WHAT'S WHAT

Please Tell Me

By CYNTHIA

It's Not Unladylike

Dear Cynthia-I'm really so happy

I've decided to write again and tell you of my happiness. I'm glad you do not think it unladylike to whistle at home, for you know I wouldn't whistle on the street. Mother said I nearly have her insane at times, so I'm doing just what "Student of the World" said I should, whistle and forget it. I missed some of the Ledgers one time since I've written last and I didn't hear from Alpina, so if he has written I will ask him to write again, for he is so sensible and I would like to hear his advice, as I'm always ready to take advice from others, for

I'm not keeping company yet, for l haven't met my mate and I'm just as happy without a fellow as I would be

Summer Furs and Winter Pumps

THE BUCK PRIVATE.

Write Soon Again

Dear Cynthia—Are you trying to save le some knocks from members of the

THE NEVER LONESOME MAN.

Youthful Sweetheart

Making More Money

two heads are better than one.

What to Do

MRS. WILSON'S DIRECTIONS FOR PUTTING UP BERRIES

Jelly or Pie Filling Can Be Made Without Sugar and Kept Until Needed-Blackberry Cordial Is Good

By MRS. M. A. WILSON puright, 1920. by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. All rights reserved.) ROTH huckleberries and blackberries may be canned for winter use for Canned Huckleberries for Pies Look over the berries carefully and discard all unripe ones. Wash and place the berries in a preserving kettle and add one cup of boiling water to every three quarts of berries. Place the bettle over the fire and cook until the berries are soft and then fill into sterilberries are soft and then fill into steril-bed jars. Adjust the rubber and lid and process in hot-water bath for twenty minutes, counting the time from the moment the water starts to boil. When the lime limit expires remove the jars and tighten the lids securely and then cool and store in a cool, dry place.

To use for pies: Add the sugar to taste and thicken with cornstarch, then between two crusts.

Huckleberry Marmalade Wash and look over three quarts of sckleberries and then place in the pre-rving kettle and add One quart of finely sliced rhubarb, One and one-half-pound can of white forn sirup.

Two and one-half pounds of sugar. Bring to a boil and cook slowly cool and cover with parawax. Then cover with either tin covers or pieces of cardboard cut to fit the glasses. Store in a cool, dry place.

Mountain Berry Conserve

Huckleberries or mountain blue-erries may be used. Look over and berries may be used. Look over and then wash two quarts of berries. Now wash and chop fine one and one-half quarts of tart summer greenings. Place in a preserving kettle and add: One three-pound can of white corr

Three pounds of sugar, One pound of seeded raisins. One pound of finely chopped peanuts. Grated rind of orange, Grated rind of lemon.

Cook slowly until thick like jam and fill into sterilized glasses. Cool and finish as for huckleberry conserve.

The succulent blackberry, both was a successful to the succes and cultivated, is delicious when canned for pies, puddings or made into jam, elly or spiced conserve. To can the berries for pies and pud-dings look over the blackberries and then place four quarts of berries in a preserving kettle and add one cup of boiling water. Cook slowly until soft and then fill into sterilized jars and adjust the rubber and lid and partially tighten. Process for one-half hour in not water bath then remove and seal securely and store in a cool, dry place. If you wish to add the sugar, add Place the sugar and one cup of in a preserving kettle and heat slowly to melt the sugar, then add the berries and finish as for the plain-canned blackberries.

Blackberry Jelly Wash two quarts of blackberries and then place in a preserving kettle with: One quart of thinly sliced tart summer apples, Three cups of water.

Bring to a boil and cook until the berries are in a soft pulp and then turn the mixture into a jelly bag and let Measure the juice, return to the erving kettle and bring to a boil. Cook for ten minutes, then add three-quarters cup of sugar for every cup of Stir to dissolve the sugar then bring to a boil and cook for ten minutes. Turn into sterilized glasses. Cool and then cover with parawax.

