MISS DOROTHY NORRIS

Rumanian

in China and Japan and arrived yes-terday at their villa, the Lodge, on the

Miss Norris made her debut in Philadelphia several seasons ago, and since that time has been a society favorite in that city and New York.

Mr. Alevra, who is twenty-years old, is now in Vladivostok, beria, on a diplomatic mission for

CLEAN LINEN DEMAND

Strike of Crews Threatened Unless It Is Supplied With

Other Things Wanted

more than 40,000 members, have threat shipping board and the American As

The contract was to go into effect May overtime, clean linen and passes,

The longshoremen and boss stevedores

again endeavored to settle their differ-ences today in a meeting in the Bourse

It was learned that the stevedores who handle deep-sea traffic are willing to return to work on the old scale of eighty cents an hour, with $1.20 overtime, provided the constwise stevedores are granted their demands. These men insist that the government wage scale be paid. This is sixty-five cents an hour, with $1 for overtime. This is the

A meeting of the three organizations was held in New York today, but no agreement was reached. The steamship granting the union passes for their officials, but refused the other two re-

owners were willing to compromise point under discussion today.

day, July 9

of Steamship Owners by Fri-

Union, consisting of

MENACING SHIPPING

Cliffs, for the summer.

Philadelphia, Pa.

Turner for Concrete In Philadelphia and surcounding territory the Turner organization has built for the following wellcnown firms: oseph Campbell Co. Friswold Worsted Co. John T. Lewis & Bros. Co. Jitchell-Bissell Co. Wall Rope Works H. O. Wilbur & Sons Wyoming Shovel Works

TURNER Construction Co

Deaths of a Day

DR. PETER HENRY LANE Specialist in Nervous and Mental

Diseases Was 45 Years Old Following a week's illness, Dr. Peter Henry Lane, of Chestnut Hill, died early today at his home, 136 Bethlehem pike. He was forty-five years old. Death was due to pneumonia.

Doctor Lane was a specialist in nervous and mental diseases. He was also founder of the Kenwood Sanitarium in Chestnut Hill and a member of the Philadelphia County Medical So-

After graduating from Dartmouth College, he entered the Harvard Medi-cal School, where he took a three-year course. Later he graduated from the Medico-Chirurgical College here. He is survived by his widow.

THE REV. E. J. ALLEN, C. M.

Assistant at St. Vincent's Church Victim of Apoplexy

The Rev. Edward J. Allen, C. M., to end, for several blocks. Passengers forty-six years old, assistant at St. on Market street surface cars were vincent's Church, Price and Lena streets, Germantown, died of apoplexy last night in St. Joseph's Hospital. He last night in St. Joseph's Hospital. He three years and had been ordained in 1910. Previously he had been at Nisagara University and St. John's Church, Brooklyn, N. Y. He was born in Kensington, and is survived by two brothers and three sisters.

Weakening of floors, due to the excess weight made when the wool and cotton bales soaked up the water. The stock of the Penn Auction House, 20 North Fourth street, valued at $100,000, was damaged by water. It was uninsured. He had been at St. Vincent's for

Prof. Thomas D. Goodell

New Haven, Conn., July 7.—(By A.)—Professor Thomas Dwight Goodell, the faculty of Yale University, and holding the chair of Lampson professor of Greek language and literature, died

Mrs. W. A. Chenowith

Word was received in this city yes terday of the death of Mrs. W. A. Chenowith, of the Longacre, 1431 Walnut street, which occurred in Asheville, N. C., June 29. Mrs. Chenowith came to Philadelphia from Birmingham, Ala, with her husband and daughter a few with her husband and daughter a tew years ago, and resided for a time in Chestnut Hill, where she was a mem-ber of the Trinity Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Chenowith is survived by her usband, two sons, W. A. Chenowith, ..., and Beach M., of Birmingham, and daughter, Margaret, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Chenowith was buried in to duty there. The jury rendered a columbus, Ga., her home before moving verdict of accidental drowning.

