Appeared in Night Clothes-Released From Jail Under Bail

TELLS OF STIMULANTS

By the Associated Press Buford, Ga., Aug. 19.—Thomas E. Watson, once Populist candidate for President, and now candidate for the Democratic nomination for United Staes senator from Georgia, together with his traveling companion, E. H. Miller, were released today from the Gwinnett county jail, where they spent the night as a result of a disturbance in a hotel here. the night as a result of the public in a hotel here.
Watson was charged with "public indecency." while Miller was charged with carrying concealed weapons. Watwith carrying concealed weapons. Watson's bond was placed at $500 and that of Miller at $1000.

Both men agreed to leave the fall
after a conference with Thoma W.
Hardwick, former senator and candidate for governor, and John I Kelly, candidate for Congress, who arrived here to-

Mr. Watson issued a written state-

Mr. Watson issued a written statement in which he said that since his pervous collapse in Florida two years ago be had, on advice of his physician, taken small amounts of stimulants after extraordinary exertion.

"At Winder Wednesday I addressed an enormous crowd, speaking directly under a heavy warehouse roof," he said.
"Almost all of the speakers at Winder were overcome with the heat. Seeing this, a friend of mine at Winder gave me a small bottle of whisky, from which I took only two drinks, one at Winter who was a sanctioned by the government and all Cantu employes are relieved of responsibility in connection with them. Other stipulations include retention in office of certain Cantu employes; resignation of Cantu in a "dignified manner;" granting to Cantu soldiers the choice of remaining in the territorial service or enlistment in the federal forces; nomination and acceptance of Geperal Luis M. Salazar as governor; guarantees of freedom from all political prosecution to all inhabitants of the district, and amnesty to all persons who participated in what the central

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 10.—The autowho participated in what the central VINDICATED, JENKINS SAYS

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 10.—The auto-mobile of H. H. Wheelock, a Phila-Mexico City, Aug. 19.-William O. Jenkins, formerly United States condelphia commercial traveler, was hit squarely, shortly before midnight at Florin by the western express, Pennsylvania railroad. The car back of the driver's seat was knocked to pieces, but sular agent at Puebla, yesterday placed before the American embassy in this city additional testimony regarding his reported kidnapping in October, 1919, by Mexican bandits led by Federico Cordoba. This evidence is said to clear him of the charge of perjury now pending. The new testimony is alleged to be a repudiation by Indian witnesses of their statements made at former hearings, when they claimed to have seen Jenkins at the Hacienda de Santa Lucia, state of Puebla, on October 22, 1919, in company with Cordoba, and on friendly terms with the bandit chieftain his reported kidnapping in October, 1919, by Mexican bandits led by Fed-delphia commercial traveler, was hit squarely, shortly before miduight at Florin by the western express. Pennsylvania railroad. The car back of the driver's seat was knocked to pieces, but Wheelock, tossed aside, was only cut by flying pieces of wood. He fell on another track, and had barely time to roll from it when another train dashed by.

Automobile Painting While our facilities for strictly high-grader refinishings are perhaps the most complete and largest to be found, the strain in keeping delivery promises is great; it will prove of great assistance if patrons who intendating their cars refinished will inform us at their earliest convenience. Then dates can be arranged, so that cars will not be out of use for any length of time.
