The Wanamaker Store Will Be Open All Day Tomorrow

What Made Abraham Lincoln an Interpeter of true democracy? and the answer is that he grew up in a community of the common people and where every man had an equal chance.

Let us respect each other and quit quarreling, but try to help each other to see the right as the honest and right thing in the vote we cast and in influencing our neighbor to see and do the right thing to build up this great country of ours.

Let us work for and vote for whatever will help us as soon as the next President takes his seat and the next Congress convenes.

Let us stand for prosperity for the entire people of the United States rather than any political party.

Remember That the Wanamaker Housewares Sale Is Different From Any Other

The usual idea of a housewares sale is a housewares "clearaway" of odd sizes or "slow sellers," or of manufacturers' job lots or "seconds."

But the Wanamaker Sale is made up entirely of new high-grade merchandise of the unimpeachable qualities that have created a reputation for reliability and efficiency.

No "close-outs." Everything is sound throughout—will bear scrutiny in the Store and, still better, steady service in the home.

In a word, it's made up not of merchandise that manufacturer and retailer want to get rid of but of the merchandise YOU want to get into your home. What a difference!

Our advance orders, placed in vast quantities to meet the demand of the house-cleaning and house-furnishing season, enable us to offer as low prices on these fine and efficient utensils as you'd pay elsewhere for "bargain" goods of dubious or all-too-certain character.

This is the Autumn's great opportunity for the housekeeper to get rid of old, brokendown, damaged utensils round the house and replace them with shining new housewares at money savings.

Are in the September Sale Thirty-three and one-third per cent is the average reduction in price. But, like all prices seen apart from the goods, it cannot convey the full meaning of the value represented, and, like all averages, it understates many of the wonderful opportunities to be seized by the keen-eyed and early purchaser-some of them reaching a reduction mark as low as 50 per cent.

The best plan, if you're a homemaker and want a lamp, big or little, in any style, for any nook, corner, room or hallway (and what homemaker does not?), is to attend the Lamp Sale, survey the whole glorious exhibit and

Choose the Lamp You Like at Savings of One-third

The choice is almost bewildering in its scope, allowing for the satisfaction of all tastes and almost all purses. For these are no end-of-the-season stocks, mind you, but the full and splendid supplies with which we start what will probably be the greatest season of selling of lamps and lighting fixtures that Philadelphia has ever known. The public is done forever with dim lights, with poring in dark corners, with

"economies" that render the spectacle-maker rich. They prefer to keep the eye, the lamp of the body, bright and beaming, and to put the price of the spectacles into the fine and efficient lamp which is the light of the home

We're prepared for this ever-increasing demand with the most comprehensive retail stocks in the country, and it is these stocks into which you can put your hand and help yourself during the period of the Sale.
