

MODEL YACHT OF 1313 ROSES. It was presented to Sir Thomas Lipton by Commodore Stuart Blackton and his wife as a token of good luck. Sir Thomas Lipton and the donors are shown aboard the Victoria.

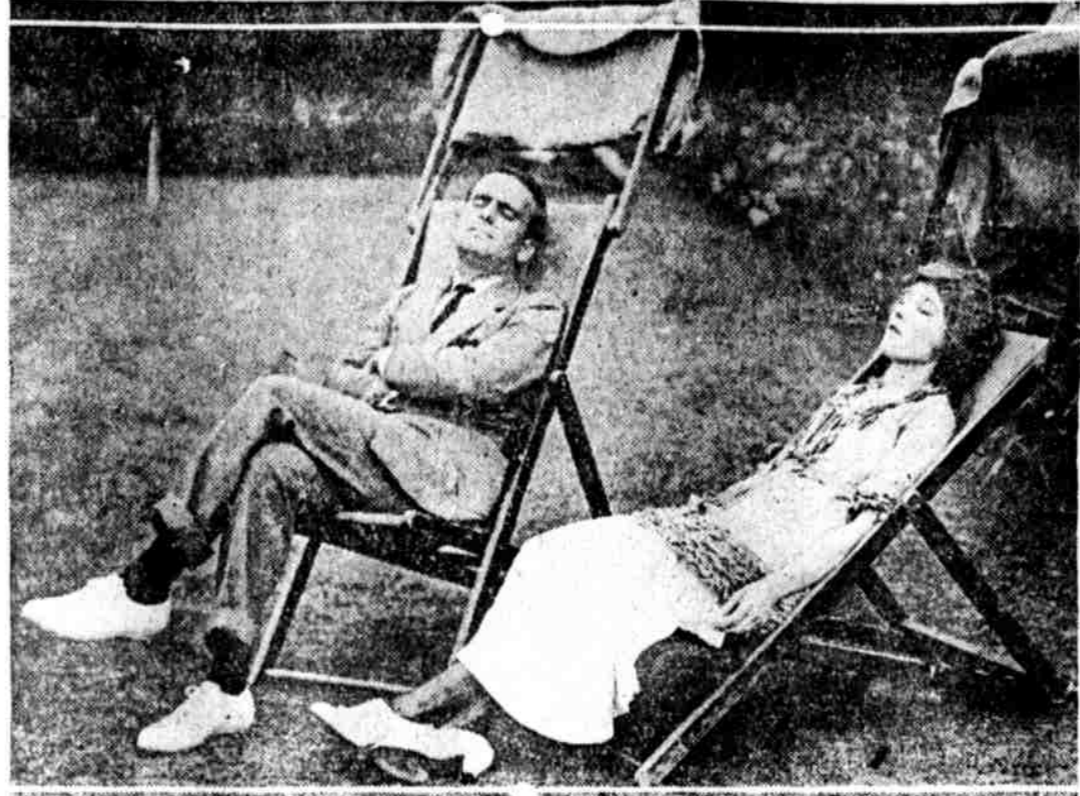

GERMANTOWN Y. W. C. A. GIRLS take over the old Birmingham Inn for vacation days. The inn, which sits on the bank of the Rancocas creek, in New Jersey, is a busy spot. "Our George," the only boy on the place, is giving Dorothy Brown a ride in a wheelbarrow. Myrtle Smith and Dorothy Doane are taking things easy in the hammock.

PASS THE BALL. The games at Birmingham, N. J., are under the tutelage of the gym instructors of the Germantown Y. W. C. A. In the group are (left to right) Elizabeth Carson, Blanche Long, Isabelle Arfstrom, Martha Gustavison, Reba Hunsberger, Melba Dingie, Rachael Marcus and Phyllis Reynolds.

THEIR DAILY SUN-BATH. Mme. Paul Laforge, of Paris, and her four children have just arrived in America from Paris. They were passengers on the S. S. La France. Mme. Laforge, before her marriage seven years ago, was a Denver, Colorado, girl.

"DOUG" AND MARY TAKE "FORTY WINKS." The two moving-picture stars rested for a few days at Thanet, England, following their reception into England.

SOLID COMFORT. There is no place like the sands of the seashore for rest. Among those who took advantage of the Wildwood beach are (left to right) Misses Miriam Grace, Dorothy Jones, Ruth Steinmetz and Lillian Cohen.

FARMERETTES AT AN IDLE MOMENT. Helen Graver, sitting on the wheat, tried to write a note, but the others just wouldn't let her write. The girls standing are the Misses Emma Hall, May Hall, Betty Davies, Rae Evans, Rae Wynograd and Mae Murdock. They are busy at the Cassatt Farms, Berwyn.

"CONNIE MACK" OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID NINE. This bearded manager had a hard job yesterday against the Bacharach Giants.

A LITTLE PUSH-BOAT. They were having a good time at the Inlet, Atlantic City. The lack of wind had no effect on their speed.

RIOT SCENE IN BELFAST. A group of Unionist guardsmen are shown lying behind sandbags from where they are guarding city approaches. A number of persons have been killed in this section during the last week.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THREADING TOILET PINS IN PAPER. Each operator completes about 1200 spools of pins a day ready for the market at the De Long Hook and Eye Co., Twenty-first and Clearfield streets. The operators are (left to right) Miss Blanche Storch, 1829 North Twenty-first street; Miss Alice Fry, 1741 North Eleventh street, and Miss Margarite Adams, 2427 North Eleventh street.
