

A KISS FOR DAD. Governor Cox is greeted by his son, John W. Cox, as he arrives at the Grand Central Station in New York International

WITH HER PET DOG. Mrs. C. Derr Gerhart, of Philadelphia, on the sands at Wildwood. Both are ready for the morning dip Ledger Photo Service

THE PRETTIEST BABY. Betty Caesar, of 2108 North Twelfth street, was awarded first prize at the belated Wildwood baby show

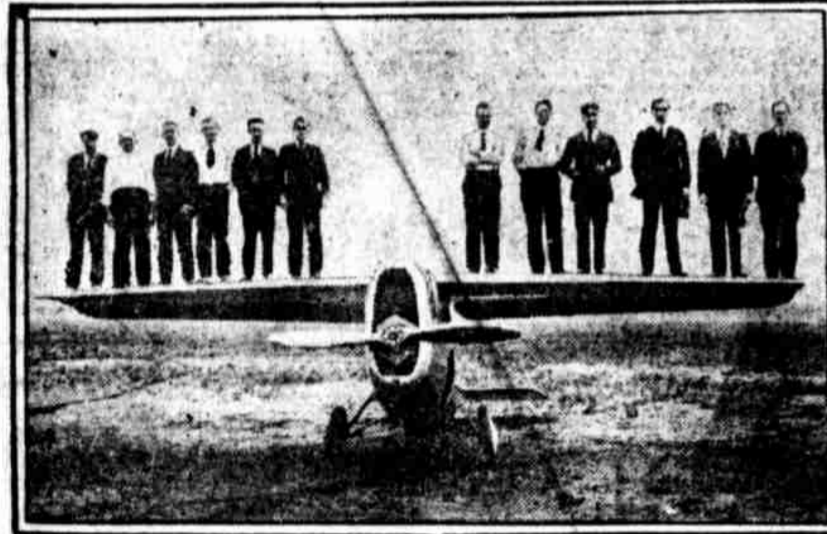

PROUD OF HER DYING HUSBAND. Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, wife of Terence MacSwiney, the lord mayor of Cork, who daily visits her husband in the Brixton Jail, London, where he is starving himself to death. Baby Maura is also shown International

RECREATION ON THE ROOF. Scellenburg & Co. employes during a noon hour. The dancing pair in the foreground are Miss Virginia Buckley and Albert Angelastro. The quintet are the Misses Frances Cott, Flora Dreibellis, Gertrude Fitzgerald, Dorothy Wilt and Pauline Zunkerman Ledger Photo Service

P. R. T. DOINGS. One of the conductors volunteered to travel the streets yesterday in this "get-up" to advertise the P. R. T. employes' picnic at Willow Grove today and tomorrow Ledger Photo Service

NARBERTH'S WOMEN ASSESSORS AT WORK. Mrs. W. J. Mulholland is taking facts from Mrs. Barbara Martin, eighty years old, 420 Rockland avenue (top). Mrs. Martin said she liked Mr. Harding. (Below) Mrs. E. S. Haws is the assessor. She is assessing Mrs. Elizabeth Pearson. The daughter, Elizabeth Ann, wanted her name down, too Ledger Photo Service

