3.

DISHES FROM THE ORIENT WILL DELIGHT EPICURES

s. Wilson Gives Some Recipes Handed Down by Generations of Dark-Eved Women on the Dreamy Nile

The winners of the

inctly written.

paraley.

the oven

cutter.

oniona.

paraley.

Three tablespoons of melted butter,

Four tablespoons of finely minced

Cover with two-thirds cup of prepared crumbs and three tablespoon

Kehab

Prepare a round of toast for each service, cutting the bread into slices three-quarter inch thick and then cutting out the rounds with a large cookie

One-quarter cup of finely chopped

Teast. Now brown one-half

By MRS. M. A. WILSON All rights reserved.)

OM the city on the Nile, Cairo. ome to this corner some famous orld recipes-Oriental cooking as ed upon the religious beliefs and dillops of the Far East. These, as in as the national and racial pref-It as the national and racial prei-nees, will afford the busy housewife opportunity to provide variety to daily menu. This great big country of ours is politan, with its myriads vidual interests and a real capacity oppreciation. In Persia and Arabia little known literature upon subject of food and cooking ; recipes nanally handed down like the traand folklore-by word from one generation to an-

in many parts of the Orient beef as meat is unknown. This is because bull and the cow are sacred and natives, under any circumstances.

the natives, under any circumstances, would refuse to cat it. Lamb, mutton, pork and fowl are the principal meats, with fish in the coast towns. Meat, as a rule, is used al-ment exclusively as a flavoring : and, in the preparation of many of the Oriental dishes, a broth or soup is the founda-tion. This stock or broth is usually used from the trimmings of the meat made from the trimmings of the meat and poultry. The dolmar of Turkey with the ke-bahs and basdes, are delicious and well worth trying. The Oriental has a pro-verbial sweet tooth, so that many deli-cious pastries are usually found upon the menu, and then the crowning touch of the feast is Turkish coffee, which is the delight of the natives, but often declared to be too sweet for the Occi-deptal taste.

Yuvarlak Tchorbs

Tace in a saucepan five cups of good. I-measoned stock. Now mince very two medium-sized onions and then grated cheese. ne-half oup of finely chopped pars-To prepare the crumbs brown well in Pinch of thyme. Finiest piece of garlic. Two-thirds cup of cooked rice. One-half cup of finely chopped meat. One teaspoon of salt. One-half teaspoon of pepper Mix and then form into balls, hav-the balls about the size of a large cup of flour with four tablespoons of salad oil, and when a deep mahogany brown add two gad one-balf cups of the salad oil, and two gad one-balf cups of the salad oils and two gad one-balf cups of the salad one-ba cup of flour with four tablespoons of Then add stock. One-half cup of finely chopped

One well-beaten egg. One tablespoon of lemon juice. Bring to a boil, cook for three min-

-18

'Old Masters." by Central News Could a blouse be prettier than this fashioned in tones of brown and worn with a brown duvetyne tailleur? The rosettes at the neck and waist line are done in brown embroidery silk. Soft narrow satin ribbon ties the blouse at the waist

WITH THE FALL TAILLEUR

CARELESS HEARTS

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. A Woman's Heart that made him want me all the more. If he asks me again I won't say no, and he knows that, so he's playing with Diana and Julian Long, after three years of married life, decide to sep-arate. Having known each other from childbool they have missed the thrill out of life, the big adventure, and as soon as the divorce is over and they are free to look about for romance. Diana accepts a position with Madame Naldi, a fashionable dressmaker, as chief designer, and disappears from Julian's life altogether Soon different men and women drift across the hori-"How would you like to make him men and women drift across the hori-zon of both Diana's and Julian's lines, but thus far neither of them has been able to look at uny one seriously.

Please Tell Me What to Do By CYNTHIA

What to Talk About

Dear Cynthia—Will you be kind enough to help me if possible? I am a young man seventeen years of age, and the main trouble seems to be that when I am introduced to members of the opposite sex I do not seem to be able to find what to talk about with them. Now here is where I want your help—would you be kind enough to suggest what topics would be interesting to the girls? MOEV SEEKING INFORMATION MOEY SEEKING INFORMATION.

Talk of tennis, moving pictures, plays books and politics. Even the apparently frivolous-minded girl is interested in politics these days.

Cannot Buy Property Till of Age Cannot Buy Property Till of Age Dear Cynthia—I am in love with a fellow, but his mother is jealous of me, even though she pretends to think the world of me. She is also going to be married again soon. But this fellow is going to buy a house, which will be mine some day. Now he is not twenty-one years old yet—if he bought this house would it have to be in his mother's name? We would like to avoid this, as she is marrying a wealthy man from New York.

New York. Also could you tell me if black worn at a wedding is bad luck? And what kind of vells are the best for evening wear? F. D. The Woman's for evening wear? F. D. A man is a minor under the law until he is twenty-one and cannot buy prop-erty in his own name. It must be put in the name of a parent or guardian. If, however, your fiance will be of age in a few months he could arrange to pay down $1000 or $500 now and take over the title and pay the full amount on his attaining legal age. How could harm or good come from the mere wearing of a color, dear? Such things are pure suparstition. But even if in mourning, it is always better for a bride to wear white. That's the bridal color.

