

FERRY RATE PERSONALLY PETITIONED TO SIT HERE

Interstate Commission to Be Personally Petitioned to Sit Here

REQUEST EARLY DECISION

The Interstate Commerce Commission is to be personally petitioned to sit in Philadelphia upon the Philadelphia-Camden ferry rate...

ROBBERS AUTOS HOD UP VICTIMS

Women Take Part in One of Many Thefts Reported Over Sunday

BLACKJACK MAN IN STORE

An automobile containing four men and two women drew up along the curb at Fourth and Noble streets early yesterday morning...

WAITING TO PAY CITY AND SCHOOL TAXES

In order to evade the 1 per cent penalty effective September 1 on all unpaid city and school taxes...

RUSH TO PAY CITY TAXES

Long Line Awaits Chance to Settle and Avoid Penalty

TRY TO SAVE MAN WHO SHOT WOMAN

Guard Former Marine After Double Shooting and Attempt at Suicide

TEACHERS WANT BIG MAN

Official Outlines Qualifications for New School Superintendent

REVIVE BLUE LAW FIGHT

Darby Ball Players Plan Retaliation if Church Prosecutes

TIN BLAMED FOR DEATH

Coroner's Physician Says Poison in Can of Tomatoes Killed Boy

PILGRIMS' PARADE IS HELD

Floate Picturing Days of Founders Feature Tercentenary

NOT IN PULP MERGER

International Paper Co. Denies It is in Combine

SISTER GIVES HER BLOOD

Councilman Finley Gets Transfusion From Mrs. Gibson

INSURGENT MINERS THREATEN STRIKE

Wills-Harris, Aug. 30—Anthracite miners led by insurgent leaders in District No. 1 are preparing to quit work today...

MINERS DISREGARD AGREEMENT

Coal operators are refusing to talk until the award has been made official, but commented today on the ultimatum to the President...

WOMEN WIELD RAZORS

Two colored girls, made romantic by the moonlight, invited two young white men to join them in a walk in Camden early this morning...

NARBERTH WOMEN ENROLL AS VOTERS

Many Act as Hostesses When Volunteer Assessors Call to Ask Questions

TWO AID IN 43D WARD

Women of Narberth today became gracious hostesses to women volunteer assessors who sought to enroll their names on the election books...

SAYS COAL PRICES HERE WON'T RISE

Exchange Official Declares Award of Commission Will Not Increase Figure

EXPECTS MEN TO REFUSE

The signing of the anthracite commission majority report by President Wilson awarding anthracite miners increases totaling $85,000,000 will not affect the retail price of hard coal in Philadelphia...

DO NOT FAVOR PLAN OF WOMEN'S PARTY

Philadelphia women Republican leaders today said it would be a "big mistake" if a separate women's party were formed in this country...

P. R. T. TO RESUME FARE PARLEY TODAY

Controversy to Be Reopened on Mitten's Return From Vacation

MAY ANNOUNCE ZONE PLAN

Work on the Rapid Transit Co.'s plans for increasing its revenue will be resumed today when Thomas E. Mitten, president of the company, returns to this city after a short vacation...

WOMEN GIVE AID

Residents of the Fifteenth division of the City section have been attracted by the novelty of two young women taking assessments of the women voters...

TEACHERS WANT BIG MAN

Official Outlines Qualifications for New School Superintendent

REVIVE BLUE LAW FIGHT

Darby Ball Players Plan Retaliation if Church Prosecutes

TIN BLAMED FOR DEATH

Coroner's Physician Says Poison in Can of Tomatoes Killed Boy

PILGRIMS' PARADE IS HELD

Floate Picturing Days of Founders Feature Tercentenary

NOT IN PULP MERGER

International Paper Co. Denies It is in Combine

SISTER GIVES HER BLOOD

Councilman Finley Gets Transfusion From Mrs. Gibson

INSURGENT MINERS THREATEN STRIKE

Wills-Harris, Aug. 30—Anthracite miners led by insurgent leaders in District No. 1 are preparing to quit work today...

MINERS DISREGARD AGREEMENT

Coal operators are refusing to talk until the award has been made official, but commented today on the ultimatum to the President...

WOMEN WIELD RAZORS

Two colored girls, made romantic by the moonlight, invited two young white men to join them in a walk in Camden early this morning...

NARBERTH WOMEN ENROLL AS VOTERS

Many Act as Hostesses When Volunteer Assessors Call to Ask Questions

TWO AID IN 43D WARD

Women of Narberth today became gracious hostesses to women volunteer assessors who sought to enroll their names on the election books...

SAYS COAL PRICES HERE WON'T RISE

Exchange Official Declares Award of Commission Will Not Increase Figure

EXPECTS MEN TO REFUSE

The signing of the anthracite commission majority report by President Wilson awarding anthracite miners increases totaling $85,000,000 will not affect the retail price of hard coal in Philadelphia...

DO NOT FAVOR PLAN OF WOMEN'S PARTY

Philadelphia women Republican leaders today said it would be a "big mistake" if a separate women's party were formed in this country...

P. R. T. TO RESUME FARE PARLEY TODAY

Controversy to Be Reopened on Mitten's Return From Vacation

MAY ANNOUNCE ZONE PLAN

Work on the Rapid Transit Co.'s plans for increasing its revenue will be resumed today when Thomas E. Mitten, president of the company, returns to this city after a short vacation...