PRIZE MENU CONTEST

offers three prizes for the best dollar and a half dinner for four

The prizes are as follows: First. $2.50 Second, $1.00 Third. $1.00

Rules: The foods used must be staples and in season. Each menu must be accompanied by a sales slip showing the cost of all the materials. The name and address of the sender and the date must be distinctly written.

Mrs. WILSON'S MENU CONTEST EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

store in the usual manner for jellies blackberries: it is very good when served with cold meats.

Blackberry Catsup Wash and then place in the preserving kettle: Three quarts of blackberries,

One cup of vinegar. Cook until the berries are soft and then rub through a fine sieve. Return to the kettle and add:

One cup of sugar, Two level teaspoons of cinnamon, One level teaspoon of nutmeg, One level teaspoon of nutmeg, One-half level teaspoon of ginger, One-half level teaspoon of cloves, One and one-half level teaspoons of

One-half level teaspoon of paprika, One-eighth level teaspoon of mus-

Cook slowly until thick and then fill into bottles or one-half pint allglass jars and seal securely.

Spiced Blackberry Jam Wash and then place in a preserving

Three quarts of blackberries,

Two pounds of sugar,
One cup of finely chopped preserved One cup of water.

Now tie in a piece of cheesecloth the following spices; use level measure-One and one-half teaspoons of cinna-

One-half teaspoon of nutmeg. One-half teaspoon of allspice, One-half teaspoon of ginger,

One-half teaspoon of cloves. Cook the mixture until thick like jam and then fill into all-glass jars or jelly crys glasses and cool. Cover with parawax when and then cover with the lids or with her.

Rebecca Sterlin, 3853 Onton
Corn (one-half dozen ears)
Cucumber and onton
Bread
Butter
Pot Roast Veal

Onton
Corn (one-half dozen ears)
Cucumber and onton
Bread
Coffee

Cucumbers Picked Vegetables Bread Watermelon	Cream
SALES SLIP egetables	Mrs. Harry Lephten, 2130 North Park Avenue Dear Mrs. Wilson—As I am a soung bride I would like to enter your contest.
Total$1.20	Menu
trs. Charles E. Finter, Clementon, N. J.	Baked Beef and Potato Pie Fresh Stewed Tomatoes Green Pepper Salad Leed Tea Bread and Butter Sliced Peaches With Cream
Lettuce Salad Baked Veal Pie	SALES SLIP
Green Peas Beet Relish Bread and Butter Floating Island Pudding Coffee	One and one-half pounds of beef . $ 40 Three potatoes

SALES SLIP nd of yeal (to stew) $.29 This is very tasty, Mrs. Newlywed. Send us some more menus, for I know you just love to try out combinations and help the readers of the EVENING

Mrs. George Daly, Camden

New Jersey

SALES SLIP

Women Abroad Paris has the only exclusive women's theatre in the world.

Menu
Beef Poepie Corn on Cob
Cucumber and Onion Salad
Bread and Butter Coffee
Blackberry Mush

In China, the bride-elect sends her future husband his wedding dress. In Austria, since the war, all educa-tional institutions have been opened to the aundry and there are no set tubs, a portable bench of the correct height and size is convenient.

Address all menus to INDEPENDENCE SQUARE

A weoden tub is difficult to keep in good condition. If kept dry it is likely to shrink ond fall apart; if kept enough to prevent shrinking, it is likely Cook until thick like jam and then store in the usual manner for jellies and jams.

A delicious catsup can be made with blackbarries; it is near good when dry, but is nore expensive than an iron tub. Any portable tub may have a hole bored, in it and a plug inserted so that water may be drained from it without lifting the tub. Hot and cold water can be piped to a portable tub as well as to a more expensive stationary well as to a more expensive stationary Wood, which is now little used, has

Many housewives find it possible to do their own washing at home. Everything that will help them should be considered, and one of the most important things is the posi-tion and Height of the tubs difficult to be sure that they are clean. Porcelain or enameled-iron tubs are heavily glazed and do not rust or abnake it hard to tell when the clothe the same qualities for set tubs, as for portable ones. Soapstone and similar materials are cheaper than porcelain, but their dark color makes it more much handling of the clothes. the same qualities for set tubs, as for

The Marriage Trifler By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

FOR HOME LAUNDRY WORK

(Copyright, 1980, by Public Ledger Co.)

