Old Malabar, Towed From Bermuda, Had Harrowing Experiences on Voyage

AT MERCY OF BIG GALES

After being cast adrift several tie when the hawser parted from the to which was towing her and for four days at the mercy of giant waves and a fifty-mile northeaster, the bull of the Malabar, one-time British cruiser, is now in port, with her crew of ten men bad-

The Malabar, which was at one time the British cruiser Terror and was used in the Indian transport service, was a vessel of 6200 tons deadweight. Built at Glasgow in 1867, she lay at Bermuda for a number of years until recently purchased by Henry Hitner Sons & Co., who decided to tow her here and cut her down for a barge.

In charge of Captain Ezekiel Turner, with a crew of nine men, and towed by the tug Barthney, the old vessel, merely a shell of herself, left Hamilton.

Bermuda, on July 29 for this city.
Twenty miles outside Hamilton the hawser holding the two craft parted and for several hours the Malabar was left helpless until the boats were mad fast again. Sunday, in the midst of fight, in which the men on both w more and the Malabar was again adrift in the teeth of a fifty-n rew, unable to keep their feet on pitching bulk, fought for more from the tug again.

going to the bottom.

Perry's

Suits at an Exact Saving of each Suit!

$65 to $85

Finest

northeaster. Without any protection and with a terrific rain falling, the wenty-four hours to catch the hawser

At the height of the storm the mizzer mast snapped and was carried overboard, as were also most of the stores of the vessel. In an attempt to make fast to the tug during Monday night, the Malabar rolled over against the tug and both vessels narrowly escaped

Limited-period

Clearance of Finest Suits!

In cutting prices on our Finest Clothes, we are doing so in the face of conditions which have not abated one iota, and which are now aggravated by the action of the mills. We leave you to the papers-and to

$65 Suits, now....$45

$70 Suits, now.....$50

$75 Suits, now.....$55

$80 Suits, now....$60

$85 Suits, now....$65

Save $20 on one

your judgment.

southeasterly gale, the ships parted company again and after an all-day badly used up, the hawser was caught on Monday the hawser parted on rowing experience.

BRIDGE BID ETHICAL, BUREAU DEMANDS DECLARES HUSTON SINKING FUND FACTS

Should Have Nothing to Do With Offer

"MERE LINKS IN CHAIN"

Joseph M. Huston, architect of the state Capitol at Harrisburg, asked to-day whether his application for the commission to plan the Delaware river bridge was ethical in view of the Capitol scandal, said: "There is nothing unsthical about it. To me it is a pracexplained that he and Stanford

Lewis, who have offered to draw up budget. So far the requirements plans for the bridge for mation has been ignored. According to the buse.

Doctor Waddell and Doctor Modjeski are doing the big thing in this project. Mr. Huston added. "Archiecture comes first and engineering sec tecture comes aret and engineering sec-ond. Mr. Lewis and I are interested in the engineering end of the project. Mr. Huston, creator of the Capitol and found guilty of conspiracy to deseven months in the Eastern

His Dream for Twenty Years

Twenty years ago," he said, "I pic-

Today that dream seems about to

I was one of the originators of the bridge project. In 1915 I started a private company to build the bridge."
No action was taken on the bid for the preliminary work which was submitted to the commission by Mr. Huson and Mr. Lewis.

ission passed a resolution making $20,000 immediately available for preliminary survey work. The resoution was introduced by Mayor Moore, who said that $100,000 recently made available by Council for the survey work ess too much money.

Thinks $100,000 Not Enough Governor Sproul, chairman of the

we go shead and get only a smatter- old, 53 Emily street, ave to spend much more than another

The matter was referred to the subremmittee on engineering. This com-2:30 o'clock on Thursday next, when a number of prominent bridge engineers and architects will be heard. The committee will select three engineers, who will be present at all hearings as con-

RUNAWAY GIRLS FOUND

Two. Arrested in Room on Mt. Vernon Street, Will Have Hearing Two runaway girls were tound the grant of the runaway girls were tound the grant of the grant of the runaway girls were tound the grant of the runaway girls were tound the grant of the runaway for making the runaway for making the runaway for making the grant of the runaway for making the runaway Two runaway girls were found this a hearing. They are Frances Hart, sixteen years old, of Mount Vernon street above Fifteenth, and Margaret Picket, sixteen years old, of Fifteenth street below Poplar.