WOMEN GIVE AID

Residents of the Fifteenth division of the City section have been attracted by the novelty of two young women taking assessments of the women voters...

TEACHERS WANT BIG MAN

Official Outlines Qualifications for New School Superintendent

REVIVE BLUE LAW FIGHT

Darby Ball Players Plan Retaliation if Church Prosecutes

TIN BLAMED FOR DEATH

Coroner's Physician Says Poison in Can of Tomatoes Killed Boy

PILGRIMS' PARADE IS HELD

Floate Picturing Days of Founders Feature Tercentenary

NOT IN PULP MERGER

International Paper Co. Denies It is in Combine

SISTER GIVES HER BLOOD

Councilman Finley Gets Transfusion From Mrs. Gibson

INSURGENT MINERS THREATEN STRIKE

Wills-Harris, Aug. 30—Anthracite miners led by insurgent leaders in District No. 1 are preparing to quit work today...

MINERS DISREGARD AGREEMENT

Coal operators are refusing to talk until the award has been made official, but commented today on the ultimatum to the President...

WOMEN WIELD RAZORS

Two colored girls, made romantic by the moonlight, invited two young white men to join them in a walk in Camden early this morning...

NARBERTH WOMEN ENROLL AS VOTERS

Many Act as Hostesses When Volunteer Assessors Call to Ask Questions

TWO AID IN 43D WARD

Women of Narberth today became gracious hostesses to women volunteer assessors who sought to enroll their names on the election books...

SAYS COAL PRICES HERE WON'T RISE

Exchange Official Declares Award of Commission Will Not Increase Figure

EXPECTS MEN TO REFUSE

The signing of the anthracite commission majority report by President Wilson awarding anthracite miners increases totaling $85,000,000 will not affect the retail price of hard coal in Philadelphia...

DO NOT FAVOR PLAN OF WOMEN'S PARTY

Philadelphia women Republican leaders today said it would be a "big mistake" if a separate women's party were formed in this country...

P. R. T. TO RESUME FARE PARLEY TODAY

Controversy to Be Reopened on Mitten's Return From Vacation

MAY ANNOUNCE ZONE PLAN

Work on the Rapid Transit Co.'s plans for increasing its revenue will be resumed today when Thomas E. Mitten, president of the company, returns to this city after a short vacation...

WOMEN GIVE AID

Residents of the Fifteenth division of the City section have been attracted by the novelty of two young women taking assessments of the women voters...

TEACHERS WANT BIG MAN

Official Outlines Qualifications for New School Superintendent

REVIVE BLUE LAW FIGHT

Darby Ball Players Plan Retaliation if Church Prosecutes

TIN BLAMED FOR DEATH

Coroner's Physician Says Poison in Can of Tomatoes Killed Boy

PILGRIMS' PARADE IS HELD

Floate Picturing Days of Founders Feature Tercentenary

NOT IN PULP MERGER

International Paper Co. Denies It is in Combine

SISTER GIVES HER BLOOD

Councilman Finley Gets Transfusion From Mrs. Gibson

INSURGENT MINERS THREATEN STRIKE

Wills-Harris, Aug. 30—Anthracite miners led by insurgent leaders in District No. 1 are preparing to quit work today...

MINERS DISREGARD AGREEMENT

Coal operators are refusing to talk until the award has been made official, but commented today on the ultimatum to the President...

WOMEN WIELD RAZORS

Two colored girls, made romantic by the moonlight, invited two young white men to join them in a walk in Camden early this morning...

NARBERTH WOMEN ENROLL AS VOTERS

Many Act as Hostesses When Volunteer Assessors Call to Ask Questions

TWO AID IN 43D WARD

Women of Narberth today became gracious hostesses to women volunteer assessors who sought to enroll their names on the election books...

SAYS COAL PRICES HERE WON'T RISE

Exchange Official Declares Award of Commission Will Not Increase Figure

EXPECTS MEN TO REFUSE

The signing of the anthracite commission majority report by President Wilson awarding anthracite miners increases totaling $85,000,000 will not affect the retail price of hard coal in Philadelphia...

Advertisement for J. E. Caldwell & Co. featuring jewelry, watches, and ribbons. Text includes 'J. E. CALDWELL & CO.', 'JEWELERS-SILVERSMITHS-STATIONERS', and 'EXCEPTIONAL WRIST WATCHES'.

Advertisement for Men's Furnishing Goods. Text includes 'Men's Furnishing Goods', 'Repriced to Your Advantage', and a list of items like '75c Neckwear, 50c-$1.55 1/2 doz.'.

Advertisement for Mattresses. Text includes 'MATTRESSES Renovated', 'Brass Beds Relacquered', and 'SICHEL'S Mattress Co.'.

Advertisement for J. E. Caldwell & Co. featuring jewelry, watches, and ribbons. Text includes 'J. E. CALDWELL & CO.', 'JEWELERS-SILVERSMITHS-STATIONERS', and 'EXCEPTIONAL WRIST WATCHES'.

Advertisement for J. E. Caldwell & Co. featuring jewelry, watches, and ribbons. Text includes 'J. E. CALDWELL & CO.', 'JEWELERS-SILVERSMITHS-STATIONERS', and 'EXCEPTIONAL WRIST WATCHES'.