

ANTHONY ROBERTSON, 74 years old, retired from the force of the sub-postoffice, Second and Walnut streets, by federal retirement act, is saying good-by to Superintendent Judson Vogdes. He served 27 years.

KNITTING AS BABY PLAYS on the Wildwood beach. Mrs. Julia Simon and her daughter Harriet of Philadelphia.

BOLSHEVIK ENVOY TO ENGLAND AND FAMILY. M. Krasin, one of the leading members of the Soviet mission to England, with his wife and three daughters at the Kings Cross Station, London.

AT THE PENROSE HOME. Former Governor Edwin S. Stuart (left) and District Attorney Rotan, wait to be admitted as they arrive to pay a visit to Senator Penrose.

A CHEERFUL QUINTET. This happy group of bathers were having a merry time on the sands of Atlantic City, when our photographer asked them to pose.

SUED BY HER MANAGER FOR $286,000. Mme. Galli-Curci, singer, defendant in breach of contract suit started by Charles L. Wagner.

TWO GIRLIES HAVE A SWING. Esther Goren hangs on to the rings while her playmate, Sylvia Silverstein gets a well-timed hold at the Starr garden recreation grounds.

GIVING BABY A NICE SLOW RIDE. Rose Wynnde keeps her sister Fanny quiet on a swing at Starr Garden. It's good early training for Fanny.

READY FOR A BACK-HAND DRIVE. Mrs. W. P. Newhall of the Germantown Cricket Club tennis team.

