hree Opposed Arrest of Driver and All Are Held

Magistrate Harris today held four men in $400 bail each for a further hearing as suspicious characters. hearing as suspicious characters.

The men, arrested at Sixtieth and Irving streets at 2 o'clock this morning, are Harry Taggart, McClellan street near Eighteenth; Harry Rosenthal and Charles Rosenthal, Locust street near Fifty-second, and Harry Scherdof, Irving street near Sixtieth. Police say Taggart was driving an automobile while intoxicated, and that the others interfered with the patrolman who arrested Taggart.

Herman Prechmann, for many years manager of the Rittenhouse. St. James and Walton Hotels, was refused a license for the Blue Bell Inn, Ambler, by the court yesterday. The neighbors testified that the community has been disturbed by the place. In refusing to grant the transfer of the license Judges Swartz and Miller declared that they were convinced the applicant had not demonstrated his fitness for the place. demonstrated his fitness for the place.
