RELIEF FOR TENANTS AUTOISTS APPROVE URGED BY SHERIFF NEW TRAFFIC RULE

Lamberton Would Have State Legislature Enact Laws Like Those in New York

DISLIKES EVICTION WORK

Calling of a special session of the state Legislature to enact laws to give relief to tenants threatened with eviction is recommended by Sheriff Robert

E. Lamberton.
Claude L. Roth, sheriff's solicitor, joined Sheriff Lamberton today in urging that a special session of the Legislature be called to modify the existing and tenant laws. Otherwise, the threatened condition was of evicting tenants, the sheriff the work of evicting tenants, the sheriff confessed that meny times the fask galls him and that he favors action in Pennsylvania similar to the relief measure enacted in New York. He said "The Legislature ought to grant some chance to the tenants to be heard and invest some court with the power to hear them and modify the almighty power of the landlord under the ancient landlord and tenant laws of this Commonwealth.

"The idea that a sheriff should have eart may seem strange to some peo-I have a heart, but I am not per-ted to exercise mercy or kindness in caling cases. Let me give ne most appealing cases. Let me give he facts in just one case.

"A tenant was about to become a lether. She had gone temporarily in-me, when her first child was born, and is physician certified that the distress of worry of existing her the distress hysician certified that the distress worry of eviction by the sheriff uld certainly turn her insane again probably kill her. In addition to ther husband had been injured and that her husband had been injured and was walking around on crutches. In these circumstances, I undertook to hold up the execution of the writ commanding me to give possession to the landlerd. This caused a sufficient delay to grant mercy to the family, but the landlerd, in the meantime, went into court with a rule upon the sheriff to show cause why the writ should not be executed forthwith. The court censured me for delay, and instructed me that I and no alternative but to turn the famout and give possession when I got

"We have had about 900 writs of eviction since the first of the year. There will probably be 800 more writs of eviction before the first of January. I et about eight a day. Every effort will be made, I suppose, to force most of the tenants in these cases out during e moderate weather. "The New York Legislature was called

d and tenant laws over there so as to take away some of the absolute p P. R. R. OFFICIAL DIES

B. Thomas Leaps to Death From Chicago Office Building

I. B. Thomas, purchasing agent in the northwest region of the Pennsyl-vania Railread, a native of West Chester, leaped to his death from a window in the Insurance Exchange Building in Chicago, where he had his offices,

The fal terminated on the roof of the two-story Open Board of Trade Building adjoining the office structure. Notes telling of personal debts totaling more than $12,000 were found on the body. Mrs. Thomas was in Pittsburgh visiting her father, E. R. Utley, vice-president of the Erie Raliroad, but hurried to Chicago when told of her husband's death.

Mr. Thomas was forty-eight years old. He was a graduate of the Haverford Grammar School, Friends' High School and the Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University, 1892. He entered the employ of the railroad as an apprentice in the Altoona shops after his graduation.

Mr. Thomas was well known here, having worked in Philadelphia for some The fal terminated on the roof of the two-story Open Board of Trade Building adjoining the office structure. Notes telling of personal debts totaling more than $12,000 were found on the body. Mrs. Thomas was in Pittsburgh visiting her father, E. R. Utley, vice-president of the Erie Railroad, but hurried to Chicago when told of her husband's death.

Mr. Thomas was well known here, having worked in Philadelphia for some time. He was a member of the Merion Cricket Club, and the University Club, forces was reiterated by Mr. Daniels,

"HEROISM FEE" DEMANDED

Man Wanted Quarter for Stopping Runaway Horse

After stopping a runaway horse belonging to Benjamin Roth last night, at Twenty-seventh and Huntingdon streets, Gus Sternerwald, 1817 North Croskey street, demanded twenty-five cents from Roth for services rendered. Both did not have the money and in the altercation that ensued Sternerwald is alleged to have taken a whip from the waron as payment. from the wagon as payment.

Detective Phun, of the Twentieth and Berks streets station, joined the discussion and finally arrested Sterner-wald. Sternwald was discharged with a reprimand for trying to capitalize his courage by Magistrate Oswald.

