h-h!" hissed Judge Owl. "I see something coning!" Pergy and Billy couldn't see a thing in the gloom, but after a moment they head of the beat of wings. Then of a sudden they caught a glimpse of a large. dark bird flying about the root of the chicken coop. antic coast Mr. and Mrs. Vande, will be at home at 26 Walnut lane.

Mrs. Austermehl will be at home aft July 10 at 1454 North Thirtleth street.

AUGHINBAUGH-CLEVER

KLOSTERMAN-SIGMUND

The marriage of Miss Helen Louis Sigmund, daughter of the Rev. Frederic

ROXBOROUGH

Pa., and Mr. Einer Field, of 536 East Livezey lane, Roxborough, on Wednes-ry, at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Field and his bride left for a trip through the eastern part of Florida and will be at home in Pensacola.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Custer, of West Marshall street, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary by holding a large reception, Mr. and Mrs. Custer have four children and five grandchildren. Their children are Mr. J. Ralph Custer, Mrs. Frank Shearer Mrs. Alvin C. Kriebal cluded Mr. Vincent Renzulli and Mr. Joseph Coscia. Mr. and Mrs. John Bap-tiste, cousin of the bridegroom, of Brooklyn, were present. A breakfast and small reception fol-lowed for the bridal party and the im-mediate members of the two families, at the home of the bridegroom's parents. children are Mr. J. Ralph Custer, Mrs. Frank Shearer, Mrs. Alvin C. Kriebel, Mrs. M. B. Jefferles, Among the other guests present were the Rev. Wm. A. Leopold, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Shalkop, the Rev. William F. Klein, the Rev. War-ren F. Klein, Dr. Rhinoel Knipe, Mr. and Mrs. James Conard, Mrs. E. M. Egolph, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kneas, Mrs. John After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Soelsi will live in Olney. Mrs. James Conard, Mrs. P. M. Lgoi, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kneas, Mrs. Jo Kneas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Knea Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gerhart, Mr. a Mrs Thomas Bishop, Mr and Mrs. L. Stritzinger and Mrs. Emma Rambo. Kneas

A pretty wedding took place on Wed-nesday morning, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Helen Ziegler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ziegler, of 1454 North Thirtieth street, was married to Mr. Conrad Aus-Mra. M. K. Moyer, of 1221 West Main street, and children have left for Atlantic City where they will spend the sun weeks.

EDUCATIONAL

the blame on me and have me shot by the hunters." "The mean scamp " oried Pergy, "Caw! Caw! Caw! Let me out " screamed Caw-Caw Crow badly scared. "Hoo! Hoo! Here is the real chicken stealer, Hoo! Hoo! Come and get him " hooted Judge Owl, so loudly that he awakened the hunters and brought them out of the house in a hurry. Both dar-ried their guns. Pegg, Billy and Judge Owl crept quietly away through the dusk, and when they were at a safe clistance, they heard the men give a shout.

shout. "Ah, ha. Here is the chicken third. It is that noisy crow!" cried one of the

It is that noisy countries and it wasn't that own at all. We'd "And it wasn't that own at all. We'd have killed the wrong bird if we had shot him." shouted the other, "Let's get the crow out so we clin shoot him," said the first man. "No." said the other. "We will not "No." said the other. "We will not

"No," said the draw out so we can shoot him," said the dirst man. "No," said the other. "We will so shoot him. We will build a care and put him in it. We will keep him in jail all his days as a warning to other crows."

anniversary tomorrow at his ho West Chelten avenue, Germantor Maree was for many years pro

TO MARINE

SALVORS.

WRECKERS.

SHIPOWNERS STR. "D. R. HANNA"

7023 Gross Tons

the floating, righting and de-livery of this steamer, sunk by collision in about 23 fath-

Tenders for the purchase of

For terms of contract and the vessel as she now lies are fuller particulars apply to

of water off Alpena,

Tenders are solicited

Mich., in Lake Huron.

also solicited.

nent in musical organizations in P delphia. He is the last survivor or

THE OUTLAW By DADDY

ADVENTURES

(Peggy and Billy are called to Bird-ind by a report that Judge Owl has turned into an outlaw. They save the judge from hunters who want to shool plage from numers who want to show him for stealing chickens, and he ex-plains that an enemy is making false charges against him. They agree to stay in the woods all night to help eatch the enemy.)