Dear Madam—I am very anxious to know if there is any way to get rid of buffalo moths which I have found in the house that I have just rented. They have already made some holes in my linen, and I thought perhaps you might know of some helpful suggestion to give me. E. T. C. Sprinkle common salt on the closet shelves and under the piles of linen Also sprinkle salt around the edges of the rooms and under the carpets. This is supposed to do away with them. bridal color Veils are never worn in the evening.

A Suffrage Poem

Cynthia—You have helped me so now I am coming to you Can a tan-colored dress be dyed blue? Here is a little poem on efore, again. a dark suffrage I composed all by my

THE VICTORY OF 1920 I believe the world is turning upside down. Sh! You mustn't look around. Miss Twenty-one at last admits her age

To join the woman's suffrage. Was it a leap year proposal, after all. When Dan Cupid made his very latest call? Oh! boy! ain't it a grand and glorious

Now we must fight on and on, Until another battle of victory is won; For the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand to rule the world.

THE CHAPERON WHO NEEDS TO BE CHAPERONED HERSELF

Takes All the Fun Out of the Party-The Girls Get More and More Quiet as She Gets Noisier and More Boisterous

And so it was a noisy, rollicking crowd that landed at the amusement park, and made its way toward the pic. THEY had their crowd all arranged A for the moonlight picnic that they had worked up in about half an hour. And then somebody remembered that nic grounds. "L ET'S skip!" suggested Mrs. Col-hand and starting off. Jim had to, or fall down, and the whole line of them started, attracting about as much attention as a circus

And then somebody remembered that they had to have a chaperon. Edith's mother was away and Mar-ian's and Corinne's parents didn't want to go unless they absolutely had to. Jim was staying with his grand-father while his family was still away, and the other bars they that away.

parade.

thy hostess does not leave them when any stead, deputes a member of the family them to the street door, or, in an apart-them to use, to the sievator, or the head of the statrcase. parade. The girls were enjoying themselves, but there was a little doubt in their enjoyment—why did she have to attract so much attention? They didn't want everybody staring at them. While they were eating supper it was all right. Out there under the trees their chaperon's noise didn't cause so much commotion. But when they started back much commotion. But when they started back to "do the stunts." and the girls saw Mrs. Collins's flirtatious giggle at the at-tendant who started their car on its journey through the clouds, they felt that it was about time to stop. They had thought that their chaperon They had thought the their chaperon yould know to behave at least.

THEY descended in a body upon Mrs.

They descended in a body upon area "Tickled to death to go." she replied, just as they had expected. They started off, eight of them, piled into Billy's father's car. "Sing, girls." commanded Mrs, Col-lins, before they were outside of town. The girls began, rather quietly, for fear of causing a riot in the quiet streets of the town. A FTER that they got quieter and quieter, and it was a very subdued crowd of youngsters that stepped out of Billy's father's car, and said good-night

The girls began, rather quietly, for fear of causing a riot in the quiet streets of the town. "Oh, come on, you can do better than that!" Mrs. Collins scoffed. She raised her own voice and began to sing loud. The girls took it up, then. If their It takes most of the fun out of the schame of the fun out of the schame in the s chaperon didn't mind waking the dead, party if you have to be chaperoning why should they?

Two Minutes of Optimism By HERMAN J. STICH

"Give Attention Unto Reading"

TF SOME friend, as a special favor to you, offered to bring back to life Shakespeare, Huxley, Tennyson, Scott, Ruskin and a few more of our literary immortals, and in addition offered to give you a letter of introduction which would persuade them to grant YOU a few hours of their time and attention EVERY DAY, you would, after having assured yourself that your kind donor was not of the violent type, say to him soothingly :

"Yes, yes. You are the most marvelous magician of the ages. The rest of the world and I are as clay in your hands. You are the emperor, too, and anything and anybody else you say you are or want to be. And your retinue is waiting without for me to call them."

Then, at the earliest opportunity, you would make a bee-line to some shell tered place and whisper to yourself :

"Poor fellow. It must have come over him suddenly !"

Exchange

To Rid House of Buffalo Moths

Wants Temporary Home for Dog

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—I am very anxious

WHAT'S WHAT

By HELEN DECIE

But I must have him back as soon as my own home settles in the country or suburbs. The dog is a good watchdog, especially disastrous to "color." is gentle with children; in fact the two where he now lives make a perfect play-mate and guardian of him. He is a thoroughbred gentleman to boot. Do you think Mrs. F. would care for him? A. W. P.

