The Woman's Exchange

Lots of Trouble

Dear Madam—Would you kindly answer how to rid a house and cellar of fleas and chicken lice?

Also how to take the stains out of a badly discolored porcelain sink?

And what can be done if a public utility company refuses to serve you with gas without cause?

MRS. F. J.

with gas without cause? MRS. F. J.

To get rid of these vermin wash the floors with hot water and strong soapsoads, and fill up the cracks of the floor.
Sprinkle the floors and carpets—if there are carpets down—with alum, either in are carpets down—with alum, either in appendered form or dissolved into liquid, whichever is more convenient. Then spread oil of pennyroyal or pyrethrum, both of which can be bought at the drug siore, over the floors, as the pests dissiore, over the floors, as the pests dissioned by the control of pennyroyal can be used on the human skin. If there is any danger of the vermin getting that close.

Pour kerosene into the sink, and wipe every part of the porcelain with it. Then get steel wool and some whiting, and get steel wool and some whiting, and get the stains off porcelain when they fave been there for a long time, but have been there for a long time, but he kerosone will do part of it, and the kerosone will do part of it, and the kerosone will do part of the nor several days to get the sink entirely clean.

There must be some cause for the gas, company to refuse to serve you. Perhaps there has been some trouble with the people who wege in the house before. You had better go in person to see the superintendent or some one in charge at the local office, and find out just why they will not serve you. If you can get no reason or satisfaction, consult the Legal Aid Society, 34 South Sixteenth gives and find out just why the proposition of the proposition of

It Can't Be Done

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—I am a young boy.
I have several tattoo marks on my arms and I wish to know how to get rid of them.

I'm afraid you've started something you can't finish. There is no way known to take away tattoo marka. They are pressed deep into the skin, you know, and now they are part of it. It was too bad that you allowed it to be done in the first place, because now when you want to get rid of it there is no way to do it.

Human Curios

No. 1-The Original Bluebeard Gilles de Layal, Baron de Rais (or Retz) was a contemporary of Joan of Arc, was given charge of her during her expedition to relieve Orleans and remained by her side until the repulse at the Porte St. Honore. Shortly after other lines, and it was not long before the castle took on a sinister aspect in the eyes of the country-folk. Strange disappearances were noted, principally those of children who wandered out after dark, and, as time went on, gossip made much of the fact that the baron had been married numerous times without giving any account of what had out giving any account of what had become of his former wives. Finally the Bishop of Nantes com-menced a secret investigation, which resulted in De Layal's arrest on the charge of being a heretic and a murder-er. At the trial it developed that he bad made away with more than a hundred children and a number of women, seven of whom had been mar-ried to him. For these crimes he was ried to him. For these crimes he was condemned to be burned alive and numerous legends crystallized about his memory. His beard, according to contemporary writers, seems to have had a bluish-black tinge, which was intensified in the popular imagination and, at least in French folklore, attributed to diabolical origin. Perrault introduced the story into literature, giving it an oriental setting in his "Contes de Ma Mere l'Oie," or "Mother Goose Tales,"

Friday-"Mother Damnable."

Cuticura Soap – Imparts – The Velvet Touch

BOUGHT-

House of Established Reliability Highest Prices—Value Guaranteed LICHTEY'S 6 North 11th St. I Door ab. Market

Narrow rows of fine plaiting run from top to bottom of this printed organdie. The collar and cuffs are of white organdie embroidered with dots of blue to match, and the hat is taffeta of the same shade of blue, with a wreath of blue and lavender roses. The streamers are also blue commonly applied to any scientific in-showing some form or other of plaiting. vestigations which were off the beaten The designers over there have shown th of common knowledge.

But De Layal was not satisfied with But De Layal was not satisfied with chemical experiments. He followed ing new and untried ways to use plait-other lines, and it was not long before ings. Undoubtedly the first notion in

(Copyright, 1920, by Florence Rose.)

It's Easy Now to Curl Hair to Stay Curled

Built to one standard for a generation

LOCOMOBILE

The best built car in AMERICA

LOCOMOBILE COMPANY

2314 MARKET STREET

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE

DOROTHY'S STRATEGY

DON'T care," wailed Dorothy, "I think Dick might have come this I. I'll never ask him again."

That is just the trouble, Dot," said sister Shirley, severely. "You know it, I'll ask him again, and he knows it, That's why he doesn't mind reng. You are entirely too good na-OT DON'T care," wailed Dorothy, "I time. I'll never ask him again."

"That is just the trouble, Dot," said her sister Shirley, severely. "You know you'll ask him again, and he knows it, too. That's why he doesn't mind refusing. You are entirely too good natural. If you would invite some one else tention to other girls, he quite often refused Dorothy's invitations to the pleading engagements with the

the other fellows.

This special occasion was a party for her sister, and at the last minute Dick had telephoned that he could not come because some of his friends had made because some of his friends had made plans for a bowling match and he could not very well refuse when they were planning on him. Many girls would have retorted that they, also, were planning on him, but Dorothy did not. She quietly decided that something must be done, for she could not continue making excuses for him to the other girls.

