

THEY GET KEY TO CITY OF RENO. Franklin D'Olier, National Commander of the American Legion, and Mrs. D'Olier visit the Nevada city. Wide World Photos.

STROLLING WITH THEIR DOLLS. The craze has gained headway on the Wildwood sands, as well as the Boardwalk. Miss Claire Huth (left) and Miss Mabella Jennings. Ledger Photo Service.

PALS AT BABY SHOW. They were very happy at the Stanton School yesterday afternoon, although they didn't win prizes. Lorraine Blazer (left) and "Billy" Carr. Ledger Photo Service.

THE HEALTHIEST BABY. Thomas McGittigan carefully watched the judges as they looked at the other babies at the Stanton School yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

JUST HANGING ON. Anna McNeil, of the Stanton School playground, Sixteenth and Cumberland streets, is often called upon to do gymnastic stunts. Ledger Photo Service.

RETURNS TO POLAND TODAY. Hugh Gibson (right), United States minister to Poland, is ordered back to his post on account of the Polish situation. He is shown with M. Casenave, head of French high commission. Harris & Ewing.

MISS LESLIE HAINES AND HER TWO PRIZE DOGS. She believes that a romp at the shore will help them in coming dog show competitions. Ledger Photo Service.

TWO SCREEN STARS SAIL AWAY. Constance and Norma Talmadge, who sailed for a European trip with other movie folks. Underwood & Underwood.

UPBRIGHT AND EARLY. Clara J. Hill and Rose Maxwell are tent mates at the Ellis A. Gimbel Camp, Spring Mount. Ledger Photo Service.

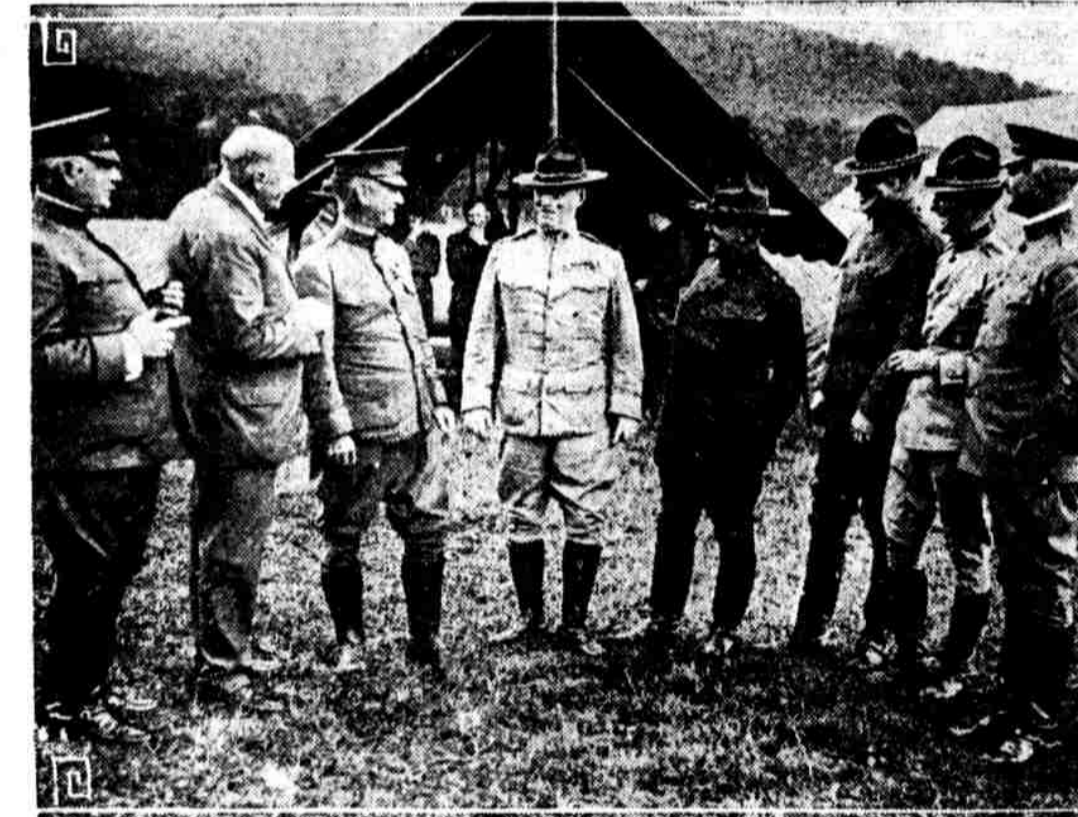

IN CHARGE of the Ellis A. Gimbel Camp doing at Spring Mount. Captain Margaret Schallen and Howard Mayland, camp director. Ledger Photo Service.

CRACK SHOT. Miss Mary Morosini, daughter of Count Morosini, of Essex Fells, N. J., is taking part in the national rifle meet, at Camp Perry, Ohio. Underwood & Underwood.

HIS DADDY IS GENERAL WRANGEL. This lad, with two other children and Mrs. Wrangel, are being cared for by the American Red Cross at Constantinople while the general fights the Soviet forces. Underwood & Underwood.