This soup is delicious : the egg cooks in the broth like fine noodles or crumbs.	Piece of garlic, size of pra-	TULIAN was called out of town on a	Tomorrow-Confidences	Now we must fight on and on, Until another battle of victory is won;	gentle with children; in fact the two where he now lives make a perfect play. Yet your judgment of insanity or dementia praceox w	yould be entirely unjusti-
Chuffed Flah	Simmer slowly for ten minutes. Sea-	J case shortly after his last evening	Making More Money	For the hand that rocks the cradle Is the hand to rule tae world.	mate and guardian of him. He is a fied and erroneous.
a see fish weighing about	keep warm until needed.	turned about two weeks later he found Hortense subly changed. She looked	The Canary "Factory"	MISS TWENTY-ONE. Tan will take a blue; but better con-	Do you think Mrs. F. would care for For a letter of introduction to the greatest philoso	ophers and sages of the one and one-half pounds, and with a	10 prepare the meat, minee mite	a little thinner and there was an expres-	Raising canaries at home would seem		Mrs. F, wanted a dog to keep for her. The sole requisite is the ability to read. And the at	bility to read is OPEN-without tearing the skin. Day the sain		there before. It brought out a subtle	future-but Mission a solid financial	voting, she really would not like to see	eral offers. I am printing your letter thinking perhaps some one would be SESAME to the master minds and men of all time.
from the fish meat, putting the fish	Juice of one large or two small	he blookelf had fulled to brink to the	Peoria, Ill., has proved that it is pos- sible not only to make "pin money" with canaries, but to build up a business in	LIOV VOILE DOOM	glad to give your faithful old friend a home for a year, as you suggest. all that the world of the written word has to offer.	alphabet, you can enjoy
Three onions. Biz branches of parsley	lemons. Four tablespoons of salad oil,	"Something has happened to you," he	yield an excellent income	They Telephoned Him	The Smiling House You can revel in the intellectual companionship of the	he Bible, of Shakespeare the washed	Pinch of curry powder,	table in a quiet restaurant. Tell me	in Paris, that Miss Cather ather's store	fifteen and sixteen and are very good	I know a little smiling house baside the and the other poets, of seers and prophets like Emerson, C	Carlyle and Ruskin.
and a large handful of the went wanted green tops of celery through the food chopper. Place in a bowl and add	Design of the second the bases	She looked at him in surprise. "You	which were to mean little yellow birds	friends with the boys of our acquaint-	broad highway; You can imbibe and bask in the wisdom of Tolstoi, from a rib of lamb chops and marinate in dressing for one hour. Remove and	surely I don't show it as plainly as	nest in an old show canary had made a	We allow no sentimental talk or	it looks and gay. Its shiny dormer windows gleam when You can travel with Stanley "Through the Dark C then troil. Place the round of toast on a hot platter and cover with sauce.	Not to every one, permaps, out to	by day until abe fall a watched it day	them.	The bindle area that would to be a at a fitnethest North " drink inspiration from Come Gne level teaspoon of paprika.	then the chops and pour over the chops	Hortense was slient a moment and	Gerber bought a tame can away. Miss	on the telephone unless it is absolutely	they were not too shy. wander with John Burroughs through the fascinating	g realms of "Mother marjoram,	a teaspoon of the following interiore:	again they were filled with tears. "Why, Hortense," he said, tenderly, "Why, Bortense," he said, tenderly,	vested in a mate for it. By the time she	But one time we had something of im-	have a friendly air,	and have been a
. Mix thoroughly, then fill back into	and the state of and all			could not waft until we saw them to tell them, and to write would be just as bad, so we decided that, for once	bid you linger there.	will debate for you at cheese cloth and place in a large sauce-	One-half teaspoon of salt.	ut twent that Julian and you're a	"People like canaries," reasoned Miss	we would call	Those little feathered tenants who con-	es Sumner are at your cover. Boil for fifty minutes and then Hft and drain in a colander. Cool.	One-quarter leaspoon of paprika. Heat in hot-water bath until thick.	dear," she said quickly, "but it's noth- ing; nothing at all." She had turned	ful activity and listen to their song Why	Well, he didn't answer, but his sister- in-law did. She told us that we should not call a boy on the phone at his home.	-verse in singing words. You need but know how to read and you possess the	master key that unlocks and a haling dish and Drush lib.	Repair means benefities starting point		Contaily-raiging Dusinous to stast	and we asked her if it was right for us to call him up otherwise than at his	A rosebush blushes in the yard beneath young summer's kiss, yours for the asking,	nost precious jewels are erally with a good salad oil. Sprinkle with fine crumbs and a little grated	nor When using steak have the butcher	little gesture. "Oh, I won't lie to you, you've been too dear to me. I know you'll think me all kinds of an idiot,	The back room man the selection	home; that as we saw no harm in speak-	some cognettish misk. But read not alone to enjoy, but to profit and excel	as well.
cheese. Bake for thirty minutes in a hot oven. Serve with terbieh.	cut the rump steak one and one-half to two inches thick. Then cut into fillets,	have any pride left : I just wait around	"factory" was installed The birds	were not asnamed to call at his nome.	and creep in like a mouse, detail will in a month be in advance of any but the specia	alist
Terbieu	about the width of two fingers. The succulent bivalve, the oyster, is	for his telephone calls and any mea-	guarded, the young were well	us know if it is proper for girls of our	There is anough twith in this anough to the	most of us busy during Mince very fine one-half cup of bar-	also served in the Orient and served kebab as a national dish.	hours. Yet I know he's selfish and hard,	birds were taught to sing, both by lis-	we are properly chaperoned.	And yet if I should find that things are Read regularly. Read every day. Don't put off any	d expect to "make up."
ley. Two large onions, Three-quarters cup of thick mayon-	Select a metal meat skewer for pre-	with him, but just the same I'd take the chance. You never knew I could be	tening to the older canaries who had been trained and by imitating notes which Miss Gerber sang to them. Be-	The not get a wrong idea about sight	The little friendly smilling house might You can make up for lost reading no more happily than y vanish like a dream.	you can skip a meal and acie. Juice of one lemon.	paring the oyster (midia) kebab. Thread a slice of bacon on the skewer	such a fool, did you?"	cause canaries are not adept in the art	There is nothing wrong in calling a	And so I do not venture in, nor shall I Half an hour or even less a day devoted to judiciou	is reading will in a few
Dit of garlic.	and then an oyster; repeat this until the skewer is full and have the strip of	and the second s	The second with the child with	lafter a DOV. Beekink nint Out. That is	I = I = I = I = I = I = I = I = I = I =	iltivated, spiritually and
One teaspoon of paprika.	bacon on the last. Now use a piece of cooked carrot to prevent the oyster and	ap is another sould not stand in the	in-	"I but even that is not wrong. It is a	Woman'e Home Companion. Give attention unto reading."	a not.
remove the skin when the fish is pur-	liew baking nan and broil in hot oven	the fact that he had not been able to	and she was selling 200 or 200 a Wars
Turkish pilafs are made with cracked	for eight minutes, turning the kebab	plqued him, was perhaps quite natural,		not call. Boys and girls of fifteen, six- teen and seventeen are generally very wheat or rice. That which is made	with a dressing of melted butter and	toward her.	College	congenial friends.
fare of the poor or laboring classes, it	· Temon Junco.	well as all men," he said, quietly. "I suppose it's just a question of the right		"Gasoline Gus" Would Share Car
Monu Conte	st Honor List	one."	Adventures With a Purse
Menu Come		of munalf and wat so nowerless to do	MARGARET has said to me, "Where can I buy one of those Roman	e vs. roadster question from a slightly different angle? In a former letter I stated that I pre-
Miss Georgia Jones,	Succotash	any thing but so man showed man how	string suchas to many with my Diam	a downed mut our to a girlt and I do It's		2
2411 Wharton street.	One green pepper and onion	the same thing myself; it's degrading." Julian	jacket suit this fall?" Off-handed I couldn't say, but I've been on the	girls I've known have been rather-well, e flighty. I'm a bachelor of twenty-four	Puro mich mill	-
Menu	Loaf bread	said firmly, "But he isn't worth it; even I who	lookout for them. Today I was re-	. and contented to remain one, but am
Bacon (boiled) String Beans Tomataes Lettuce	Butter	love him must admit that, not to every	warded by finding some really lovely sashes for $7. For those who prefer	a lot different than ever I found them.
Potatoes	Pears	"He's worth it to you."	a more conservative kind can be bough	this-I am here alone and know no one.		Ś.
