The Rev. and Mrs. Harry Ransome and their daughter, Miss Juliette Ransome, have gone to their summer home at Laconia, N. H., where they will remain until September.

Nr. Edward C. Burton will go next week to Chicago, where he will attend the building and loan convention as a Pennsylvamia delegate. Mr. and Mrs. Burton returned recently to their home in Chester from an extended trip through California and the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Casey, of Kent road, Wynnewood, left on Monday for Winnewaska, N. Y., to be gone for Mrs. E. P. Allinson, of Lancaster avenue, Haverford, is spending the summer at Buck Hill Falls, Pa.

Mrs F. G. Lippert, of Phoenixville, has been visiting Mrs F. A. Gugert in Wayne this week.

Miss Frances Haines, formerly of this

Oak Lane, are spending the summer in the Pocono mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lester Pflieger of 5007 North Twelfth street, Logan, are occupying their summer home in Atian-tic City.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE

Miss Dorothy Faust, of Merion, is spending a few weeks at the Stockton Villa, Cape May.

are occupying a cottage at Stone Har-bor for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren P. Laird, of South Highland avenue. Merion, is spending the summer months in the Poconos.

Miss Mary McCowan, of Trevor ave-nue, Cynwyd, is stopping at the Lafayette, Asbury Park.

Mr. Edward P. Lippincott, of Beckley and Wynnewood avenues. Merion, is leaving for Seattle, Wash, where he will spend a month on a trip along the

Dr. and Mrs John Chapman, of South Latches lane, Merion, have taken a cot-tage at Ventnor for the summer.

GERMANTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Johnson, of 10 East Mount Pleasant avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daigliesh, of 6301 Ogontz avenue, are motoring through Maine.

The appealing

cane flavor

with Franklin

The Franklin Sugar

Refining Company

A Franklin Cape Sugar

Quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beet, of Bala

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ralston Rodgers, Jr.,

several weeks.

THERE'S to be quite some excite- leave August 1 for the Poconos, where they will stay until September. THERE'S to be quite some excitement up at Newport tonight, for the navel officers and their wives are the navel officers and their wives are to give a dance at the Torpedo station to celebrate the opening of their new to celebrate. You know the station is on whether the small island in the bay between New-net and Jamestown. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Smith. of 1825 De Lancey place, will spend the month of August at Devon Manor. Mrs. Alexander C. Yarnall, of Wynne-wood road. Wynnewood, is visiting her sister. Mrs. George Milton Jones. of Lundale, W. Va., for a fortnight.

a small island in the bay between Newport and Jamestown.

I remember during the war when I used to ride from Newport to Jamesused to ride from Newport to Jamestown, or vice versa, on the dear old town, or vice versa, on the dear old tooky ferry, that there was always a bit of a queer feeling when near said island, because the tales were that there was Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Kendricks, of Ardmore and Turnbridge avenues, Ard-more, are spending the summer at Cape May. May.

Among those who were entertained at the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. John G. Pew, of Springbrook Farm, Bryn Mawr, on Wedneaday evening in honor of the launching of the ship I. C. White at the Sun Shipbuilding Co. Chester, which took place on Wednesday, were Miss Frances Brightwell, of Charleston, W. Va. who acted as sponsor of the ship; Mrs. H. P. Brightwell, Miss Elizabeth Brightwell, Mr. I. C. White, of Morgantown, W. Va. grandfather of the sponsor, and for whom the ship was named, and Miss Eva Pew.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harry Rapsome the tales were that there were i dynamice and other explosives to blow up the whole of Newpert and Jamestown and surrounding

And there were mines at the en-trance to the bay, and you had to be towed out on the Fall River boats to escape hitting them. It was exciting, all right! All the boats had to go into all right! All the boats had to go into the bay between Jamestown and New-the bay between Jamestown and New-the bay between Narragansett Pier and and between Narragansett Pier and a and between Narragansett Pier and Jamestown was closed during said wat. Tonight's party will be quite roman-tic, for the guests will all have to go in launches or sailing boats, or perhaps rowbeats, as there is no other way of

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Botts and chil-dren, of Ardmore, are veiting Mrs. Botts's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, of the Meadows, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., when they will remain until October 1. reaching the island.
Captain Martin F. Trench, U. S. N.,
and Mrs. Trench will receive the guests, sesisted by several other officers and their wives. Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. York, Jr., of Hav rford, will be the guests during August of Mr. York's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. York, at their summer home at Grande Beach, Me.

