DELAWARE G. O. P. FEUD LAID ASIDE

Slate Selected and Way Paved for Harmony as Convention Opens

CATER TO THE SUFFRAGISTS

By a Staff Correspondent Dover, Del., Aug. 24. - Good old party harmony" took the center of the stage when Republican state cention met here at noon today, and the Townsend-Layyton feud raced to the woods for today, at least. Custom spoke for the unanimous remination of Representative Caleb R Layton, but the Layton forces had de feated Governor John G. Townsend for national delegate last spring and the Townsend forces breathed defiance and revenge. Layton's anti-school code stand hurt him, too. For a while this morning, it looked as though Sussex county delegates in caucus would choose Governor Townsend himself as the nomince. Then said rumor, by a magnificent gesture, the governor was to decline in favor of Doctor Layton on the floor of the conven