Apple-Sauce	Total$1.50	all my ideals; he thinks independent	black sames of an excellent quality of	f men I work with. They are not as a whole a bunch of regular fellows, so	a sicauy-gui	ly I
SALES SLIP	Mrs. J. E. Middleton,	set all of his insults; everything, but the	for the same price.	car nearly every night and enjoy it
Beans 10 Tomatoes	Ocean City, N. J.	fact that I care." "And all this in two weeks?"	I wonder if it's human nature to	immensely, but I go alone in a seven-
Bread	Menu				I milk corvico
Butter	Concentration of the second second second	She nodded. "Does he care for you at all?"	acquire "pet" articles. I have	a Now it seems to me that there must	milk service
Lettuce	Salmon Corn on Cob Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee wal tears if I were to loose it.	a Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could	milk service
Leftuce 10 Coffee 11 Sugar 03	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes in his way, if you could cal	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "grung a leak. I was about to sig	a Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could p just as well take a carload out as not how the server a term downed to the show	Vacationista naturaise te di
Lettuce 10 Coffee 11 Sugar 03 Milk 08 Dressing 00	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him	acquire "pet" articles. I have "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "eprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men-	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but other might enjoy going, and when one has</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the	city—
Lettuce 10 Colfee 11 Sugar 03 Seasoning 08 Milk 10 Dressing 10 Apples 10	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I thind it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -val tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak. I was about to sign deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and prate obarge a new pot Th	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but other might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pliy that some few t, of them could not go, too.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel	city— phia in
Lettuce         10           Coffee         11           Seasoning         03           Milk         10           Dressing         10           Apples         10           Total         51.45	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an" sprung a leak. I was about to sign deeply and consign it to the ash barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. The potatoes continue to boil away cheer	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could pust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the high-ways who are. I'm surce, willing to share, their cars and pleasures occasionally</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c	city— phia in custom-
Lettuce         10           Coffee         10           Searoning         03           Milk         08           Dressing         10           Apples         10           Total         $1.45           Mary A. Hill,         10	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame?	acquire "pet" articles. I have "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "eprung a leak, I was about to sigi- deerly and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change. a new pot. Th- potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purps of the dog snores, to complete the domesti-	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could pust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are, I'm surce, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about let we auto fins? GASOLINE GUS</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c	city— phia in custom-
Lettuce         10           Coffee         11           Searoning         03           Milk         08           Dressing         10           Apples         10           Total         81.45	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -val tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak. I was about to sigi deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change. a new pot. The potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purps of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. The cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife"	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find i out who they are or meet them? I could piust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I am doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pily that some few %, of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the high ways who are, I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills	city— phia in custom- s-Jones
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventgenth street. Menu	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it." also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "eprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find fout who they are or meet them? I could put as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I am doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but others in the could not go, tao.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS.</li> <li>Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there work on ride with you shu fans?</li> </ul>	Wacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn	city— phia in custom- s-Jones
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 03 Milk 08 Dressing 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Poinces Mayonales	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Bolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal it caring. The third time he saw much he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stars be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -val tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an" sprung a leak. I was about to sigi deeply and consign it to the ash barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purso the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scree. The cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them-	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find it out who they are or meet them? I could pust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I am doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few to of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the high ways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS.</li> <li>Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there? Have you joined any men's clubs?</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning	city— phia in custom- s-Jones
Lettuce	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind?	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change. a new pot. The potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purps of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century-ah me, what	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has the room it seems a pliy that some few to fthem could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS.</li> <li>Just as you say, "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who're like to ride with you; but how to find? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphis to you've met some "regular fellows" and nice grits. Ask one or two to go with a some travel the go with go you've been in Philadelphis</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning	city— phia in custom- s-Jones
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, S638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Poissors Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatoes Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP	Fried       Potatoes       Tomato       Salad         Rolls       and       Butter       Peaches       and       Cream         Tea       SALES       SLIP       Stream       40         Horseshoe       calmon       60       40         Corn       on cob       (one-half dozen cars)       20         Corn on cob       (one-half dozen cars)       20       00         One-eighth       peaches       00       00         One-half head lettuce       00       00       00         Rolla       11       12       12         Butter       10       13       13         Small bottle cream       11       14       14         Sugar       11       14       14         Total       11       15       16	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut?	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -out tears if I were to loose it. I also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "eprung a leak. I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change. a new pot. The potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purps of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century-—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and	Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find just as well take a carload out as not i but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but other might enjoy going, and when one has the room it seems a pliy that some few to f them could not go, too. There are others who travel the high- ways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say, "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who? Have you joined any men's clubs' Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone)	city— phia in custom- s-Jones
