

TRY TO KIDNAP
NORRISTOWN LAD
Abductors Carry Boy, 9, Several Miles—Freed When He Says Parents Are Poor
UNCLE PURSUES MEN

Another Blakely Coughlin kidnaping case in Norristown has narrowly been averted.

Two men in an automobile last night attempted to abduct nine-year-old Charles Bontt while he was playing near his home, West Basin street and Tremont avenue, Norristown. The lad's home is within a few blocks of the spot where Blakely Coughlin, thirteen-months-old baby was kidnapped.

The kidnapers of the Bontt boy carried him in their machine until they had gotten a few miles outside of Norristown. In the meantime they found out his parents were poor by questioning the lad. In disgust they dropped the boy from the machine.

"They asked me how much money my folks had," said the boy. "I told them none. They got mad and swore and then let me go."

A negro noticed the two abductors on Tremont avenue at 9 o'clock. They pointed out the house in which the Bontt boy lives with his uncle, Thomas Catanes, a florist, and asked if the owner of the place was wealthy. The negro told the man. When Catanes went to look for his nephew he found him gone.

Catanes immediately started in pursuit in his own automobile. Through the dark, wet country roads he followed the abductors with the aid of a dim searchlight. The slippery dirt roads effectually stopped any attempt at speed, but in the fresh mud the tracks of the kidnapers' automobile were plainly discernible. At Orland Catanes's car broke down and he had to rush back to Norristown for another machine. Finally, near midnight, the searching party came across the boy in the vicinity of Plymouth Meeting, not more than a mile from the house where Blakely Coughlin was stolen on the night of June 3.

TO STUDY INTEREST ACT
Municipal Research Bureau Sees Flaws in Pending Ordinance

A delay in final action on the ordinance calling for 3 per cent interest on city deposits in various banks was suggested today by the Bureau of Municipal Research.

A council's finance committee has reported the measure favorably. It increases the interest rate from 2 1/2 to 3 per cent and makes the requirements of security optional with the city.

"So many elements enter into this problem," the bureau states in its weekly bulletin, "that we favor postponing final action to enable councilmen, the banks and citizens to throw more light on certain phases of the question."

"For instance, the proposed ordinance provides for a maximum of $5,000,000 in the active depositories, and fails to stipulate that any of the deposits should be distributed to the banks on a basis proportionate to their combined paid-in capital and surplus. This, it is pointed out, might invite favoritism."

"The ordinance has been criticized, too, on the ground that it is too rigid, and adjustments in the interest rates should be provided for at frequent stipulated intervals."

The busy world of today pays homage to the motor car. Like other time and labor savers, it increases the productive efforts of the human race, making possible the accomplishment of greater tasks in a shorter period of time.

If you are contemplating the purchase of a motor car as an aid to time-saving, we ask that you consider especially the five-passenger Paige Glenbrook.

Here is a car which, in size, speed and power, is especially suited to the everyday needs of business. And, in beauty, comfort and mechanical excellence, it is quite the equal of higher priced cars.

When you see the Light Six Paige, you will be agreeably surprised, we believe, to realize that a car of such outstanding worth may be had at such a moderate price.