DREAMLAND

Judge Owl's Enemy

NIGHT had failen in the woods almost without being noticed by Peggy and Billy. It was very dark among the bushes where they were hiding with crows." Judge Owl. Judge Owl liked it that way His eves were made for hunting at night.

crows." Peggy was glad they were not going to shoot Caw-Caw Crow, but she felt hs richly deserved to be in jall. Sho didn't have much time to think over the matter, for in some way she fell asleep and the next thing she knew she was in bed at bome. and thimgs were as plain as day to him. "Hoo! Hoo! I'll show you the way through the woods to the place where I'm going to catch my unknown enemy," he hooted softly. He set off ahead of Peggy and Billy and was soon out of (Next week will be told a story of strange adventure in a strange land.) MANAYUNK MANATORS Mr. James Girvin Marce, for many years engaged in business in this sec-tion, will celebrate his nineticth birth-day anniversary tomorrow at his home, 124 West Chelten avenue, Germantown, 124 West Chelten avenue, Germantown,

"Here, here, Judge Owl, come back!" "Here, here, Judge Owl, come back!" cried Billy, after he and Peggy had tried in vain to follow him. in vain to follow him. "Hoo! Hoo! Are you blind after 4 o'clock?" chuckled Judge Owl, much pleased because he mow had the better of Peggy and Billy in the matter of seeing. Usually it was the other way Mr.

Sigmund, daughter of the Rev. Frederick L. Sigmund and Mrs. Sigmund, of 207 East Penn street, Germantown, and Mr. Luther C. Klosterman, of Fort Wash-ington, Pa., will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund, in the presence of the two families and a few intimate friends. The ceremony will be performed by the father of the bride. Judge Owl came back and he gave Peggy and Billy each a cinw to hold, while he fluttered along between them. once famous Virginia minstrels and was a member of the Caroline Richings Announcement is made of the mar-riage of Miss Elsie Steffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Steffin, of Selingsrove Opera Co.

while he nutlered along between them. In this way they finally came to the edge of the woods, and saw the lights of a farmhouse not far away, "Hoo! Hoo! We will wait here until dawn," said Judge Owl, "I do not be-The Sunday schools of Manayunk Roxborough and Wissahlckon will have their usual parade on Monday morning, followed by a day in the woods, in cele-bration of Independence Day. The Rez, F. B. Barnett, who was a chapian in France, will be marshal of the parade of St. Dayld's Episcopal Sunday School dawn." said Judge Owl. "I do not be-lieve my enemy is a night bird, but a day bird who gets up very early in the morning to steal the young chickens. We will catch him when he comes. You children can rest, while I hunt my supper!" Judge Owl silently flow agent. Peggy and Billy must have gone fast asleep, for in what seemed only a minute they worke up to see the behavioring to France, will be marshal of the parage of St. David's Episcopal Sunday School and Mr. H. J. Wylle will be assistant marshal. This school, together with S of St. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher F. Single-ton have returned from their wedding trip and will be at home at 6027 Trin-ity place. West Philadelphia. The bride Timothy's Episcopal and the Roxbe Bantist, will hold its celebrati Baptist was Miss Elizabeth U. Thring, of 430 Seville street. Kitchen's Woods, East Roxborough avenue.

this chicken coop had once been cherr of an old house, and it stil had a chimney sticking up through the roof. As the dark bird flew about the oof, it suddenly went down the chimney "Now, quick, put something over th op of the chimney." hissed Judge Ow. Well catch the chicken stealer."