Katherine Faces Herself

Barbara Knight when she married Keith Grant looked on marriage as a state expressly created for her amusement and pleasure. She loved Keith, but the deeper side of her had neverbeen awakened, and it was not until she heard about Keith's friendship with Katherine Newbery that she became troubled. After Barbara had met Katherine she saw plainly that Katherine was an exceptional woman and that if Keith admired her there was every reason for it. Katherine turned the workaday world upside down for Barbara, who had always thought of women who worked as belonging to a lover class. Barbara realized that if she wanted to keep Keith she would have to change her ideas of life.

HUMAN psychology is a strange thing, and often the smallest, least sigglasses and cool. Cover with parawax and then cover with the lids or with pieces of cardboard which have been cut to fit the glasses. Store in a cool, dry place.

This spiced jam is delicious between layers of ginger or fruit cake, with cold meats or poultry.

Many of the old-time housewives liked to serve a spiced blackberry cordial, either as a summer beverage when diluted with water, or as a hot drink to break up a winter cold:

Blackberry Cordial

Wash four quarts of blackberries and add:

Wash four quarts of blackberries and add:

One quart of traffer.

Wash four quarts of leafer.

Where her thoughts had been leading in a base leading and then cover with the leading and been leading in the leading and been leading and then cover with the leading of shame that actually she cared nothing at all the place of the cared present that actually she cared nothing at all in the same of shame that actually she cared nothing at all in the place is a detailed of the leading uncomfortably hard; and she kers and the real most at a loss as to what he he is a "dandy" in the same of ginger or fruit cake, with cold meats or poultry.

Many of the old-time housewives liked to serve a spiced blackberry cordial.

Wash four quarts of blackberries and add:

Wash four quarts of blackberries and the leading at all liked her as a part of the place.

Wash four quarts of blackberries and add:

Wash four quarts of blackberries and add:

Wash four quarts of blackberries and add:

Wash four

Turn into sterilized glasses. Cool and then cover with parawas. Cover the glasses with the usual tine covers or with cardboard which has been cut to fit the tops of the glasses. Store in a cool, dry place.

Blackberry Jam

Place in a preserving kettle:

One-and-one-half-pound con of ichite corn sirup.

Teo and one-half pounds of sugar.

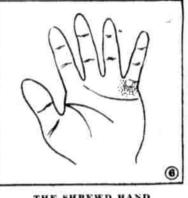

Bring to a boil and cook for five minutes, then add four quarts of washed the corn sirup.

Mash three quarts of blackberries and drained berries. Cook slowly until thick like jam and then fill into series.

Blackberry Conserve

Wash three quarts of blackberries and drained berries. Cook slowly until the like jam and then fill into series of the se

Your Soul's in Your Hand By IRVING R. BACON

The quickest and shrewdest of all the seven types of humanity is that of Mercurian by tasked on the disproportionately larger size of the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at it shase. When both indications come together in any type there can be no doubt as to the actual presence of all the qualities characteristic of that particular type.