$110,500 JUDGMENT ENTERED A judgment note for $110,500 in favor of W. S. Schofield and against the Rio Grande Light, Heat and Power Co., Charles G. Wilfong, president, was entered of record in the Prothonotary's office today. The note is dated August 3, 1920, payable in one day.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

James Evans, 2806 Ormes st., and Mary Mahilg, 2806 Ormes st., and Mary Mahilg, 2806 Ormes st., and Mary Mahilg, 2806 Ormes st., and Mary Honry, 2020 N. Mayfield st.

Will'im Bates, 1847 E. Hedgley ave., and Florence Hairatt, 3115 Hartville st.
Louis W. Edeistein, 1814 S. 8th st., and Rose Sade, 2549 S. Mildred st.

Trank Rowden, 105 Ripka st., and Mary Market Mary Deliaven, 280 Lyceum st.

Adolph Rowden, 105 Ripka st., and Mary Deliaven, 280 Lyceum st.

Adolph Rowden, 105 Ripka st., and Mary Deliaven, 280 Lyceum st.

Adolph Rowden, 1211 Fowellon ave., and Florence Market Mary About M. Came st.

Band Market M. Criquit 1121 Torredale ave.

Albert H. Blundin, 4501 N. Mole st., and Sarak V. Adamson. Cedatrown, Ga.

Eliste Rechert. 2432 S. 12th st.

Lonsid E. Monisomery, New York city, and Sarak V. Adamson. Cedatrown, Ga.

George LaGrand, 8006 Crespin st., and George LaGrand, 8006 Crespin st., and George LaGrand, 8006 Crespin st., and Blitabeth B. Koch, 2948 W. Wishart st.

Mary About M. Criquit 1121 Torredale ave.

Abert H. Blundin, 4501 N. Mole st., and Dorothy B. Morgan, 209 E. Tioga st., and Dorothy B. Morgan, 209 E. Tioga st., and Florence, J. Scott. 1814 Norris st.

Thomas L. Strang, 3446 N. Clais st., and Dorothy B. Morgan, 209 E. Tioga st., and Florence, J. Scott. 1814 Norris st.

Themes, J. Scott. 1814 Norri TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

rederick A. Schott, 440 Olive st., and Ella Kirby, 1922 Reno st. Kirby, 1922 Reno st. Schott, 2007 Etting st., and Marsaret F. Gibson, 2009 Hellevue st. Herman Helse, 1331 S. 54th st., and Hattle Baum, 2942 N. 25th st. Frederick M. Hopkin, 107 N. 57th st., and Luura M. Numane, 1215 S. 19th st. Albert V. Weeks, 1130 S. 56th st., and Mabel Gibbs, 2261 Woodstock st., and Marie Sultar 6133 Catharine st. Schott, and Marie Sultar 6133 Catharine st. Schott, and Marie Sultar 6133 Catharine st. Schott, and Edna M. Frederick Fowler, 2029 Green st., and Edna M. Seyfried, 1723 Mt. Vernon st. M. Seyfried, 1723 Mt. Vernon st. Hellerman, 4757 Richmond st. Frank W. Clift, 17453 N. A.66th st., and Adele Hinkle, 5807 Christian st. Schotter, 2032 Carline, 2126 N. 4th st., and Carrie Gardner, 2632 N. Phillip st.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT The Fairmount Park Band will play

Favor Plan of Mills to Abolish Left-Hand Turns at Two-Way Streets

Officials of the leading Philadelphiaautomobile clubs today expressed their approval of Superintendent Milla's plan to abolish the "scissors crossing" at Broad and Chestnut streets.

"If the primary object is to straighten out that tangle," said J Borton Weeks. president of the Keystone Automobile Club, "It seems to me that some such ruling would be just the thing. The abolition of south-bound traffic on Broad street swinging into Chestnut atreet is easily remedied at drivers go down Fifteenth street to Chestnut. I down Fifteenth street to Chestnut. I always do this myself to svoid the present ent congestion in the special space for the south-on-Broad to east-on-Chestnut traffic. I am strongly in accord with this plan."

Kane S. Green, president of the Automobile Club of Philadelphia, said:

"The confusion of traffic at this point can be avoided by the elimination of left-hand turns, but I do not see why all turns cannot be eliminated, not only at Broad and Chestnut, but at Broad and Arch streets also."

