

IN COLUMBIA FLIGHT. Mrs. Charles Gudebrod, of St. Davids, who participated in the tournament of the National Archery Association, at Wayne, yesterday

THE FORTIETH TOURNAMENT OF THE NATIONAL ARCHERY ASSOCIATION. It is being held at St. Luke's School, Wayne. At the left is Dr. R. P. Elmer, of Wayne, the present champion. He led yesterday with 87 hits for a total of 559 points. Nine women archers are ready to start the Columbia flight, in which Cynthia Wesson, a former champion, had high score. Miss Wesson is representing a Massachusetts club and is seen at the target, where she is figuring her score.

CADDIES HAVE DAY OFF. They were yesterday entertained by the ladies of the Whitmarsh Valley Country Club. Miss Maud Hoffman and Mrs. H. B. Newton served at this table

GOLFERS FOR A DAY. Most caddies get a lot of practice, but only on special events do they become the real players of the day, as they were at the Whitmarsh Valley Country Club yesterday. William Casey (left), who won one of the prizes. At the right, Mrs. Herman King presented Austin Sykes, the winner, with a silver cup

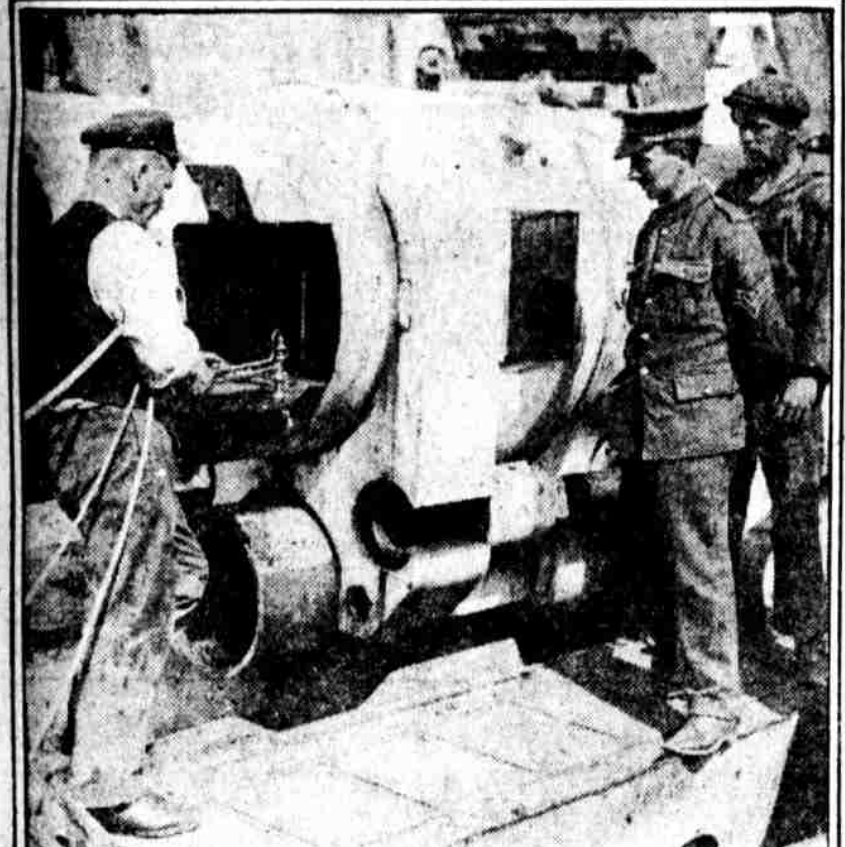

IN CAMP AT TORRESDALE. Mrs. Sarah Doyle getting "dolloed up" in Penn Camp, near the Torresdale bathing beach

WILLIAM A. STECHER, of the physical department of the public schools, discusses the Olympic games in an interview on the editorial page

