

IN P. O. S. OF A. PARADE AT HARRISBURG. Robert Wilde, George Lare, Jr., William H. Toms, George A. Clark and Harry Meyers (left to right) are members of Washington Camp, No. 50, of Roxborough. Ledger Photo Service.

THE WAY HE DID IT. Earl J. Thomson, of Dartmouth College, running for Canada in the Olympic games, snapped as he broke the world's record in the 110-meter hurdles. Harrold Barron, of Philadelphia, was a close second. Western Newspaper Union.

THE WINNER. Miss Emma T. McGrath, a former Philadelphian, who won the "Buck-boardmobile" race at Asbury Park a few days ago.

READING'S UNCLE SAM. Omar Detwiler, of Reading, as he appeared in the P. O. S. of A. annual parade at Harrisburg yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

BABY SIGNBOARDS. They have been adopted by the mothers at Atlantic City. It would be a hard job for Jimmie to get lost with the huge sign on his back. Gaynor.

AMBASSADOR DAVIS HOME. The United States ambassador to Great Britain arriving in New York on the S. S. Olympic. Central News Photo.

BLUE RIBBON VARIETY. Alice Burnside took her brother Abraham to the baby show at the Key School, Eighth and Wolf streets, yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

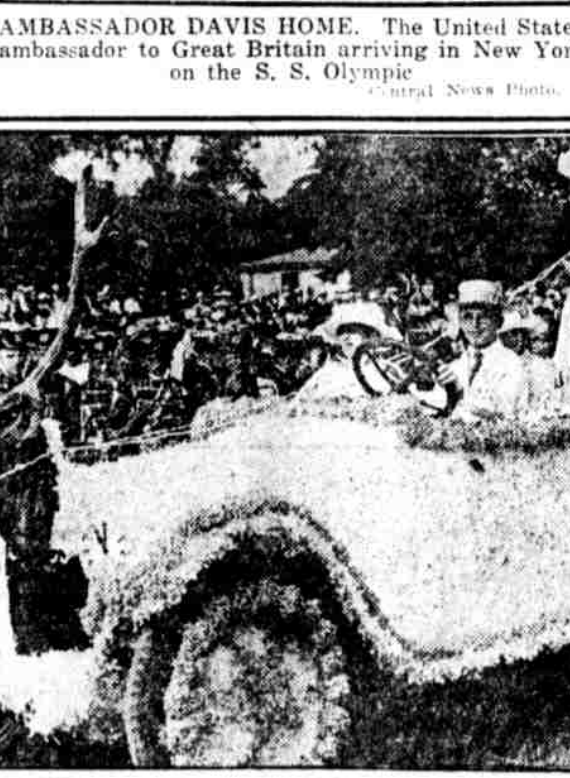

A SHIP OWNER. Master Garfield A. Wood, of Detroit, owner of "Miss Detroit," that took part in the international motorboat race in England. His father's boat beat him. Central News Photo.

ACTOR RETURNS WITH WIFE AND CHILD. Captain William Elliott, who appeared here in Madame X. His wife was Louise Le Grange, a French actress. Central News Photo.

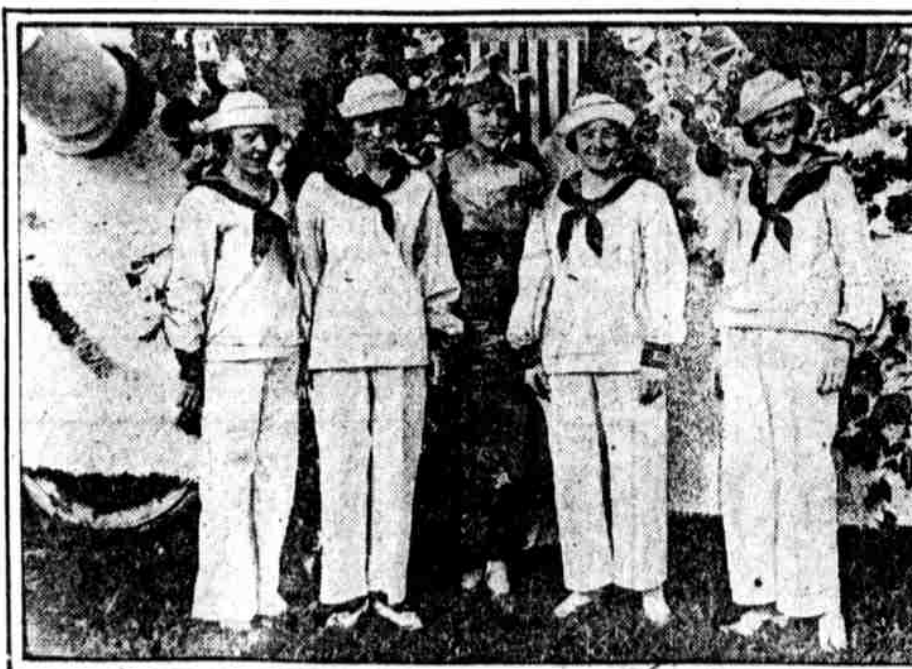

CHILDREN OF SLAIN MISSIONARY. W. A. Reinert, a Pennsylvanian, was killed in China by a Chinese officer as he protected an orphanage. American soldiers later arrested the offender. He was executed. The children, Margaret, Samuel and Doris, have just arrived in this country. Ketch & Horner.