Elkton Marriage Licenses Elkton, Md., July 7.—The follow-ing marriage licenses were issued here ing marriage licenses were issued here today: Clarence Crothers and Rose Rooney, Frederick Tate and Myrtle Roray, Michael J. Lennon and Eleanor M. Berchey, all of Philadelphia; William A. March and Helen J. Strayer, Paoli; Russell C. Parry and Mae I. Danner, Walnutport; Andrew J. Jackson Conden and Berthe Philips Wil son, Camden, and Bertha Phillips, Wil-mington; Paul L. Horting and Florence M. Thompson, Reading; William H. Willouer, and Sarah J. Cooper, Reading; Sullivan Genmire, Morristown, and Stella Miller, Phoenixville; Earl Shiler and Julia Pons, Woodbury, and John J. Mitchell and Bernardine A. Sherman, Auburn, N. Y.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

TODAY MARRIAGE LICENSES

Willer, Johnston, 1115, Lagre, and Andrea Martin, and State, 231, 134, and Martin, and Martin,

THURT, BIG DAMAGE IN WAREHOUSE FIRE

Lieut. John Lambert Seriously Cut in Fall at Blaze, Fourth and Commerce Streets

DENSE SMOKE HINDERS MEN

One fireman was badly injured and damage estimated at more than $100,-000 resulted from a three-alarm fire at 22-24 North Fourth street early

The blaze occurred in the cotton wool and waste warehouse of the Josiah Linton Co., at the southwest corner of Fourth and Commerce streets. A pedestrian discovered it and sounded the alarm at 4 o'clock

When the firemen arrived they found the interior of the six-story structure a mass of flames. Water made slight impression on the burning cotton and bale after bale was tossed into the street to be torn apart and extinguished. John Lambert, lieutenant of Engine Co. No. 4. Sixteenth and Sansom streets, was badly cut about the arm's when he fell through a window. Two arteries were cut and his condition is critical, due to loss of blood. He is in the Jefferson Hospital. Work of the firemen was hindered by the dense clouds of smoke. Smoke hel-mets were of little avail, and for sev-eral hours the men braved death fighting the fire and saving comrades, many of whom were overcome, and after being resuscitated nearby, returned to work.

The pile of woolen and cotton bales was up above the second floor of the was up above the second floor of the building on the Commerce street side and a special detail of firemen was stationed there to prevent their ignition.

Trolley traffic on Fourth and Arch streets was virtually at a standstill for several hours this morning and caused inconvenience to thousands of early-morning workers.

norning workers. No cars were operated on Fourth street below Arch from 4:30 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock. It was necessary to turn the Fourth street cars back at Arch street. Owing to the proximity of the fire to the Arch street line the cars were brought to a standstill, end to end, for several blocks. Passengers streets, Germantown, died of apoplexy last night in St. Joseph's Hospital. He had been ill for a year and had been taken to the hospital yesterday for treatment.

Fifth street.

A member of the Linton firm places the damage at about $175,000. This estimate, he said, did not include damage to the building caused by water or weakening of floors, due to the

CENSURES PARK OFFICIALS

Coroner Criticizes Negligence Which

Led to Child's Drowning Officials in chargeof Fairmount Park administration were censured for neg-ligence by Coroner Knight today as the result of an inquest in the drowning of Thomas Ashton, eight years old,

Park Guard James testified that children are permited to swim in the lake and that a guard is assigned to watch them, but that on the day of the drowning the customary guard had a day off and no relief man was assigned. Pedestrians discovered the body of the child and summoned James to the scene. Coroner Knight told James to convey to those responsible in the matter his order to close the lake to swimming whenever there was no guard assigned

HELD ON BAD COIN CHARGE

Federal Agents Say Man Had Counterfeit Half Dollars Thomas Bolagia was arrested this morning in a raid made by Secret Serv-ice agents in the rear of 625 Kenilworth street and was later held in $1000 bail Commissioner Manley on a charge of dealing in counterfeit money.

The police of the Second district have been hearing complaints for some time that counterfeit half dollars have been in circulation in that part of the city.
According to a statement given by Bolagia to Chief Houghton, of the Secret Service, the coins have been made in or near Trenton and sold to Italians and others in South Philadelphia at a rate of seven cents for a half dollar. Four counterfeit half dollars were found in Bolagia's possession, Secret Service

Factional Fights Are Terminated by Nomination of Roosevelt

PARTY

By the Associated Press San Francisco, July 7.—Delegates to the Democratic National Convention, their work done and the big gathering adjourned in a last roar of enthusiasm for the party standard hearers. Gov-ernor James M. Cox, of Ohio, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, were scrambling today for train ac-commodations homeward.