S1.49

Fy tasty, Mrs. Newlywed ne more menus, for I know to fry out combinations we to fry out combinations are to the actual presence of all the quickest and shrewdest of all the seven types of humanity is that of Mercurian by the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at it shase. When both indications come together in any type there can be no doubt as to the actual presence of all the seven types of humanity is that of Mercurian by the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the little finger, or by an excessive mount at the disproportionately larger size of the disproportionately larg ners at the studio, and how was it that until now she had not missed Bob at all? Wise Mrs. Newbery had never men-tioned Bob's name to her daughter. This morning, at breakfast, when Katherine unfolded her napkin and, trying to speak casually, remarked that she wondered what on earth had become of Bob, Mrs. Newbery said, lightly, "Why, he was here last Thursday." enough to inform the most conceited of your readers, one "De Jure," that he has not silenced "Billy" and "T. B. P.," even though the former does not desire to have any further words with him? The latter is awaiting a rainy evening when he has nothing else to do—then he will rewrite his last answer—furthermore, out of justice, please tell "De Jure" that he was answered, but the more, out of justice, please tell "De Jure" that he was answered, but the answer was too strong for the column. Silenced: Humph—not "Yes, but only for a moment at the end of the evening," Katherine returned, forgetting to be casual in her earnest-

Mrs. Newbery was interested in bringing the coffee to the table and she did not answer. Katherine illogically wondered at her mother for her apparent unconcern. Why, any one would have thought at one time that the two were closely in league; and here was her mother acting as though she did not care whether she ever saw Bob again.

nificant matters have a far-reaching influence. Since Katherine had met Barbara Grant her drifting ideas had suddenly crystallized; and she realized in a flash where her thoughts had been leading vearing when you start to buy a ready- plural. that they will be helpful in suggesting the stylish thing that these pictures are printed. They are usually dresses that could easily be copied or made up from standard patterns.

An Engagement Blag.

THE NEVER LONESOME MAN.

Cynthia is very sorry Mr. Never Lonesome Man, but this letter with several others to the column was, through some others to the column was, through some instake, placed in the wrong file, and mistake, placed in the wrong file and that is why it was not published. The other which told of a certain adventure she did not your common sense might who had not your common sense might

An Engagement Ring

To the Editor of Woman's Pape:
Dear Madam—I have two questions
I would like to ask you. The first is what would be the size of stone and be cost for on the woman's page, and the cost for on the woman's page attends to that and does it well, Cynthia thinks. the cost for an engagement (diamond) yet would not be small and bad taste? In other words, a moderate ring.

Is it possible to send by parcel post a package to a distant postoffice and have it await await have it await one's arrival at the locality? I have nobody to whom I may send it, and I particularly desire that it shall be there and ready for men when I come to claim it. INTERESTED.

WHEN Miss Vichnie it.

have it await one's arrival at the locality. I have nobody to whom I may send it, and I particularly desire that it may send it, and I particularly desire that it may send it, and I particularly desire that it may send it, and I particularly desire that it may send it, and I particularly desire that it it come to claim it. INTERESTED THEM MISS Vichnie Lough started to the work in one of the big department of the cast from one of the big department of the cast from the cast mappy without a fellow as I would be with one. I want to ask one more question and I hope, Cynthia and Alpina, and Student of the World, if you think it unladylike to play a mouth organ, I can play one fine. My brother calls me at times his brother Bill, for he says I can whistle and play a mouth organ great. You see, the Lord has blessed me with music, but I can't sing. If I'm not at the plane I'm whistling or playing a mouth organ, but the latter only at home.

BLACK-EYED BILLIE. There's nothing unladylike in playing the little instrument. Keep at it. Why not take up violin or viola playing?

sorb grease. Both white and yellow porcelain tubs are on the market; the latter are cheaper but the color may respects to "the haughtiness of a huck-ster's daughter." Nothing is more absurd than the affection of disdain which ill-bred women so often mistake for dignity, yet which only vulgarizes all their pretensions to "refinement." BLACK-EYED BILLIE.

The Un-Byronic Byron By LOUISE M. ADDELSON

Dear Cynthia—My interest in Alpina's question is so great that I take great pleasure in answering it.

The wealthy, I mean in money, wear pumps in winter and of course they are excused, because they usually don't go out in such weather except in automobiles. The poorer girls try to imitate them, but in so doing they exaggerate themselves. ELINOR WORTH, rushing downstairs in answer to the furlously ringing doorbell, found her chum and next-door neighbor, Alice Gloring, in a wild state of excitement. "He's coming!" panted Alice, thrusthemselves.