Lettuce	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter         Peaches and Cream Tea         SALES SLIP         Horseshoe salmon       4         One lemon       5         Corn on cob (one-half dozen cars)       2         One-elgith peck potatoes       0         One-half head lettuce       0         Two tomatoes       1         Butter       1         Small bottle cream       1         Sugar       1         Total       $1.5         MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made?	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. " also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- screm. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an- every one of us cherishes an affection for something h wee bit old-fashionad	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could pust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone.</li> <li>I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share they are of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS.</li> <li>Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus." there probably are many nice people who'd them?</li> <li>Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you're been in Philadelphilat you're met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go will you, and you'll soom be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone)	city— phia in custom- s-Jones
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 03 Milk 08 Dreasing 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, S638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Pointees Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatees Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter         Bolls and Butter         Peaches and Cream         Tea         SALES SLIP         Horseshoe salmon       4         One lemon       5         Corn on cob (one-half dozen ears)       2         One-half head lettuce       0         Two tomatoes       0         Rolls       1         Butter       0         One quart peaches       1         Small bottle cream       1         Sugar       1         Total       $1.50         MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS         Dear Mrs. Wilson - Will you         please nublish a recipe for lemon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cui? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak ond presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century-ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something h wee bit old-fashioned Perhaps its a patchwork quilt-or a old cheir of the great-great-great.	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could pust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share they are of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus." there probably are many nice people who'd them?</li> <li>Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you're been in Philadelphilat you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soom be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell)	city— lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 08 Dreasing 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Pointees Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatees Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe calmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom?	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. " also have a pet cooking pot and it up an" eprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs o the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something h wee bit old-fashioned Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or a old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holy hock. Some tastes run to old jeweiry	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find pout who they are or meet them? I could plust as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but other might enjoy going, and when one has the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who's like to ride with you; but how to find them? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>Human Curios</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell)	city— lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, S638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Poissors Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatoes Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? Yesterday's Answers	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. " also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- screm. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an- every one of us cherishes an affection for something h wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or a old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holy hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will ho interested to know that I have	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find pout who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not i but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but other might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who'd like to ride with you; but how to find them? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>Human Curios</li> <li>The Solitary of Shawmut</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will	city— phia in custom- s-Jones ning by
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 08 Dreasing 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Pointees Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatees Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe calmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? Yesterday's Answers 1. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal types flied with air.	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change. a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- screw. The cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight," for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or an old chair of the great-great-great-great mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of the stores for S1. The cameo is quit	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could pust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pily that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are, I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally result of ride with you sauto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say, "Gasoline Gus," there's probably are many nice people who's like to ride with you; but how to find them? Have you joined any men's clubs' surely since you're been in Philadelphiat you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>Human Curios</li> <li>The solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone or Blaxton, the first white man to set it the there, was popularly know was as the solitary while man to set it is there, was popularly know mas the some it who had not solitary of shawmut being the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone or Blaxton, the first white man to set its there, was popularly know mas the solitary solitary solitary while man to set its there.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day.	city— phia in custom- s-Jones ning by
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 08 Dreasing 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Pointees Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatees Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter         Peaches and Cream Tea         SALES SLIP         Horseshoe salmon       4         One lemon       5         Corn on cob (one-half dozen cars)       2         One-eighth peck potatoes       0         One-half head lettuce       0         Rolls       1         Butter       0         One quart peaches       1         Small bottle cream       1         Tea       1         Sugar       1         Total       41.5         MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS         Dear Mrs. Wilson — Will you         please publish a recipe for lemon sirup, one that will keep for some         the and can be used for lemonade         when wanted?       MRS. M. McC.         See the lemon strup recipes in th         Friday market basket, August 20.         Dear Mrs. Wilson—In doing up	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? Yesterday's Answers 1. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 2. When a wool or cloth scarf is not low enough to reach the belt, it	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scree. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an- every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or a old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holy hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hay seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol- arofnd the edge, that forms a fram	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find pout who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who't them?. Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphi you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>The solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde or Blaxton, the first white man to set te the there, was popularly known as the 'solitary of Shawmut,' on account o the hermit-like manner of his life.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city— phia in custom- s-Jones ning by
