WANAMAKER'S

WANAMAKER'S ALL DAY TODAY

The Whole Store Glows With the Beauties of Autumn Fashions

The Wanamaker Store Is Closed This Labor Day

Birthday of Major General, the Marquis de Lafayette, Born September 6, 1757; Died May 20, 1884

These Memories of Lafayette and Pershing Are Worth Preserving

"The moment I heard of America I loved her; the moment I knew she was fighting for liberty I burnt with a desire of bleeding for her; and the moment I shall be able to serve her at any time, or in any part of the world, will be the happiest of my life."-Lafayette to Congress, September 9, 1778.

"May this immense temple of freedom ever stand a lesson to oppressors, an example to the oppressed, a sanctuary for the rights of mankind! And may these happy United States attain that complete splendor and prosperity which will illustrate the blessings of their Government, and for ages to come rejoice the souls of their departed ounders."-Lafayette in Hall of Congress, December, 1784.

"Lafayette, we have come. I am confident that the American troops, fighting side by side with our noble allies. will, in the end, give back to France and bring to the world that liberty which is so necessary to the happiness of mankind."-Pershing at the Tomb of Lafayette, July 4, 1917.

Let us link the names of Lafayette and Pershing together and not forget the heroes who served our country in its perilous times.

What can you and I do to leave anything worth remembering?

Just Landed! A Great Case of

French Hats which will be shown at once in the Gray Salons. They have just come from Paris; they show the new Fall millinery modes, and they come from

Alice and Nora Lewis Jeanne Duc Hermance Marcelle Demay

They are as enchanting, as interesting and as different as French hats always are.

Here Are 100 Brand-New Silk Frocks for Young Women at $39 each

Fresh and new and smart, every one, for they are new Fall dresses, attractively made—and made to sell for more, too, as you'll discover when you see them.

They are of the much-liked charmeuse in black, brown and the popular dark blue. There are several charming styles, some are combined with another color, some are all in the same hue.

There are frocks with accordion-pleated tunics, frocks with just enough beading or embroidery for prettiness, frocks with square necks

Street and afternoon dresses they are—and in 14 to 20 year sizes. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

New Fashion Silks for $2.25 and $2.50 a Yard

The most fashionable kinds, too, for dresses to wear right now for street and afternoon and evenings and they would make wonderful inings. Please notice that prices, in each instance, are a great deal less than such silks have been selling for.

New satin de chine, 36 inches wide, $2.25 a yard, every thread silk, soft and lustrous and a fine assortment of light and dark colors and

New crepe de chine, 40 inches wide, $2.50 a yard, beautiful street and evening shades, also black and white. (First Floor, Chestnut)

"Jet Dress Trimmings" Says Paris—and Here They Are! Jet fringes-handsome trim-

Paris has shown a decided preference for jet, and these are the very kinds needed for the fashionable gowns of the Autumn and Winter. We can show you box after box—all full of the loveliest, sparkling trimmings, that will give just the distinction your gown needs. There are-

Beautiful allovers in more designs than we've ever had, all done on fine black net and gay with bead, spangles and bugles of the gleaming jet. Exquisite flouncings-just to see them is to know gowns they'll make!

yard. Jet motifs-in new and unusual designs and shapes. Jet bands-of all the fashmings are these, which start at the narrow widths and go on up to a beauty, wide enough for a skirt drapery, at $100 a ionable widths.

And new girdles, belts and panels in perfectly fascinating variety.

When we show them to you you'll understand why we are so proud of the collection.

New Broadcloths Hurry in to Play Their Part

And it will be an important one, judging from the number of handsome gowns and suits that are being made of this material, to say nothing of evening wraps and children's coats for which broadcloth is always used.

It has been some time since we have had such a large and fine shipment of these cloths and there are all the fashionable shades—browns, tan, damson, green, blues of various kinds, taupe and black, all are 54 inches wide and $6.50 a yard.

WANAMAKER'S

Many New and Beautiful Fur Wraps and Coats

which show the fashions for the coming Winter, have arrived in the Fur Salohs. It looks like a Winter of luxurious furs, of handsome wraps and of distinctive fashionsbut come see them for yourself!

You will notice the new and very deep cape on a glistening taupe nutria wrap. The cape comes 'most' to the waist line, the sleeves are new, the wrap is lined with a brown silk that suggests an Autumn woods, and the price is $665.

Smart as can be is a little wrap of glossy broadtail which blouses in back, has a narrow belt and is trimmed with soft gray fox. It is $1000.

black caracul, trimmed with skunk bands on the collar, cuffs and pocket. The lines are different, the coat is very handsome, and the price is

> And there are many other unusual and beautiful wraps of Hudson seal (dyed muskrat), Nearseal (dyed coney), natural squirrel, marmot, nutria and Persian lamb.

