

Store Hours: 9 to 5

Tomorrow the new Victor Records for September will be on sale, Hardman Hall, Seventh floor, also in Subway Store. Come and hear them played—first choosers forestall shortages caused by a "run" on a popular number, until the makers later on catch up with the demand. Be a "first chooser."

GIMBEL BROTHERS
MARKET-CHESTNUT, EIGHTH-NINTH
For Tomorrow—Wednesday

Tuesday, August 31, 1920

No focusing is necessary with a Vest Pocket Kodak—it is ready for the exposure at the critical moment. This "cuts out" a lot of bother! And a Vest Pocket Kodak is so small as to fit unobtrusively most anywhere about the person—or hand bag. Prices, $9.49, $10.58 and $16.58. —Gimbels, First floor

Because We Seized Upon the "Re-adjustment Moment"— 170 Women's Wonderful Fur-Trimmed Suits at $55

That Neither You Nor We Can Match Under $15 to $45 More

That hectic "re-adjustment moment" that occurred weeks ago, when it looked as though prices were going down, down, down! Almost instantly they stiffened. But—in that precious meantime—we had bought!

Of tinsel-tone and Australian opossum, $55

Of suede-cloth and sealine, $55

Of Yalama and mole-skin, $55

Glorious Fabrics—tinsel-tones (can you find a tinsel-tone in town with great Australian opossum fur collar and big pockets, under $100?) Yalamas, suede-cloths, broadcloths, silvertones.

The Newest, Loveliest, Smartest Winter Colors—Zanzibar brown and Malay brown; Nanking blue and flag blue and navy blue; reindeer and "bedouin" and squirrel gray and "dryad." Black of course.

And 400 New Sports Suits at $21.75

Six styles. All of "Flex-o-tex"—the heavier winter-weight.

And Such Furs as Only Seeing Can Prove!—wonderful Australian opossum; bonny Scotch moleskins; sealine and nutria. Great collars of the fur. Deep bands of fur clear round the Coat-hem—even ripple Coats! Great, graceful fur patch-pockets. And even "swallow tail" patches on the swallow-tail panel Coats!

Styles Include Every Length Coat—embroidered models; cable-stitched models; belted suits; belts with buckles; belts that "sash"; long coats, fingertip coats, uneven length coats.

235 Misses' Suits at $18

Cheviots in browns, blues and black—Flex-o-tex in Nanking blue, and nut brown and heather colors.

Smart, satcy checks—brown-and-black velours. And stunning oxford mixtures. Sports styles and semi-sports styles.

—Gimbels, Salons of Dress, Third floor

Women's Dresses—Fall's Favorite Satins and Tricotines

—Redingote Models—Directoire Touches—Chemise Lines—Moyen Age Effects.

Specials at $35 and $55

Just made—just out of their careful packings. And every model "checked up" by latest cabled Paris fashion advices.

At $35—Satin in blue or black. Unusually rich satins. Pleating trimmed—and cleverly pressed at the top of the Directoire-tunic.

At $35—long-waisted tricotines, with box-pleated skirts, and "ruffled lines" from shoulder to long waist.

At $35—jade-embroidered tricotines, with dull gold braid girdle. The embroidery in Egyptian effect.

At $55—tricolettes in redingote effect, the deep tunic-border entirely covered with embroidery. Walnut, blue and black.

At $55—rich, rich satins in Moyen Age effects, with tiny, tiny, tiny tucks on the bodice and a narrow gold-color vestee.

At $55—tricotines with short sleeves and broad neck, ribbon-bound and trimmings with bullet buttons (pictured).

And at $55—Georgette in combination with satin—the draped skirt and the panel-sash of the satin; the bodice of the steel-beaded Georgettes.

Misses' New Fall Satins Five Models—at $25

With overskirts. And draped effects. And impertinently smart Directoire styles and tiered skirts. And embroidered styles.

All with short sleeves.

All in blue and black—many in brown.

Two Wonderful Tricotines at $39.75

One with a slashed tunic and beaded in iridescent bugle beads.

One with a tier-pleated skirt and Nanking blue silk facings.

—Gimbels, Salons of Dress, Third floor.

Six Exquisite Waist-Models

—in Lace-trimmed Georgette—

At $6.95

And they'd be wonderful values at twice the price! A sweater-frill model with its deep pleated frill bordered with Valenciennes lace.

Another with its deep pleating double-hemstitched and the waist itself dot-embroidered where the tucks criss-cross. (Pictured).

A model with its waist-deep Tuxedo collar part tucks, part frill lace, and part fine pleatings.

And three varied, lovely frill-trimmed models.

All six with short sleeves.

All six in white, pink and bisque.