Commenting on Mr. Green's statement, Superintendent Mills said:

"I am chiefly concerned at present with the situation at Broad and Chestnut streets. If the abolition of the lefthand turn works out there, it can be hand turn works out there, it can be extended to every two-way street inter-section. The elimination of all turns is under consideration, but is not in-cluded in the present plan."

CAMDEN CRASH PROBED

Grand Jury Calls 100 Witnesses o Crossing Fatality

The Camden grand jury began taking evidence today in its investigation of the Morgan street crossing horror two weeks ago, in which a dozen persons lost their lives when a jitney bus was struck by an electric train.

More than a hundred witnesses were summoned, including passengers on the train, motorists who were near at the time, and officials. time, and officials.

Among these were William Osborn, motorman, and Morgan McKean, con-motorman, and Morgan McKean, conductor of the train which struck the bus, Tony Vernon, the crossing watchman, and Nelson J. Herold, the seventeen-year-old boy of Fairview, who was the only occupant of the jitney to escape unhurt, also were among the witnesses, as was Father John Fay, of the Sacred Heart Church, Camden, who was a passenger on the train and min-istered to the dying. County Physician Frank O. Stem also was summoned to

DANIELS TO PASS ON WAGES Navy Secretary Will Review Award Made by Board

The wage award for pay increases for navy yard workers, affecting about 75,-000 employes in the Philadelphia Navy Yard and elsewhere, will come before Secretary of the Navy Daniels shortly, announced at the Navy Depart-Members of the wage board said to-tate drastic reductions in the working forces was reiterated by Mr. Daniels, in order to keep the expenditures within the amounts appropriated by Congress. This fact was made known to the representatives of the workers when the hearings on increases were being held here.

FINLEY FUNERAL TOMORROW

City Council and Republican Leaders Will Attend Services

The funeral of William E. Finley, councilman from the First district and executive secretary of the Republican city committee, will take place tomorrow morning from his late home, 2401 South Broad street. Interment will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, and will be private.

be private.

A solemn requiem mass will be said in the Church of the Epiphany, Eleventh and Jackson streets, after the services in his home. Members of Council, the Republican city committee and the Thirty-ninth Ward Republican organizations will attend. The body may be viewed between 7 and 9 o'clock tonight.

Fall of Trunk Lid Accidentally Dis-

charges His Revolver

Asbury Park, Sept. 2.—Judge Walter Taylor, newly elected city commissioner of Asbury Park, has forbidden booths and games of chance being run on the boardwalk on Sundays. He issued an order yesterday that all stores on the beach will be closed next Sunday except those selling food, soft drinks, ice cream, cigars and newspapers.

For two years Asbury Park has had all-day bathing on Sunday. This will be allowed next Sunday, but thereafter the bathing houses must close at 1 p. m.

Liner Sets New Transatlantic Mark Montreal, Sept. 2.— The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France, which arrived at Quebec Tuesday, broke the record for the Liverpool-to-Quebec trip, doing the journey in five days and twenty-three hours.

HAVE YOU

an opening in your business for an energetic man, who is willing to work and advance! Experienced in correspondence, spartment building management, bookkeeping and hand-ling of men. 4.1 references as to character and ability. Salary not less than $3000 a year. Available September 15.

Women came early to the polling place of the Thirty-third division of the Forty-third ward this morni Among the first to register were Mrs. Ruth du Garr, who is shown here wearing a lace collar, swearing to the questions of James Mechan, and Mrs. Anna Poley, of 1636 Blavis street, who is buying a tax receipt from Mrs. du Garr's husband, George A. du Garr, of 1628 Blavis street

$500,000 FACTORY FIRE

Plant at Oak Lane Terrace Destroyed in Midnight Blaze

Damage estimated at $500,000 resulted from a fire which destroyed the plant of the Ellwood Ivius Tube Metal Works, Oak Lane Terrace, Cheltenham township, Montgomery county, during the night.

Between twenty-five and thirty frame and expendence iron buildings were and galvanized iron buildings were burned to the ground. The firemen were able to save the office building and the big garage in which was stored a great quantity of gasoline.

The fire began shortly after 10 o'clock and continued antil long after midnight. It was discovered by a watchman. His insistent blowing of the plant fire whistle soon brought the fire companies.

