

BOOZE RAIDS AT ANGLESEA AND WILDWOOD. Prohibition agents yesterday stormed hotels of the two Jersey towns, finding many intoxicants. The Rev. Dr. R. E. Johnson (right), pastor of the Twenty-ninth Street M. E. Church, this city, led the raiders at Anglesea. The photograph at the left shows federal agents unloading Anglesea contraband liquors at the Wildwood City Hall.

UNLOADING WILD ANIMALS. A mountain zebra, well crated, being moved by derrick from the Chinese Prince deck to a motortruck for the Philadelphia Zoo.

ENJOYING HORSE SHOW. Miss Lisa Norris, of Philadelphia at the horse show at Newport, R. I.

WON SEVERAL PRIZES. Miss Isabella Wanmaker, of this city, whose horses have won a number of prizes at the Newport Horse Show.

ALEXANDER C. ROSS, Canadian, who challenges for America's Yacht Cup.

GIMEEL EMPLOYEES PLAY GOLF. Their annual golf matches were held yesterday at the Philmont Country Club. Robert Hoffner, instructor, L. Richard Gimeel and Ellis A. Gimeel (left to right).

LOOKING FROM CITY HALL TOWER. Month by month the Parkway improves in beauty and usefulness to the city. The latest improvement is the band concert pavilion and seats at the lower part of the photograph. In the upper part of photograph is the Schuylkill river and Fairmount Park, the Parkway leading to the Green street entrance. Where the Parkway circles about Logan Square is clearly shown.

FIRST VIOLENCE IN BROOKLYN TROLLEY STRIKE. Police and plain clothes men are seen routing the remnant of a truckload of street-car workers.

GENERAL WRANGLER'S WIFE AND CHILDREN. While her husband commands the armies protecting Crimea against the Soviet hordes, Mrs. Wrangel is assisting the American Red Cross in caring for refugees.

BRITISH GOLF INVADERS. Left to right: Cyril J. H. Tolley, British amateur golf champion; R. H. Wethered, Oxford golf captain, and Lord Charles Hope, here ready for the American amateur tourney at Roslyn, L. I.

DR. GLADYS IDE, who discusses Philadelphia's special school problem in an interview on the editorial page.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

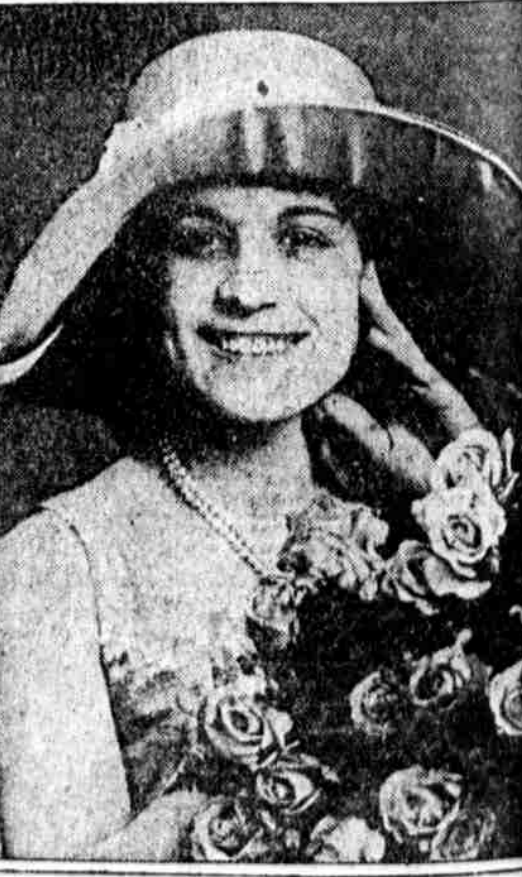

REPAIRING AND TESTING SPEEDOMETERS at the Philadelphia Speedometer Service Co., 610-12 North Broad street. The workmen are W. T. Miller, Roslyn (left), and W. Driver, 2626 North Wendle street.

WILLIAM M. FELLOWS, bowler of the Philadelphia Cricket Club team that met the British Incogniti team yesterday at St. Martins (left). J. H. Mason and Edward Hopkinson, the latter captain of the Philadelphia team, are doing a little practice work. At the right is D. R. Jardine, of the invaders' eleven. He was bowled out on the first ball by Fellows yesterday.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MARY DI RENZA, 812 Tasker street, Philadelphia.