Mrs. Elizabeth Picket, mother of one of the girls, appealed to Patrolman Mears, of the Tenth and Buttonwood streets station, to aid her in finding her daughter. The patrolman recalled having seen two flashily dressed youths leave the Mount Vernon street house esterday, and then two blond girls had called good-by to them from a second-story window. He took Mrs. Picket to the house, and the girls were once placed under arrest

, Entry Into U. S. Legal

ASK FOR

New York, Aug. 10.—(By A. P.)— Immigration records at Ellis Island in-dicate that Charles Huszar, former premier of Hungary, entered the United States in an entirely lawful manner, according to Ellis Island officials. An investigation started yesterday as a result of charges made by the Federation of Hungarian Jews in America failed to show any conference. failed to show any evidences of fraud in connection with the examination of the former premier when he recently ar-

Architect Says Capitol Scandal Research Body Says Public Has Right to Figures of "City's Pocketook"

OTHER REQUESTS IGNORED

Discussion of the sinking fund sitnation in Citizens' Business, the Bureau of Municipal Research weekly, holds forth the hope Council will receive from the sinking fund commissioners some light on the condition of the fund before the time comes for framing the next So far the request for infor-

According to the bureau, a considera-This offer was submitted at a meeting yesterday of the joint Pennsylvania and New Jersey Delaware River Bridge for several years in the city controller's annual reports and budget statements up to and including the budget state-ment of October, 1916. The required reserves were set forth, and much isfaction was expressed with the fact that there was a surplus over and above the requirements.

'This situation might have gone along," the bureau says, "without raising any questions for a still longer and found generally and found general fraud the commonwealth by falsely cer-fraud the commonwealth by falsely cer-ifying to padded bills for desks for the equipment of the buildings, served autumn of 1916 marked an important epoch in Philadelphia's municipal finances.

"It will be recalled that it was then that the traditional fixed tax rate of $1 He has steadfastly maintained his was abandoned for a rate fixed after procence, and when asked to comment councilmanic decision on the oudget. en the circumstances which led to his a natural result, the inadequate dollar sentence, once replied, "Did you ever tax had to give way to a higher figure, see the Capitol? That is my answer." and as rising taxes are never nonular At his office in the Dexter Building.

At his office in the Dexter Building.

Huston talked of his interest in the bridge plans.

The Capital That is my answer.

Itax had to give way to a higher figure, and as rising taxes are never copular there followed a keener scrutiny of requests for appropriations.

plans.
pl siveness. This scrutiny and questioning resulted in a surrender by the sinking me a reality and I hope to help fund commissioners of over $1,000.000 did not belong to the sinking This move lessened the 1917 tax fund. burden to that extent—about seven cents in the tax rate."

FALL FROM TRUCK FATAL

Injuries Supposedly Slight Result in Death of Man

A fall from a truck yesterday after soon, which at the time was believed to have caused only minor injuries, resulted in the death early this morning of Con rad Brenner, thirty-five years old, 57

He died in Mount Sinai Hospital. where he was taken in the truck of the mission, held different views.

"I do not think a report worthy of pame could be made for that sum."

where he was taken in the truck of the Lewis, is celebrating his ninetieth birthday anniversary today at his home, driver. James Clarke, twenty-six years 1530 North Tenth street.

said Brenner fell from the ing of the proposition the work will Clarke said Brenner fell from the have to be done over again and we'll truck at Front street and Snyder ave-Clarke Clarke was on his way to the $100,000, with loss of time, to get the hospital, he said, when a policeman of station hailed him and later placed him Swarthmore and Germantown.