LEADERS

Mr. Roosevelt was due to leave durwith Governor Cox, where preliminary plans for the campaign will be mapped out, subject to amendment later when the party machinery is organized and the advisers selected.

The assistant secretary intends to re-The assistant secretary intends to resign from the Navy Department as soon as he can clear up his desk, and will spend ten days or so in Washington for that purpose before shaping his plans for the campaign.

Democratic leaders were elated over the spirit of harmony which marked the least hours of the convention. DOROTHY NORRIS ENGAGED New York-Philadelphia Girl to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Norris, of this city and New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Norris, to Raoul Alevra, of Bucharest, Rumania, delegate of the Rumanian mission to Siberia.

Mrs. Norris and Miss Norris have just returned from a six months' stay in China and Japan and arrived year. hours of the convention. There had been good feeling and tol-erance shown throughout the long strug-gle to reach a presidential nomination, it was said, but in the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt by acclamation, following withdrawal of all other candidates, these leaders saw evidence of differences buried and a determination to work hard for victory in the election from which they drew great satisfaction It was generally agreed that the convention had been a great success. If noise and unflagging display of enthusiasm were a gauge of that success, there was ample ground for their view. Up last the delegates were ready

In a way, the scene yesterday when Mr. Roosevelt was nominated rivaled that of the break-up early in the morn-ing of the McAdoo-Cox deadlock and the nomination of Governor Cox. What it lacked in the tense expectancy of the last ballot, after the action of Attorney General Palmer in releasing his delegates broke down the barrier that had held the convention helpless through thirty-eight ballots, the Roosevelt nomination made up in the swiftness with which the decision was reached.

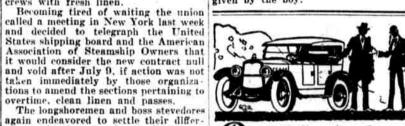

HOLD YOUTH AS THIEF

The Marine Firemen's, Oilers' and Watertenders' Union, consisting of Boy, 13, Accused of Stealing Goods and Selling Loot to Women

end to go on strike and tie up ship-ping in this and other ports if their de-mands are not met by the United States Joe McClaughlin, thirteen years old night by District Detectives Wahlen and Gallagher and was given a hearing at the House of Correction this morn-Such a strike would tie up 200 ships ing on a charge of having committed a series of thefts in South Philadelphia. now in this port. Fifty are scheduled It is charged that the boy robbed the mattress factory of Morris Sickels. 1104 South Second street, and the house of John Fields, 210 Federal street, and sold stolen goods, includ-A contract was drawn up among the three organizations recently, calling for clean linen for the crews at the beginof each voyage, sixty cents overtime for each hour over the regulation eight-hour shift and passes for the union officials to enable them to inspect ing sheeting, clothing and jewelry, to Mary Martin, 227 Washington avenue Margaret Douglass, of the same address; Anna Mulogosky, 306 League street, and Mary Callahan, of 229 the men's working conditions on board 1, 1920, and was to run until May 1, 1921. In the meantime the union had Washington avenue. The women were held in $500 bail each for a further received no further word from the ship hearing Friday before Magistrate Cow owners as to the new regulations. The passes were not forwarded, the overtime was not paid and suit was started by the union against the shipping board in an effort to force payment. The owners also neglected to supply the crews with fresh linen.

Becoming fired of wasting the over-

Put Your Car In Our Hands

When we make a sale we feel we assume an obligation to deliver satisfaction—not merely a good car. We feel there is an equal obligation on the purchaser's part to bring his car in regularly during the first few months for inspection and adjustment. We have found that giving a coupon book for a definite amount of service insures both of us against misunderstandings in carrying out the agreement. the agreement.

