

One Dashes Down Broad Street With Clothing Ablaze. Saved by Patrolman

CIGARETTE STARTED FIRE

Two men were seriously burned at 12:25 o'clock this afternoon when a cigarette spark ignited gasoline in the tank of their motortruck. The injured men are Robert Black, thirty-three years old, 8515 German-town avenue, and Harry Frane, twen-ty-five years old, 3425 North Judson street.

ty-five years old, 5425 North Judson street. The accident occurred at Broad street and Roosevelt boulevard. When Black's clothing caught fire he became panic-stricken. He ran about 200 yards along the boulevard, his clothing aflame, with a reserve 'patrolman in pursuit. The patrolman, Howard Kerwick, caught Black and wrapped a blanket around him, extinguishing the flames. Kerwick ran back to the burning truck and found Frane writhing on the ground. The patrolman put out the flames in his clothing and sent both men to St. Luke's Hospital. The truck, a moving van, had been stopped in front of the Twentleth Cen-tury garage. Frane got out and leaned stopped in front of the Twentieth Cen-tury garage. France got out and leaned over the gasoline tank, according to the police, to see if "gas" was needed. He had a lighted cigarette in his mouth. There was a puff of flame as the gasoline ignited. Black ran to beat gasoline ignited. Leave, Probe Discloses it the fire, but his clothes also became

These facts were established today after an investigation by Harry B. Pierce, superintendent of the bureau of in-vestigation here of the Department of Justice. Captain Evans is recovering at the Hahnemann Hospital. He is said to have back and been refused. It was declared by Albert Talheimer.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

While Kerwick was sending the injured men to the hospital some one struck an alarm of fire. Garage em-ployes fought the fire in the truck with chemical extinguishers. It was out when firemen arrived. The truck was owned by J. L. Gil-es. 8515 Germantown avenue. The damage to the truck was slight.

SUES TO RECOVER BEER

Milk Dealer Wants Back 49 Cases suffered a mental collapse from over-work. He left the army hospital July 10, and, it is said, cannot tell how he Taken From His Home Abraham Rubin, a milk dealer, 232 Bainbridge street, who was discovered by the police to have forty-nine cases of beer in his home will have a chance to tell Judge Stern, of Common Pleas reached this city. HELD IN ROW OVER AUTO

Court No. 2, just how he got it when the case comes up next Monday morning. Rubin claims that the beer is his pri-vate possession in spite of the fact that the impression is spite of the fact that the impression seems to have got around that he was running a speak-casy. He has brought legal proceedings to recover the valued fluid, which the police heart-lessly carried off, and the court will de-cide the fate of the beer and its owner.

Deaths of a Day

DR. JOSEPH FARLEY

Prominent Downtown Physician Stricken at Atlantic City

nanager, that O'Toole had entered into an altercation with Mrs. Krouse, who had sold him the car, and with Tal-heimer and Harry Hart, an employe. Dr. Joseph Farley, 1919 South Broad rect, a well known physician in South hiladelphia, died suddenly of heart disease last night in his summer South New Jersey avenue, Atlantic Doctor Farley had gone to Atlantic ity to spend the week end with his family and was stricken on Sunday afternoon while walking on the Boardwalk. He was taken to his home and a specialist from this city was sum-moned, but he never rallied.

Doctor Farley was fifty-seven years old and had practiced for thirty-seven years at Broad and Mifflin streets. He Sylvia P. Fox, Benjamin Chew, Jr., Anne Chew and Samuel Chew, members of Philadelphia families, playing on the sands at Balley Beach, Newport, R. I.

OFFICER'S ACCOUNTS O. K. VARE FINALLY GETS HORSE; Captain Evans Not Absent Without BEGAN SEARCH MONTH AGO

Captain Francis E. Evans, medical corps, United States army, who jumped into the Schuylkill from the Walnut street bridge Saturday, left his ac-counts with the army hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., in good condition. Neither is he absent without leave. These facts were established today after Senator "Ed" Vare chased a horse | ancient steed whose best pace is down Broad street in a taxicab a cou- walk.

One day the senator was walking down Broad street. Along came a ple of months ago, but caught up to him only last night. only last night. And then it was in the banqueting foom of Lu Lu Temple. Senator "Ed" whose ambling gait was an argument in and the horse gravely confronted each favor of horse stealing.