Suburban apparatus from Jenkintown, Glenside, Elkins Park, McKinley, La-mott and Ogontz responded. The men gave a good account of themselves, but were thankful for the ald of the more to nearby properties.

STEAM HEAT COSTS MORE

panies Petition to Raise Rates pounds. There was no opposition to the increases, and it was pointed out that the consumers and representatives

The steam heating companies told the commission that last year their plants were operated at a loss at the old rates, and that increase was necessary if they were to do business this year reconstruction.

Deaths of a Day

PROF. WILHELM WUNDT Well-Known German' Psychologist

Dies at Leipzig Copenhagen, Sept. 2.—Prof. Wilhelm Wundt, German psychologist and phi-losopher, died at Leipzig on Tuesday.

Wilhelm Wundt was the chief Ger man representative of modern psychology and to a large degree its creator. The institute for experimental psychology, which he founded at Leipzig and his periodical, Studien, led to the institution of many, probably most of the other psychological laboratories in Europe and this country.

Born in 1832 in Baden, Wundst industrial studied at Tubingen, Heidelberg and the initial Berlin, specializing in medicine, After professorships at Heidelberg and Zurich, no provisio he was called to Leipzig in 1875, where he filled chairs of philosophy and psy-chology and became rector of the Uni-

Of the long list of his books written from 1858 to 1915 the most widely known in this country are the "Lectures on Human and Animal Psychology" and the "Outlines of Psychology," both of which ran through three editions in English and a dozen in German

Mrs. Sarah E. McKee

Mrs. Sarah Ellen McKee, well known for her charitable activities for many years, and who died on Monday at her home, 2220 Mount Vernon street, will be at her home, 2220 Mount vernon street, at the age of eighty years, will be buried today. Mrs. McKee was the wife of I. D. McKee, a member of the Pennsylvania state Legislature for several terms. She had been a member of the Spring Garden Street Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty-seven years. Episcopal Church for fifty-seven years.

She was one of the founders, and was prominently associated for many years with the work of the Sunday Breakfast Association. She also was identified with the Methodist Home. Funeral services will be held in the Spring Garden Street Church, and will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev.

Spring Garden Street Church, and will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Lynn Bowman. Interment will be in Mount Vernon Cemetery.

Besides her husband, Mrs. McKee is survived by three sons, John Edgar Me-Kee, of Bayside, N. Y.; Frank E. McKee, of Muskegon, Mich., and Homer E. McKee, of Atlantic City.

NLY by courage and optimism, common-sense and intelligence, can we maintain our prosperity.

HERBERT M. MORRIS Advertising Agency Every Phase of Sales Prom 400 Chestnut Street Philadelphia

MODERN ARK TO DOCK THREE HURT IN AUTO CRASH TODAY WITH ANIMALS

Cargo of Chinese Prince Includes 23 Varieties of African Beasts for Zoo Here

A modern Noah's Ark, which is registered under the name Chinese Prince, and is the pioneer vessel of the Prince Line, recently established by Furness, Withy & Co., for sailings between African ports and Philadelphia, was scheduled to come up the Delaware river this afternoon with twenty-three varieties of wild animals and fourteen passengers.

If one or two of the wild, wild boars experienced city firemen, called later.

Building after building caught fire that are aboard hasn't eaten the captain, or the other wild zebra kicked out in rapid succession until the flames were spread along a frontage of more than a hundred yards. At no time, however, was there serious danger of it spreading to nearly properties.

her pier, 38 south wharves.

If one can snatch a few hours from work today, the ship's cargo will be worth looking over, it was stated. Never before has such an array of animals from Africa come up the Delaware. The list made public yesterday follows:

A petition for increased rates for steam heating in the Germantown and Overbrook sections supplied with heat by central plants was heard by the Public Service Commission, sitting at City Hall today, in Room 496, and Commissioner Benn indicated that he would recommend the increase asked.

The Overbrook Steam Heating Co. and the Germantown Steam Heating Co. were the companies which asked to be permitted to make the increase. The Overbrook company asked to be permitted to raise their charge from fifty-nine to eighty-five cents per 1000 pounds of condensation, while the Germantown company asked to increase its rate from $1.18 to $1.40 per 1000 pounds. There was no opposition to Withy & Co. The general cargo car-

Withy & Co. The general cargo car-ried by the Chinese Prince consists of skins, ore and hides from Biera, Duroan, Algon bay and Cape Town.

