

CHARLES W. PADDOCK, of Southern California, winning a heat in the 100-meter dash at the Olympics. Edwards, of England, was second. Later Paddock won the finals. Central News Photo.

STROLLING ALONG. Mrs. Angier B. Duke, formerly of this city, and William Thaw, 3d, of Pittsburgh, on the bench at Southampton, L. I. International.

ATTEMPTED TO CROSS ENGLISH CHANNEL. On this specially constructed bicycle Miss Zetta Hill made a plucky attempt. Three miles from the English coast she was forced to give up. She'll try again. International.

FOUND SOME GOOD BAT MATERIAL. Babe Ruth cuts down a tree, trims the stick a bit and then sends it to a factory for turning and finishing. Kadel & Herbert.

ANOTHER BREAKER OF WORLD RECORDS. Frank J. Loomis, the American, who ran the 400-meter hurdles in 54 seconds. He is closely followed by another American entry. Central News Photo.

JUST A BEGINNER. Many of the folks in and about Wayne play much at archery. Marceline Coane is being tutored by some of the older folks. Ledger Photo Service.

SWEDISH GIRL ATHLETES entering the Stadium at Antwerp for the Olympic games. Sweden had more women competing than any of the other countries. Western Newspaper Union.

BREAK DIVING. Ethel Schut is on the shoulder of Susan Gear at the Fun Field swimming pool, Twenty-second street and Sedgley avenue. They are members of the Fun Field's championship swimming team. Ledger Photo Service.

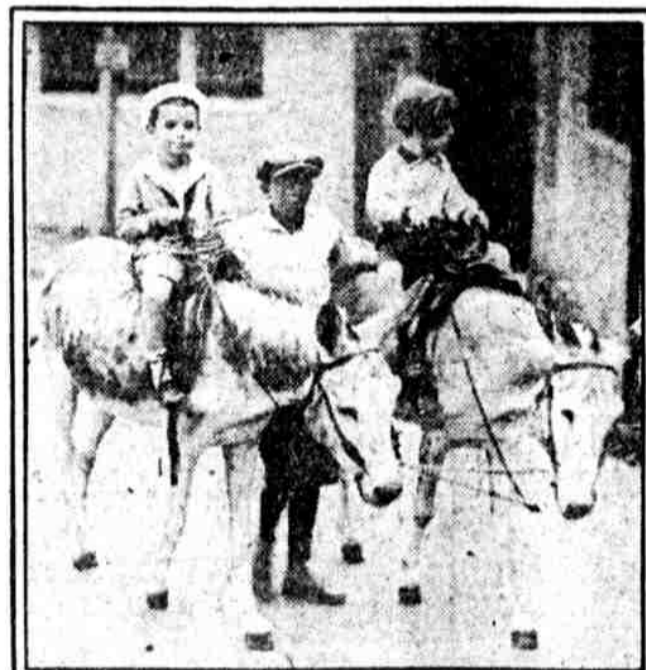

HOME FROM ALASKA. Secretary of the Navy Daniels sees a strip of the mainland as he returns from his trip to Alaska. International.

RIVALRY FEAT OF WILLIAM TELL. Miss Beatrice Palmer, fifteen years old, of St. Davids, taking the arrow from the apple, set on the head of "Isabella," a dummy, where she sent it from thirty-eight yards. Ledger Photo Service.

IN MINSTREL SHOW. Charles Koslovsky (left) and Samuel Leskin, putting over a sketch at the Tanager Public School in South Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service.

SIGHTSEEING IN THE ZOO. The children are now able to see the animals from the backs of ponies and donkeys. Ledger Photo Service.

A COMING HORSEMAN. The little gentleman is Frank Stephens, Jr., of 48 North Peach street.

PRINCETON TRACKMEN ENJOY YACHTING. A group of the university students are summering together at Bay Head, N. J. Ledger Photo Service.

MOTHER AND THE BOYS GO FISHING. Mrs. William Alexander, of Frankford, has her two boys to help as she fishes from a powerboat at Barnegat. Rubertis.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS ETHEL MARKELOWITZ, 1902 North Front street, packing hosiery for shipment at the Notassme Hosiery Co., Venango and I streets. A final inspection is made during the folding. Ledger Photo Service.

AT THE HANNA SCHOOL BABY SHOW. Andrew C. Hazelbaker brought his sand-pail along. Betty Operfeld was the fairy of the event, which was held yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

WORKING ON HER DIARY. Clara Hill, of Bustleton, was at the Ellis A. Gimbel Camp at Germantown, Pa., during the week-end. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MINERVA COHN, 845 State road, Philadelphia.