GRIEB&THOMAS 306 N. BROAD ST.
BRISCOE, GRANT, KISSEL, RENAULY Processor Care and Motor Trades

and Gashes Face and Arms

Special Dispatch to Evening Public Ledger West Chester, Pa., July 7.—With one ear severed from his head and with the gasbes of teeth upon an arm and his face. Lawrence Fortes, a Portuguese railroad workman, was admitted to a hospital today for treatment. Arthur Sandes, a southern negro, a member of the same gang, is in prison on the charge of mayhem, having been held for trial by Justice of the Peace Maxwell Clower, of Malvern. The missing ear was found and sewed in place, but the result of the operation will not be known for some time.

The men had a fight in the camp

The men had a fight in the camp where the gang is quartered, and during the meles the negro resorted to the use of his teeth. The ear was neatly separated from the head of the Portuguese and his face was ripped open by the sharp teeth of the colored man.

Office at Revolver's Point,

Two robbers, armed and masked, held ip the night eashier of the Quaker City Cab Co., 1211 Vine street, at 4:40 clock this morning and stole $266 from the cash drawer.

City Hall Detectives Smith and that the German foreign minister imme lass this afternoon arrested Charles treaty."

The German foreign minister imme saving: "You have City Hall Detectives Smith and Doug-("Kid") Thomas, a prize fighter, at his home on Porter street, near Thirteenth, on suspicion in connection with the robbery.

John Mulvehill, twenty-five, 2322 South Warnock street, was at work alone in the cashier's cage when the robbers entered. At the late hour which they chose for the hold-up there were few in the garage. W. N. Ahn, 2827 West Cumberland street, also a clerk in the cashier's cage, had gone an armed force of 200,000 men to main-2827 West Cumberland street, also a clerk in the cashier's cage, had gone out for lunch, and Mulvehill was alone.

The robbers entered by breaking a glass door in the office of the general manager, C. S. Jarvis, at 1217 Vine street. From his office they made their way to the cashier's office, which is in 1211 Vine street, entering from the rear, and so quietly that Mulvehill was unaware of their presence until they aimed revolvers at him and ordered him to throw up his hands.

One of the robbers kept the clerk of the men were under control of the contral government.

Herr Gessler insisted that the allied plan for 150,000 police broken up into small bodies under local control and without co-ordination, was insufficient to throw up his hands.

One of the robbers kept the clerk of the men were under control of the contral government.

Herr Gessler insisted that the allied plan for 150,000 police broken up into small bodies under local control and without co-ordination, was insufficient to deal with the present situation in Germany, which, he said, resembled somewlat that existing after the thirty

One of the robbers kept the clerk

Baby Hurt in Fall

George O'Day, twenty-one months old, 441 Williams street, Camden, fell of the head and body, and was taken to of fifty or sixty issued from the Cooper Hospital.

BALLEY BANKS& BIDDLE

Store closed Saturdays

the exclusive design and work of this Company

and Cuff Links

Bar Pins

Pendants

Scarf Pins

SAPPHIRES

Mounted with Diamonds

Rings

Bracelets

Brooches

Spa Conference of Allies Receives Statement of Berlin Government

TURKISH PLEA REJECTED District Attorney Asserts Man Con-

By the Associated Press Spa, Belgium, July 7.—Decision was eached by members of the German ministry and military officers attached to the German delegation here this morning to recommend to Constantin Febrenbach, head of the Berlin delegation, that a plan of disarmament for Germany be presented to allied repreentatives this afternoon. The conference, therefore, will continue.

The conference met again at 3:30 c'elock this afternoon. After a short session between the principal delegates, Hold Up Victim in Quaker City's during which time the German statement regarding disarmament was heard, the military experts of Germany and the allied countries were introduced.

