It is probably true as has been said that the average speculative stockbroker changes his clientele completely every two years.

This means that during that period all of his old customers have lost all they had, and have been compelled to stop speculating. Dear Cynthia-How can a girl make he boys in the office in which she works espect her?

I am a young girl of Jewish parenage, though I do not show it, and am working in a bank. -I really do not have to work, but the president of the bank is a personal friend of mine and asked me to work in his office. My mother and father don't like it, but I have to do something to occupy my time during the day.

I am a triffe stout, but I do not really look fat, and the boys in the office call me "Heavy," I have slapped several of their faces for this, but it doesn't seem to stop them. I hate the name, but can-

Could you suggest some way in which to remove what is left of the stopper?

Very night since. I've seen some mighty good arguments Twe seen some mighty good arguments there and some good jokes, but one in last evening's LEDGER signed by a fel-tow calling himself "shy guy" wins the "bologna," in my estimation. In my limited stay in this part of the country I have seen a bunch of them. Though, but I didn't know they were so "unconscious" they would boast about it.

Every time I see one I feel like "hand-ing him" one, and I'm no puglist, either. And the worst part of it is they call that "style" and consider them selves "vamps." I'll bet they're parked on the corner because they can't get a girl to go out with them. Twe often stood on a corner in the evening because I don't know any girls, and watched them, but I'll be "dog-goned" if I ever thought I was hand-some or felt bad for the girls who couldn't go with me and my suit's got no pearly buttons—in fact, the seat's almost out.
