8 0 10 11 12 1 1 2 3 4 5 68 | 67 | 70 | 71 | 75 | 76 | 77 | | | NIGHT

EXTRA

GET CASH REGISTER WITH ABOUT $350.

VOL. VI.-NO. 276

Four Men Hold Up Patrons and Restaurant Force on South Broad Street

ESCAPE IN AUTOMOBILE WITH SIGNED BLANK CHECK

Customers Finish Supper, Then Lined Against Wall at Points of Thugs' Pistols

Twelve men cating a "midnight anch" at 2502 South Broad street, at 1:45 o'clock this morning, were interrupted by four men wno entered the place. One intruder placed himself at the door, another at the entrance to the kitchen and one in the centre of the loor. The fourth taced Alfred Meyers, he manager.

the manager.

At a whistle all four drew revolvers. The man near the kitchen covered the cooks and dishwashers. The man at the door kept a lookout, while the bandit in the center of the floor ordered the patrons to line up against the wall. With much scraping of chairs and clattering of knives and forks the mendid as they were told, lining along the walls with their hands held above their heads. There they stood, munching mouthfuls of food while the fourth bandit, the apparent leader of the gang.

mouthfuls of food while the fourth ban-dit, the apparent leader of the gang, gave his attention to the manager.

"Stand to one side," he said quietly.

The manager obeyed. Then the man walked over to the cash register. He punched a key, looked into the drawer as it shot open, then slammed it shut as it snot open, then simmled it snot again.

"It's a pretty good machine, boys," he said. "Lend a hand."

Two of the bandits aided him and they walked out of the door carrying the cash register between them. The fourth man backed away, keeping the men in the restaurant covered. Then they all turned and rear as fast as they they all turned and ran as fast as they could, hampered as they were with the heavy register.

An alarm was shouted, and the customer and dishwashers tomers, waiters, cooks and dishwashers ran from the restaurant in pursuit. The bandits ran as far as Seventh and Por-ter streets, the lookout keeping the crowd at a distance by flourishing his revolver. Then the bandits turned the corner, an automobile engine was heard running, and when the pursuers reache the corner no trace of the thieves wa

In the cash register were $350 and a blank check on the Federal Trust Co., signed by Alfred Meyers. Mr. Meyers lives at 2611 Earp street. Payment on the check has been stopped at the bank.

$200 FUNERAL FOR BIRD Cobbler's Pet Buried to Music From

Fifteen-Piece Band -The scriptural assurance that sparcows shall not fall unnoticed was given then tried to rob him. tangible application to a pet canary bird today. Jimmie, the little songster, choked to death yesterday on a water-melon seed, and so grief-stricken was his owner, Emidio Russomanno, a six-ty-five-year-old cobbler, that friends ing a hearse, five mourners' coaches and

"He sang, ah! so sweet like Caruso!" sobbed the cobbler, as the little plush-lined casket, six by twelve inches, was lowered into the grave. He plans to erect a monument later,

2 MORE CASES OF TYPHUS

Three in All Reported on French Liner La Savoie

New York, Aug. 3 .- Two more cases of typhus developed today among steer-age passengers on the French liner La Savoic. The patients, boys aged nine and ten, were taken to Hoffman island where the steerage passengers under-went sanitary inspection. One case of typhus was reported when the ship ar-ved Sunday night from Havre. More than 1300 steerage passengers arriving today on the Italian steamship Duca Degli Abruszi also were taken to loffman island for vaccination as a precautionary measure. Most of the pas sengers came from the vicinity o vaples, Italy, where smallpox was re ported prevalent.

DRY AGENT ARRESTED

Prohibition Officer Accused of Accepting Bribe From Saloonkeeper

New York, Aug. 3.—(By A. P.)— Patrick Borke, a detective sergeant, and Benson B. C. Laverty, a federal pro-hibition enforcement officer, were arrested in Brooklyn teday by federal East Fletcher street, and James R. agents on the charge of accepting bribes Moore, forty-eight years old, 811 Wildey rom saloon keepers.

Three saloon proprietors claimed to have paid Burke $125, the federal agents stated. Laverty, it is charged, threat-ened to close a Coney Island betel barroom unless he received $200. The com-plaint alleged that he compromised on The defendants denied the

The arrests are said to be the foretunner of others in which police and authorized federal agents are involved.