MRS. HARRY LEHR has gone up to Newport. She is staying with Mrs. Elisha Dyer and will remain with her now most of the time she will be in this country. I understood Mrs. Lehr to say when she was here that the expected to go back to France about the end of this month, if not sooner. the expected to go back to France about the end of this month, if not sooner. Harry Lehr has been quite ill, you know, and so she does not want to stay long in this country, but will join him n the Riviera shortly.

OPEAKING of Europe reminds me, I hear that Pauline and Le Grand Cannon are having a wonderful honey-moon in Europe. They have been gone moon in Europe. They have been gone since April, and have seen about all since April, and have seen about all there is to see over there. Pauline was Pauline Denekla, you remember.

Mrs. Denckia and her sister, Mrs. Drayton, have gone abroad, too, but I heard the other day that Mr. Denckla inproved, knowing Mrs. Denckia, I am sure she will not stay abroad once she gets word of his illness. However, at last hearing, he was better, so I hope all will go well.

OF COURSE, the girls of Bryn Mawr and former girls of Bryn Mawr were muchly interested yester-OF COURSE, the girls of Bryn Mawr and former girls of Bryn Mawr were muchly interested yesterday in Helen Taft's marriage. You know it took place up at Point-Aple, Murray Bay. Can... at the Taft home. The evertement at Bryn Mawr was great when the rumor that the acting president was engaged to Fredgrick Johnson Manning started going about. And, in spite of denials, most of the girls believed it was true. Then,
The Epsilon Pi Sorority held its regof the girls believed it was true. Then. bout commencement time, Miss Taft ledged that it was so, and the date of the wedding was announced. married in my own country, but c herwasn't it a perfect spot to choose wedding? How we all would have sweltered at the wedding yesterday, had it been here, for instance. And, too, the bride avoided much of the publicity which would have entered into the affair at er winter home. The Tafts have speut number of summers at Murray Bay, it probably seems like home to the ILY, who is five, was seized with the spirit of rebellion the other day and for no known reason took her older sister's rag doll and proceeded to cut of all its clothes.

Mother took Lily into her room and talked to her seriously, and showed her how wrong she had been. The dell had not been hers and she had not dell had not been hers and she had not dell had not been hers and she had not dell taken it from her sister, but she had destroyed another's property. Lily had destroyed another's property. Lily had destroyed another's property. Lily had now had unterly unperturbed. She made no remark when mother had finished, and s mother desired some show of sorrow, he followed her young hopeful into the but foom.

What did she see, but Lily advancing to dreamland. Lily seized the doll to dreamland. Lily seized the doll at slammed it into the waste paper taket.

"Why Lily." said mother. "I don't bow what to make of you, what takes you behave this way?"

Lily still said nothing, but pulling the doll from the scrap basket she sat hap before her on the chair and in a ball, severe voice remarked: "I sell, severe voice remarked: "I tatknow what to make of you, you're than getting me into trouble." NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Announce the engagement of the Announce the Anno and Mrs. Edward Garrett McCol-mounce the engagement of their ler Miss Katharine Williams Mc-

At and Mrs. John Barkley Fisher, of Mrs. In John Barkley Fisher, of Mrs. Jane Stretch, was given a merly Mrs. Jane Mrs. Jane John McDowell Sharp 3d. at a school of Mrs. John McDowell Sharp 3d. at a school of Mrs. John McDowell Sharp 3d. at a school of Mrs. John McDowell Sharp 3d. at a school of Mrs. John McDowell Sharp 3d. at a school of Mrs. John McDowell Sharp, vesterday, in honor of Miss Jane C Taylor, Mrs. Harry Hebrah, was given a school of Mrs. John Mrs. John McDowell Sharp, with John McDowell Sharp is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallet & Sharp, of Chambersburg, Pa., and a graduate of Phillips Andover Acaday and of Princeton University, Mr. of Mrs. Fisher and their family lived merely in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Elwyn Mitchell El introduce their daughter. Miss Bens I. Mitchell, next winter, at two Me to be given at their home, 2220 De

I Graham Wood entertained the sts of the "Weeders Club" at son at "Blossom Hill," her home at a. on Wednesday.

