Hardy began serving in the second set and won the opening game, the fourth that he had captured in succession. Then Tilden began to show what he really could do. In less than five minutes he had reeled off four games by his marvelous passing shots, combined with brilliant volleying from close to the net. Hardy took the sixth game, making the count 4-2 in favor of the champion. The last two points of this game were perfect lobs which looked to be going far out of the court, but which were driven back in by the wind. Tilden ran the count to 5-2, taking Hardy's service at 15 in the seventh game. Bill then ran the set out at 6-2, finishing up with two fine volley placements cross court. Davis-Williams Match

Everybody was anxious to see Johnson and Mathey play. They met in the final at Wilmington in June in the tournament for the championship of Delaware and Mathey won. Mathey also beat Wallace at Scabright and Newport a year ago, consequently the Philadelphian was anxious to avenge these defeats, and it is very likely he would have done so, because he has been going better during the past week than at any time this season.

George T. Adee, former president of Davis to win as he did, as Williams had far the better of the placements. Davis broke through Williams in the next game, taking the lead at 4-2. Williams 's nets again proved fatal. Two service aces in the next game enabled Davis to win and run the count to 5-2.