BLOW SAVES MAN'S LIFE

Fellow Workman Knocks Him Away From Electric Light Plug

From Electric Light Flug
Fremont, Neb., Aug. 3.—(By A. P.)
—Arthur Thomas, an employe of the City Electric Light plant, was caved from death today by a blow on the faw. He had taken hold of a plug which had become charged by a short circuit, and could not free himself. Clyde Newton, a follow worker, any his predicament. a fellow worker, saw his predicament and swank his right to the point of as's jaw, knocking him feet away. Thomas's Jaw was fractured, but he says he is satisfied. Thomas's jaw was slightly

SIGNAL TOWER BURNED

Loss at Salem and Railroad Streets. Gloucester, Estimated at $7000

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice, at Philadelphia, Pa. Under the Act of March 3, 1879. "BIG FELLOW" GREETS CITY AGAIN

Senator Penrose had his first outing today since his illness, which began before the Republican National Convention. The photograph, taken at

ance Since He Was Stricken shine and sparkling atmosphere of the parently in what at least approached

The senator's reappearance after his long illness had been intended as a surprise. As a matter of fact, only the newspapermen had learned of it, and merely by the accident of seeing the well-remembered car on its way to the Senator Appears Jovial

"Come on now, don't be fooling around," cautioned Doctor Penrose.

"Come on, now," urged his brother "We want to get started."

senator found it hard to clim!

down the street in pleased fashion.

in the house all this time."

out once more, smiling and apcould believe their eyes to see the his usual robust health.

Weeks Ago

AUTO DRIVER SHOT, PENROSE ENJOYS BUT ROUTS BANDITS

Three Attempt to Hold Up Taxi Senator Makes First Appear-Chauffeur Near Bryn Mawr, But Are Foiled

WOUNDED MAN IN HOSPITAL "FFELING FINE." HE SAYS

A Bryn Mawr jitney driver, shot in "I'm well again, all but a little stiffnight who had hired his automobile and of doors."

thirty-five years old, Holland and Spruce street this forenoon for the first Spring avenues, Bryn Mawr. He is in outing he has enjoyed since several the the Bryn Mawr Hospital. Surgeons operated on him late last night. His condition is not regarded as critical.

The Senator was whirled out to Fair
The Senator was whirled out to Fair
The Senator was whirled out to Fairmilition is not regarded as critical.

Holmes was at the Ardmore station mount Park in the big red car familiar to many Philadelphians, and for more to many Philadelphians. shortly after 10 o'clock with his auto-mobile. Three men asked to be driven than an hour enjoyed the perfect sun-others sat in the rear. As the motor-car was speeding up the Gladwyne hill the man beside Holmes drew a revolver.

Holmes saw the stealthy movement, shut off the "gas" and pressed the foot-brake, at the same time reaching for his own revolver. The armed bandit fired three shots as Holmes swung at him.

Two bullets plowed into the framework above the driver's head. The third The third struck Holmes in the jaw. Holmes be-gan firing his own revolver at his asallant, and the two other bandits leaped from the car and ran away. The

After the bandits had disappeared, exactly.

Holmes walked nearly a mile for help. He was taken to the hospital. An opwas performed shortly before midnight.

HAD TO SHOOT AT GUNNERS

Two Men Are Arrested After Woman Is Almost Hit

Two men were fined $10 and costs after a chase during which a mounted policeman abandoned his horse and finally compelled them to halt by firing the first blate of them are them. They were arrested yesterday after a chase during which a mounted policeman abandoned his horse and finally compelled them to halt by firing the feeling fine, boys, 's said the senator. 'It's a wonderful day, isn't it? I'm getting back in my old form

The men gave their names as Edward Richardson, twenty-two years old, 1028 East Fletcher atreet and Lava T street. They were arrested by Mounted Patrolman Schwartz, of the Brauch-town district, after Mrs. Anna Kessler, D street and Wyoming avenue, had claimed that a bullet from the gun of one of them had narrowly missed her.

AUTO DRIVER IS HELD

Boy's Ribs Broken in Crash With remarked on his good color Upland Man's Car

Samuel Galachnich, five years old. 2635 Corlies street, is in the Women's Homeopathic Hospital with injuries received, yesterday when he was struck by an automobile. Several ribs were broken and his skull may be fractured

TRUNK VICTIM NOT POISONED

No Trace of Lethal Drugs Found in Brain of Woman

New York, Aug. 3.—(By A. P.)—The autopsy on the body of Mrs. Eugene Leroy, whose body was found jammed into a trunk here recently, A signal tower at Salem and Rail-tond streets, Gloucester, where the Reading tracks cross the West Jersey and Seashore, was destroyed by fire last night.