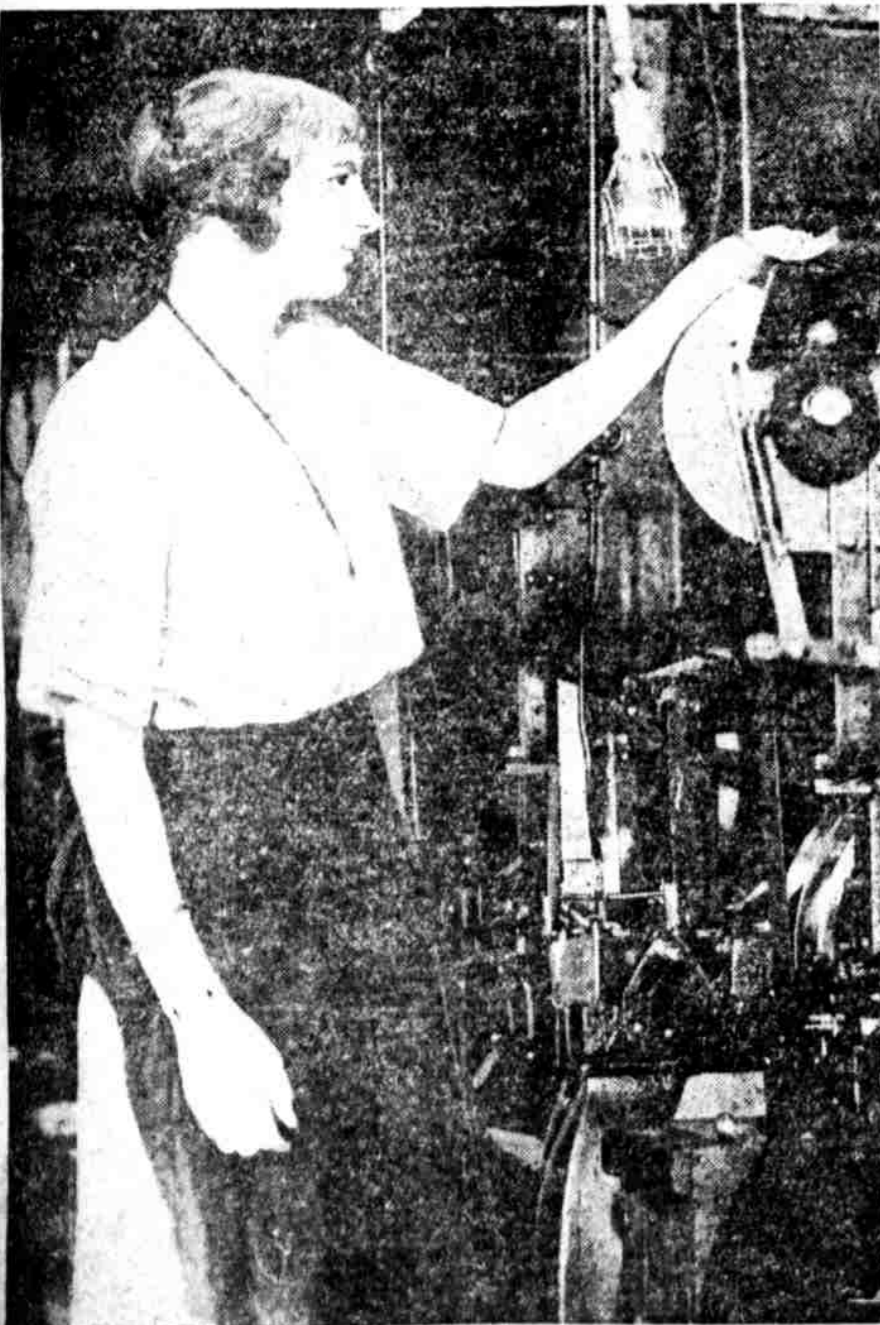

JOHN H. MASON, who discusses safe investments and how to warn the small speculator against undue risks, in an interview which appears on the editorial page.

MICKY BURIED. The mascot of Engine 41, Sixty-first and Thompson streets, died Monday. The grave in front of the engine house is being decorated by Hugh McKinnon.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS and WHAT THEY DO

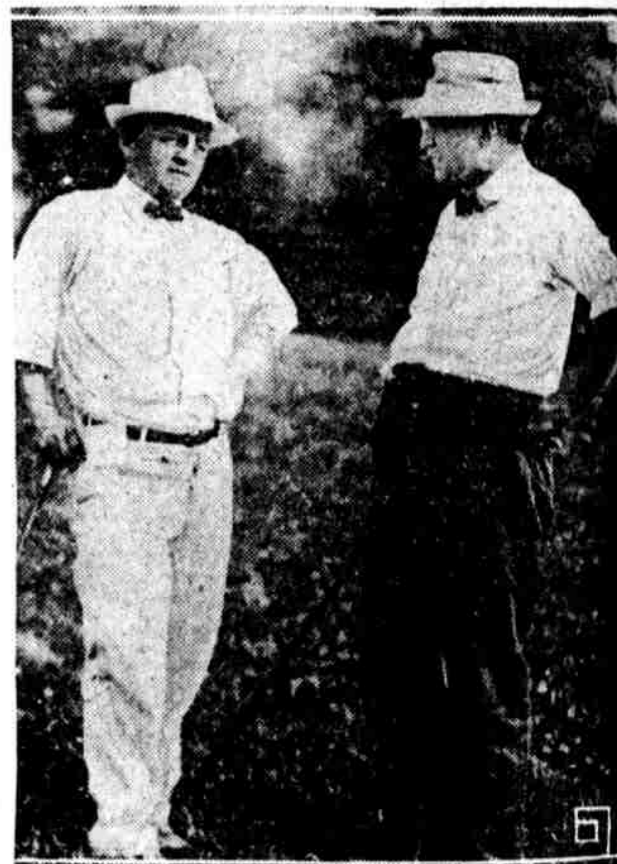

OPERATING A RIVET-SPLITTING MACHINE at the Penn Rivet Corporation, Third and Huntingdon streets. The operator, Miss Dora E. Schmidt, 3136 North Seventh street, is feeding the machine.

THREE HUNDRED POLISH CITIZENS CALL AT WHITE HOUSE. They are received by Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, to whom their petition, asking aid for Poland, is read.

NOT A HORSE RACE ENTRY. It's just one of the beach horses at Cape May being walked along the sands with Miss Edna Pfeiffer, of South Philadelphia, as rider.

SHAWNEE CLUB GOLFERS. J. Frank Dreher (left) and C. B. Keller, both citizens of Stroudsburg, who love to knock the little ball about.

FOUR AMERICANS WHO FIGURED IN YESTERDAY'S OLYMPIC EVENTS. "Ted" Meredith, whose marvelous "come back" has pleased all, qualified for the semifinals in 400-meter run. Allen Woodring, Meadowbrook Club, who qualified for semifinal of 200-meter dash. Lawrence M. Shields, Meadowbrook Club, third in the final of the 1500-meter race, scoring four points for the U. S. team, and Sherman Landers, former Penn track team captain, who qualified in the hop-step-and-jump (left to right).

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS HELEN ISAAC, Ridge avenue, Roxborough.