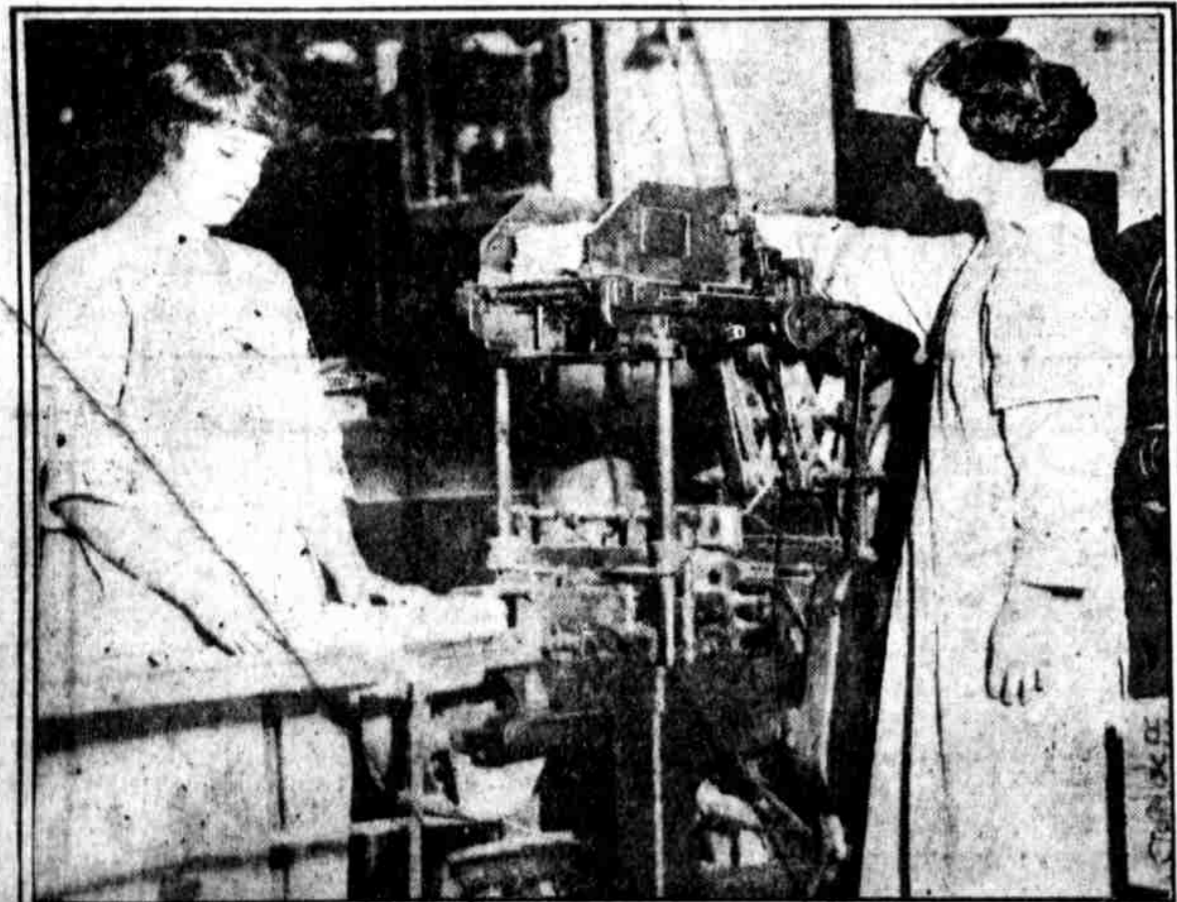

THE DAYTON-WRIGHT ENTRY in the Gordon Bennett trophy race to be held in France. In its final test twelve men stood on the wings of the machine Ledger Photo Service

CONSTANTIN VON STERNBERG, a Philadelphia music writer, who discusses jazz in an interview appearing on the Editorial Page

DOINGS AT SHOT TOWER PLAYGROUND. At the left, Joseph Kane is ducking George Dallas in the pool of the playground at Front and Carpenter streets. At the right is a sand party in which Leko Thomas and Edward Leary are the principals Ledger Photo Service

CHARGE D'AFFAIRES IN LONDON. J. Butler Wright, counselor of the American embassy in the English city, who will have charge during the absence of American Ambassador Davis Central News Photo

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THIS MACHINE PLACES THE INNER AND OUTER WRAPPER ON CAKES OF SOAP at the Charles W. Young & Co., soap manufacturers, 1247 North Twenty-sixth street. It has a capacity of 64,000 cakes a day. The operators are Miss Emma Brenner, 2423 Seybert street (left), and Miss Elizabeth Hanley, 858 North Tansy street Ledger Photo Service

CADDIES' GALA DAY. The boys of the Merion Golf Club had their annual get-together at the clubhouse. Edward McCoy (left) and his brother, Leonard McCoy, were the winners. Robert Stroud and Joe McNally, at the right, are cleaning up the clubhouse Central News Photo

MISS HELEN T. HOMEYARD 2624 West Somerset street, Philadelphia