THE GYPSY DOGS By D ODY

Lady Ann and Little Phil TODDIE PUPKINS barked proudly Tas he told Pegsy and Billy the story of Lady Ann, the beautiful collie, who had been saved from the gypsy dogs by Shep.

"Lady Ann wouldn't leave Little Phil," said Toddle, "and when she told tale to Shep, my father, and to Gray Prince, the stolen horse, they

"It seems that Lady Ann was a house dog, and had been the guardian of little Phil ever since he was a baby.

Phil ever since he was a baby.

"Little Phil was a loyely boy, but be did like to run away," declared Lady Ane, telling her story. "One day when he should have been taking his nap, and when he wouldn't do that, I barked loudly so folks would hear. But every one was busy, and no one came in

"Down the street and out into the answer.

"Down the street and out into the "Down the street and out into the country wandered little Phil, laughing, country wandered little Phil, laughing, and picking flowers. Then he playing and picking flowers. Then he playing and picking and went to grew tired and lay down and went to grew tired and lay down and went to grew tired and lay down and went to grew to some one who might come eye out for some one who might come eye out for some one who might come eye out for some one who might occur for some one who might come of a kind I had never seen before. They stopped and never seen before they stopped and never seen before the seen they stopped and never seen they stopped and never seen be mighim back to his parents, ing him back to his parents, as coming, a finishing this, I made no fuss when "Thinking this, I made no fuss when they picked him up and put him in the they picked him up and put him in the they picked him they tarted to ward town, but wagon. They came to a corner, they urned in amother direction. I tried o turning, but when they paid no attention trining, but when they paid no attention to the tried to be soon the meant evil instead of good, that they meant evil instead of good, that they meant evil instead of good as they went right on at a gallot.

"I barked at the horses and tried of the stop them, but they went right on at salon."

For miles and miles through the country I followed them, coming at last country I followed them, coming at last othis place. Here little Phil woke up to this place. Here little Phil woke up and because he cried and would not have anything to do with these dark people, that cruel man they call Redpeople, that cruel man they call they are said father, and a look that he felt fully rewarded for all he had done.

"We must try to escape, said father. But when they came to look around, they found that the gypsis were strongly guarding little Phil.

"I will stay with you here," said father to Lady Ann. I will protect you from all harm in the gypsy camp, and when the chance for escape comes we will all flee together, little Phil, you, and I', and father gave Lady Ann a look of love, for he had already lost his heart to her.

"So my father stayed in the gypsy camp as boss of the dogs, and Lady, Ann stayed guarding little Phil, and Gray Prince stayed because he would not go home without my father,

"The change to escape was long in coming, and in the meantime my father and Lady Ann were wedded, and later I was born. And now I am very hungry, and I'll have to have my supper. If I feel like it after that, I'll tell you the thrilling story of how we all escaped from the gypsy camp."

Saying this Toddie Pupkins began vigorously to dig for a buried bone, while Pegy and Billy waited patiently to hear the rest of the story. What they heard will be told next week.

LEGION POSTS SEEK

TO DRAW MEMBERS

Department Commander Asks

Each Man to Bring a Friend

An aggressive effort to strengthen the 550 posts of the Amerian Legion in Pennsylvania and to double the membership during the present year will be made throughout the state This an-suncement was made today by David

"The American Legion is through the aperimental stage," said Commander

Davis. "It has expanded and is grow-ng not only in size, but in influence,

The American Legion stands on the olid rock of patriotism, and it is in the local post that its greatest and most

"I am prepared in the next year to Tam prepared in the next year to devote myself whole-heartedly to the development of the American Legion in this state, and I do not feel that I am unreasonable when I set a 100 per cent increase as a goal. That simply means that each member now in the organization shall bring in a new member. That will be the means of gaining membership without drives or campaigns and will leave the Legion free to approach the general public on matters worth while without constantly using its good will.

using its good will.

'The American Legion is not organized solely for the purpose of bringing together the former service men. It is to work for the uplift of the community. Here is the true missing the service will be the service of the community.

he post and every effort to help the losts realize this aim will be made. By the time the next state convention comes around I hope to see many posts in the state firmly established in permanent homes that will be real community centers of activity and uplift. This is an aim in which every one can

This is an aim in which every one can get behind the American Legion."

A special meeting of the members of Harry II. Ingersoll Post 174 has been called for next Wednesday at the Pen and Penell Club, 1026 Walnut street.