CAR HITS WOMAN'S HEAD

Passenger Leaning Out of Window is Struck by Passing Trolley Taken ill while on a southbound Wil-low Grove car, at Germantown and Glenwood avenues last night, Mrs. Leonora Thompson, forty-three years old, of Fleetwood, Pa., put her head out of the car window. She was struck by a northbound car and her skull frac-

Mrs. Thompson was taken to the Samaritan Hospital in the automobile of Charles Anader, of 3028 North Eleventh street. Her condition this morning is said to be improved.

JOB CLASSIFYING IN PERIL The Civil Service Commission is con-fronted with the necessity of acting quickly to insure a proper maintenance of the classification of municipal em-

Although the contract with the com-mission of Griffenhagen & Associates, industrial engineers, who are making the initial classification, will expire on September 15, the commission has made no provision to continue the classifica-tion after that date, which will be nec-essary because of changes in employes

Metal Salesman Wanted WANTED, young vigorous metal salesman who is thoroughly familiar with selling of metals, piping, etc. Only men who can furnish references as to ability and character need apply. Position pays 50 to 80 dollars per week and expenses and offers good advantages to right man. Commander Geo. M. Stackhouse (SC) USN, Senior Member, Board of Survey, Appraisal & Sale, Navy Yard, Phila., Pa.

Driver Hits Another Machine After

He Ignores Guard's Whistle The driver of an automobile and two f the occupants of another machine into which he drove his car were injured late last evening on Fairmount drive near Ridge avenue.

drive near Ridge avenue.

Joseph Ward, eighteen years old, of 136 Salaignac street, was driving a machine at high speed along Fairmount drive with two companions when he was ordered to stop by Park Guard Frank Delori. Delori blew his whistle several times, as Ward failed to stop his machine, and apparently the excitement caused Ward to lose control of the car, which was madly zigzagging down the drive.

Near Ridge avenue the car crashed

Near Ridge avenue the car crashed into the machine driven by James Frency, 892 North Judson street, with such force that Ward's car was over-such force that Ward's car was overturned, throwing Ward and his two companions upon the road.

Ward's companions jumped up from the road and disappeared before the park guard could arrive on the scene.
Feeney, togethes with his wife and Ward, were taken to the Memorial Hospital for treatment. They were oadly bruised and Feeney had several severe cuts below the left eye and Ward has a fractured nose. has a fractured nose.

Peter Zirken and Gertrude Zirken, Feeney's father-in-law and mother-in-Feeney's father-in-law and mother-in-law, who were in his machine at the time of the accident, were not injured. Ward is being held in the hospital under guard while the police are investigating the case to see if he was the owner of the car in which he was driving at the time of the crash.

PHYSICIANS TO MEET

Legislation Regarding Compulsory Insurance Will Be Discussed

Legislation concerning compulsory insurance, as enacted in New York state, will be discussed at a meeting of physicians of Berks, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Lehigh, Montgomery, North-

While no definite action has been planned, according to Dr. Theodore K. Gramm, 1614 North Fifteenth street, who called the meeting, it is possible that some organization may be effected to try to counteract the legislative and other inroads which have been made into the medical profession. Dr. Frederick L. Hoffman, statis-tician for an international life insurance company, will be the principal speaker. A dinner will follow the meeting, which Doctor Gramm says is merely a "get-together meeting" for the physicians of the eastern and southeastern counties of the state.

A young energetic executive with technical education and proven ability desires a connection about October first. Has had wide experience in initiating and administering large organizations in several fields. Can bring corps of trained assistants if desired. Address B-220, Ledger Office.

ENGINEER for

Steam Specialties

Capable man wanted to analyze nd develop business of manufacturer of steam specialties. Must have thorough knowledge of this particular business and know the ossibilities. Address

Box B 301, Ledger Office

In the Midst of Things

Many of our depositors comment on our location as being "certainly handy."