M. and Mrs. William H Hamilton to returned from their wedding trip are now the guests of Mrs. Hamilibrarens, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Main, at their home. Broadlawn. Hamilton was Miss Conses M. Vauchain. whose marriage place on June 28 at the Church of Medesmer, Bryn Mawr.

C. C. Emory McMichael and his son, harrison McMichael. of Knoll House, have all the control of the star as Vancouver and Seattle. Star as Vancouver and Seattle. The Charles M. Lea, of Westthorpe.

Charles M. Lea, of Westthorpe Devon, is now in Boston for a two weeks as the guest of Dr. s. Mixter.

and Mrs. Henry Pepper Vaux, of sige. Rosemont, have gone to do for a trip of two weeks. Mrs. Edward Browning, of Rosemont, left on Sunday last to their cottage at Bar Har-where they will remain during

A FAMILY GROUP

Harris, Miss Elizabeth Hette, Miss Alma the summer at the Breakers, Atlantic Bertsch, Miss Edith Haines. Miss City.

Naomi Bischoff and Mrs. Paul W. Boyd. Mrs. J. Westcott and daughter. Miss Mrs. Walter Graham Arader, of Ricley Park, entertained at a lurcheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Agnes C.
Kraft, of Wilkes-Barre. Miss Kraft is the guest of Miss Madelon M. Niessen, of Twelfth street and Oak lane. Mrs.
Arader will leave Ridley Park on Saturday, accompanied by her son, to spend the remainder of the summer at her parents' cottage at Avalon, N. J.

Miss Anna Gugert and Miss Laura
Miss Anna Gugert and Miss Laura Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Hagy and their son, Master Richard Hagy, of 138 West Mount Airy avenue, are spending some time in Reading.

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

Miss Irone K. Ash and her sister, Miss Eleanor Ash, who have been pass-ing the early summer in Atlantic City, have returned to their home, 1203 North Twenty-fifth street.

Twenty-fifth street.

The Ocean City Hostess' League, composed of Philadelphians who spend the summer at their Ocean City cottages, has opened its rooms on the Boardwalk at Sixth street, and has been entertaining convalescent service men from the Philadelphia Naval Hospital, Mrs. Kenton Warne is president of the loague; Miss Anna Creth, vice president; Mrs. Adam Kessler, Jr., corresponding secretary; Miss Eleagor Ferguson, secretary; Mrs. Frank Webster, treasurer, and Mrs. Benjamin F. Maschal, assistant treasurer.

Edna Steppacher, daugnte.

Steppacher.

The Epsilon Pi Sorority held its regular meeting on Saturday at the home of Miss Evelyn Peckworth, of Brookline. The members present were Miss Sara Hailey, Miss Harriet Doan, Miss Lanet Grimes, Miss Helen Perrell, Miss Marjorie Ryan and Miss Margaret Yeager.

Mr. Frank E. Garden, of the Maryland, has left for North Lovell, Me., where he will remain until September.

The following will leave tomorrow morning to spend the week-end at a third third third morning to spend the week-end at a second the Miss Margaret Miss Marifred Hartman, Miss Rosalind Weaver, Miss Henrietta M. Rohlfs, Miss Martha Horner, Miss Kathryn Keller. Miss Helen Klein, Miss Estelle Reed. Miss Helen Kleinsmith, Miss Christine Mosler, Miss Matida Mayer and Miss Milgred Kornbau.