EIGHT GENERALS AT MT. GRETNA. United States army inspection of Camp Fetzner brought many army officials. Major Generals William Weigel, U. S. A.; Charles M. Clement, Charles H. Muir, U. S. A.; William G. Price, camp commander. Brigadier Generals J. D. Beary, Richard Coulter, Edward C. Shannon and Samuel Miller (left to right). Ledger Photo Service.

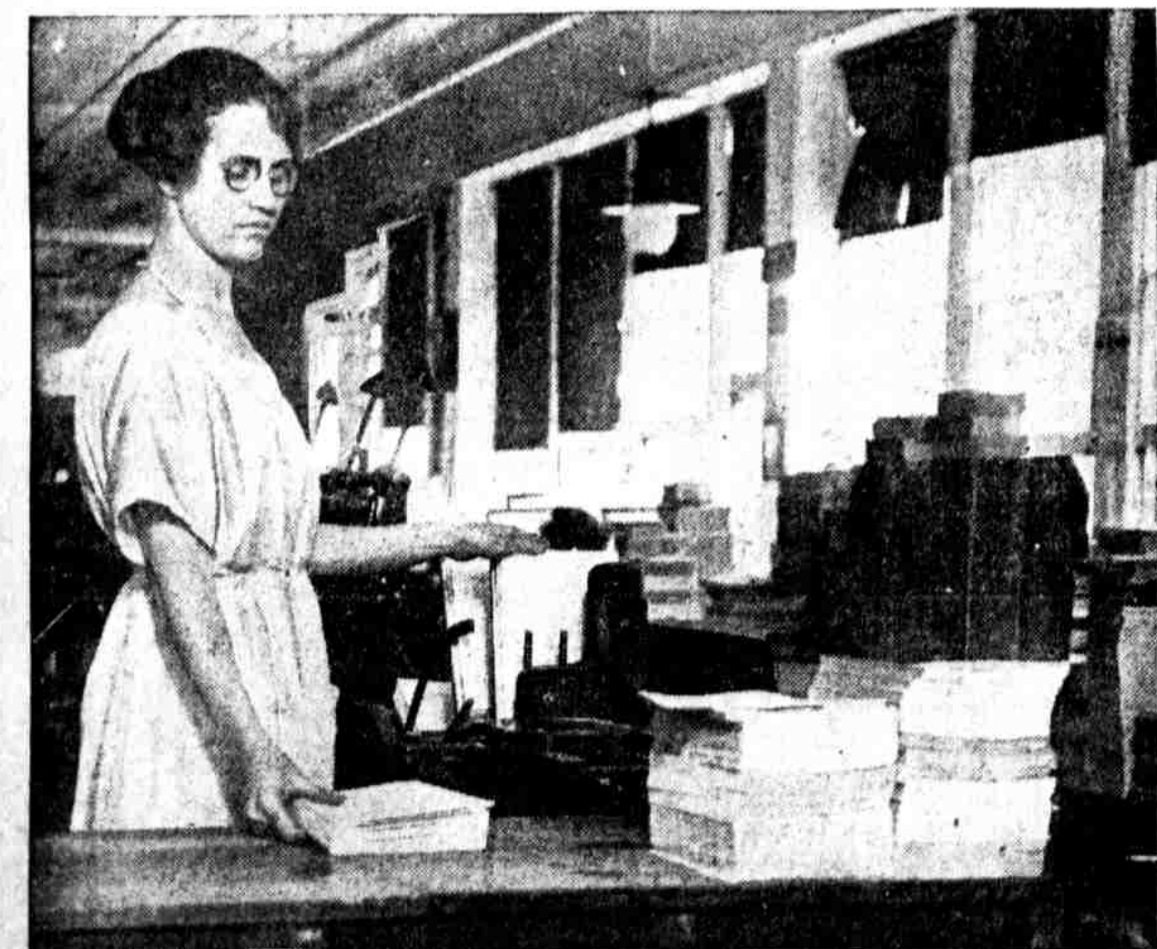

SOLDIER AND HIS PAL. Earl Carmichael, Co. I, Third Regiment, and Buddy at the encampment of the Pennsylvania guardsmen at Mt. Gretna. Ledger Photo Service.

CLAMS AND CORN AND POTATOES. All roasted in the one big fire at Strathmere, N. J., by a group of picnickers. It's a real way to eat them—right out of the fire. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

ASSEMBLING PAGES FOR BOOKS. Miss Nellie Madison, 1800 Arch street, is taking complete set of pages for a book off the machine that gathers the pages together at the Murphy & Parker Co. bookbinders, Seventh and Arch streets. The machine has a capacity of eighty books a minute. Ledger Photo Service.

NEWLY ELECTED President General of the Catholic Educational Association. The Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, Washington. Central News Photo.

MRS. RAYMOND T. BAKER, of New York, who was formerly Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, with her two sons, Alfred and George, is visiting Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, at Newport. International.

MRS. RICHARD NEWTON, JR., formerly Miss Virginia Rice, of New York, with her prize Boston bull Muffin. Central News Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS RHODA VAN ATTA, 3013 North Franklin street, Philadelphia.