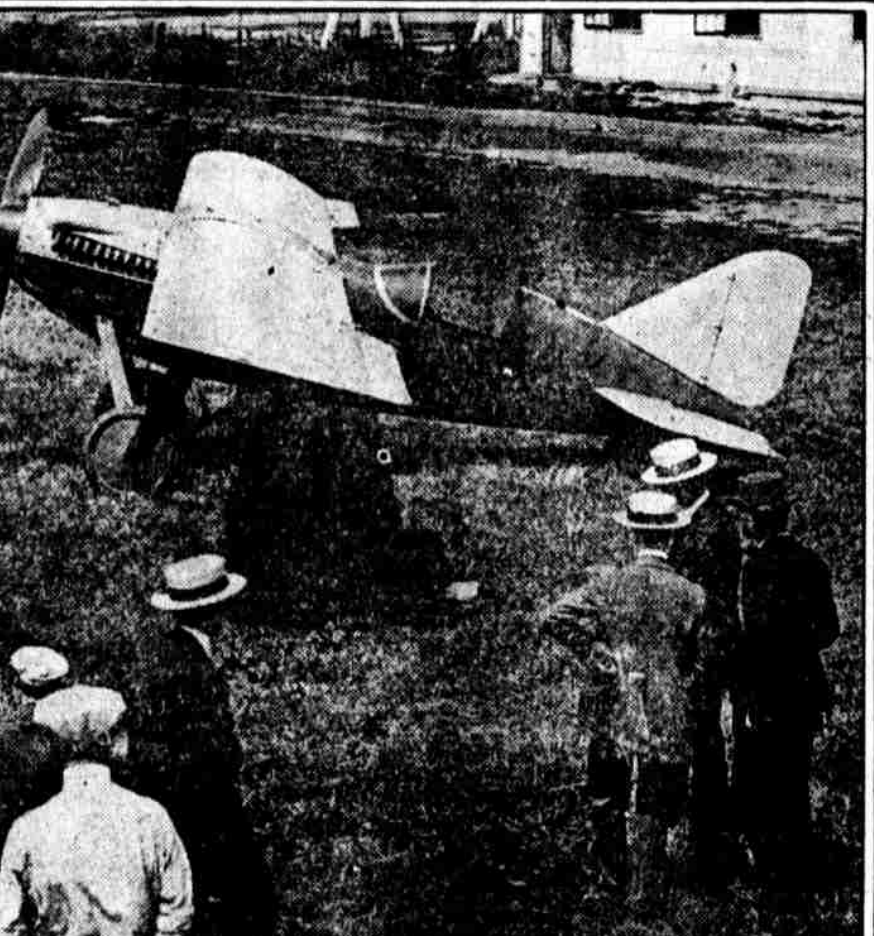

TILDEN ON HOME SOIL. The world's champion was seen by 5000 folks on the Strawberry Mansion courts yesterday afternoon. The first ball is just on its way over as the photograph was snapped

DREADED HELIGOLAND WILL SOON BE A MEMORY. The Heligoland fort, long the pet of the ex-Kaiser of Germany, is being destroyed by the German Government under supervision of British army engineers