In summer these same rich go to cold regions and therefore wear furs. Then, again, they are counterfelted. ing a slip of yellow paper into Elinor's handa "Byron?" breathed Elinor, quite awed.

again, they are counterfeited.

These reasons, of course, do not excuse them; however, your question is rather sweeping. You addressed the "girls," but not all of them wear pumps in winter and furs in summer.

Anyhow girls are slaves to fashion; I know, because I am a girl myself. "Byron! Isn't it wonderful?" Elinor ou'll just adore him. If I were not engaged myself I'd—he's such a dear!" Elinor did not doubt it. For two years she had heard praises of Alice's won-Somehow it seems as if summer furs derful cousin. For two years she had are being forgotten this year, though the pumps were "going strong" in winter, were they not? listened to the recital of his many perfections, the tales of his heroic deeds: of his kindness, his generosity, his good Who Sald T. B. P. Was Silenced? looks, cuntil in her youthful imagination Dear Cynthia-Will you not be kind enough to inform the most conceited of he had become a god. Even his name appealed to her remantic fancy. A man named Byron, she felt, could never be

> "We'll introduce you tomorrow after hurch," promised Alice. And, as her friend had predicted, the llowing day being Sunday, Elinor was ntroduced after church. Mrs. Gloring performed the ceremony with a little flutter of pleasure. She was fond of Elinor, and matchmaking was her

"My nephew, Byron, dear Elinor, jusreturned from service. Byron, darling Alice's best friend, Miss Worth," me some knocks from members of the K. U. H. C. by not putting my other letters in print? Why not get a little real "pep" in the column and print some of the letters you merely answer, and do not print the letter itself.

The "Old Bachelor" controversy is very interesting, some of the answers were extremely good.

The "Buck Private" is doing well to "lay low," as he was getting the "big head" from toc much notice. I think I worked with him in the P. S. B. Company a while back. He is a "dandy" chap, a good looker, and a real manly man, if he is the one I speak of.

Now, a little knock for you, Cynthia. Sometime back in the next column, which I presume you write also, there was a comment about the girl that always had something pleasant to say, no matter what subject, or what person was not printed discussion. You inferred that Elinor lifted her eyes. She tried to ay something pleasing and polite, but her tongue refused to obey her. Some-thing was wrong with the world. The sunshine became hateful, the songs of the birds a mocking chorus. For Byron, the birds a mocking chorus. For Byron, the Byron of her imagination, the poetic creature of her maiden fancies, had taken unto himself wings and fled; and in his place stood an odious, long-limbed, quite un-Byronic creature with sandy hair, light blue eyes, a wide mouth and a nondescript nose.

"Isn't he just too sweet?" murmured Alice in Elinor's ear.

Elinor flushed, not so much at Alice's words, as at the sudden twinkle in Byron's eyes.

words, as at the sudden twinkle in Byron frequency and even learned to like him. That gay twinkle in his eyes seemed to relieve his plainness. But she felt that Fate had played a cruel joke on her, nevertheless, and that she would not be the same again. The real Byron could The New England girl was right about

The New England girl was right about the girls from those states being more thrifty, sensible, prettier, etc., than the eastern girls (Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York). I am a southerner, so can be an impartial judge. The girls in "Philly," of course there are exceptions, are rather on the "good-time" order, and seem to be "crazy" to "land" some poor "sucker" as a meal ticket for life.

The New England girl is more friendly, more independent, and not so dreadfully man crazy.

I agree with "Old Bachelor" in the way he "feels" about women in general, but I do not agree with the way he says he acts. I will tell the why and wherefore in my next, as mine is a parallel case with different actions; the same way of thinking, for a while; and a very happy termination.

After all is said and done, Cynthia, you sure are a wonder, be you singular or nilural. service and it was her duty to be kind to him, so she helped Alice entertain him. She walked with him, talked with him, and felt herself very magnanimous in doing it.