Two days later Shirley entered the Two days later Shirley entered the house in time to hear Dorothy say sweetly, "I'm sorry, but I shall be busy tomorrow evening. Some other time, perhaps," and the telephone receiver was replaced with great care.

"Oh, Dot, I hoped you would go to the dance at the club with us tomorrow right. Lack has his callege above." night. Jack has his college chum, Ar-thur Willis, here, and I thought perthur Willis, here, and I thought per-haps—"Indeed I will, Shirley. I just re-fused Dick, and I didn't know what I would do. I think he is probably still staring at the phone, he was so sur-prised. I never refused him before." "Good for you, Dot. I think you will like Arthur. He's just great and a wonderful dancer."

There were great preparations for the dance and at 8 o'clock both girls looked like radiant butterflies. Dorothy's eyes were sparkling and her color high as they entered the club. Never had she looked lovelier, and Dick, sitting gloomat the Porte St. Honore. Shortly after this campaign the Baron retired to his this campaign the Baron retired to his estates, where his wealth and the comparative isolation of his castle permitted parative isolation of his castle permitted him to pursue his favorite studies of him to pursue his favorite studies of when she sees again and again frocks and what business has he running off with my girl?"

Dorothy gave him a brief nod as sh passed, and the next minute was laughing merrily at some remark of Arthur's. Dick retreated to the veranda, lit a cigarette, and was soon joined by sev-eral of his friends, who were lounging

DOCTORS RECOMMEND

It brings you the coolness of the mountain tops where it is grown, and the

"The tea of sparkling you'll ask him again, and too. That's why he doesn't mind refusing. You are entirely too good natured. If you would invite some one else in his place a few times he would accept quickly enough."

"But, Shirley, you know I couldn't ask any of the other fellows. They would think it queer—and well—anyway, I'll have to do something."

Dick Townsend was a happy, care-plick place of the boys did not satisfy him, and the left early. He tried to relieve his made under the entiry the entiry the entiry to a dance. She was on her way to the dance. She was on her way to the dance. Townsend was the companion of the companion was townsend was a point in his new car," and she have a spin in his new car," and she have a spin in his new car," and she have a spin in his new car," and she have a spin in his new car, and the companion of the boys did not satisfy him, and have a spin in his new car, and the companion of the boys did not satisfy him, and have a spin in his new car, and the companion of the boys did not satisfy him, and have car and the companion of the boys did not satisfy him, number taken by an irate traffic cop and arrived home in very bad humor, In the week that followed Dorothy thoroughly enjoyed herself. She and Arthur played tennis, went swimming and canoeing, took several long tramps and many long rides in Jack's machine. Dick looked helplessly on, his anger changing to chagrin, then to anxiety as he tried to picture life without Dor-beach and sat down on the sea wall to think. He heard voices just below him and a few words impressed themselves on his brain and prompted him to in-stant action. He telephoned to Dor-othy, but she was busy and would not see him. Dick was desperate.

Che evening he wandered down to the press.

see him. Dick was desperate.

Dorothy was sitting in the automobile in front of the clubhouse waiting for Arthur. Some one quietly stepped into the machine, and before she could get her breath she was whirling down the road at a reckless speed.

"Dick," she began, angrily, and then stopped at the look on his face. "Why, Dick, what is the matter?"

Silence! Dorothy felt inclined to laugh, but did not dare, so tucked her hand under his arm and waited. Presently the machine leaved down and

"Very well, you'll stay right here until you promise."
"Well, of course, if you force me to On the way back to the club Dorothy suddenly exclaimed: "Oh, Dick, Shir-ley is having a little spread tomorrow ight. Can you come over?'

'You bet your life I can.' For some unknown reason Dorothy suddenly had a violent fit of cough-ing, which it took some time to sup-

Don't Forget This 24-Hour Service

Free Inspection Service Bring your car hereour experts will inspect it and advise you without charge or obligation.

line and adjust the brakes, and you can drive it home the same day. If you intend taking a motoring vacation, let us inspect your car before you start. It's a big satisfaction

It means that you can bring your car here before 9 A. M., we'll grind the valves, remove the carbon, and re-right. Don't wait. Bring your car in now.

to know that your car is

Phone, Spruce 409

Automobile Repairs Company of Philadelphia, Inc. 229-231 North Twenty-third Street

PRODUCTION ENGINEERS

35 Years' Experience in Labor-Saving Devices & Methods

Designers and Builders of Automatic Machinery, Punches and Dies and Manufacturing Equipment of Special Character

Engineers and Machinists A. NACKE & SON

Walnut 2747

Keystone Phone: 236-242 S. 9th St., Phila.

ASCO

ASCO ASCO ASCC ASCO

Why Not the Best? Especially When It Costs Less

Can you afford to pay 45c, 50c or 60c a pound for coffee, when the very finest cup that ever passed your lips can be bought in any American Store for 40c lb.?

"Asco" blend is a combination of selected coffees. blended to produce not only flavor and aroma, but we have been mindful also of the economy feature, in that we have combined a full heavy body.