Billy picked up a piece of board, and ith it in his hand climbed the appie ee. creeping out on a limb until uld get on the roof. Once there the board over the top of the and the dark bird was a Billy then slid down the tree, the chicken coop there came a the Judge Owl chuckled. "It's Caw-Caw

R. Parry-Jones, Lloyds Agent Kirby Bldg., Cleveland, O. Crow. I was sure he was the chicken stealer. That is why he tried to throw noted as the best man. After the dere-mony a breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lee left on a wed-ding trip to the New England coast. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. John P. Hurley. SCELSI-BARAGIN The wedding of Miss Beatrice Barn-gin, daughter of Mr. Philip Baragin, and Mr. Peter Paul Scelsi, of 923 Passyunk avenue, took place at 10 o'clock, on Wedneeday morning. The ceremony was followed by a nuptial mass of which the Rev. Father Reichert, of St. Rita's, was the celebrant. Father Roland and Father Spirella assisted. Mr. Philip Baragin gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Alyce Daults attended the bride as maid of honor, while Miss Margaret Kelly and Miss Agnes Scelsi, sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmalds. Miss Rosalle Calli was flower girl and Master Pascal Scelsi, a nephew of the bridegroom, acted as page. Mr. George SIGEL-CAWLEY

SIGEL—CAWLEY The wedding of Miss Julia K. Cawley, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Eli M. Caw-ley, of 725 Rockland street, Logan, and Mr. Louis P. Sigel, of 1915 Venango street, took place at the Church of the Nativity, Seventeenth and Tioga streets, on Wedmeaday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. followed by a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford for the bridal party and the immediate families. After their return trom a wedding trip to the Thousand Jainnds and Niagara Falls, they will be at home at 1915 Venango streets. Master Pascal Scelsi, a nephew of the bridegroom, acted as page. Mr. George Janns was best man and the ushers in-

MURRAY-NOONAN

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwalder Evans Franklin, of 339 South Fourth street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Kathryn Evans. Mrs. Franklin will be remembered as Miss Kathryn Grover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grover.

August 1.

AMAN-BEATTY

LEE-HURLEY

road, became the bride of arr. Joseph c. Murray. The bride was given in mar-riage by her father and was attended by her sister, Miss Nan Noonan, as maid of honor and Miss Mac Murray, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid. Mr. Murray had as his best man Mr. William J. Finnegan. Mr. James Noonan and Mr. Jack Noonan, brothers of the bride ware unbars. A recontion followed Burberts of Mrs. Johnson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Savin, formerly of Germantown, at their farm near Doylestown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Emory McMichael, of Devon, entertained Miss Olive Gautry, of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Active Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hood are the guest of Mrs. Autonal Park, Vancouver, or Mr. Bright and Miss Bright are now at York Village, York Harbor, Mc. Mrs. Bright and Miss Bright are how at York Village, York Harbor, Mc. Mrs. Elevent and Mrs. Cerrence as short time ago.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Hardwick, who is occupying the house at 6320 Burbridge street for the summer, is pending a few days at the Bellville, O. Mrs. E. H. West, Miss Dorothy West Miles Gatherine Lea, of Devon, and Mrs. Et H. West, Miss Dorothy West Miles Catherine Lea, of Devon, and Mrs. Partha West, of 6212 Clear-with Miss Catherine Lea, of Devon, and Mrs. Autonal Mrs. Autor Mrs. Burbridge street, will spend the Fourth of July holidays in Ocean City.
Miss Catherine Lea, of Devon, and Mrs. Parcy K. Hudson and her family.

Miss Catheles M. Lea, of Devon, and Mrs. Percy K. Hudson and her family, of New York, left yesterday for Bamf, 'anadian Rockles, to remain until the first of September, Mrs. Hudson and Miss Lea are half-sisters, Cauchters of Mr. Charles M. Lea, of Westhorpe Farm, Devon.

and Mrs. Thomas Ridgway, of 1525 Pine street, have gone with their family to Bar Harbor, where they will remain until September.

Mr. and Mra. William Townsend Wright, of St. Davids, are spending the summer at Narragansett Pier. R. I. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Coxe Wright, are spend-ing the summer at Northeast Harbor, Ma.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kearsley Mitchell, Jr., ft on Monday for Dark Harbor, Me., remain there for the summer. lof Mrs. W. W. Atterbury, of Boudinot Furm, Radnor, is spending several days at her cottage in Cape May.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clayton, Miss Bar-bara Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Earle, 3d, of Haverford, left on Thurs-day by motor for Mr. Clayton's camp in the Adirondacias. Mr. Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Earle will remain over the Fourth, returning to the camp about August 1, where they will stay until the middle of September. ral months. eral weeks.