The blaze started from a defective inc. The loss is $7000. showed no traces of poison on the brain

Booze Soon to Be Hardest Thing in the World to Buy

New York, Aug. 3 .- Whisky will of the hardest things in the world to buy before another month elapses, according to John F. Kramer, United States commissioner of prohibition, who arrived here today from Washington personally to dis-cover if liquor can be bought here as easily as reported. Mr. Kramer said he based his prediction chiefly on orders issued to the local office to refuse all permits to wholesale dealers in liquor.

MISHAP LAID TO MOTORMAN

Death of Motorist Due to Careless ness. Coroner Declares Trenton, Aug. 3 .- (By A. P.) -Following the death of Alonzo Haring, of Kingersville, Pa., today from injuries received Sunday night, when an automobile truck in which he and his family of ten members were riding near Yardley, Pa., was struck by a trolley car of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Traction Co., District Attorney Keller, of Doylestown, ordered the state police of Pennsylvania to begin in immediate investigation of the ac-

Two daughters, Bessie and Violet, are expected to die. The other injured members of the family will recover. Coroner Joseph Reading, of this city, issued a certificate giving, as the cause of Haring's death, carelessness of the motorman operating the trolley car.

BACK TO FARM-90 DAYS

Magistrate Gives Prisoners Wish, but Without Pay

"We like farming, Judge, and want to go back to work. We work on a farm near Paoli and get $60 a month." "Glad you like farming." Magistrate Harris replied, as he judged the case of two men in the Twenty-second street and Hunting Park avenue police sta-tion. "I've got just the place for you.

The men were Frank Sulliyan, 3665 3614 Calumet street. They were ar-rested for drunkenness at Ridge and Allegheny avenues last night.

GIRLS ROBBED IN PARK

Policeman Chases Man and Fires at Him Without Results

Screams from an isolated section of League Island Park at 10:30 o'ciock this force by last night attracted the attention of Sergeant Gill, of the mounted police. He galloped to the spot just in time to see a man turn and run.

Two girls, clinging to each other, sobbed that they had been held up. The policeman galloped about in the dark seeking for trace of the man. He got a glimpse of him as he vanished into a thicket and fired shots at him but without effect.

MEXICANS SEEK PEACE

De La Huerta Men Confer With Governor Cantu

Mexicali, Lower Calif., Aug. 3. That was Senator Boies Penrose's Senator Juan Pratt, representatives of The plucky driver is William Holmes, greeting when he left his house at 1331 the De La Huerta government, today were on the way to Los Angeles, where they expect to telegraph to Mexico City results of a conference held here

An effort was made in the case of the differences which caused Cantu to break off relations caused Cantu to break off relations ers, however, are still attending to their customary duties.

HELD FOR SHIRT THEFT

Robbed in Early Morning

low Washington avenue, was held in exactly. Walter Mancer, his chauffeur, had driven the car up and was waiting with the tonneau door open.

Dr. Charles Penrose, the senator's brother and physician, appeared first and seemed astonished to see the responters waiting. A little later the porters waiting. A little later the acting in a suspicious manner at Eighth chauffeur brought out a big cushion and Christian streets. The man, who, the senator's light overcoat. Senator Penrose himself followed a few moments dropped the bag and ran on being hailed later, walking alone and with a firm by the patrolmen. He was caught after step. He smiled at the newspaper men, a chase of several blocks. The bag was step. He smiled at the newspaper men, calling out a greeting in a firm, reso-nant voice. Doctor Penrose had got into the machine ahead of his brother. found to contain the twenty-one shirts GUARD FEDERALIZATION

BOLSHEVIKI DELAY PARLEY; WITHIN 60 MILES OF WARSAW

Polish Delegates Sent Back to Capital for Mandate to Sign Peace Protocol

BEATEN ARMIES POUNDED TO PIECES BY RUSSIANS

Soviet Regime Set Up in Parts of Poland Which Bolsheviki Occupy

The Polish armistice delegation not only failed to obtain terms, but was sent back to Warsaw by the Russians, who demanded the emissaries obtain a mandate to take up peace negotiations. This delays even the beginning of the armistice parley until tomorrow at the earliest.

feanwhile resistance of the Polish ar-mies, which apparently had been stiffening, has again relaxed under tremendous pressure of the Bolshe-Warsaw, from which the Russians now are only sixty miles distant, is critically menaced, if not doo, led to capture. Americans remaining ther have received official intimatio: they stay at their ewn risk.

