RING SPORTS ARE TO BE PLACED ON HIGH SCALE BY TEX RICKARD AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

TEX RICKARD, than whom there is none better when it comes to promoting boxing shows, let the boys in on a little secret at a dinner in New York last night. After his guests had dired with him-and on him-the toted fistic impresario announced that he had leased Madison Square Garden for a period of ten years, and intended to stage boxing shows and other indoor athletic events not only in the summer and winter but also in the spring and fall.

This news came as a surprise because nobody knew anything about it until a month ago, when the deal was through. However, Tex cared nothing for a trifle like that and made his announcement just the same. In this he noted like Warren G. Harding, who, after being nominated in Chicago in June, was very much surprised when officially notified a month later that he was to be the Republican nominee for the presidency. Delayed surprises always are effective. But Rickard spilled some important information before retiring for the evening. He said he had remodeled the interior of the garden and inserted enough seafs to take care of 18,000 secretators. This makes it the biggest Indoor arena in the United States, and it will be possible to stage any kind of a changionship match he desires With a seating capacity like that he will be able to outbid all of the other promoters and virtually will have the entire say-so when it comes to offering financial inducements to the money-mad champions.

Tex, however, has stepped out of his wouldly conservative role and, instead of doing this all alone, organfred the Madison Square Garden Sporting Cub, with a membership of 1500, each member to pay $100. It is a sort of co-operative proposition, for the members will receive $100 bonds which pay 6 per cent, and also a prorated share of 50 per cent of the garden's net receipts.

Although Rickard entered a stremons denial, it looks as if the new organization would give the International Sporting Club a tough tu-sle in New York. It has every appearance of an opposition club, run on different lines. The members will not be asked to pay all expenses. They will have to buy tickets the same as everybody else.

COTHERE are several reasons for the formation of I the club," said Rickard, "first of which is to insure that the spectators at bouts will be men of high character who cannot besmirch the game by their actions. I always have endeavored to conduct bouts everywhere free from scandal, and want to be sure that this venture will be the same.

Tex Is "Championship" Promoter

DICKARD stands out all alone in the boxing game. He never has put over a flivver, and every bout, with the exception of one, had a unanimous winner. In 1996 he staged the Nelson-Gans battle at Goldfield, Nev., and Nelson won on a foul in the forty-second round. A purse of $34,000 was divided on that day. Nelson getting $23,000 irrespective of the decision.

Four years later Tex again invaded the boxing field and put on the Jeffries-Johnson match, which was one of the most-talked-of affairs in pugilism. Rickard outold the other promoters with an offer of $101,000, and drew $270,775 at the gate. Johnson won in the fifteenth round and was well paid for his trouble. With the $10,000 bonus for signing and his share of the moving pictures, the colored man collected $120,600. Jeffrics emerged with $117.066, which was pretty good for forty-five minutes' work.

After this came the Willard-Moran affair, which lasted ten rounds, and the Dempsey-Willard contest in Tolcdo last year. Rickard has been connected with noth-and Nate Lewis, until recently Charley

Leonard, Willie Juckson, Joe Henjamin and Tendler, Walsh is sort of using Ma-honey as a thorn in Charley's side.

The Californian was turned over to Walsh and Lewis by Jack Kearns, Jack Dempsey's manager. Maloney, who established quite a rep on the coast, appears to be S. O. L., out of luck, or something like that, in so far as a match with White is concerned, because Char-ley insists on passing Eddie up. Walsh and Lewis make a number of trips to Philadelphia every fall with various boxers, and all of their mittmen various boxers, and all of their initial usually are of class. Although nothing has been heard of Mahoney in the East, it is probable that he will prove a first-rate lightweight. Kenras says

"I know I have a rival in the International Sporting Club, but on my part it is a friendly rivalry. New York is big enough for two huge organizations and the competition will insure the best eards for the public. It also will help the boxing game, and that is my chief idea.

MECH. ALGERNON CAUSEY is a very peculiar U pitcher. One day he looks like a champion and the next like a busher. You never can tell what Cecil Algernon will do when he steps on the mound. Yesterday he was in wonderful form and almost pitched a no-hit game. He held the Cubs to two stingy singles and made it possible for the Phila to win by the score of 4 to 1. If he could pitch like that all of the time Cravath would not accumulate so many gray hairs under his lid. Causey is a good pitcher when he thinks he is. In other words, he can kid himself into believing he is in terrible shape, has no control and then starts to worry. On those occasions he is wilder than a runaway auto mobile and they use the hook on him as soon as possible If the red-headed athlete could control himself he would be a great pitcher and profit greatly thereby.

FTER taking the count in New York, the Cin-A cinnati Reds will open a four-day engagement here this afternoon. In New York Moran's men were accused of playing indifferent baseball and quitting cold when the games became close. Them's harsh words to say about a championship club.

Yankees Hit the Skids

TPHE New York Yankees have been skidding in the West I and today are holding second place in the American League by the slender margin of one point. They ran into squalls in St. Louis and Chicago and lost six of the nine games played. A club cannot expect to win the pennant with a percentage like that. Yesterday they lost White Sox by the score of 10 to 3, Boosters for the Yanks are getting alarmed and wondering what will happen next. Huggins's team is playing bad baseball and the pitching also is poor. They win games by beef and brawn, and when the hitting fails off it's time to wash up. They can win many 15-to-12 games, but when one run is needed the stuff is off.

N THE meantime the Indians are breezing along I with a five-game lead and the White Sox are climbing steadily. Wouldn't it be strunge if Chicago and the Giants met in the world series? Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.