The Laceting has as its special pur-

The theeting has as its special purspecial purities of the new contitution of the American Legion in the convention, W. H. Du Barry, Jr., the convention constitution of the post.

he convention constituted and committee, will preside.

Post 50, made up of the young women who served in the United States navy, will meet at the Y. M. H. A. Building, 1616 Master street, Tuesday night. Miss Caroline Steinbrook, the post finance officer, is making an effort to duplicate the record of last year, when the post had a 100 per cent paid-up membership. Miss Patricia Crosby, ip membership. Miss Patricia Crosby, representative of the post on the county committee, will submit a report at the meeting on the land.

meeting on the last meeting of the com-mittee and on the plan outlined for the co-operation of the young women of the post in the field day event at Franklin Field on September 18.

The Oscar II, Gruber Post, No. 152,

The Oscar II. Gruher Post, No. 152, has received many expressions of appreciation from French residents of the city and from various French organizations in acknowledgment of the resolution which the post at its last the French tricolor be displayed conspicuously from all public buildings on Eastille Day. The post has decided to hold only one meeting a month during the sammer. The post officers are at work on an extensive program of activities for the fall and winter. A large sale of tickets already has been made for the moonlight excursion which the post will hold August 20.

Here is the true mission of triking strength must exist.

J. Davis, the department commander.

Into the Organization

trotted down stairs, and out into the street. I tried to get him to go back, agreed she was right.

In Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store on Monday There Will Be a Sale of Beautiful New Summer Silks at Prices Which Sound Like Old Times

Refreshing Summer Frocks at the Lowest Prices Yet

New and delightful dresses in cool Summer colorings and patterns. And how airy and fresh they are with their crisp frills. cool collars, short sleeves and wide, fluffy sashes of white organdie. Imagine being able to buy these pretty things, ready to put on, for

$3, $3.75, $4.50, $4.75, $5.60, $7.25 to $10.25

A Great Many of These Dresses Are Marked at Half Price 500 Voile Dresses $3 and $3.75

In light and dark grounds, with ' Navy blue, lavender and Copenwhite collars and cuffs, these dresses hagen are the principal colorings of are in sizes for women and young these pretty dresses, which show variwomen.

400 Voile Dresses $4.50 and $4.75

ous designs in white.

600 Dresses of Dotted Voile, Linen and Organdie at Half Price and Less

At $5.60 -dresses of fine, printed chintz in a cool cafe-au-lait shade, with a deep white collar and sash of organdie, piped buttonholes and pearl buttons.

-flesh pink, brown or orchid organdie dresses with embroidered dots of white. -bisque, pearl gray, rose or orchid voile dresses dotted in white. -or white voile dresses with embroidered dots of pink, plum, rose or blue.

Some of the bodices of the dotted dresses have overslips of plain color voile or organdie, which end in big, bow sashes.

At $7.25

More of the lovely dotted dresses are in this group and all of the dots are embroidered, not printed. Very fresh and cool are the white voiles dotted in rose, blue, black, lilac or green. Some have deep-pleated frills of white organdie for the collars and cuffs, and all have wide white organdie sashes.

Georgette Dresses, $26.50

A small group of sample dresses, mostly in navy, though there are some in taupe and pink. They are beaded or trimmed with tucks and hemstitching.

White voile dresses have bodices of rose or French blue dotted voile, which is also used as banding to trim the skirts.

Another pretty frock is in pale lavender voile, dotted in white, with white frills running up the sides of the skirt.

Cool and trim are white voile dresses dotted in navy or black.

An effective frock has a little coatee and many bands of loosely woven cotton crash in gray, pink or green combined with white

At $10.25

Delightful voile dresses in apricot, rose, navy, or gray have white dots and many frills of white organdie with a touch of black vel-

Then there are some pretty tailored linen dresses in white, light blue, pink or navy combined with voile or used alone.

A number of sample dresses are also in the group and notable among them are handkerchief linen dresses with hand drawnwork and hemstitching.

And, of Course, Gingham

Scores of pretty morning dresses in gay, sunshiny checks and plaids are here in many charming styles at $6 to $7.50.

Dainty Vestings and Bandings

The vestings are fluffy, pretty combinations of net and imitation Valenciennes lace in white and cream color. $3 to $5.75 a yard; usually 1/4 of a yard will make a Bandings of net and lace (to be used for collars and cuffs) are $1.25 to $2 a yard.