A few weeks after his arrival a French army officer came to see Byron. The girls were curious as to the object of his visit, for Byron foretoid nothing, merely smiling with that exasperating twinkle in his eyes. And the surprise of the ladies was great when the young Frenchman pinned a medal-on Byron's chest as a mark of favor from the French Government for unparalleled bravery and fortitude on the field of battle and for chivalry and kindness to French widows and orphans. French widows and orphans.

That night, when Byron invited Ell-nor out for a walk, she was strangely shy. It had come over her suddenly that shy. It had come over he.

Byron was a personage.

"Elinor," said he, after they had

"Elinor," said he, after they had

"Elinor," said he, after they had

"Italian had been minutes in silence, "don't sure are a wonder, be you singular or walked a few minutes in silence, "don't you think you could like me a little, though I am not all that you had hoped for?"

"All I—hoped for?" stammered Elinor.

'Yes. You see, I know my aunt and Alice have a way of raving over people, and I could tell they'd given you a wrong impression of me. Also, my name has been a stumbling block all my life. I don't know what my parents had against me when they named me Byron. It isn't so bad with men, but girls have a habit of judging you by name. Confess, now, didn't you rather expect to meet a shaggy-haired poet, instead of a plain John Jones?"

"Who has been decorated by the plain John Jones?"
"Who has been decorated by the French Government," sadi Elinor, softly, "and who never said a word about it, though he knew the decoration was coming!"

"Oh, as for that."
"As for that," said Elinor. "I realize that poets could never have won the war for us, and that I'm a very foolish war for us, and that I'm a very foolish person."
"If you'll forgive my being un-Byronic." said Byron, with his humorous twinkle, "I'll forgive your being foolish. In fact, I'm pretty well pleased with you as you are."
Elinor stopped and made him an old-fashioned ourtsey.
"The sentiment's mutual, sir," she said.

said. Which leased the un-Byronic Byron

Stops Hair Coming Out; Doubles Its Beauty.

an application of "Danderine." After not find a failen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, yigur, brightness, more color and thickness.—

THE KIND OF TROUBLE-MAKER WHO TELLS UGLY STORIES

For the Sake of Breaking Up a Friendship Always Has an Involuntary Accomplice in the Person Who Believes Every Word She Says

SHE didn't want to sign her real so she took refuge behind the good old standby, "Worried." And she has reason to be worried!

on to be worried?

This is the story. She had this "Boy-friend," who came to see her a great deal, took her to parties, and seemed to like her very much. She liked him, too. They went to a dance one evening, and during the intermission—no doubt while she was slapping her hot, pink face with "The smallest service is repaid with thanks"—but the young woman who has seen fit to ignore the courtesy of the man who has just opened the door whom she has known for a number of years, came up to her.

"Listen," she said. "I've got something to tell you." They retired to a remote corner, and "Worried" listened while "Girlfriend" told her. Such stories! All about the "Boyfriend." for her is chargeable with insolence for which her possible ignorance of the customs of polite society is no excuse. There is something hard and uncouth about an otherwise attractive woman who lacks the ordinary instinct to redeorge Eliot has paid her sardonic

DAILY NOVELETTE ship. I'm afraid she will have a hard time doing that. A boy does not readily resume a friendship with a girl who has doubted him and has not given him a chance to "square himself." He was probably deeply hurt and puzzled about the whole thing at first. Then afterward, no doubt, he heard the reason for it all, decided "if that's the way I size up to her, I'm through," and found another girl to take to parties and like very much.

""Worried" made two bad mistakes.

