"Marvelously Received" is Right Paris. July 19.—Georges Carpentier, the uropean heavyweight champlen, was given a rousing reception, such as is usually accorded popular royalties, upon his arrival in Paris last night. He told reporters he had been "marvelously received" by the Americans, and that he cherished the happiest memories for them and their "wonderful country." Carpentier announced he would return to the United States, sailing on La Lorraine September 4.
