NEW THIRD PARTY AT ODDS ON NAME, UP TO LA FOLLETTE

Wisconsin Senator, Choice for President, in Control of Situation

LABOR GROUP AND '48' READY TO AMALGAMATE

Growth of Radical Sentiment Seen—Single Taxers Are Ignored

By CLINTON W. GILBERT. Chicago, July 12.—Committees of the Labor party and of the Committee of Forty-eight are struggling today with the question of naming the new third party which they voted last night to create. The Labor party insists that the new party shall be named the Farmers' Labor party.

Difficulties Over Platform. The difficulties over the platform remain to be worked out. The addition of ten western members to the procedure committee of the forty-eight made that committee more radical and brought it nearer an agreement with the Labor party in regard to nationalization and democratic control of industry in regard to platform.

LaFollette's representative, Gilbert W. Roe, his former law partner, now of New York city, and his son, Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., conferred with the representatives of the Committee of Forty-eight and with the labor leaders. LaFollette will probably be able to bring about unity between these two groups by effecting the creation of a new party.

LaFollette Wants to Run. LaFollette wants to run such a party created and he wants to be its candidate. His position has been made clear by the leaders of both sides. He will take the podium at the end of the conference here set for what promises to be a permanent party. He is unwilling to undergo the labors of the campaign for a mere party of protest which will disappear at the end of the campaign.

Both groups will doubtless agree to LaFollette's terms and the platform will probably be somewhat more radical than the ten leaders in the movement for the organization of the committee of forty-eight desire. No one knows precisely what Mr. LaFollette's position is upon the issue between the forty-eight and the labor leaders. Both groups are overwhelmingly in favor of him as nominee and labor party in both conventions if it was certain that he would accept. And he is using this desire for him as a candidate to force both sides to come to terms.

Membership More Cautious. The leaders of the two groups are thus far apart, but hopes of compromise lie on the floor of both conventions. The membership of the two conventions is probably less far apart than the leaders. The body of delegates whom the forty-eight have gathered together in the Morrison Hotel are much more radical than the men who wrote the preliminary platform of the forty-eight. And the labor delegates are probably much less radical than their leaders, who are thinking of keeping several jumps ahead of Gompers in the direction of radicalism. Thus Senator