International

y other across the silver and cut-glass. It was a somewhat unusual situation. The senator smiled and the borse arched his neck as they were presented—that is, the horse was presented to the sen-ator. It was a gift from his friends and well-wishers on his birthday anni-versary.

Man Alleged to Have Started Fight In Salesroom A fight in the automobile salesroom of the Krouse Motorcar Co., 213 North Broad street, this morning resulted in the arrest of William O'Toole, of 3242 Bodine street. He was held under $400 bail for court by Magistrate Boyle in the Eleventh and Winter streets sta-tion. Had well-wishers on his birthday anni-'Why, it's the horse I saw that day on Broad street, '' said Senator ''Ed'' to his wife. And he smiled some more. Mrs. Vare, knowing to what he alluded, is miled, too. The gift meant a lot to the down-town leader. It meant that next time he goes for a ride at his country home at Ambler—he'll amble. The senator likes horseback riding. When they were getting up the one horse, not a dozen. When they were getting up the birthday dinner W. J. Benham, Dan tion. O'Toole told the magistrate he had bought a second-hand car at the place, and when he found it not up to his ex-pectations had demanded his money back and hear refused Shern and Tom Watson waited on Mr Hazlett and asked that he suggest a present for the senator. He suggested one for months, meanwhile riding an the horse. They did the rest.

G. O. P. SEEKING HARMONY HELD IN STRIKE RIOT DEATH

Committee Will Try to Settle Sev- Prisoner Detained by Coroner in Conenteenth Ward Tie Tonight nection With Slaying of Man

Gaetano Crutano, thirty-three years Beginning tonight, the contest com-ittee of the Republican City Commit-Joseph M. Coyle Bordentown, N. J., and Heins B. Conrad, Trenton, N. J., and Henry S. Parr, 2830 Monitsomery ave., and tee will start activities in an attempt to old, of Stella street near Twentieth,

Joseph M. Coyle Bordentown, N. J., and Helen's Conrad. Trentom, N. J. Henry S. Farr, 2839 Montgomery ave., and Anna E. Walker, 3606 N. 16th at. Boward Walker, 3606 N. 16th at. Michael J. Mullaney, 1624 Bouvier st., and Marion Ford 2006 Harlan st. John Wong, 532 S. 533 st., and Dorothy I.I. 2315 Frankford ave. Davis, Charleston, W. Va. Schmidt, 1839 S. Sth st. Aleck Elia, 912 N. 3d st., and Masgle Belo-witz, 912 N. 13th st. Benjamin Garnett, Pennasroye, N. J., and

Night Blaze Destroys Silk and Woolen Store at 418 South Fifth Street

WOMAN HAD BEEN ILL

Four persons were rescued by patrol-men of the Third and De Lancey streets station at 11 :20 o'clock lest night when fire destroyed the silk and woolen store of Kopil Kohen, at 418 South Fifth

The origin of the fire is unknown of the store there was a thick smoke of the store there was a thick smoke which filled the stairways and soon spread through the entire house. Three children on the third floor were first awakened and their screams of fright aroused Mrs. Max Silver, a neighbor. She gave the alarm and the door of the ouse was broken down.

Rushing upstairs, several policemen found Max Dubin, eight years old, his brother. Benjamin, four years old, and Edward Woolman, nine years old, grop-ing about in the smoke, and crying for aid. They were carried down the stairs and to the street, where they were given o neighbors to care for. Meanwhile, Mrs. Bernard Dubin, who was in a room on the second floor, was being carried out. Both she and the being carried out. Both she and the boy Benjamin had been brought home from the hospital several days ago, and were convalescing. It is not believed, however, they will-suffer a relapse because of their experience. The loss is placed at $5000.