ASKS BIG FIRE FUND

Marshal Elliott Says $200,000 Is Needed to Assure Safety

Placing Philadelphia on a plane with New York and other large American cities in fire prevention facilities will system and laws into effect.

Deaths of a Day

Mrs. Michael Quinn

Mrs. Susan Quinn, widow of Michael Quinn, founder of the one-time famous Kellyville Band, died at Clifton Heights yesterday, aged nearly 100 years, Mrs. Oninn was born in Scotland. She is survived by five children.

Dr. William R. Conklin

Dr. William Reeves Conklin, a dentist, twenty-five years old, an honor graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and son of the Mayor of Gar-wood, N. J., who died yesterday in Jefferson Hospital, served as resident dental surgeon there at one time.

Rear Admiral C. T. Hutchins Pekin, Aug. 9.—(By A. P.)—Rear Admiral Charles T. Hutchins, U. S. N., Admiral Charles T. Hutchins, U. S. N., retired, died today of paralysis. He was visiting his son, Commander Charles T. Hutchins, Jr., naval attache at the American Legation here.

As Daniel Webster once said-

"I shall enter on no encomium upon Massachusetts. She needs none. There she is!"

Similarly, we shall enter on no encomium upon the Noiseless. It needs none. There it stands!

A fifteen-minute demonstration will do far more than words to BOOKLET AND prove its quiet—its speed—the

TYPEWRITER

USY OF USERS character of its work.

The Noiseless Typewriter Company, 835 Chestnut St., Philadelphia

ATLANTIC CITY'S HUSTLING NEWSBOYS

This group of newsboys are waiting at an Atlantic City railway station for the arrival of the first edition of the Evening Public Ledger, which they soon distribute to all parts of the Atlantic seaside city

HOW TO CATCH A BURGLAR HAY FEVER VICTIMS GATHER

Be Shown at City Hall Various appliances for making banks

A revolver expert from the Police Popartment will fire a number of shots at close range from a forty five actions. The Police Po Bullet-proof armor glass is sold by the Bankers' Protective Appliance

The actual demonstration will take place on the roof of City Hall, but those interested are requested to be in Room

PROFESSOR LEWIS IS 90

Oldest Member of Philadelphia Turngemeinde Has Birthday

The oldest member of the Philadel-nia Turngemeinde, Professor Louis thirty-eight years he was physical instructor at Girard College, and Before his appointment at Girard College, he conducted a gymnasium at Ninth and Arch, and also at Wilmington, Chester, West Chester,

One son, Philip, is physical Germantown High School, and an assistant to Professor Stecker, of the Playgrounds Association. Another son, Dr. Charles Lewis, is an instructor at Harvard College.

Sought Wife's Death; Paroled New York and other large American cities in fire prevention facilities will necessitate an approximate expenditure of $200,000. according to Fire Marshal George W. Elliott. This is the sum City Council will be asked to appropriate to carry on genuine fire prevention work in this city in the fire marshal's budget for 1921.

Philadelphia now has everything necessary for making fire prevention a real factor in the city, says Mr. Elliott, with the exception of men to put the system and laws into effect.

Sought Wife's Death; Paroled
Howard M. Swavely, who entered into a conspiracy in July, 1919, with entered in July, 1919, with the exception facilities will not a conspiracy in July, 1919, with the exception of men to put the system and laws into effect.

Sought Wife's Death; Paroled
Howard M. Swavely, who entered into a conspiracy in July, 1919, with the exception facilities will not a conspiracy in July, 1919, with the exception of men to put the sum of the French river, in Canada, Judge Joseph Buffington, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, arrived at the camping site of the Solid Comfort Club, of which he is a member, to find that some one had the City broken into his camp chest. The budge's camping outfit and fishing tackle. The judge found many of his treasured flies and a valuable rung gone, according to word received in Pittsburgh by friends of the Judge. Swavely had been in prison ever since his arrest.

