C. WATSON, 3D, LIKELY TO WIN CUP OUTRIGHT

Has Two Legs on Junior Trophy; Paul Vanneman Plays Fast Tennis on Cynwyd Courts

SWAYNEISWINNER

By SPICK HALL. UNLESS Charles Watson, 3d, strains a racket string or something, he is going to gain permanent possession of the cup offered for the junior championship of Pennsylvania.

NORMAN SWAYNE

Swayne is playing his usual steady and winning game in the tennis tournament for the championship of eastern Pennsylvania on the courts of the Cynwyd Club.

Deserved Victory. On the whole, Watson put up by far the greatest exhibition of lawn tennis ever seen in a junior tournament here.

Tilden's Prodigy. To Bill Tilden belongs a lot of the credit for developing Watson into the player he is.

Sore But Effective. If you've never had a sore arm when playing lawn tennis, get one quick. It's the only thing.

Miller to Compete in National Play. Mills Miller, the Penn Charter star, won the right to compete in the national tennis championships at Forest Hills today when he defeated H. Brooks Huff, 2d, Germantown, in the final of the Cynwyd tourney on the courts of the Cynwyd Club.

DIDIER, HURT, RETURNS TO TRACK AND TAKES SECOND

Frenchman Gives Game Exhibition in Thirty-five-Mile Grind by Trailing Carman at Drome—Kaiser Surprises With Win Over Piani

LEON DIDIER, 100-kilometer champion of France, last night gave one of the gamest exhibitions of bike riding ever put on at the Point Breze Velodrome. Didier took second to Clarence Carman, the world's titleholder, in a thirty-five-mile grind, but the position at the end did not figure much.

Carman did the thirty-five miles without a breakdown in 44 minutes 27.5 seconds. George Colombatto, the only other starter in the race besides those already mentioned, could not finish. Motor and tire trouble forced him out on his twenty-second mile.