Soviet government has been portions of Poland which the sheviki have overrun, Moscow

By the Associated Press Warshw. Aug. 2 (delayed) .- While tion. 'I've got just the place for you, but no $60 a month. You're going to are pounding the Polish armics to pieces. The the House of Correction for three over a front of twelve miles at Brest-months. They need farmers." Litovsk.

This, the last great fortress guarding Stanton street, and James McHenry. Warsaw from the east, has apparently 3314 Calumet street. They were arfallen before a tremendous assault by rested for drunkenness at Ridge and the Bolsheviki. North of that place the Russians, advancing rapidly, have penetrated westward to a point only sixty miles east of this city.

Bolshevik hordes are being hurled into battle in a desperate effort to capture Warsaw before the conclusion of the conference at Kobrye. Re-enforce-ments are everywhere being hurried to this force by the Russians to complete the defeat of the Poles before hostilities An official statement last night showed the Soviet armies had a line running from Mossaki to Ciechaniwicz, only sixty miles from this city, with which it is connected by an excellent automobile made following a week-end trip with highway.

Mayor Moore on the city boat M. S.

Poles Rush Re-enforcements Great masses of troops have been hurried to the Polish breastwork defending the part of Brest-Litovsk east of the river Bug. Fugitives who arrived here last night from that city reported the Soviet forces were in control of the satern half of the town. It is officially admitted the Russians have cially admitted the Russians have reached Meilnika, northeast of Brest-Litovsk.

"I agree with Governor Sproul that against him are that he did not suppress the sale of dope, gambling and vice and did not maintain proper discipline or instigate proper investigations of law breaking.

Captain Smiley, of the Fifth district, West Philadelphia, formerly lieutenant in the Nineteenth and Fitzwater streets station, testified that it was almost impossible to keep down the growth of vice when he was there.

Captured at Egg Harbor Great masses of troops have been hur-

Meanwhile, at various distances to the north, northeast and east of the ferent situation it is only because of Vistula, in a great semicircle, the work loyalty to my friends. wire defenses is being carried on with ments and added:

great haste.

It is estimated that already about 120 American women and children have to party harmony."
left Warsaw, most of them proceeding Solms May

Far to the southeast, near Brody, the Bolsheviki have rushed reenforcements city commissioners' office. into the line and it is expected a ter-Store at Fifth and South Streets the purpose of capturing Lemberg before an armistice is declared.

On the northern sector Soviet troops Baptista Rizzo, nineteen years old, have advanced and have reached the ship, will be fought by the Moore lendgiving an address on Twelfth street be. region of Ostrolensk, sixty-six miles ers through a newly organized club, the low Washington avenue, was held in $1500 bail for a further hearing today by Magistrate Harrison, charged with the larceny of twanty-one silk shirts from the haberdashery store of Charles Krengel, Fifth and South streets.

The store was robbed, according to the store was robbed with the extreme tip of the right wing of the Forty-sixth ward.

Mackey was tied for the city committed to the place with John Fisler, administration leader of the ward. Each had fifty-tip leader of the ward. Each had fifty-tip leader of the ward with the place with John Fisler, administration leader of the ward. Each had fifty-tip leader of the ward with the place with John Fisler, administration leader of the ward.

"On the northern front, the line from Ostrolenka to the Prussian frontier is unchanged. In the region of Lomza the Poles are making a stand against Soviet cavalry, but fresh enemy re-enforce-

"All right," said the senator. He stopped again, however, to look up and Process of Enrolling New Units Under New Plan Is Going on at Mount Gretna Camp

GIVES U. S. 2,000,000 MEN

Camp Wallace W. Fetzer, Mt. Gretna, Pa., Aug. 3.—The new federalization of National Guard troops throughout the country, which includes the 6000 men scheduled to pass through this camp in the next three weeks, is the first big step in a definite military policy that will eventually place 2.000, the manufacture of the organizations. In addition to this and in contrast to the old plan, both entiested men and officers will be paid for their attendance at drill throughout the year as well as during the summer enties to the first big step in a definite military policy that will eventually place 2.000, the advantage of having regular army officers and noncommissioned officers at economics and outlings of their respective associations this summer. The liquor dealers' protective league of New Jersey, which is to hold its convention at Atlantic City September 7. S and 9. Buckridge announced, would throw its strength to Cox and Roose-the dealers' protective associations this summer. The liquor dealers' protective associations this summer.