Various Traps and Devices Are to Annual Clinic at College of Osteopathy is Started Victims of the seasonable hay fever, burglar proof and for trapping burglars representing almost every section of the will be demonstrated tomorrow after. United States, brought their watery eyes noon at 2:30 in City Hall under the and susceptible elefactory organs to the are the guests of the Spring Garden auspices of the Police Department. The Philadelphia College of Osteopathy yes. Association today at an outing at Burdemonstration will be attended by terday for the opening clinic of the an-Mayor Moore, Chief of Police Mills, nual hay fever "feast."

Assistant Chief Captain Temptest, a About 100 victims of the autumnal number of prominent bankers and affliction submitted to the treatment of others. A special feature will be a showing of bullet-proof armor glass—diseases. The physicians who claim to a glass that cannot be penctrated by a from the leading cities of the East and

Department will fire a number of shots at close range from a forty-five caliber pistol in an attempt to break the glass. It has been demonstrated in other cities that not even four shots fired at the same point on the glass can make a hole in it. Bullet-proof armor glass is sold

Collectively the physicians term themnatients who gathered yesterday will will be served at 6 o'clock and about 8 continue to submit to treatment through a series of clinics.

BOY KILLED: DRIVER HELD

Truck Accident at Garage Proves Fatal to Youngster Edward Lewis, of Buttonwood street near Eleventh, was held without bail to await the action of the coroner.

Magistrate Mecleary, in Central Sta-A truck which Lewis was backing out of a garage on North Marshall street yesterday knocked down and crushed yesterday knocked down and crushed George Clementheau, twelve years old, 602 North Beulah street. The boy was taken to the Roosevelt Hospital, where he died of his injuries last night. After taking the boy to the hospital Lewis gave himself up to the police.

JUDGE BUFFINGTON ROBBED Anticipating some good vacation angling up on the French river, Canada, Judge Joseph Buffington.

MacDonald & Campbell

Semi-Annual Reduction Sale

Men's Spring, Summer and Hot Weather Suits

Alterations at Cost

Fine Haberdashery

Prices Greatly Reduced

Madras Shirts, $2.25, were $3.00, $3.50 Silk Neckwear, $1.50, were $2.00, $2.50

Madras Shirts, $3.00, were $4.00, $4.50 Silk Neckwear, $2.00, were $3.00, $3.50

Madras Shirts, $3.75, were $5.00, $6.00 Silk Neckwear, $2.75, were $4.00, $5.00

$12.00 Pajamas,

$13.50 Pajamas,

Bathing Suits, Underwear, Hosiery, English Collars, Soft Collars, piece of Haberdashery is strictly regular MacDonald & Campbell stock-the best values in really fine goods to be had. And that, as we never

"round up" merchandise for sales, we guarantee bona fide reductions from

Summer Business Hours 8:30 to 5

Saturdays Closed All Day

1334-1336 Chestnut Street

At corresponding reductions: Knitted Neckwear, Bath Robes.

The outstanding features of this sale are, that every suit and every Tropical Worsteds and many other fabrics.

$13.00 Suits were $17.50

$15.00 Suits were $20.00

$18.75 Suits were $25.00

$22.50 Suits were $30.00

$26.25 Suits were $35.00

$30.00 Suits were $40.00

$33.75 Suits were $45.00

$37.50 Suits were $50.00

$41.25 Suits were $55.00

(Large Sizes).

(Mostly Lurge Sizes).

$8.50, were

$9.50, were

Initial Handkerchiefs.

Madras Shirts, $5.00, were $7.00, $7.50 Pajamas, our this season's regular moderate prices.

$7.00, were $10.00, $11.00

Madras Shirts, $1.50, were

Silk Shirts,

Silk Shirts,

Silk Shirts,

Tremendous variety, including Palm Beach, Silk, Mohair,

CHILDREN ON OUTING

into two special cars which took them to the park. The Rev. Maurice Levitt. pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Temple, and a score of assistants have to the winners. Games and story-telling will fill out the afternoon's program. Refreshments

Prisoners Are Men-To Have Hear-

raided an alleged disorderly house on Locust street near Tenth last night. station today. They are Ross Davis, Tenth street near Spruce; George Jatzuica, Locust street near Eighth; Peter Kozouidas, the alleged pro-Theodore prietor of the house Patrolman McFarland arrested John charge of the little folks.