(Central)

Women's Long White Silk Gloves

Women who are wearing short sleeves (and what woman isn't these warm days?) need plenty of such gloves.

The 16-button length in tricot silk is $2.75 and Milanese silk,

(Central)

Colonial Rag Rugs

The cheery informality of the hit-or-miss rug is especially homelike and desirable in the Summer cottage.

4x 7 feet, $5.50 6x 9 feet, $9.50 8x10 feet, $13.50

9x12 feet, $18.50 9x15 feet, $23.50 12x15 feet, $32.50

Durable Fiber Rugs 3x9 feet, $2.75 4.6x7.6 feet, $4

Japanese Straw Rugs

In Two Good Room Sizes. 8x10 feet, $6 9x12 feet, $7.50 6x9 feet, $6

Printed Voiles 38c, 50c, 65c and 75c a Yard

The voiles at 38c a yard are 36 and 38 inches wide and the others are all 38 inches.

Pretty, light challis patterns; large, striking designs; large Georgette and foulard patterns dark on a light ground or light on a dark ground; there is a great variety, and choosing is far from limited.

Bloomers, 65c

(Central)

Nicely made bloomers of pink crepe-batiste with deep ruffles at the knees. (Central)

Sturdy Suits for Little Chaps Are $4.35 to $6

They are middy, regulation sailor and button-on suits made of the sturdiest of wash materials and nicely finished with braided collars and cuffs, ties, etc.

The $4.35 style is a middy suit in gray, blue and tan. The others, too, are in grays, blues and tans.

Pongee for $1

Summer Foulards for $1.60 Crepe de Chine for $1.65

Wash Satin for $1.10 Don't those sound like old-fashioned prices? And when you see the quality of the silks, their freshness and beauty, you'll realize that there has been a real readjustment of silk prices. These silks are the silks you need right now, the silks for Summer dresses and for soft, cool underwear. The colorings are the ones that nine women out of ten prefer-plenty of navy blue, brown and black in the silks for street wear and yards and yards of flesh pink, white and cool blues in the other

Every yard is new silk, shown for the first time on Monday morning, and every yard is marked at considerably less than the prices that have lately been asked for silks of these same qualities.

Crepe de Chine, $1.65 38 inches wide, in white, flesh, pink, light blue, turquoise, tan, silver, wistaria, orchid, taupe, brown and

Crepe de Chine, $1.95

A heavier quality, also 38 inches wide, in white, flesh, Copenhagen, Japan, brown, pink, torquoise, bluebird, coral, navy and black.

Foulards, $1.60

All-silk, satin-faced foulards, 35 inches wide. There are several pretty patterns for choosing, and the principal colorings are navy, brown, myrtle and wistaria.

Taffeta, $1.85

35 inches wide, in navy, Belgian blue, brown and Black Messaline, $1.60

A good, serviceable quality, 35 inches wide.

Tub Shirting, $1.40 35-inch plain-color tub-silk shirting in white and flesh pink. Many women use this for underwear.

Striped Tub Shirting, $1.90

This shows stripes of various colorings on white grounds: 32 inches wide.

Wash Satin, $1.10 and $2 Two qualities; the $2 silk is in white and flesh pink; the $1.10 silk is in flesh only; both are 35 inches wide.

Chinese Pongee, $1 33 inches wide, and in the natural pongee shade. 750 Yards of Tricolette, $2.90 a Yard

Glossy tricolette of fiber silk in navy, black, gray and white-the very best colors. 36 inches wide. Silk-and-Cotton Poplin, $1.40 a Yard

This has self-stripes and is 36 inches wide, in white, silver, tan, sapphire, brown, rose, navy and black. It makes such pretty sports skirts.

White Sports Satin, $3 a Yard Very lustrous and most effective for sports skirts and sleeveless jackets. In plain or fancy weaves, it is 40 inches wide.

Remnants—Half Price

A great variety of silk and silk-and-cotton materials in useful lengths, all marked half price.

Young Women's Sports Coats Reduced to $16.50 -Many Are Half Price

There are polo coats in creamy tan, lined throughout with silk, and sports coats of navy blue tricotine to wear with plaid skirts—also lined with silk. Short coats of navy blue or black satin are pretty with the white skirts of summer.