Things You'll Love to Make

Raffia Bathing Belt-

BUT what about this girl who comes under the head of "friend"? She is one of a "species" that can easily be called vicious. There are two types. One is malicious just for what she seem to consider the 'joy' of it. She hear half a story and repeats it until it gets she was slapping her hot, pink face with a flat powder puff—her "Girlfriend," whom she has known for a number of years, came up to her.
"Listen," she said. "I've got some-"Listen," she said. "They retired to a she doesn't know at all—prominent peo-she doesn't know at all—prominent peo-she actresses, millionaires, artists, preple, actresses, millionaires, artists, pro-fessional people of various kinds. Some of the stories are true, others aren't when the last one was finished his reputation and character were shattered. "Worried" believed every word of it, and the next day wrote him a note saying that she did not want to see him again.

Since then she has been hearing that the stories are not true. In fact, she has proof that they are not true. And now she wants to get back his friendship. I'm afraid she will have a hard time doing that. A boy does not readily hangings, furniture, candles, and all sorts of interesting and fascinating odds and ends. And this shop is having a midsummer sale, in which prices have been lowered 25 per cent. Lovely red and wicker chairs, beautiful, colorful lamps—all have been reduced. I should strongly advise you to stop in and look around. For the names of shops referred to in Adventures With a Purse, send a self-addressed stamped envelope to the editor of the woman's page.

inclosing the name of the article and the date on which it appeared. For immediate information call Walnut 3000 on the telephone. Tablecloths the linen comes to the mending stage, use these threads you have saved to darn it with. The result is that the mended place is scarcely noticeable because of the linen thread being used instead of cotton.—July-August Good JIRST of all, I shall tell you where is being held a sale of glasses Colonial glasses, for nine cents each. Their value is good, and while they might not please you for best company glasses, I think you would find them very serviceable for everyday use.

Then I shall tell you of the stockings, a good heavy silk. in white or black, and of a standard, well-liked make, for $2.10. I am wearing a pair of them this very minute, and I am well satisfied with their appearance, particu-

French and Italian cooks use olive oil liberally. Ask for Pompeian Pompeian

Olive Oil

HUSBAND'S DOCTORS RECOMMEND for Constipation, Acid Stomach, Indiges-tion. Can be used as Milk of Magnesia. Sold only by the bottle—never by dose.

HELP US BRING HEALTH and HAPPINESS TO LITTLE ONES (who know no other pleasure) at our sanitarium. Red Bank. N. J. Steamers leave Penn Treaty and South Street Wharves hourly. JULY 31, 1920.

Total number of people carried, 1888.
Total number of round trips made by our steamers, 1c.
"Everything Free, Including a Lunch"
Send Subscriptions to SANITARIUM ASSOCIATION

OF PHILADELPHIA
HOWARD E. YOUNG, Treasurer of the Guarantee Trust & Safe Deposit Co.
316-320 Chestnut St., Phila.

The following theatres obtain their pictures through the STANLEY Company of America, which is a guarantee of early showing of the finest productions. Ask for the theatre in your locality obtaining pictures through the Stanley Company of America.

ARCADIA CHESTNUT Below 16TH
10 A. M. to 11:15 P. M.
ALMA RUBENS In
"THE WORLD AND HIS WIFE"

REGENT MARKET ST. Below 17TH
9:45 A. M. to 11 P. M.
ALICE BRADY IN
"SINNERS"

BLUEBIRD BROAD STREET AND SUSQUEHANNA AVE.
EMILY STEVENS IN "THE CIRCUS FLAME"

BROADWAY Broad & Snyder Ave.
2. 6:45 & 9 P. M.
WALLACE REID in
"SICK ABED" CAPITOL 722 MARKET STREET

CONSTANCE TALMADGE in "IN SEARCH OF A SINNER" COLONIAL Gtn. & Maplewood Aves.
2.20 7 and 9 P M.
WITH STEWARD.
"THE FIGHTING SHEPHERDESS"

56TH ST. THEATRE—Below Spruce MATINEE DAILY WANDA HAWLEY in "MISS HOBBS" FRANKFORD 4715 FRANKFORD AVENUE THE COST.