"The National Guard will also have the advantage of having regular army officers and noncommissioned officers at the dequipment and maintenance of the grand and officers will be paid for their attendance at drill throughout the year as well as during the summer entant action that the description of New Jersey, which is to hold its convention at Atlantic City September 7. S and 9. Buckridge announced, would throw its strength to Cox and Roose-the dealers' protective associations this summer. The liquor dealers' protective associations the saccintant and the refrences and outlings of their respective associations this summer. The liquor dealers' protective associations the saccintant and the refrences and outlings of the associations the summer of New Jersey, whic Bu a Staff Correspondent into the tonneau, and the chauffeur gave him an arm. The senator sat down, smiling. He kept up a quick fire of conversation with the reporters. One "Yes," he replied. "It's wonderful, isn't it, when you consider I have been Not long before his illness the senator bought a new car, bigger and brighter, Wants to Test New Car

"I'll have the new machine out in a few days." he said. "It's over in the garage now. Then you can all have a chance to we riding."

"Then you can all have a chance to we riding."

"Cessity of universal military training.
William G. Price, division commander of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, is that this body of trained men are, for fifty weeks of the year, subsisted of troops will be federalized here next in their homes and enabled to work in week.

week.

"If the federalized National Guard settled himself comfortably on the cushion. He was wearing a brown suit and tan shoes, the outfit louned with a very large new Panama hat. Though he had lost some weight, his color was almost as rubicund as of old and his eyes were bright and clear. The peculiar vibrant characteristics, was notably present.

The big red machine was held up a moment by a traffic blockade. Wagons and motortrucks streamed by in a long line, and the senator sat back enjoying the succession of human faces.

Many smiled back at him. Especially the driver of a big department of public works truck. He recognized the "big fellow," and griuned as he went past

Centinued on Fase Tra. Columba.

"If the federalized National Guard plan is successful, it means that the government will have 450,000 well.
"If the federalized National Guard
plan is successful, it means that the government will have 450,000 well.
"If the federalized National Guard
plan is successful, it means that the government will have 450,000 well.
"If the federalized National Guard rand from that the government will have 450,000 well.
"If the federalized National Guard rand floar, while still retaining its old name, is no longer a separate military organ sation. All of the 4000 men now in camp have been federalized under a dual oath of allegianse to the state constitution and the constitution of the United States,
"With a military force of this size in with the immense expense to the country,
with the immense expense to the country,
"The federalization act of June 4
the driver of a big department of public works truck. He recognized the "big fellow," and griuned as he went past distinct advantages both to the organistions and the country, "The means that the government will have 450,000 well trained troops at its call, "explained from a long that the driver of the state and the President of the receive of the state and the President of the united floar and load of the federalized not of the receive of the state and the Proces chance to go riding."

The senator put on his overcoat and in their homes and enabled to work the productive occupations of civil life.

Chief Postal Inspector Leonard this afternoon declared that the arrest of "The Crank" at Egg Harbor late yesterday will "result in the recovery of the Coughlin baby." He said "The Crank" would probably be turned over to the state authorities, to be charged with kidnapping, after the inspectors have finished with him. Kidnapping is punishable by life imprisonment. "The Crank" could be given five years on the federal charge of using the mails to defraud.

PREDICTS FINDING OF COUGILIN BABY SOON

DE PAIVA TO BE BRAZILIAN VICE PRESIDENT

RIO JANEIRO, Binzil, Aug. 3 .- Bueno de Patva, chairman of the Senate finance commission, has been nominated for the vice presidency of Brazil in succession to Delfin Moreira, who died last month. The election will be held September 5. The nomination, however, is equivalent to an election.

MACKEY MAY QUIT SAY CHRISTIAN ST. CITY COMMITTEE IS 'DOPE' CENTER

nesses Declare

Wholesale dope peddlers ply their

Had Pull "Higher Up" of the district lieutenant because of of conditions in the district bounded by

"The district is one of the worst 'trouble districts' in the city." he said.