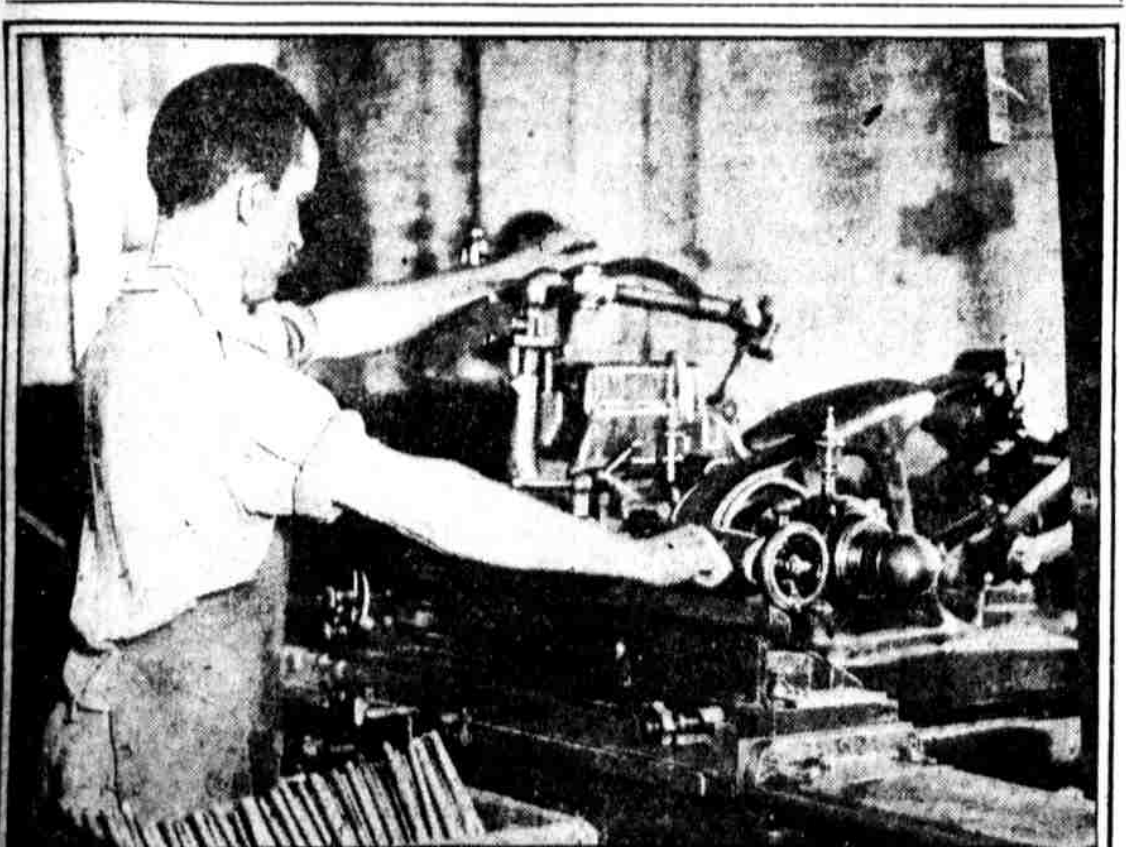

WOMAN'S ENTRY IN GORDON BENNETT RACES. Mrs. S. E. J. Cox (left), wife of a Texas oil baron, and the "Texas Wildcat," which she has entered in the Gordon Bennett cup races to be held September 27 in Paris. Piloted by Rudolph Rohlf's the plane has made more than 200 miles an hour

THE SILENT RULER OF JAPAN. War Minister Tamaka, one of the ablest statesmen of Japan, often referred to as the "Man Behind the Japanese Throne"

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

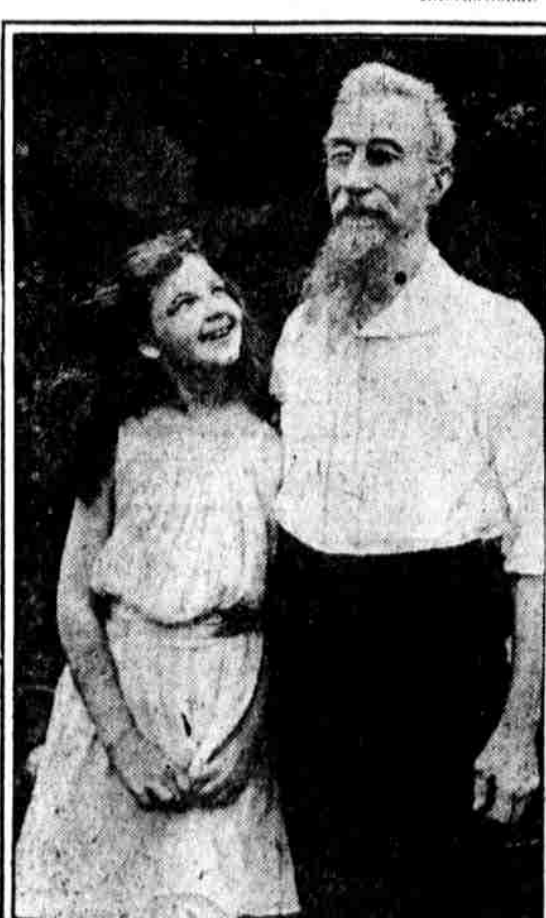

MAKING SPINDLES. George L. Bishop operating a machine at the Wicaco Screw and Machine Works, Seventh and Wood streets. Seventy-five of the 7-inch spindles are completed each day. Each one has four taperings, necessitating four different operations on this machine

ENGLAND'S OLDEST AND YOUNGEST SCOUT. Lord Maeth, 80 years old, is shaking the hand of Leslie McCreadie, only eight years old, in the Olympia, London

HENRY MORGENTHAU AT GOLF. The ex-ambassador to Turkey on the links at Bar Harbor, Maine

THE OLDEST AND YOUNGEST. They were among those present at the National Dancing Masters' Convention, in New York. Margaret Bott is from Cleveland, Ohio, while Lewis Kretlow hails from Chicago. The girl is 13 and the man 88 years old

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ROSE ABRAMS, 1627 North Seventh street, Philadelphia