ELKS PARADE. In connection with the annual state convention being held in Allentown this week, a mammoth parade was held yesterday. At the left are four Philadelphia girls who managed a float. They are Miss Marian Doran, Miss Edwina Gilligan, Miss Helen Mellor and Miss Rosalie Donahue. The beautifully decorated automobile is owned by H. G. Connell, of Allentown. At the right are a group of Mahanoy City girls standing beside the float sent by the Elks of that town. Ledger Photo Service.

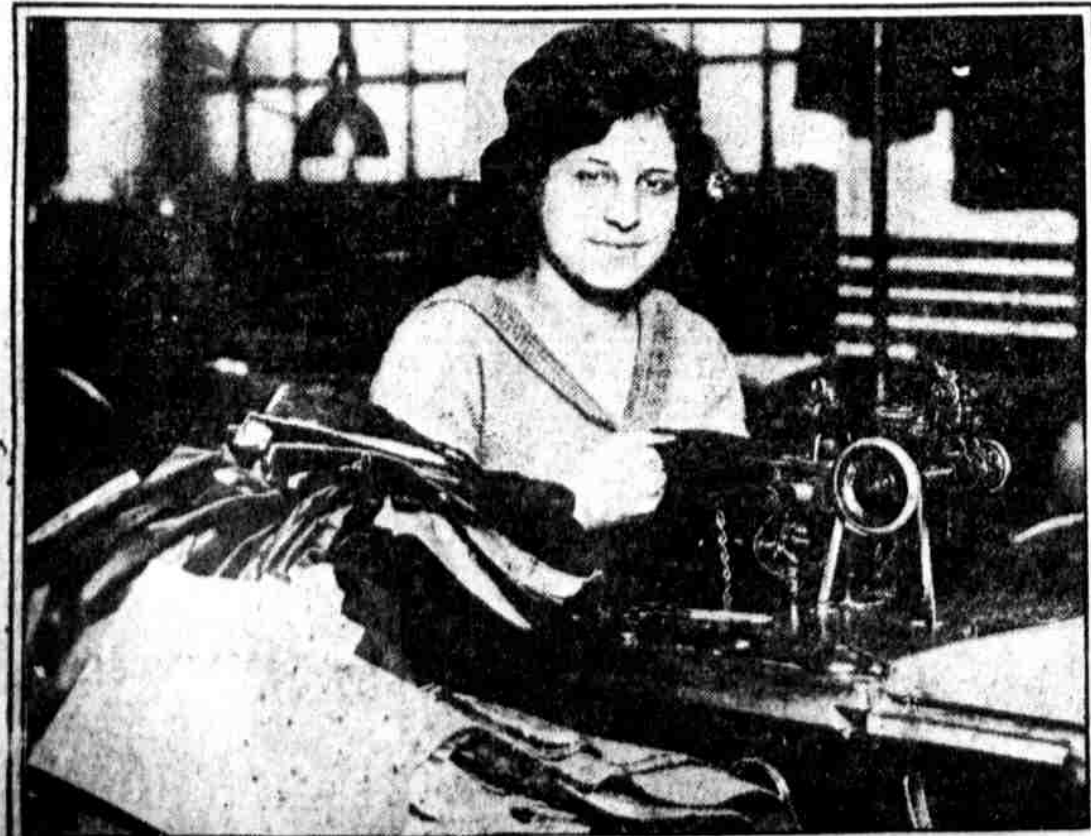

TRAVELED ALONE FROM IRELAND. Mary, John and James McBrettainey arrived on the Haverford yesterday. They were met by their father, William McBrettainey, of North Howard street. Ledger Photo Service.

DR. WILLIAM P. WILSON, of the Commercial Museum, who discusses Mexico in an interview on the editorial page.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

BLIND STITCHING. Mary Cicerome, 1524 South Garnet street, operating a blind stitching machine at the A. B. Kirchbaum Co., Broad and Carpenter streets. She is working on coats. Ledger Photo Service.

NEW WOMAN ARCHERY CHAMPION. Miss Cynthia Wesson, Cotuit, Mass., at Wayne yesterday won the championship in the women's finals of the National Archery Association. Ledger Photo Service.

RUNNER-UP AT WAYNE. Homer S. Taylor, of Greenfield, Mass., who participated in twenty association tournaments. Ledger Photo Service.

DOCTOR FROM RUSSIA. Doctor Kadets and his daughter Alice returned to New York. He was often reported captured by Soviets. Doctor Kadets denies the stories. Central News Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MADALINE SEIGFRIED, 516 Sigel street, Philadelphia.