Colonel and Mrs. Rollin H. Wilbur.

Miss Irena Hunter and Mr. William Atlantic City, where they have been Etaying for some time. Colonel and Mr.

Colonel and Mrs. Elliott and Miss M. -Eilzabeth Elliott are among the Phila-delphians who will spend the summer in Alaska.

Maska.
Mrz. George W. Childs has closed her spartment at the Bellevue-Stratford and gone to Spring Lake for the summer.
Colonel and Mrs. John S. Muette and Close their summer to be a start to be return to be home until the summer.

Colonel and Mrs. John S. Muckle will close their town house and leave the home near Quebce, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Muckle will late in the fall. WEST PHILADELPHIA home near Quebic, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hirst, of Wil-tonhurst, Haverford, left yesterday for a motor trip through the New England street, has left Glassboro, N. J., where street, has left Glassboro, N. J., where the has been visiting, to go to New York and Connecticut, where she will spend Haven, on Lake Champlain, and re-turning home about the middle of Sep-tember, Mr. Arthur C. Hirst is taking a motor trip across the continent to San Francisco. He will also visit Honolulu

Mrs. Robert Hamilton, of Oak Lane, entertained informally at luncheon at the Old York Road Country Club on Tuesday. Covers were laid for nine.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Lucey, of 1621 Ruscomb street, Logan, are receiv-ing congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Adelene Cecilia Lucey Mrs. Lucey was Miss Anne Elizabeth Harri-son, of this city. Mrs. Walter B. Lake, of 1535 Eric avenue entertained at a dance on Weil-

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

GERMANTOWN Miss Margaret I. Joyce and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, of East Washing-ton lane, are spending some time as the guests of Mrs. Johnson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Savin, forwards of Germanican at their form Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Griffin, of 2039 West Tioga street, are occupying their summer home in Atlantic City.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Broadfield, of 3131 Frankford avenue, will spend the Fourth of July holidays at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander and Mrs. Dauphince are spending the sum-mer at Ocean City, NORTH PHILADELPHIA The members of the Philadelphia branch of the alumma association of Cedar Crest College for Women held their June meeting in Allentown. Seven new members were admitted, making the membership sixty-three. Mrs. Walter Scott is president; Mrs. George H. McKay, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Howard Heckler, recording secretary, and Mrs. Jacob Geiger, treasurer. A mildsummer mathering will be held in August, at the home of Mrs. B. F. Hartzell, in Chalfonte, Pa. mer at Ocean City. The sorority of which Mrs. J. Broad-field, of 3131 Frankford avenue, is a member will be entertained this after-noon at the home of Mrs. D. Strumpf, of Oak Lane. Those present will be Miss Louise Hall, Miss Edma Scholey, Miss Bess Street, Miss Bess Smith, Mrs. Doro-thy Dingee, Mrs. Nan Hyndman and Mrs. Bess Tompkinson.

Chalfonte, Pa. Miss Helen Pechin, of North Broad street, entertained the following at cards on Thursday evening at her home. Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Schurch, Mr. and Mrs. William McCutchton, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Coffin, Miss Alma Steinhoff, Mr. William Weaver and Mr. Walter Valen-tino.

Miss Helen Matthews, of Magee street, is entertaining Miss Gladys Dangler, of Reading, as her guest for several weeks, after which Miss Dangler will leave for Chelsen to spend the re-mainder of the summer with her uncle Mr. Herbert Schwab, of the Dauphin Apartments, Broad and Dauphin streets, has sailed for Europe, to be gone for Mrs. Oscar D. Loeb, of the Hotel Ma-jestic, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gold-smith, at White Plains, N. Y. for sevand aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gallagher, at their cottage.

