On the night of July 18 the train on which Mounce was working pulled into Newfield close to midnight. On the station platform he saw a foreign-look-ing man with a baby in his arms. The man came up and said he was waiting for the 12:01 train for Atlantic City. Mounce had no way of telling from what town the man had come. This man, Mounce has up was Pasouale.

Mounce is sure, was Pasquale. The trainman had a lengthy conver-sation with the man carrying the child. Mounce saw Pasquale's pictures and whenever through with him.