Besides being in a good business and shopping district, we are convenient to transportation lines, both to and from North, East, South and West Phil-

National Bank of Commerce in Philadelphia 713 Chestnut Street Nathan T. Folwell President

2 MORE ROBBERIES INP. & R. STATIONS

Burglars Get $30 and Typewriter at Bethayres-Then Visit Southampton

TRICK USED IN ONE THEFT

Motor thieves who specialize in rob-bing Reading Railway stations added two more to their score last night when they broke into the stations at Beth-

Five stations in all have been robbed within the last three days, the others being Elkins Park, Neshaminy Falls and Langhorne. The police believe the same gang robbed all five stations, and are looking for a big touring car in which the men were seen operating last Five stations in all have same gang robbed all five stations, and are looking for a big touring car in which the men were seen operating last night near Bethayres. There were three men is the car.

The station at Bethayres was entered through a window, which the thieves broke and opened. They stole $20 in notes, 1000 pennies and a typewriter. The amount obtained at Southampton has not been divulged.

In the Fikins Park robbery the thieves operated in daylight, and got into the station office by a trick. Two men were concerned in this robbery. They drove up in an automobile and one entered and asked for an express package for "Mr. Ryan." There was no such package, but while the agent fruitlessly searched for it, the man who had asked for the package got into the office and stole all the money there, $108; then, after waiting for the agent to announche could not find the package, thanked him politely, got into the michine with his companion, and drove away.

The Reading Railway detectives are his companion, and drove away.

The Reading Railway detectives are working on the robberies, as are the Abington police. The amounts taken in the other robberies have not been made public.

16 SCAVENGERS JAILED

Police Arrest Men for Littering Streets With Refuse

In accordance with orders issued re-cently by Director of Public Works Caven that strict enforcement of all violations of the law pertaining to clean streets should be enforced, six-

Walnut streets between Forty-second and Forty-sixth streets. These arrests, the police assert, are the first in a campaign for clean streets to be waged by the police department.

Cocaine and opium was found in the building.

The three men were each held under $800 bail for court by United States Commissioner Manley yesterday.

THOMAS J. GAVAGHAN Chairman of the committee in charge of the reception Falls of Schuylkill will give in honor of Jack Kelly and Paul Costello, when the Olympic oarsmen champions return from their triumphs at

CONGRESSMAN VARE SAILS

Will Stop at Honolulu to Join Mrs. Vare, Who Has Been III Congressman William S. Vare, acompanied by his daughter who has ompletely recovered from her recent liness, will sail from Kyoto, Japan, on the steamship Madawaska, today for Honolulu, according to a cable received by Senator Edwin H. Vare.

by Senator Edwin H. Vare.

The body of Congressman Vare's daughter, Ida May Vare, who died two weeks ago in China, is being sent direct from Yokohama to San Francisco.

According to Senator Vare, his brother will join Mrs. Vare in Honolulu, where she is slowly recovering from her recent liness, and just as soon as Mrs. Vare is able to leave the hospital they will sail for this country.

3 HELD AFTER DOPE RAID

Federal Officers Accuse Members

Club on Greenwich Street

As the result of a raid by federal inspectors on the Cleo Club, 636 Greenwich street, Tuesday night, three members of the club, Harry Long, 1517 South Eighth street; Sam Curuno, 725 Reed street, and Mike Farley, 428 clean streets should be enforced, sixclean streets should be enforced, sixteen young men, two of whom were white, were arraigned before Magistrate Harris today and sentenced to five days each in the county prison, charged with being scavengers.

Many complaints had been made of the streets being littered with paper and refuse and orders had been issued by the police to arrest anybody caught violating this ruling.

squad of police spectors on the wich street, Tuesday night, three men

bers of the club. Harry Long, 1517
South Eighth street; Sam Curuno, 725
Reed street, and Mike Farley, 428 Titan street, are under arrest charged with illegally possessing and selling narcotic drugs.

The federal officers say they have been watching the place for some time and on Tuesday night Harry Found, one of the officers, accompanied several other

violating this ruling.