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, S638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Poissors Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatoes Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP	Fried       Point State       Tomato Salad         Rolls and Butter       Feaches and Cream         Tea       SALES SLIP         Horseshoe salmon       4         One lemon       5         Corn on cob (one-half dozen ears)       2         One-half head lettuce       0         One-half head lettuce       0         Two tomatoes       0         Rolls       1         Butter       1         One quart peaches       1         Sugar       1         Total       11.50         MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS         Dear Mrs. Wilson - Will you         please publish a recipe for lemonate         when wanted?       MRS. M. McC.         Soe the lemon strup recipes in th         Friday market basket, August 20.         Dear Mrs. Wilson-In doing up         Dear Mrs. Wilson - In doing up <td< td=""><td>"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stars be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? 6. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 6. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, fit can be lengthened by the addition</td><td>acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- screw. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century-ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt-or a old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol arofind the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Finne, on a soft hee coller or caught up in th</td><td><ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not i but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share the room it seems and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who'd them? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>The Solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone or Blaxton, the first white man to set the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackatone is said to have been if a s</li></ul></td><td>Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning</td><td>city— phia in custom- s-Jones ning by</td></td<>	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stars be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? 6. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 6. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, fit can be lengthened by the addition	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- screw. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century-ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt-or a old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol arofind the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Finne, on a soft hee coller or caught up in th	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not i but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share the room it seems and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who'd them? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>The Solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone or Blaxton, the first white man to set the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackatone is said to have been if a s</li></ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city— phia in custom- s-Jones ning by
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, Seasoning 10 Mary A. Hill, Mary A. Hill, Seasoning 10 Mary A. Hill, Mary A. Hill, Seasoning 10 Mary A. Hill, Mary A.	Fried       Point Sector       Stand         Rolls and Butter       Peaches and Cream         Tea       SALES SLIP         Horseshoe salmon       4         One lemon       5         Corn on cob (one-half dozen ears)       2         One-eighth peck potatoes       0         One-eighth peck potatoes       0         Two tomatoes       0         Rolls       1         Butter       0         Small bottle cream       1         Tea       0         Sugar       1         Total       41.5         MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS         Dear Mrs. Wilson - Will you         please publish a recipe for lemon         sirup, one that will keep for some         time and can be used for lemonate         when wanted?       MRS. M. McC.         See the lemon strup recipes in the         Friday market basket, August 20.         Dear Mrs. Wilson-In doing up         jam, what can I do to make it thick         enough to spread? Although I put         equal parts of sugar and no water         to my strawberries, cherries and	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could cal it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? Yesterday's Answers 1. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 2. When a doed by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool.	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. I also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "eprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs o the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something h wee bit old-fashioned Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or a old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holy hock. Some tastes run to old fewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol around the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find fout as not the result of the who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others in the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who't them? Have you joined any men's clubs: Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some 'regular fellows' and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>The solitary of Shawmut Shawmut being the Indian name for the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackatone is said to have been it hacknone of Blaxton, the first white man to set to the hermit-like manner of his life.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city— lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Coffee 10 Sugar 11 Seasoning 08 Milk 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Apples 10 Total 11 Seasoning 10 Mary A. Hill, Seasoning 10 Seasoning 10 Se	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? Yesterday's Answers 1. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 2. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool. 3. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak ond presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- screw. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth centuryah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashioned Perhaps its a patchwork quiltor an old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of the stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol around the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne, on a soft lace coilar or caught up in the folds of a stik dress, it shows off to fin	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find fout as not the result of the who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too.</li> <li>There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who't them?. Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>The solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde or flaxton, the first white man to set the there, was popularly known as the "Solitary of Shawmut," on account o the hermit-like manner of his life.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city— lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Coffee 11 Seguen 11 Seguen 11 Seguen 11 Seguen 11 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, S638 North Seventgenth street. Menu Braised Rack of Lamb Gravy Cream Pointer Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP Num of lamb chops 13 Mille Oint) 22 Ponatoes 17 Ponatoes 17 Pon	Fried       Point States       Tomato       Salad         Bolls       and       Butter         Feaches       salad       Salad         SALES       SLIP         Horseshoe       salad       doing         Horseshoe       salad       doing         Corn       one cob       (one-half dozen ears).       