Miss Sara J. Schofield and Mrs. Mary Barber, of Providence, R. I., have re-turned home from a visit to their cousin, Miss Mary Whittaker, of Vankirk street, Miss Natalie Lenk, of Birmingham Ala., is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Max Aaron, of 1933 North Broad street.

Announcement is made of the mar-riage of Miss Rose Slaven, of 4756 North Ninth street, to Mr. Alexis Rosen, of 4856 North Broad street, on Thursday evening, July 1, in this city.

1613 Poplar street, will spend the sum-mer at the Chandler Whitehall Hall, Ocean City. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd lrving, of Chester, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Simpson, of Merchantville, N. J., announce the en-gagement of their daughter, Miss Caro-line Simpson, and Mr. Carl Schweizer, Jr., of Frankford.

OLNEY

Michael J. McNamara, of 234 West Aps ley street, to Mr. Frank Ryder, o Waterville, N. Y., was solemnized in th Church of St. Francis d' Assisi, Logar and Greene streets, at 3 o'clock on Wed neaday morning. The Rev. Father Mc Donnell was the celebrant of the nupital mass which followed the ceremony. Mr McNamara gave his daughter in mar-riage. Miss Margaret McNamara was bridesmaid for her sister and anothe small sister, Miss Helen McNamara was the flower girl. Mr. George Ryde-acted ag best man for his brother and the ushers were two brothers of the daughter, Miss Helen McCann, of 2129 South Thirteenth street, will spend the holidays in Ventnor, Miss Miriam Stein, of 617 West Passyunk avenue, will visit her parents in Atlantic City over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Weil and her daughter, Miss Rosiyn Weil, of 2520 South Eighteenth street, will leave to-morrow aftermoon for Atlantic City, where they will remain for the rest of the summer.

TIOGA Mr. and Mrs. William Brinkworth, of for the Delaware Water Gap, where they will remain several days. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chilment of the several days. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chilment of the several days. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chilment of the several days. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chilment of the several days.

HANNA-WILLIAMS

A quiet wedding took place at 6 o'cloc Wednesday evening, when Miss Madeim Williams, of 643 North Fifty-sixth atrees became the bride of Mr. Floyd Hann of Osborne, Kan., the Rev. Doctor Pohl of Osborne, Kan, the Rev. Doctor Pohl-man, of Temple Lutheran Church, Fifty-second and Race streets, officiating. A reception followed immediately after the ceremony for the members of the bride's and bridgroom's immediate families. Miss Edith Williams, sister of the bride, attended her as maid of honor, while a brother. Mr. John Williams, acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna will leave on Monday for Osborne, Kansas, where they will make their home.

will make their home.

FULLER-CLIFT

The wedding of Miss Beatrice Clift of $27 North Fortleth Street, and Mr Lloyd Fuller, of 2022 Atlantic street took place at St. Mathias's Church Nineteenth and Wallace streets, or

Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Dorffing officiating. A reception followed immediately after the cera mony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Joseph B. Cliff. Miss Dorothy Clift, an aunt of the bride, at invide her or madded Unk Lane. Those present will be Miss Louise Hall, Miss Edna Scholey, Miss Bess Street, Miss Bess Smith, Mrs. Doro-thy Dingee, Mrs. Nan Hyndman and Mrs. Bess Tompkinson. LAWNDALE Mrs. Coulter, of Chicago, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. S. Esher, of 8112 Gilham street. Mrs. A. Stahl and Mrs. F. Hartwig are spending a few weeks in Wildwood, N. J.

BINGHAM-BIRCH

BINGHAM—BIRCH A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 2413 North Fifth street, when Miss Edna M. Birch be-came the bride of Mr. J. Harry Bing-ham, of 2516 Gray's Ferry avenue. The bride was attended by her sister. Mrs. Harry Krause, of Collingswood, N. J. The bridegroom's brother, Mr. Raymond Bingham, was best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard B. Wells, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, of East Lansdowne, Pa. After the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Bingham will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Y. Birch

Iced-it's as reviving as an ocean breeze and as full-flavored as hot. Either way, its fragrance entices, and its clear amber delights.