Dr. ani Mrs. J. C. Flynn, of 1225

Dr. ani Mrs. J. C. Flynn, of 1225

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Flynn, of 1225 North Sixth street, are occupying their cottage in Ocean City, and have with them their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Douglass. of 4922 North Tenth street, Logan, will leave on August 1 to spend the re-mainder of the season in Ocean City. Mrs. Daniel W. Hildreth is spending

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Humphrys, of 1832 North Eleventh street, with their daughters, Mrs. W. T. Andrews, Mrs. E. W. Koeher, Miss Florence Hum-phrys and Miss Kathryn Humphrys, are spending the summer months at the Hotel Seaside, Atlantic City.

Miss Emily Loraine Bridgen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Bridgen, 1919 West Lehigh avenue, is spending a month in Mahanoy City, Pa. where she is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. B. English. Miss Bridgen was formerly of that city. Mes Rachel Harrison, of Rutland Vt. is spending the summer as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Costella, of Susquehanna avenue. Mr. and Mrs. M. Greenhouse, of 1507 North Sixteenth street, are spending

Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., of Wynnewood, and her two attractive children

Mrs. J. Westcott and daughter, Miss Adeline Westcott, of Twelfth and Jef-ferson streets, are visiting relatives in Albany, N. Y., for several weeks.

Mrs. I. Plant, of the Hotel Majestic, has returned from Atlantic City, where she spent several days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. Segal. and has gone to Philmont, where she is spending the summer.

Miss Martha Newberry, of North Eighteenth street, is entertaining Miss Gladys Summers, of Toledo, O., as her guest for a fortnight. Before returning home Miss Summers will spend several weeks at Atlantic City, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jackson at their cottage in Ventnor.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Loeb, of the Lor-raine Hotel, have left for Summit Springs Hotel, Poland, Me.

WEST PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. William F. Ansley, of 4939 Florence avenue, has returned to her home after visiting her son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ansley, of 4511 Regent street, who are spending the summer at their cottage at Sea Isle City. They will return to this city in the early fall. Miss Helen Farnum and Miss Eliza-

The Perfect Water Paint

A Nutritious Diet for All Ages Quick Lunch at Home or Office Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

Don't Blame

It On The Pot Because your coffee does not come up to your idea of appetizing excellence - even though you do pay a good price for it-is not necessarily the fault of your method of making coffee. You can lay the fault to the fact that you buy coffee in paper bags. Coffee packed in bags is continually losing its strength and flavor because the oils in the coffee beans are being evap-Morning Sip Coffee is packed in slip cover tins that keep every particle of strength, flavor and goodness in the coffee. For that reason with Morning Sip you use only one-half the usual amount. A pound of Morning Sip goes twice as far and decreases your coffee expense. Morning Sip

Coffee sells so rapidly that your grocer always has a fresh supply on hand. Your first taste of Morning Sip will show you how good coffee really can be when all the strength is kept in the coffee. Try Morning

Sold By All Good Grocers

MORNING SIP COFFEE

Roasted and Packed by Alexander Sheppard & Sons Philadelphia, Pa.

beth Faraum, of 1678 North Fifty-fourth street, and Miss Florence Beck-ett, of 5425 Harlan street, are spending a few weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Powell, of 4821 Springfield avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anna McCullough Powell, to Mr. Charles W. Campbell on May 29. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will be at home after August 15 at 5429 Angora Terrace.

The Femaret Girls' Club spent the week-end at Hopewell, N. J. They had as their guest. Miss Marian Ardell, formerly of New York.

Mrs. H. N. Street and her daughter, Miss Virginia Street, have returned to their home in Providence, R. I., after visiting Mrs. Street's sister, Mrs. Wil-liam Downs Anderson, of 4948, Hazel

Mrs. G. Cohn, of 4411 Chestnut street is spending some time at Atlantic City Mr. and Mrs. Raiph L. Adams, of $19 South St. Bernard street, have returned to their home after visiting Mrs. Adams's parents at Colorado Falls, Pa. Mrs. Ralph F. Moss and her baby son. Ralph F. Moss, Jr., are guests at Haddon Hail, Atlantic City, until about september 15, when they will return to their home at 1023 North Sixty-third street, Overbrook.