Little Girls' Vacation Frocks Specially Priced

At $2.50-special-Regulations of rose or blue linene are pleated from shoulder yokes, have loose belts and are trimmed with white

Special at $3 Gingham Frocks and Rompers for Miss 6-Year-Old The little dresses are of pink or blue checked gingham with white sashes and frilled collars. The peg-top button-on rompers are of blue or pink gingham with white poplin waists. Special at $3.75

Cunning dotted Swiss dresses in tan or blue are slightly mussed from handling, but the saving in price compensates for that. Sizes 6 to 10 years. Flowered voile dresses in blues, pinks and various light mixtures have frilled organdie collars. Sizes 8 to 14 years, $5.50. Organdie at $8.50 Fresh, crisp organdie dresses in pale pink, white or blue are as pretty as the pleated frilling which adorns the necks, sashes, sleeves

A Hint of Cooler Breezes in the Changing Aspect of Newest Hats

Women will forget the warmer days in the interest of the new touches which individualize these charming hats and mark them as the first forerunners of Autumn. Of course, there are the dark satins and taffetas that are so coollooking and smart and the roll-brim hats with six-piece crowns, and every woman wants to have one. In direct contrast are the bright little hats of duvetyne; hats with flame-colored crowns of duvetyne and wide brims of dark hair braid and the hems of the skirts! Sizes 8 to 14 years.

Dainty Hand-Made Batiste Blouses Special at $5.90

This attractive blouse, of sheerest white batiste, with a roll collar, has rows of double batiste inset with much hemstitching. The sort of soft, dainty, warm-weather blouse that most women want. To add a "different" touch a bit of good lace could be put around the collar and cuffs.

Women's Fashionable Low Shoes at $6.60

Oxfords and pumps with medium heels, these are of tan or black calfskin and show the good-looking imitation wing tips. The soles are Gleaming black patent leather pumps are in two styles; some have high heels and others have baby French heels. Not all sizes in every style. Children's White Oxfords, $4 and $4.50 a Pair

(Chestnut)

Sizes 81/2 to 2. The white leather is much like buckskin and is easily cleaned. Mothers will like the roominess of the toes of the shoes, as it gives plenty of comfort to the little toes inside.

Young Men, Attention! Summer-Weight Two-Trouser Suits, of All-Wool Cheviot, $36.50 Two pairs of trousers with a suit means almost double wear, and there is a substantial money saving on every one of these suits.

They are young men's styles of all-wool cheviots in good gray and brown mixtures. The coats half lined with mohair.

All sizes 34 to 42 in the lot.

Men's All-Wool Suits, $27.50 and $34.50

Every suit is marked much less than it would be marked under ordinary circumstances. Materials are summer-weight, all-wool cheviots, and styles are semi-conservative and conservative. There is every regular size to choose from, though not in each style. (Gallery, Market)

Boys'Shoes—Special at $3.50

Boys' Oxfords at $5.50

Straight-lace tan Oxfords with wide toes are in sizes 10 to 131/2. Tennis Shoes and Oxfords for men and boys are of plain white or brown duck or canvas, or of white trimmed with brown. $2 to $3.75 (Gallery, Market)

Scented Toilet Soaps, 10ca Cake

Heliotrope, Viclet, Rose, White Lilac, Sandalwood

They're from one of the best-known soap makers in the

Skirts of White Surf Satin at $2.90

A simple and becoming skirt of this gleaming white material has inset pockets, each topped with a flap and a pearl button. It is in regular sizes up to 30-inch waistbands Other pretty tub skirts of rep, galatea, gabardine and surf satin are here at $1.65 to $6.75.

Summer Curtains and Portieres About a Fourth Less at $3.25 to $6.50 a Pair

The curtains, which are 24 inches wide, and the porticres, which are 36, are of stenciled cotton crash and are 21/2 yards long. Some of them have valances,

The stenciling is in attractive patterns of green and gold, black and green, old rose and green, etc.

Summer Madras Portieres Reduced to $7 and $9 a Pair

Madras curtains are especially pretty and airy hanging in doorways and these are full-length, 2% yards long. Madras is light as thistledown, but very durable Those at $9 have a high luster that makes them look like Brown, green, old rose, olive and attractive color combinations are in the lot and every pair of curtains is worth quite a bit more.

Mosquito Netting

Special at $1.65 a Piece Black or white-and each piece is 58 inches wide and 8 yards long. Plenty of use for it; July is only half through! Good Screen Cloth at 35c a Yard It is 36 inches wide and in gray.

(Central)