HELD IN JEWEL ROBBERY

Man Arrested When He Tries to Pawn Aviator's Gems

George Ferguson, Arch street near Seventeenth, was held under $1000 bail for a further hearing July 27 by Magisfor a further hearing July 27 by Magis-trate Carson today, in Central Police Station. He is charged with the theft of jewels worth $300 from Licutenant Commander E. M. L. Bellinger, United States navy, The licutenant commander commanded the N C-1 on the transat-lantic dight. antic flight. The naval officer left the bag containing the jewelry in his automobile at Broad and Walnut streets, last night. He was on his way to Washington from New York, when he missed the bag. He New lock, when he missed the bag. He notified the police and a flier was sent out. This morning, when Ferguson tried to pawn the jewelry at a pawa-shop in the neighborhood of Ninth and Walnut street, he was arrested. He claimed he had been given the jewelry by a man named Freddie Frazier. Fer-

ELLIS A. GIMBEL HOST

and Soldiers at Philmont Club Orphans from the Foster Home, Germantewn, and United States over-seas veterans from the Engineering School will be the guests of Ellis A. Gimbel at the Philmont Country Club tomorrow. The orphans, of whom 190 will be present, ranging in age from six years up, and the soldiers and saliors will engage in a baseball game, with Mr. Gimbel as umpire. Other games and sports have been arranged. Special prizes selected by Mrs. Gimbel will be

POPULAR MEETINGS Reason for Small Attendance at Regular Sessions Is

Puzzle to Leaders

QUESTION ASKED MEMBERS

Naval Post 197, American Legion, is making a careful study to ascertain why only a few score out of more than 500 paid-up members attend their meet-In an editorial entitled "What's the Matter?' Matter?" in the Naval Post News edited by Lester S. Hecht, of the post the question is put squarely up to the eterans: Something must be done to improve the attendance of the post meetings." declares the editorial. "Manifestly something is wrong, when from a mem-bership of more than 500 fully paid members only a score or so attend the meetings. Those who do attend unquestionably derive benefit not only the free, carnest discussions, but from the association and comradeship with other mcn. Meetings twice monthly may prove burdensome, but surely every by trying to see how long he could stay under water companions waited on the banks of the Mantua creek last eveomrade could, without inconvenience attend one meeting a month. "The American Legion has the opning for Samuel Quigg, twenty-six years old. of 2214 East Letterly street, portunity of becoming a great factor for to reappear after a dive into the stream. When he failed to come up in a reasongood in the life of the city, state and nation, and it behooves us all to disable time they made a search for his budy and recovered it twenty minutes later. Doctors Underwood and Sparks, of Woodbury, worked over him for a lobg time before hopes of reviving him ware deardered. play a genuine interest so that the Le gion's splendid aims may be realize Suggestions for the betterment of the post and the improvement of the meetings are welcomed."

were abandned. Companions of Quigg said that they had gone into bathe in the creek near the former Beakley farm and were en-This post at one time had a paid-up membership of 2800 veterans and it led the state. That there is something lacking in the meetings of the post is the convic-tion of Vice Commander Simpson. He under is visiting the various posts in an ef-fort to obtain data as to the features which prove attractive to the Legion so that he may recommend the incorporation of such features in all post meetings throughout the city. Some of the posts in Philadelphia are meeting semimonthly, others have dis-continued meetings for the summer and SEEK ORDERLIES IN THEFT there are some that meet once a month as usual.

Two Disappear at Time Physician and Patients Are Robbed

SAMUEL QUIGG

Overseas veteran who was drowned

yesterday in Mantua creek

DIVE FATAL TO BATHER

Companions Recover Body, but Phy sicians Fail to Revive Him

Believing he was trying to fool them

The preparation of an interesting program for the posts is one of the first problems that should be met by the new state administration of the Legion. Two hospital orderlies accused o obbing patients and doctors are being ought by the police. One is a man giving the name of HIT CAMDEN VENDERS Frank Martin, who secured a position at the Woman's College Hospital, 2121 Merchants Complain of the Block North College avenue, and disappeared ing of Sidewalks at the time a purse containing $15 and some papers were stolen from Dr. F. E. Camden merchants met today at Camden city hall to discuss the numer-ous blockings of sidewalks with push-King, Thirty-fifth street and Powelton ous blockings of sidewa avenue, and $15 and a diamond and carts, boxes and crates. ruby stickpin, valued at $350, from Charles A. Beahmey, 5726 Lansdowne chants' division of the Camden Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Ellis pre-The other man, whose name is not divulged, worked at the Samaritan Hos-pital. He left today, and two suits pital. He left today, and two suits Ellis said. He called Chief of Police Ellis said. He called Chief of Police pital. He left today, and two port-pital. He called Unier of Force ed stolen. The physicians who missed Gravenor, who said the police were en-forcing the ordinance which permit the articles were Dr. Harry A. Dun-forcing the ordinance which permits venders to use one-third of the pave-ments in front of their stores. Chief Erie avenue. The clothing and watches men were enforcing the ordinance. A new method of issuing permits only were stolen while the surgeons were to those venders who agree to sell prod-ucts at one spot was suggested. recommendation was made that instead of allowing venders to sel products all over Cambien they should be confined to one place. The merchants will con-fer with the city clerk on this proposi-tion.

tion. Secretary Searle, of the association recommended that letters be written t other cities requesting copies of the ordinances relating to pushcart vender.