Mrs. Augustus Welsh, of Main street, with her daughter, Miss Dorothy Welsh, will leave shortly to pass a fortnight in Wildwood. Mr. A. A. Welsh will leave next week for a tour through Pennsylvania, stopping at Altoona and Pittsburgh

Miss Mary Fagan, of Terrace street, left last Saturday to spend some time in Atlantic City. Another sojourner in Atlantic City from this section is Miss Margaret Wall, of Wendover street.

TORRESDALE Mr and Mrs. Leon Leopold and their little caughter. Miss Sylvia Leopold, and Mrs. C. Einstein, of 6629 Torresdale ave-nue, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leopold, of Atlantic City, for

Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Brumbaugh, of Torresdale, have left on a three weeks' motor trip to Ohio and will re-turn by way of Niagara Falls.

FRANKFORD

Miss Jane Hepburne. of Harrison street, is spending several weeks in New Rochelle, N. Y., as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Piling, of 4628 Leiper street, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson are "pending the summer at Lake Paulpac, Pocono mountains. Miss. Felice Anderson will spend the

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haines Price have returned from their wedding journey, and will be at home at Sprague street, Mount Airy. The bride was Miss Anne Hazlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hazlett. Mr. Price, who was formerly of Sumac street, went overseas with the United States army at the beginning of the world war and remained abroad three months with the army of occupation.

NORRISTOWN

Among the guests present at a lawn party given by Miss Dorothy Langham at her home on Markley street, in honor of Miss Marion Hunt, of Williamsport, Ps., were Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Florence Righter, Miss Beatrice Jarrett, Miss Dorothy Gresh, Miss Emma Roberts, Miss Catharine Seltzer and Mrs. David M. Bauer.

MANAYUNK

Miss Helen Bowe, of Wandover street, has gone to Atlantic City to spend part of July.

Mrs. Augustus Weish, of Main street, with her daughter. Miss Dorothy the Miss Dorothy than the Main Street, with her daughter. Miss Dorothy the Miss Dorothy than the Main Street, with her daughter. Miss Dorothy than the Miss Dorothy the Miss Dorothy than

Riess-Lee Wedding

An interesting midsummer home wedding took place Wednesday evening, when Miss Amy Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis Lee, of $107 Columbia avenue, was married to Mr. Walter Riess, the Rev. J. M. Tweedale officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin embroidered with crystal beads, tulle veil with wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of roses. The matron of honor was Mrs. William Grimwood, sister of the bride, whose dress was of white Baronet satin, and the bridesmald was Miss Anna Lee, also a sister of the week-end in Wildwood as the guest of Mrs. Hamilton at her cottage.

WISSAHICKON

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Froriep, of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Riess, brother of the bride, and Mr. Harry Lee, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Treffs, Mrs. Milliam Wrsv. Mr. Samuel Via Mrs. Harry gautumn in Ocean City. Mrs. Boyd, Mr. William Riess, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walker, Mr. and Mrs. C

MANN & DILKS 1102 CHESTNUT STREET

Sale of

Ladies' and Misses' Girls' and Junior Suits and Coats

19.75 24.75 29.75

Tyrol Wool at these prices means a saving of almost a

Styles That Are Wearable This Fall as Well as Now.

Ladies' Hats ½ Price

MANN & DILKS 1102 CHESTNUT STREET

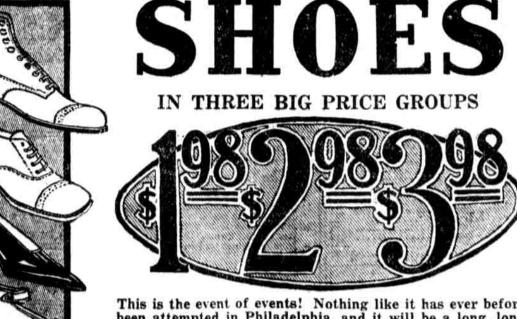

What's the Big News That's Going All Around Town?

$3,000,000 SALE

This is the event of events! Nothing like it has ever before been attempted in Philadelphia, and it will be a long, long time before you will ever see the like of it. Thousands of persons are crowding our big store daily, snapping up the big bargains they find everywhere about them. And if you need shoes now or want to fit your children up for this fall, by all means come in TODAY!

116-118-120 N. 8th St.