For the woman who likes the soft beauty of moleskin there is a handsome new wrap, also with the deep collar, at $1000.

One of the most distinctive pieces is a long, fitted coat of

French Handbags That Are Real Works of Art

Everything that goes into them was carefully chosen to make a harmonious whole.

The beautiful fabrics are pictures in themselves. Imagine henna duvetyne embroidered with white and black beads, blue and gold brocaded silk and rich silks and velvets with bead work.

The frames are marvelous. Most of them are beautifully carved and colored so that each one seems to belong to the par-ticular bag it is on, and no other, as indeed it does.

Many of the bags are unusual shapes and there is only one of each kind. Prices $35 to $75.

Tomorrow the First Showing of Women's New Fashion Costumes

We have hurried them here as fast as we knew how so that women returning to the city might have the very newest loveliest dresses at their instant disposal. Every single one of these gowns is a reflection of some new Paris fashion; it is, in fact, a copy of a French model and there are no two alike! Tailored Street

Frocks Exceedingly smart and in the dark blue and black wool tricotines and serges. They have much colored chain-stitching, laquered ribbons and odd metal belts and on them appears delightful eyelet and punch work, showing black or colored satin underneath.

They are original and most charming and prices are $75 And Such Afternoon

Dresses Never were such lovely femi-nine garments! Dresses with the imitation Mexican drawn-work, a velvet brocaded chiffon with the pattern outlined with beads, a duvetyne in Cardinal embroidered in hand taupe, and another chemise model in henna duvetyne with embroidery that Paris loves.

There are conservative little satin and crepe de chine frocks, too, with a new touch here and there. All are topies from Paris models and prices go from $87.50 to $200. Central)

New Marabou Neckwear Just When It's Needed

When something with a little warmth is wanted before the furs come out of storage.

There are both stoles and capes, in black and natural marabou and, in some cases, there is an edging of ostrich tips, $8.50 to

(Main Floor, Central)

Women's Sports Oxfords of Distinction Made of fine black and tan calfskin with wing tips and perforations and 1%-inch military heels.

Find these shoes in the exclusive Little Boot Shop, at $16

New Silk Petticoats to Go With New Gowns Silk jersey seems to be the favorite on account of its clinging properties and all of these new arrivals are in this material. The ruffles, too, are of silk jersey, some being of plain silk, others have insets in another color. All the new Fall colors, $8 to $14, the latter being a particularly heavy quality. (Third Floor, Central)

New Styles in Dainty Louis-Heel Pumps

Two exceptionally good-looking plain pumps with long, narrow, plain toes; flexible turned soles and Louis heels. One style is in black satin, at $11.50. and the other in patent leather, at $12. (First Floor, Market)

To Accompany Fall Gowns —New Gloves, of Course!

And here are some brand-new ones, just unboxed from overseas, and fine as the most fastidious woman could wish.

They are all of soft flexible kidskins, these new gloves, and (Main Floor, Central) they are overseam sewn, have two clasps for fastening, and come in black with black or white em-broidery, white with white or black, and tan or brown. $3.50 the pair.

Autumn Modes in These Two New Blouses

New suits mean new blouses—and here are two charming blouses to add to the smartness of your new tailleur.

Both blouses are of crepe
Georgette—and both are in flesh pink or white. The first blouse and a long collar trimmed with real lace. It is $9.50. More elaborate is the second blouse which has much filet lace for its adorning, and has a vestee in front, a wide collar and deep cuffs, all of which are trimmed with the filet. $13.50.

One Woman Complained That There Were Too Many New Skirts

She had such difficulty in making a choice among so many pretty new styles!

And it is true that, at this moment, you can find more new woolen plaid and striped skirts than at any time in the past year. There is a wonderful season ahead for them and women have been asking for them unusually

All the materials are ex-quisitely soft, the colorings and fashions more beautiful than we have ever seen them. The new striped effects are here, in black and white and brown and tan par-ticularly. There are box pleats and knife pleats and pockets appearing on the pleats.

Best of all, pricings are very moderate, all things considered, $21.50 to $26.50.

(First Floor, Central)

Even Paris Couldn't Show Such Exquisite Wraps as These

For our own representa-tive hunted in vain for anything approaching them in loveliness. And tomorrow will be their first presentation to the women of Philadelphia. A number are in silk and wool duvetyne with huge col-lars and cuffs of mole, beaver or squirrel fur. They were all draped on living models to get exactly the effect the designer intended and the new fashion features are very interesting. One is the cowl shape to the back of the wrap, without losing the flatness of line. A loop of the material from the shoulders ending in a gorgeous tassel, produces it in one instance. There is the new metal is using, much stitching in silk and chenille. A certain luxurious garment has the entire upper part of mole fur. Every woman will want to see these new wraps for herself and she will want to know the prices, $247.50 to $568. (First Floor, Central)