Great Northern Broad St. and Erte CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG IN. "FOR THE SOUL OF RAFAEL"

IMPERIAL 60TH & WALNUT STS.
MALICE LAKE In
"SHORE ACRES"

WILLIAM FARNUM IN 333 MARKET STREET THEATRE "FOR THE SOUL OF RAFAEL"

APOLLO 52D & THOMPSON STS.
MATINEE DAILY
MARSHALL NEILAN'S
"THE RIVER'S END"

PRINCESS 1018 MARKET STREET
8:30 A. M. to 11:15 F. M.
"THE DAREDEVIL"

BALTIMORE 51st & BALTIMORE CYS. 6:80. Mat. Sat.

MARY PICKFORD IN "REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM"

MARY MILES MINTER IN "NURSE MARJORIE"

RUBY MARKET ST. BELOW TTB-10 A. M. to 11:15 P. M. MARGUERITE FISHER In "THE WEEK-END" SAVOY 1211 MARKET STREET A A M. TO MIDNIGHT ANITA STEWART IN "MESSAGE OF THE MOUSE"

SHERWOOD 54th and Baltimore Mat., 2: Evg., 6:30 Katherine Macdonald and Thos. Meighan is "THE THUNDERBOLT"

STANLEY MARKET ABOVE 16TH 11:15 A. M. to 11:15 P. M. KATHERINE MACDONALD in "THE TURNING POINT"

The NIXON-NIRDLINGER N THEATRES BELMONT 52D ABOVE MARKET

"SOULS ADRIFT" CEDAR GOTH AND CEDAR AVENUE

"THE STRUGGLE EVERLASTING" COLISEUM MARKET BETWEEN SETH AND 60TH THE ACCIDENAL HONEYMOON"

JUMBO FRONT ST. & GIRARD AVE Jumbo Junction on Frankford "L" WALLACE REID in "DANCIN" FOOL." LEADER 41ST & LANCASTER AVE.
MATINEE DALLY
WANDA HAWLEY IN
MISS HOBBS

LIBERTY Broad & Columbia Ave

MODEL 425 SOUTH ST. Orchestra Continuous 1 to 11 EDITH DAY IN "CHILDREN NOT WANTED"

MARSHALL NEILAN'S

LOCUST 52D AND LOCUST STREETS Mats. 1:30, 3:30. Eves. 6:30 to 11
CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG IN
"FOR THE SOUL OF RAPAEL" NIXON 52D AND MARKET STS. 2:15. 7 and 5 WILL ROGERS IN RIVOLI 52D AND SANSOM STS.
MATINEE DAILY
PAULING STARK IN
"THE RIVER'S END"

SILK HUSBANDS AND CALLO WIVE

STRAND GERMATT VENANGO ST.
SHIRLEY MASON IN
"TREASURE ISLAND" OVERBROOK HAVERFORD AVE A few cents buys "Danderine." After PALACE 1214 MARKET STREET WEST ALLEGHENY Alleghens CHARLES RAY IN HOUSE PETERS IE HOUSE PETERS IE HOUSE PETERS IE WILK HUSBANDE AND CALCO WIVE

EMPRESS MAIN ST., MANAYUNK MATINEE DAILY CLABA KIMBALL YOUNG IN
"FOR THE SOUL OF RAFAEL" VICTORIA MARKET ABOVE OTE 16 A M to 11:15 P. L. HOBART BORNORTH IN "RELOW THE SURFACE" FAIRMOUNT 20th & Girard Ave.
CONSTANCE TALMADGE IN
"IN SEARCH OF A SINNER" FAMILY THEATRE-1311 Market St. WANDA HAWLEY in "MISS HOBBS"

"DANDERINE"

You have always wished for a bathing girdle that the surf will not ruin. Here is one of knotted raffia—and raffia is in straightening the edge. Then, when quite the thing now, too. If six or more the linen comes to the mending stage. quite the thing now, too. If six or more varied colors are used, the gay and striking effect this girdle will give your dark bathing suit will delight you! Adventures With a Purse