Our coffees are all thoroughly cleaned, blended and roasted in our own plant, under the supervision of an expert. This is the reason why the quality is so uniform; why its rich, smooth, delightful flavor and pleasing aroma has found its way into the homes of more coffee connoisseurs throughout the four States where our stores operate than any other.

"Asco" Coffee 1b 40°

Full heavy body, insuring economy. A satisfying flavor, difficult to find. A blend never excelled, and hard to match.

Stores conveniently located all over Philadelphia and in the principal cities and towns of Penna., New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland

WANAMAKER'S

WANAMAKER'S

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

A Cool, Convenient Place to Shop

A Pretty and Practical Bathing Suit, $5.50

For Women and Young Women

It is of black surf satin, of a firm, durable quality, made in sleeveless style with a round neck. At each side of the front there is an inverted pleat which is cross-stitched in white, Copenhagen In Extra Sizes (44 to 52) there is a suit of black surf satin piped in white, yellow, green or blue. $6.75.

Silk Bathing Suits

are so gleaming and pretty and are very light in weight. Of taffeta, satin or silk-and-cotton faille, they range in price from $8.75 to $19.

Black Tights of cotton are 85c and $1.10 the suit.

Cool Summer Shirts for Men, $2.50

They're mighty good shirts, too! Of finely woven percale in stripes of many, many colors and combinations, they are made with soft cuffs. Wanamaker shirts in every sense -generously proportioned, nicely made and finished.

Neckties at 50c Are Remarkably Low in Price

Four-in-hands and batwings. Made of good silks or silk-and-cotton mixtures. (Gallery, Market)

July and August Are Organdie Months, as Women and Girls All Know

A Youthful Frock at $12 Dainty and pretty, though quite simple—is this model, which combines delicately tinted organdie with white. Wide bands of blue, orchid, maize or pale green organdie on the skirt match the trimming on the blouse and the effect is delightful.

New Gingham Dresses

$6 and $6.50

blue or black with white are very clean-looking and the dresses are freshly unpacked. Crisp white organdie forms the collars, cuffs and vestees.

Checks or small plaids in green, yellow, pink,

Flower-Sprigged Organdie Is there anything daintier or quite so quaint and Summery? Lavender or blue are the flowers and the organdie is very sheer, so that the dresses need only their tucks and collars of white organdie and lace to finish them. $22.50 and $25.

Deep hems individualize the dresses at $15, and at $25 dresses of sheer white organ-die show insets of pretty lace and many deep tucks. One of the dresses at $25 is sketched.

The Hues of Flowers

There are other dresses in various shades at $15 and $17.50 and quite as attractive.

Copenhagen blue, delicate pink and orchid -the dress at $17.50 that is sketched is of organdie and there are those three shades to

The Smartness of Linen is especially attractive in the other dress that is sketched. The white linen is combined with white voile and the dress is in a style that could be worn almost anywhere. $10.25. Inexpensive Summer Frocks $3, $3.75, $4.50, $4.75 to $10.25 Surely every possible voile pattern, large and small, is represented in the voile dresses whose styles and colors are myriad!

There are models for all types, from the young girl to the elderly woman.

Just a Word of the Softness of Silk Chine or Georgette is a convenient thing to have in the wardrobe. The exclusive models at $25 to $38.25 are mostly in the light flesh and pink tints and in white.

Women's Summer Footwear Is Almost Half Price at $3 and $4.25

$10.25

The $3 oxfords are all of kidskin; in gray with turned soles and high French heels; in cafe au lait with turned soles and baby French

The $4.25 footwear comprises street-weight oxford ties and pumps of black or dark tan calfskin with welted soles and medium heels; also lighter pumps of patent leather or black calfskin with turned soles and high or baby French heels.

Children's Oxford Ties, $2.60

Of black calfskin and patent leather, these have round, comfortable toes and welted soles. Sizes 81/2 to 2. Sizes are broken in each group, but there is fine choosing.

Women's Athletic Combinations

Special at $1.50 They are one of the coolest and most comfortable styles of Summer underwear. Made of soft pink novelty voile or crepe, most of them have ibbon shoulder straps.

"Come on and Play!"

Cover-all-over play suits have long trousers to protect little knees that seem to be partial to bumps, but the sleeves are short and cool. The material is a sturdy cotton suiting and the suits are of blue trimmed with tan or of tan trimmed with blue or red. Buttons are securely fastened. Sizes 3 to 6 years, $2.

500 Pretty House Dresses at $3

wearing 'mest any place in the morning. The dress from this group that is sketched is of printed voile in checks of black, blue, pink or lavender with white. The collar, cuffs and pocket-tops are of white lawn finished with pleated frills.

Another style is of voile in all-over pattern, blue, pink or navy, with pleated white ruffles at the neck

Wearable and Cool Are the Dresses at $3.85 The model is sketched. It is of dainty all-over figured voile, which is in dark blue or black on a white ground. Notice the little white ruffles-and the dress Gingham at $7.50 This is more a porch dress. The gingham is in small multi-color plaids and is excellent quality, as is Needless to say "Special," they tell it in them-selves! There are four styles; one bib apron and one trimmed with ricrac braid among them. The gingham all in blue-and-white checks of various sizes

600 Gingham Aprons at 55c