Early this morning a squad of police from the Thirty-second street and Woodland avenue station descended on the sixteen young men who were operating on ash barrels on Chestnut and Walnut streets between Forty-second secondary and a quantity of secondary and cocaine and opium was found in the building. The three men were each held under

BAILEYBANKS&BIDDLE

JEWELS

Designed and executed under experts of this Establishment the personal supervision of the

MacDonald & Campbell

Semi-Annual Reduction Sale Men's and Young Men's 3-Piece Cloth Suits

Alterations at Cost

$30.00, were $40.00 $33.75, were $45.00 $37.50, were $50.00 $41.25, were $55.00 $45.00, were $60.00 $48.75, were $65.00 $52.50, were $70.00 $56.25, were $75.00 $60.00, were $80.00 $63.75, were $85.00 $67.50, were $90.00 $71.25, were $95.00

Palm Beach, Silk, Mohair and Tropical Worsted Suits

Alterations at Cost

$13.00, were $17.50 $15.00, were $20.00 $17.25, were $23.00 $18.75, were $25.00 $22.50, were $30.00 $26.25, were $35.00 $30.00, were $40.00 $33.75, were $45.00 $37.50, were $50.00 $41.25, were $55.00

Every suit is this season's strictly regular MacDonald & Campbell stock - incomparably superior in style, tailoring and value.

OPEN SATURDAY

1334-1336 Chestnut Street

CLOSED MONDAY, LABOR DAY

GREAT RECEPTION PLANNED FOR KELL

Falls of Schuylkill to Honol Olympic Sculls Champion and Partner Costello

WILL BE MET IN NEW YORK

Preparations for the reception to Jack Kelly and Paul Costello, champion Olympic oarsmen, are about completed by their fellow townsmen of the Falls of Schnylkill. Arrangements have been made to have a delegation go to New York, to meet the boat when it arrives from Antwerp, and then accompany the champions to the North Philadelphia station, this city.

A demonstration will be staged at the station, to which Mayor Moore and his directors have accepted invitations. Following the reception there a parads will be formed, led by the Philadelphia police and other bands, and the line of march will be out Broad street, to Allegheny avenue, west to Ridge avenue, to Falls of Schuylkill. There another reception will be held.

These arrangements were completed at a meeting last night in the school hall of St. Bridget's Roman Catholic Church, on Midvale avenue, Falls of Schuylkill. There were present members of many athletic organizations, including the Montrose Boat Club, to which the champions originally belonged, and the Vespers, their present club.

The chairman of the committee on arrangements is Thomas J. Gavanghan, of 3555 Ainslie street. Others on the committee are Monsignor W. Y. Walsh, reter of St. Bridget's; the Rev. David Kelly, the Rev. John J. Bonner, the mittee are Monsignor W. Y. Walsh, rector of St. Bridget's; the Rev. David Kelly, the Rev. John J. Bonner, the Rev. Cornelius Leahy, and Thomas Rabbit, Joseph Doyle, Edmund Byrne, Joseph C. Bergin, Thomas Byrne and Joseph Tyrell.

Auto Hits Gloucester Boy James McMaster, Jr., nine years old, 805 Paul street, Gloucester, was struck by an automobile last night at Broad-way and Mercer street, Gloucester, He

PERRY'S FINAL Closing Sale

HALF PRICE

Started with odd lots and broken Sizes, remainders of a Big Spring and Summer Season - Men's desirable woolen and worsted Suits, Palm Beach and Mohair Suits, Separate Trousers, Sports Coats, Auto Dusters, etc., etc. - and some late deliveries of last Winter - a good lot of Heavy-weight Overcoats, Fur - collar Overcoats. Leather - lined and Reversible Coats, some silklined Fall Overcoats, etc. -all to be closed out in this Final Sale at

Exactly One-Half Their Regular Prices

The $40 Suits will be sold for $20; the $45 Suits will be sold for $22.50; the $50 Suits will be sold for $25 -and so on up to $80 woolen and worsted Suits which will be sold for $40. The $40 Fall and Winter Overcoats will be sold for $20, the $50 Fall and Winter Overcoats will be sold for $25-and so on up to some $75 Overcoats which will be sold for $37.50. Some Fur - Collar Overcoats marked $60, to $110.

will be sold for $30, to $55. And so on of Palm Beach and Mohair Suits, Sports Coats, Separate Trousers. Dusters and Office Coats -all the odds and ends of broken lots will be sold in this Final Closing Sale at Exactly One - Half their Regular Prices.

Terms of Sale

Cash Only No Alteration No Refunds

PERRY & CO.

"N. B. T." 16th & Chestnut Sts.