EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1920

COLORED COMEDIAN WINS KEITH'S HONORS Harry Fox Takes Second Place on Summer Bill-Other Vaudeville Houses

Nixon—Himber and Patterson, head-liners, have an excellent singing and dancing turn. Other good acts are con-tributed by Moore and Fields, vocalists : the Broadway Four, singing comedians ; Bernard and Ferris, clever sketch, and Walter Kaufmann. Two "surprise fea-tures" are also offered. The movie is "Love Harvest," with Shirley Mason. Reith's-An old-time colored comedian proved the teal headliner at Keith's yes-I Resamond Johnson, forof the team of Cole and, Johnterdayson, and his quintet of singers and terday. A toward and Section of the songs in an event in a contervise of the songs in an event ing stress and their meter is solver and the solver and the solver is solver and the solver the solver the solver and the solver the solver the solver and the solver the solver the solver the solver and the solver th bonular and also several theoletic way that pleases. Hereschel Henlers way that pleases. Hereschel Henlers way that an excellent planist, but as the comedian the less said the better, to come of the same of Roman was and do it in a skillful manner. The several and conventional. It is based on the several and conventional. It is based on the like-named play, popular some time acts of a source of the staken by Marjorie acts of the first yacht race, and ther Boys, in the dimension of a source, happy work in "The Eyes of Youth" will be recalled by those fortunate enough to see her in the original periods of the source of the staken by Marjorie acts of a source of the sou bats. An interesting photoplay rounded out a bill of merit. WESTERN ROMANCE Grand-Jack Patton and Loretta Marks, always favorites, are the prin-cipals in a musical revue, "Bits and Pieces," which hits the high spots of attractiveness. Other entertaining acts include Bert Howard, comedian; the Cycling McNutts, daring "wheelists"; Grace and Eddie Parker, dancers, and movies which show Harold Lloyd in his newest comedy and the last installment of the serial, "The Lost City."

ON TWO SCREENS

ON TWO SCREENS, Palace and Victoria Have Red. Blooded Movies—Charming Comedy at Stanley Stanley—"In Search of a Sinner" is not so terrible a play as its title might lead one to believe. Instead, it is a dea blot of the sort that keeps moving until the conclusion of the fun. Usually a poot of the sort that keeps moving until the conclusion of the fun. Usually a good laugh is promised with Constance Talmadge as the star of a film, and this production is no exception. The combination of Anita Loos and John Emerson as scenarists is enough to guarantee merit for a movie play, and the disc in her name in the chief feminine role, while G. Raymond Nys and others have important supporting parts.

as the girl of the title, while Niles Welch is the stalwart hero. Jack Curtis, George Stanley, James O'Nelli and others lend support.

the idea in back of this picture is one that should touch the risibilities of the most sedate movie fan. A young girl is married to a professor who is so good that she is bored with his attention to her every wish. He dies and then begins her search for a second mate, whom wants one who is not too "goody-good"; and her search leads her to the right man. Before she discovers this new person there are many comic complications. The whole thing is good-humored. Arnold Lucy is the delightful hus-band, whose every action recalls his fine acting in "Nothing But the Teuth" will Payne wrote this story for the humored. Arnold Lucy is the delightful hus-band, whose every action recalls his fine acting in "Nothing But the Truth" with Willie Collier. Corliss Giles, who is sought by the widow, does good work as the member of the purity league. Lillian Worth is the "vamp." The play has been beautifully mounted. Charlotte Thompson wrote the story.

popularity will be growing through merit. Will Payne wrote this story for the Saturday Evening Post, and in doing so supplied a tale that fits the star. Clarence Badger took good care of the direction. The story has been fashioned with an eye to beauty as well as effective comedy. Little Jimmle Rogers, son of the leading man, is introduced, and his every action is worthy of his place upon the screen. The plot deals with two crooks who attempt to annex the savings of a mas-from the country. Their success only makes the man determined to get back his money. The cleyer way in which the criminals use a bank for their opera-tions is worth seeing because of the leason it teaches to the unwary to be careful of strangers. Irence Rich is the bright lady who plays opposite the hero, and gives 50 per cent of the love interest. interest.

WANAMAKER'S DOWN STAIRS STORE WANAMAKER'S

11

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

3500 Pair of Women's and Children's Summer Footwear At About Half Price

All of these pumps and Oxford ties were taken from our own good stocks, where they have been marked considerably higher. The shoes are in the season's good fashions and there is an adequate assortment of sizes to fit every one.

1500 Pair of Women's Pumps and Oxford Ties, $4.25 a Pair

Street-weight oxfords and pumps, with welted soles and medium heels, are of black or dark tan calfskin.

Patent leather or black calfskin pumps have turned soles and high or baby French heels.

1000 Pair of Women's Oxford Ties in Gray at $3 a Pair

Gray kidskin oxford ties have turned soles and high heels.

Cafe au lait oxfords have turned soles and baby French heels. Both styles are light in weight and very comfortable for warm weather.

1000 Pair of Children's Oxford Ties at $2.60 a Pair

These are all oxford ties of black calfskin and patent leather with round toes and welted soles and they are in sizes $8\frac{1}{2}$ to 2. (Chesteus) the collie, were taking a nap. Suddenly something tumbled from a tree right on Gray Prince's back—something Chubby and squirmy. "Away went Gray Prince like an ar-row from a bow. Away he dashed in a panic of fear—away, away, with that chubby, squirmy something clawing at his back, trying to get a hold on his hair or mane. or mane.

"At Gray Prince's first sport Shep and Lady Ann jumped to their feet, wide swake. When they saw the something on the horse's back they, too, were scared, but for a different reason. They started after the runaway as fast as they could no.

started after the runaway as fast as they could go. "Why were they scared, do you ask?" said Toddie Pupkins, grinning at Peggy and Billy. "They were scared because the chubby, squirmy something that had dropped out of the tree was no one else but that garing scamp, little Phil. That, was the way he had taken to get on Gray Prince's back.

"Now wasn't that a funny manner of mounting a horse? Do you wonder that Gray Prince was scared out of his wits? And do you wonder that he ran away, making father and mother nearly wild with fear leat he throw little Phil off and kill him?

and kill him? "Away, away raced Gray Prince, go-ing faster and faster as he heard he excited and frightened barks of my father and mother behind him. After them all I came barking as loud as I could, but my legs were so short that I couldn't keep up with them. I was far behind when the finish came. That fin-ish in one way gas just what my father and mother feared; in another way it wasn't.

and mother feared; in another way it "Gray Prince after he got over his first scare and found that the creature on his back wasn't doing him any harm. began to recover his wits. And his wits told him to get rid of his unwelcome rider. That was to stop suddenly. "That is just what Gray Prince did. He braced his feet and stopped with a joint at the end of a mighty leap. Little Phil, who was bouncing up and down, and having all he could do to cling to Gray Prince's mane, went flying over the horse's head. Gray Prince saw him in the air and knew him instantly. He was horror-stricken to think that per-hans he had killed his little friend. "Gray Prince had stopped right be-aide a bog. Little Phil went sailing into heavy bushes that caught him like a cushion, and let him through into the soft mnd underneath. He landed in the mud as gently as though he had fallen "A feather bed.

