IT WAS A WONDERFUL DAY FOR PHILADELPHIA AND U.S., WITH A'S, PHILS AND RESOLUTE WINNING

Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

ESTERDAY is a day which should go down in history. The A's beat St. Loole, the Phils took a fall out of the Chicago Cubs and the Resolute quit being a maiden a the Shamrock series. It was a great day for the United States and Philadelphia.

Out at Shibe Park, Scott Perry pitched a Perryesque ball game and sent the Browns homeward with the short end of the sare. This victory gave the Macks three out five games, meaning they won the series. All of which in further cause for a celebration. Winning a series almost has become a lost art since 1914.

A young man named Bayne, who put one over on the Yankees last week, tried to repeat against our team and foozled. He finished in the sixth by request and Allan Bothoron sat in for him. Allan was treated roughly while In office and that made the home victory unanimous.

The hero of the afternoon, from a slugging viewpoint, was none other than Whitey Witt. Whitey played such a swell game that his terms probably will be accepted by or Conshohocken or wherever they have terms. The light-headed outfielder had a perfect day at the plate, hitting a double, a single, a sacrifice and walking twice. He drove in two runs, scored a pair and put in a good afternoon's work.

Frank Welsh and Tilly Walker also assisted when bingles were needed. Frank drove in the first tally in the first and Tilly sent home another in the fifth. seventh, with Scott Perry on third, Walker decided to no chances, so he walloped a triple to make sure that Perry would score.

The Phils stepped into an unexpected victory in Chicago, driving Alexander off the mound and winning 6 to 1. Epps Rixey couldn't find the home plate in the first canto and issued four passes, which sent one run across After that he held the Cubs to three hits. Paulette did not play, but is expected back in the line-up today.

In the eighth inning Cravath's men put on a belated rally and hammered five runs across the pan. This was the finish of Alexander. In fact, it would have been the finish of any pitcher.

THE first game of the "croocial" series is over and the Yankees won from Cleveland. However, it was by a narrow squeak, for the Indians had the bases jammed in the ninth and threatened to cop the verdict. Same teams appear today.

Shannon Back After Long Journey

MAURICE SHANNON is back again. The youthful infielder, who has a temperament worthy of an opera star, has been accepted for the second time by Connie

Mack and is slated to fill in at shortstop. Shannon came here from the Boston Braves, stuck around a couple of seasons and then was cast adrift, landing back in Boston on the other end of a trade. This time he wore a Red Sox uniform and lingered in Beantown until the end of last year, when he and Bobby Roth were sent to Washington in another trade. Griffith asked waivers on him a few days ago and Connie claimed him. Therefore, Boston and Washington get

Maurice is not a bad ball player if he can control his temper. He is a classy fielder, hits well, and you can't expect more than that. If he is in the mood, Shannon can play a wonderful game, but on other occasions his

When he was here the last time he and Bobby Roth used to indulge in verbal battles every day. That pair got along like a prohibition agent in a brewery. They were as close as two mile-posts, and the continual scrapping got on Connie's nerves. He decided to give Ed Barrow a taste of it and sent both to him. Then Barrow

Johnson Goes "Back Home"

FTER years of wandering, Jack Johnson finally has returned to his native land and soon will occupy that dear hoose-gow in Chicago which he scorned seven years ago. Incidentally, he jumped his bail, which consisted of $35,000 in cash, just to travel around and see the world.

Jack never was satisfied when in foreign lands. He always had a hankering to come back home and be near his friends. Soon after his sudden exit he planned to return, but feared the law would not be lenient with him. Once, when playing a theatrical engagement in Scotland, he had his passage engaged to New York, but was prevailed upon to wait a while longer until the "affair

Johnson has had quite a career and is one of our most famous globe trotters. After disguising himself as a member of a colored baseball team, he got into Canada and sailed from there to England. He organized a theatrical troupe and played in the important cities,

However, he couldn't stand prosperity. He used to be arrested two and three times a week for speeding in his auto and, after he had committed other offenses, was told to leave the country. He went to Scotland, then to France and finally landed in Spain

In Barcelona he opened a gymnasium and did fairly Then he made his debut and exit on the same day as a bull-fighter. After that he went to Cuba and later to Mexico just to be near home, and now is having his expenses to Chicago paid by the government. Johnson still believes he can fight. He had two bouts across the border with a couple of hams and did not show up very well. He claims he "laid down" to Willard in the Havana battle, but few, if any, believe it.

TOHNSON is close to forty-four years of age. After he serves his sentence he might return to the ring, but not as a fighter. Those days appear to be over. Just like Grover Bergdoll's.

Dempsey Trains for Cash

JACK DEMPSEY has started training. He selected New York for his training camp, and is taking daily exercise in a gymnasium at Fifty-seventh street and Eighth avenue. Jack has a reason for this. Although there are no matches in prospect, he can get in shape before an admiring throng, each admirer paying fifty cents for the privilege.

The champion should more than pay his expenses in New York. It's a great little stunt, this public training. and you can't blame him if the public is willing to pay the freight.

BIG TENNIS BATTLE ON FOR FOREST HILLS

Family Party on the Courts Late in August Will Be Neat Affair, and It Won't Be Any Cinch. for Even Tilden and Johnston

All in all, this family party at Forest

It must not be allowed to Hills will be one of the neatest affairs of many seasons, where not even Tilden and Johnston will have an old-fashioned hitters, unable to win half his games. cakewalk all the way.

Hanging On

FOR the greater part of the year it has been taken for granted that the American League race rested between Cleveland and New York. No one in particular has cared to give Chicago a tumble. And yet for many weeks now, with Red Faber back at his best stride, the White Sox have maintained their pace within simple striking distance under a lighter strain than the two pace-setters.

Faber's return and the powerful offensive strength of the club have been sufficient factors to make it a serious contender. The pitching staff, supposed to be uncertain, is much stronger than it was a year ago, when Cicotte, Kerr and Williams were the only winning pitchers. The return of Faber has added more than a pittance of strength, and to count the White Sox out is foolish stuff.

Four good pitchers surrounded by Schalk, Collins, Weaver, Jackson and Felsch complete a combination not to be taken too lightly—not even by such robust machines as Cleveland and New York.