Premier Lloyd George, speaking for the allied governments at last evening session, presented what may be called an ultimatum, but which Doctor Simons, the German foreign minister, termed "A very positive demand."
The most dramatic moment of last evening's session was when Premier Lloyd George said: "I do not believe that the Germans intend to execute the somewhat that existing after the thirty covered while the other robbed the till, years' war. Armed bands in various Then both backed out. Whether or not parts of the country were pillaging and they used an automobile the police do killing: they were armed not only with ordinary weapons, but with machine guns, which they knew how to use These bands, continued the minister, were so formidable that they could only Williams street, Camden, fell be dealt with by considerable forces hay loft in his father's stable. He received cuts and bruises against them. Only last week a band ranian forest, raiding the surrounding

The important clauses of the peace treaty with Turkey will remain as they are, it has been decided by the Supreme Council. At this morning's meeting with Premier Venizelos, of Greece, the council decided it would be impossible to grant the Turkish request for the revision of these clauses. A commission of experts will be appointed howsion of experts will be appointed, how-ever, to study the minor clauses with reference to partial revision of the doc-ument so far as these are concerned.

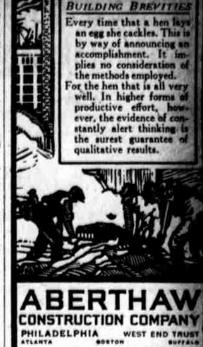

SAY ELWELL WITNESS LIED

cealed Movements Prior to Murder New York, July 7 .- Conflicting statements made by a man who has been ex-amined in connection with the murder of Joseph Bowne Elwell may lead to or Joseph Bowne Lawer may lead to important developments in the hunt for the slayer. District Attorney Swann admitted that one of the men examined by himself and Assistant District Attor-neys Talley, Dooling and Joyce had been detected in several inaccuracies regard-ing his movements for the twelve hours preceding the shooting of Elwell.

Mr. Swann declared that when the man was being examined about ten days ago it was realized he was not telling the truth, but his questioners were not in a position to tax him with the false-hoods. Since then, the district attorhoods. Since then, the district attor-ney said, his story has been checked up

City Manager Plan Adopted Colorado Springs, Colo., July 7.— By A. P.)—Colorado Springs at a n detail.

special election held yesterday adopted the city manager form of government to become effective next April, it was an-nounced today.

Launched and Going Strong!

The Greatest Semi-Annual SALE OF MEN'S SUITS Yet or Yet-To-Be!

INVOL VING

OUR OWN REGULAR STOCK

and the Cream of Nationally

Known Lines at Sweeping Reductions!

Into this sale is gathered not only Perry's own stocks, but the cream of several of the bestknown and worthiest nationally-advertised productions. This is unusual for Perry's. But these great clothing makers begged us to take the pick of their cancelled stocks and name our own price. This is no time to let personal vanity for Perry Clothes stand in the way of our duty to Perry patrons. And that is how Perry's regular stock and the top-layers of the national clothing basket come to be offered together, at prices that cut into the very arteries of production

> There is no longer a thing to be gained by waiting - this is your chance!

> > $80 Suits are Reduced!

$75 Suits are Reduced!

$70 Suits are Reduced!

$65 Suits are Reduced!

$60 Suits are Reduced! $55 Suits are Reduced!

$50 Suits are Reduced!

and so on down to our $30 and $35 Suits at Reductions!

Regular $50, $55, $60, $65, $70 and $75 Suits-our own "N. B. T." clothes, and some of the bestknown national productions-now to be sold for-

$40, $43, $45 and $50

Big Reductions on Separate Trousers. $5 Trousers for $3.50; Trousers that were $6.50 to $7.50, now $5; Trousers that were $10, now $8; Trousers that were $13.70, now $10.

> Palm Beach and Mohair Suits $15, $18, $20, $25, $28

Closed at 5 P. M. Saturdays at 1 P. M. During July and August

PER!! & CO. "N. B. T." Sixteenth and Chestnut Sts.

As soothing as a kitten's purr-

The Noiseless is in a perpetual good humor. It has a quiet way about it that will please you.

Once you have come to realize the manifold advantages of quiet you will bless once more the progress of science.

The Noiseless Typewriter Company, 835 Chestnut St., Philadelphia 'Phone Walnut 3691

Mohairs in Stripes "Breezweve" and $20.00. Coat and Trouser Suits of Palm Beach Cloth, $12, -in Stripes, Tans, Grays and Sand colors,

Cool Cloths,

$15 and upward Tropical - weight Worsteds, $35.00 to $45.00. Silk Suits, $45.00 and $50.00.

IACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street and plain colors, $18.00 and up-