William H. Haines, Jr., president of

Dr. John H. Bailey, of this city, who sports, including potato races, three-originated the annual gatherings, was legged race, wheelbarrow race and assisted by Dr. John J. Stern and Dr. sack races. Prizes will be awarded 6'clock the homeward journey will be-Messrs, Haines, W. C. Harter, scoretary of the association, and the Rev. Mr. Levitt had charge of the arrange-

5 ARRESTED IN VICE RAID

ing Today

Detectives Foy and Coyle, of the Fif-centh and Locust streets station,

$45.00 Suits were $60.00

$48.75 Suits were $65.00

$52.50 Suits were $70.00

$56.25 Suits were $75.00

$75.00 Suits were $100.00

$80.00

$85.00

$90.00

$95.00

$2.50, were $3.00, $3.50

$3.00, were $4.00, $4.50

$3.75, were $5.00, $6.00

$1.00

$1.50

$60.00 Suits were

$63.75 Suits were

$67.50 Suits were

$71.25 Suits were

$2.50 Silk Neckwear, 60c, were

Silk Néckwear, $1.00, were

CUBAN RUSH STARTS EARLY; KITED PRICES HIT VISITORS

Island Mecca Wet as Sponge, but Hotel Situation and High Costs Prove Bugaboo to American Joy Seekers

Volstead refugees who plan to seek the damper climate of Havana this winter after the prolonged drought of the crowd preparing to live off of the later hot weather up here are not going to have such an ideal time as they anticipated. Not that Cuba isnit going to be sufficiently yet to suit them it everywhere in the streets. to be sufficiently wet to suit them—it everywhere in the streets.

"Of course, all this has had a very figures registered for humidity in bot-going to be extremely hard to find. Likewise they are going to be extremely hard to pay for, and a man with limited means might as well give up all a salad and dessert. There's no use thoughts of the glorious winter he has going ashore with less than ten dollars expected to begin until September at going down to sit on the sea wall the earliest. But, greatly to the surthe earliest. But, greatly to the sur-prise of the government passport office and of the shipping companies, the rush began some time ago and is now equal to what was looked for next month.

A man at the Custom House said: "We cannot give any figures, of course. left. But a certain percentage of people think we do and come in here to get them. Consequently, the visitors to this getting theirs, too. Beer is now ten office are a fair indication of the larger office are a fair indication of the larger who apply at Washington.

The fugitives from Volsteadism are getting theirs, too. Beer is now ten cents a glass—that is, so I am told. And whisky that I—I mean, that you, and the property of the fugitive of the second of the property of the fugitive of the fu

Coming for Months

"We have been having these appli-Kiddies as its Guests

Two hundred and fifty-two children of the Spring Garden street district are the guests of the Spring Garden Association today at an outing at Burkolme Park.

The kiddies assembled at Sixth and Crowded Spring Garden at Sixth and Charles Spring Garden-Association Has 250 cations in unusual numbers for a menth don't want you to get the impression or more. They have come so frequently that I have any personal interest in as to be very noticeable to us. At first these prices. But I get my informative they have the prices as the prices of the prices. men identified with liquor and gambling lighters and there it will have to stay interests. But that is, surprisingly enough, not the class we have had. The applicants have evidently been people of means who are of the spending more overcrowded than London and > it hard to get accommodations is in-dicated by the observations of Captain a night for the homeless Americans, Leslie C. Coffill, of the United States determined on having a good time. shipping board steamship Coquina, just returned from Havana and loading at Reed street wharf for another voyage. "Conditions in Havana aren't very promising for Americans," said Captain Coffill. "The strike of the longshoremen down there has absolutely building operations because the building material sent from this country is still lying on the docks or in the holds of hips that haven't been unloaded or on lighters in the harbor, waiting to be taken ashore. Consequently the new hotels and clubs that were projected at the end of last season have not been built and the old ones are already