Perry's Reduction Sale!

Won't cost you Much to get into it-But will cost you a Lot to stay out!

The reductons in this sale are quite big enough to stand on their own bottom, and we're not trying to scare up the ghost of higher prices to back them up. But this much is certain! Prices are going back to where they came from, when our sales period is over. whether they go higher or not. If you want to pay those prices, WAIT -if you don't, DON'T!

Waiting is expensive BUY NOW!

$40, $43, $45, $50

for regular $50, $55, $60. $65, $70 and $75 Summer Suits that led the market at those prices!

Trousers Reduced

$3.50 for $5 trousers, to $10 for $13.50 trousers.

The ladies' committee named to at-sist Mr. Gimbel consists of the follow-ing members: Mrs. Louis Fleisher, Mrs. Tillman Cahn, Mrs. Julius Werl, gaged in a friendly contest to see which of the swimmers could stay water the longest. Quigg served overseas with the Fourth Division in France and Germany. Before going across the rescued three women from a burning Y. M. C. A. building at Camp Greenfield, for which act of heroism he received a letter of mendation from the government.

guson said he was a former officer in th merchant marine.

Merchant Will Entertain Orphans performing an operation. Tried to Steal Auto, is Charge William Lynch, Race street above Fourth, was held under $1000 bail for

MUNICIPAL BAND CONCERT

Seventh and Carpenter streets station. testified they had gone to quell the riot, and had been disarmed by the mob. The fighting started when a crowd of strike-breakers were met by strikers.

THIEVES ROB TAILOR SHOP

Clothing and Goods Valued at $1000 Are Taken

The tailor shop of Irving Brener, S19 uth Third street, was entered at 1:30 o'clock this morning and articles were stolen to a total value of $1000. The robbers took a dozen men's suits two skirts and seven rolls of cloth Brener told the police he suspected is young man who called to look at some suitings at 9 o'clock, and stared hard at the place before he left.

of some older folks who forget that they were once children themselves, is not unlike that of some banking institutions toward small depositors. But we have kept and always shall keep our memory young, and the size of the balance counts far less with us than the friends we gain and the help we can give. We want to count you as one of our many friends. Open Monday and Friday Evenings Until 9 o'Clock

Godle Stein, thirty-three years old, 303 Queen street, an onlooker, who was shot, died of a gunshot wound in the chest at the hands of a person unknown. Patrolmen Gilbert and Clark, of the Harry avenue, owner of the car, caused the young man's arrest. BALLEYBANKS&BIDDIE DIAMONDS Navette - Square Emerald Cut - Round and Pear Shape. THE attitude Especially mounted in the distinctive settings produced by this Company. "Eh? What's that you say? At first the Noiseless seems positively uncanny. The absence of the usual click-click-clicking puzzles you-delights you.

ASK FOR

BOOKLET AND

IMPRESSIVE

We are just as proud of the speed and fine work of the Noiseless as of its blessed quiet. It is the one big typewriter improvement of the last twenty years and you should know about it.

The Noiseless Typewriter Co., 835 Chestnut St., Philadelphia Phone Walnut 3691

$25 to $55

Specially selected for wear on really hot days. The breeziest, lightest, coolest fabrics produced for men's comfort. Regular sack and Norfolk models of Covert, Gabardine, Tropical Worsteds, Wool Crash Hopsacking, Palm Beach, Mohair, Linen and Silks. Tailored with the matchless MacDonald & Campbell style and workmanship. They will retain their distinguished shapes and are extraordinary values.

Men's Hats, Clothing, Haberdashery,

Motor Wear

Summer Business Hours 8:30 to 5 Saturday Closed All Day

1334-1336 Chestnut Street