Nancy Wynne Talks of Miss Strawbridge's Debut in October-She Regrets the Death of

Mr. Robert Janney

The excitement was great, every one

The excitement was great, every one cheering and following as far as possi-ble. A swimming master accompanied them in his life dory, but they did not need him. It was the first swimming contest of the senson, and let me add this, the water up there is not as cold as the Jersey coast has been this year.

as the Jersey coast has been this year. Anita Strawbridge, who is named for her mother, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge of Bryn Mawr. Mrs. Strawbridge was Miss Anita Berwind, a sister of Mrs. Harjes, the former Frederica Berwind Gilpin, and of the Baroness von Boecklin, who was Gertrude Berwind. The Bob Strawbridge lived in Eng.

The Bob Strawbridges lived in Eng-land for many years after their marabout six years ago. Anita is to make her debut in October at a large ten to be given by her parents at Bryn Mawr on the 13th.