Many Americans There

"I have been sailing to Havana Four men, arrested in the raid, will and on for a good many years, but I be given a hearing before Magistrate have never seen, even in the height of O'Brien at the Twelfth and Pine streets the winter season, more Americans there than are there right heard as much English spoken on the Prado as Spanish. In the middle of uica, Locust street near Eighth; Peter Prado as Spanish. In the middle of Coscos, Locust street near Third, and July you could go into any restaurant on the Parque Centrale-the Inglaterre the Colonnade or any of them-and more than half the people at the tables would be Americans. This was in July,

'I noticed in the Havana newspaper the daily list of guests at the hotels and practically all of them were Americans and the lists were as long as in the best winter seasons. And they are noticeable effect on price raising. room in a supposedly moderate-priced hotel costs $8 a day right now and it will go up later. In the moderate-priced restaurants you will pay from $3 to $5 for a good, plain meal—say a steak and hashed-brown potatoes and a salad and desaget. There's no use The American rush was not officially getting a meal and fussing about and wall and ly battered and hungry after their har-

Taxis Join in Price Boost "For a long time taxis were the only things that did not go up. They used to take you anywhere in the city used to take you anywhere in the city for twenty cents. But just before we left, the price jumped to thirty cents and it will probably go up to fifty by could buy for $2 a bottle last January, cost me—that is, it would cost a percost me—that is, it would cost a per son $3.50 when we left last month.

jobs during the rush season; and the pipes will be unloaded on ified with liquor and gambling lighters, and there it will have to stay

Paris were after the armistice and that That these people are going to find means that billiard tables and park

"LOST" BABY ADOPTED

Infant, Who Interrupted Church Services, Finds Home Immediately Services, Finds Home immediately Captain Turner said that he had "Paul." a four-day-old baby, found made 129 voyages, but that this was the in the vestibule of St. Vincent's Seminary. Chelten avenue near Morton street; yesterday morning, has been adopted by Luigi Gabrex. 214 East British Government. Sharpnack street, a member of the con-gregation of the Holy Rosary Italian Catholie Church, adjoining. When found the baby clutched a bottle of poison in his hand.

crowded.

"The harbor situation is, in fact, so bad that the shipping board has again put an embargo on ships for Cuba. I have been notified that this coming have been notified that this coming taken in charge by Gabrex. Meanwhile the police are trying to locate his

Indigestion Kills Man

George Daykin, fifty-five years old in charge of an apartment house at 135 South Eighteenth street, died suddenly at 10 o'clock last night of acute indi-gestion. He was pronounced dead at Hahnemann Hospital.

A YOUNG MAN

desires connection, progressive business house; well educated, natural ability and three years' business experience. C 415, Ledger Office.

PEARLS

STONES

DIAMONDS PRECIOUS

Designers and Makers of Exclusive Jewels

New Eyelet Tumps

Reignskin Dainty Last

THIS is a most unusual low price for footwear of distinctive-ness and supreme qual-One of the many bargain surprises that has made "Del-Mar" the shoe centre for particular dressers. Upstairs Store For Women

Del Mar& Company 1211 Chestnut Street Take Elevator to Second Floor

Presenting a Most Unusual Value In a Of Fine White On a Beautiful of the Finest Suits Made! Final Sale of Hot-weather Clothes!

Cool Cloth Suits that were $15, $18, $20, $25 and $30, now-

Palm Beach, Mohair,

$12, $17, $21

$16 White Flannel Trousers, $12

Silk Suits, Sport Coats, Chauffeur Palm Beach Suits, White Duck Trousers, etc., etc., at big reductions!

PERRY & CO.

"N. B. T."

16th & Chestnut Sts.