Nancy Wynne Chats About Various Doings in Newport and Other Resorts - She Hears of Mr. Spencer's Accident-Other Bits

IT WAS very gay and festive at the Casino in Newport Friday, and the entertaining continued quite uninterpreted Saturday. You know, the tensis tournament was an invitation affair and it was most interesting.

And Mrs. Alfred E. Norris, of this city and New York, and Lieutenant Raoul Alexra, of Bucharest, Rumania. Lieutenant Alexra sailed for this country from Japan on August 7.

fair and it was most interesting.

The women were gorgeously gowned, and ever so many attended. Mrs. John R. Drexel and her daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Thompson Drexel, were among the spectators during the whole week. Elizabeth's exceedingly fair hair and complexion made a delightful contrast to her mother-in-law's warmer coloring. They are two handsome women! The Edward J. Mrs. Biddle was wearing a beautiful wrap of dark blue silk and fur over a georgette frock the other afternoon. Her hat was a round model of straw, trimmed with French flowers. She is trimmed with French flowers. She is wonderfully pretty, her great charm being her clear skin and beautiful eyes. It won't be long before Laura Biddle, Jr., will be ready to make her debut now, will it? She is about sixteen and bids fair to be very good looking. It seems absurd how fast these children all grow up, does it not? all grow up, does it not?

CPEAKING of debuts, you know O Anne Barelay is going to make hers in Chestnut Hill this year. She is a younger sister of Caroline Barelay, who was introduced by her parents, Mr. and was introduced by her parents, arr. and Mrs. Barclay, last winter. Anne is named for her mother, who was Miss Wister, a daughter of the late Mr. Jones Wister, and a sister of Mrs. Arthur Mason Chichester, of Leesburg, Va., who was Ethel Wister.

Mr. and Mrs. Chichester, by the way, have been up here lately and have been visiting Mrs. Chichester's stepmother, Mrs. Jones Wister, at her cottage in Cape May, on Beach avenue. Anne Barclay is a charming little some one, and there is not any doubt of a good time for her.

I don't think we will be so overrun with buds this year as we were last. Wasn't it a hectic year? I never knew of so many parties, night after night and ball after ball. It's a wonder they could all stand it, but they did and looked as fresh and gay as if there had never been any parties all year,