'Shootings and other forms of outlawry vie with dope selling. The uniformed patrolmen could get the same evidence I

Can Buy Dope Anywhere

Conditions there are bad." he testicality, characterized the conditions as and Ralph Comdico upheld the stories

Massachusetts Commission Notes

Activity in Boosting Prices increased tendency toward profiteering, especially in the meat and produce business, is noted in a report today of the state commission on necessaries of life covering the six months ending July 31.

The cost of living in Massachusetts has increased 1002.6 per cent since 1913, according to the commissioners.

who, however, predict an early reduc-tion, due to an abundance of raw materials, prices of which it is pointed out have dropped sharply of late.

Wages as a general rule have kept dropped sharply of late wages as a general rule have kept pace with the advancing costs, the commission says, but adds that in reality the laborer is not as well off as formerly, because of interrupted employment in many lines. Salaries and incomes it finds are still behind the advance in prices.

Boston, Aug. 3 .- (By A. P.) -- An

of done peddling and vice.

District Detectives Joseph McGinn

Intimates He May Follow Gov- Is Worth Policeman's Life to Arrest Peddler There, Witernor's Suggestion After Letting Things "Simmer"

ACRIFICE FOR FRIENDS TRIAL OF CAPT. M'COACH

State workmen's compensation board, agreeing with Governor Sproul that he should drop ward politics, may withdraw from the Republican city committee.

Tales of dope peddling and vice, apparently protected, in the First police division, were related before the Civil Service Commission today.

The occasion was the trial for alleged neglect of duty of Captain David M. McCoach, captain of the division, now should drop ward politics, may withthis city is impatiently waiting for news draw from the Republican city com-

The Governor, intimating yesterday under suspension because of the charges.

Christian street, between Eighth and that he would not "fire" Mackey from Ninth, is the dope headquarters of the the board chairmanship at the demand state. City Hall detectives and police of the city administration, suggested officials in the downtown districts dethat Mackey, Vare leader of the Fortysixth ward, should seek a "broader business from speedy automobiles ready to make a quick getaway in case of police interference witnesses said Second

Mackey was seated yesterday as Mackey was seated yesterday as intense is their rivalry, it was said, committeeman from the Forty-sixth intense is their rivalry, it was said, ward over the vigorous opposition of that some wear thin suits of mail unward over the vigorous opposition of that some wear thin suits of mail unward over the vigorous of the central body. Moore members of the central body.
Asked today if he would resign from the committee, Mr. Mackey said:
"I won't say anything about that right now. I will let the situation sim" mer awhile." of an arrest in some parts of the district is so precarious that the only safe way is to grab the prisoner and

Wouldn't Desert Friends The Forty-sixth ward Vare leader was asked today what he thought of Quay. "I agree with Governor Sproul that against him are that he did not suppress

At any time that I am in a dif-situation it is only because of "Vice sprang up over night," he said "The proprietors of houses apparently

Mr. Mackey paused for a few mo-"This attack on my by the Mayor knowledge of a 'pull' higher up. was inspired by some one not friendly

Solms May Succeed Him

Mackey's chief lientenant in the Sixth, Ninth, Christian and Catharine Forty-sixth ward is Benjamin Solms, streets and found narcotics being sold supervisor of children's agents in the Such a move, as well as the continuance of Mackey in the ward leader-

WETS FOR "WETS ONLY"

New Jersey Liquor Dealers Adopt Campaign Slogan

Trenton, Aug. 3.—(By A. P.) Wets' and wets only' will be t slogan of the New Jersey Wholesale Dealers' Association in the primary and general election campaigns in this state this year. Announcement to this effect was made today by the J. H. Buck-ridge, secretary of the New Jersey federation of liquor interests.

To build up the "wet" campaign,
Buckridge is sending out circulars urging members of wholesale and retail liquor dealers' organizations to be particularly interested in convention conferences and outings of their respective

RESOURCE AND SKILL

These are qualities desirable in a-good detective. They are equally desirable in the teller of a good detective story. J. S. Fletcher has both, Moreover, the fact that he has a freshness of touch and an individual quality of style maker it almost certain that you will enjoy his new story which begins in the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER tomorrow: Don't forget to read the first installment of

THE PARADISE MYSTERY

AS 'THE CRANK IS UNDER GRILL

Chief Postal Inspector Says Prisoner Is Writer of Letters to Coughlin

LURED TO EGG HARBOR BY PROMISE OF $10,000 RANSOM

Armed Officers Surrounded Suspect in Swamp-Prisoner May Expose Kidnappers

FATHER STILL IS DUBIOUS

Wife Not Told of Latest Development Until Facts Are Proved

BLAKELY COUGHLIN

Patrolmen testified that the making cording to a positive statement made today by George Leonard, chief postal run, trusting to getting out of the neighborhood before the prisoner's friends arrive. inspector for this district.

"The Crank," so called because of the name he signed to many letters, is the man who claimed he was the kid-Captain McCoach was relieved from duty last May. The specific charges napper of Blakely Coughlin, infant son of George A. Coughlin, of Norristown,

According to the postal inspectors. The Crank' was caught yesterday af terroon in a swamp near Egg Harbor, N. J., when he went to get an addi-tional sum of $10,000 which the postal Charles Brendley, a detective from he superintendent of police's office, hidden there.

"I can say positively 'The Crank' is custody," said Leonard today. "I not know where he is at present, I testified that he made an investigation in custody,' do not know where he is at present. I do know positively that he is with the inspectors from this department. By early afternoon I expect to be able to divulge the whole story, the whereabouts of 'The Crank' and the manner of his arrest. There is no doubt whatever about the identity of the man under arrest. did if they were properly instructed and him at this time."

encouraged and supported in their Coughlin Is Dubious "We have exhausted ourselves to suc Daniel Nice, another detective from an extent mentally and physically that the superintendent's office, supported we have now assumed an 'I'm from Brendle's testimony. It was Nice who Missouri' attitude,' said Mr. Coughlin as he sat on the porch of the summer home at Curran Terrace from which said that the Christian street neighborhood was the "dope headquarters of the state."

"But you can buy dope any place in the city if you have money enough to place any credence in the report that "The Crank" had been arrested yesterday near Egg Harbor.

"I'm waiting," he said stoically, as

"I'm waiting," he said stoically he nervously smoked a cigarette, cre letters threatening their lives if they concealed effort to hide his emotion. heard nothing. I am keeping my dope peddlers.

Acting Captain John Moon, of the First division, admitted that conditions there are still bad, but said they are that the man who abducted Blutter that the said that the man who abducted Blutter that the man who abducted Blakely is in mproving. He also supported the report the toils of justice, that Christian street is the state head. "Countless times her hopes have been quarters for dope dispensing.

Between January 23 and June 30 of this year, he said, 173 arrests for dope pedding have been made in the Christian street district and 177 arrests for dope pedding have been made in the Christian street district and 177 arrests for dope of Egg Harbor, a force of 110 postal inspectors, with two bloodhounds, were engaged for several days in investigations around Egg Harbor. Their search them to various towns in Lieutenant Joseph Van Horn, of the took Seventh and Carpenter streets station, heighborhood, which embraces the Christian street le-Says Prisoner Is Foreigner The mayor said he learned they were nostal inspectors when he became suspicious of so many strange men. all of them armed, in the district, and they Sergeant Harry J. McCarrick, of the showed him their credentials.

Twentieth and Fitzwater streets station, testified that Captain MeCoach made frequent rounds of his division and made every effort to correct evil age, apparently a working man but The mayor saw the suspect after he conditions.

J. Washington Logue is attorney for Mayor Go Mayor Goller said the trap was set Captain McCoach, and Harry Felix, for the alleged kidnapper with the greatest secrecy.

"GOUGING" ON INCREASE

Mayor Goller said the trap was to the trap was secrecy.

"My first intimation that anything was afoct," he said, "was when Egg Harbor police began reporting suspicious characters in and around the town, all of them armed. "I immediately ordered a round-up of the strange men. The first one approached quietly showed his credentials as a postal inspector.

"The chief postal inspector then took me into his confidence and explained that he had 110 men in Egg Harbor, Mays Lauding, Hammonton, Elwood and Pomona.

Had Bloodhounds at Work "He told me the men also had to chase in the event the man atte

o escape. "Yesterday morning the postal to "Yesterday morning the postal in-spectors redoubled their watch of all railroad stations, while a score of men hid themselves in the underbrush at a spot a mile from Egg Hyrbor, where, I was told. The Crank' was to come for his ransom.