2         One-half       head       lettuce       0         Corn-half       head       lettuce       0         Corn-half       head       lettuce       0         Cone-half       head       lettuce       0         Cone-half       head       lettuce       0         Cone       quart       peaches       1         Small       bottle       cream       1         Small       bottle       cream       1         Small       bottle       cream       1         Tea       9       sagar       1         Small       bottle       cream       1         Tea       9       sagar       1         Total       Total       1       sagar         Total       mescipe       for       lemon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? Yesterday's Answers 1. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 2. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool. 3. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is sail, spread over the floor and moistened.	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "eprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of the with s screw in the senter that fits in the leak ond presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scree. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century-ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt-or a old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol arofind the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne, on a soft lace collar or caught up in th folds of a slik dress, it shows off to fin advantage. What About Growing These?	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I at doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus." there probably are many nice people who'r like to ride with you; but how to find them? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>Human Curios</li> <li>The Solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone or the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackstone is said to have been is graduate of Cambridge who had take or dery which had been denied to find in the new you're been is said to have been is graduate of Cambridge who had take or dery which had been denied him in the old. Soon after landing he beccame dis of the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city— lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Coffee 11 Seasoning 11 Seasoning 11 Seasoning 11 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Poistoes Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatoes Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP Nalk of lamb chops 16 Multe Opint Com 17 Polatoes 16 Com 17 Polatoes 16 Polatoes 16 Pol	Fried Pointoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter         Peaches and Cream         Tea         SALES SLIP         Horseshoe salmon       4         One lemon       5         Corn on cob (one-half dozen ears).       2         One-half head lettuce       0         Corn-alf head lettuce       0         One-half head lettuce       0         Two tomatoes       0         Rolls       1         Butter       1         One quart peaches       1         Small bottle cream       1         Sugar       1         Total       1.5         MRS. WILSON'S ANSWERS         Dear Mrs. Wilson Will you         please publish a recipe for lemon strup, one that will keep for some         time and can be used for lemonade         when wanted?       MRS. M. McC.         See the lemon strup recipes in the         Friday market basket, August 20.         Dear Mrs. WilsonIn doing up         iam, what can I do to make it thick         enough to spread? Although I put         equal parts of sugar and no water         to my strawberries, cherries and         ranspheries still it runs thin and         sometimes oozes around and	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? 4. When such a reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool. 5. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is sail, spread over the floor and moistened. 5. A convenient ironing board that	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of the with s screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purs of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scree. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an- every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or a: old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol arofind the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne, on a soft lace collar or caught up in th folds of a stik dress, it shows off to fin advantage. What About Growing These? The prices of currants, gogeberries	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not is but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "GasoLINE GUS." Just as you say. "GasoLINE GUS." Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you've been in Philadelphi you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>Human Curios</li> <li>The Solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the incality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone or the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackstone is said to have been is graduate of Cambridge who had take orders in the 'Church of England, bu outgrowing his early oonvictions, ha embarked with the Puritans in searc of that religious liberty which he expected to find in the new world a said to have been is graduate of cambridge who had take or its inter the conters in the church of England, bu outgrowing his early oonvictions, ha embarked with the Puritans in searc of that religious liberty which he expected to find in the new world and its of the inceduce the stark of liberality an sut of the hermit-like manner of his life.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their cary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city- lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Coffee 11 Seasoning 11 Seasoning 11 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Rack of Lamb Gravy Cream Poistoes Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatoes Maxonnaise Bread Butter Cuffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP Naite Of Lamb chops 1 Mille Oninti Com 2 Postoes 1 Tomatoes 1 Lettuce 1 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu States SLIP Naite Of Lamb chops 1 Com 2 Postoes 1 Con 2 Con 2 Con 2 Con 2 Con 2 Tomatoes 1 Con 2 Con 2	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him The Question Corner Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a collee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? 7. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool. 3. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is sait, spread over the floor and moistened. 4. A convenient ironing board that is a folding one of cardboard.	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak ond presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purps of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century-ah me, wha a time! New thought and the moders girl abound, but with it all each an every one of us cherishes an affection for something h wee bit old-fashioned Perhaps its a patchwork quilt-or a old chair of the great-great-great mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol around the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne, on a soft lace collar or caught up in th folds of a slik dress, it shows off to fin advantage. What About Growing These? The prices of currants, gooseberries raspberries and strawberries during th	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could pust as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share the room it seems and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say, "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who'd them? Have you folned any men's clubs? Surely since you're been in Philadelphilat you're met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soom be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>The solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone is said to have been a Blackstone is said to have been and stake of cambridge who had take of regraine is sail to have been and the there, was popularly known as the 'Solitary of Shawmut," on account o on the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackstone is said to have been all the incident is said to have been and the hermit-like manner of his life.</li> <li>Blackstone is said to have been all 'Solitary of Shawmut,' on account o on the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackstone is said to have been all 'Solitary of Shawmut,' on account o on the hermit-like manner of his life.</li> <li>Blackstone is said to have been all 'Solitary of Shawmut,' on account on the incide of his raily onvictions, ha embarled with the lack of liberality an the intolerance which marked the intolerance which marked the 'Lord's brethren,'' so, in 1628, he with the incide of liberality and the intolerance which marked the 'Lord's brethren,'' so, in 1628, he with the incide of liberality and the incintence and liberality and the incident on</li></ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city— lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Sugar 10 Sugar 10 Seasoning 10 Apples 10 Total 10 Total 10 Mary A. Hill, S638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Back of Lamb Gravy Cream Pointer Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP Tack of lamb chops 13 Milk Cont) 12 Total 10 Total 10 Sales 10 Total 10 Total 10 Total 10 Sales 10 Sales 10 Sales 10 Sales 10 Total 11 Total 11 Sales 10 Sales	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Peaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	<ul> <li>Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw me to marry him, and I thind it was the very fact that I refused him</li> <li>The Question Corner Today's Inquiries</li> <li>1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame?</li> <li>2. How can the closet under the stars be made easy to get at and to clean?</li> <li>3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind?</li> <li>4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut?</li> <li>5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made?</li> <li>6. In what pretty way is a homemade silk bag weighted at the bottom?</li> <li>Yesterday's Answers</li> <li>1. A new type of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air.</li> <li>2. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool.</li> <li>3. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is sait, spread over the floor and moistened.</li> <li>4. A convenient ironing board that will fit into a trunk for traveling is a folding one of cardboard.</li> <li>5. Woolen cloths used for floor fleas that will fit into a trunk for traveling is a folding one of cardboard.</li> </ul>	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. " also have a pet cooking pot and it up an" eprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. The potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat pures of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or an old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old fewelry and those of you who like the cames will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of the stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol around the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne, on a soft ace collar or caught up in the folds of a stik dress, it shows off to fin advantage. What About Growing These? The prices of currants, gooseberries raspberries and strawberries during the summer should be an invitation to al who can to grow some of these things in who can to grow some of these things in who can be prove some of these things in the bar of go the set the stores to go these these the summer should be an invitation to al who can to grow some of these things in	Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find just as well take a carload out as not but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the high- ways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who'c them? Have you joined any men's clubs: Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times. Human Curios The solitary of Shawmut Shawmut being the Indian name fo the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone or Blaxton, the first white man to set to the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackstone is said to have been i the there, was popularly known as the "Solitary of Shawmut." on account o the hermit-like manner of his life. Blackstone is said to have been i the intolerance which man to set to the how the church of England, but outgrowing his early convictions, ha embarled with the Puritans in searc of that religious liberty which he expected to find in the new world—a lib erty which had been denied him in th outgrowing his early convictions, ha embarled with the Buritans in searc of that religious liberty which he expected to find in the new world—a lib erty which had been denied him in th outgrowing his early convictions, ha embarled with the early convictions, ha enter intolerance which marked th "Lord's brethren," so, in 1628, he with drew to the wildences and lived as in hermit until his death in 1675. In the poem, "Boston Common.	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city- lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Coffee 11 Seasoning 11 Seasoning 11 Apples 10 Total 11 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Rack of Lamb Gravy Cream Polatoes Corn on the Cob Lettuce Napole Pudding SALES SLIP Natk of lamb chops 1 Milk of the chops 1 Milk of the chops 1 Mary A. Hill, 10 10 145 145 145 145 145 145 145 145	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Feaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? 7. When avoid or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool. 8. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is sail, spread over the floor and moistened. 5. Woolen cloths used for floor cleaning can be softened by a little karosene or lubricating oil dropped into the last rinse water a little karosene or lubricating oil dropped into the last rinse water a little karosene or lubricating oil dropped into the last rinse water	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. also have a pet cooking pot and it up an "sprung a leak, I was about to sigl deeply and consign it to the ash barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak ond presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat purps of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight," for so I have termed them- and if I've fallen short on the descrip tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the moder: girl abound, but with it all each and every one of us cherishes an affection for something h wee bit old-fashioned Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or ai old chair of the great-great-great- mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of th stores for $1. The camee is quit large and has a frail network of gol around the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne, on a soft lace collar or caught up in th folds of a slik dress, it shows off to fin advantage. What About Growing These? The prices of currants, gooseherries raspberries and strawberries during th summer should be an invitation to ai who can to grow some of these things in their own back yards. Thousands of homes the country over could grow over fould pro-	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say, "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who'd them? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you't been in Philadelphilat you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soom be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>Have yof Shawmut</li> <li>The solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone is said to have been a Blackatone is said to have been different of Cambridge who had take of regular of his life. Blackatone is said to have been different of Boston, william Slackatone is said to have been different of Cambridge who had take orders in the Church of England, bur outgrowing his early convictions, ha embarked with the lack of liberality an the intolerance which meaked the intolerance which marked the intolerance which marked the oid. Soon after landing he became dis gusted with the lack of liberality an the intolerance which meaked the drem to the wildenees and lived as the intolerance which meaked the drem intuit his death in 1678. In the poem, "Boston Common, Holmes makes an allusion to Blackstone in the intolerance which meaked the drem to the wildenees and lived as the mit until his death in 1678.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city- lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Coffee 11 Seasoning 11 Seasoning 11 Apples 10 Total 1145 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Rack of Lamb Gravy Cream Polatoes Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatoes Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP Park of lamb chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Com 2 Postates 1 Tomatoes 1 Coffee 1 Sales 1 Total 1 Total 1 Total 1 Total 1 Menu Me	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Feaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? 7. When seven of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 7. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool. 8. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is sail, spread over the floor and moistened. 4. A convenient ironing board that is a folding one of cardboard. 5. Woolen cloths used for floor cleaning can be softened by a little kerosene or lubricating oil dropped into the last rinse water after washing. 5. The toreador hat is popular for	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. " also have a pet cooking pot and it up an" eprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat pures of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an- every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or an old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of the stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol arofind the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne- on a soft lace collar or caught up in th folds of a slik dress, it shows off to fin advantage. What About Growing These? The prices of currants, gooseberries raspberries and strawberries during th summer should be an invitation to al who can to grow some of these things in their own back yards. Thousands of homes the country over could grow many of these fruits that are used of the lable in terest on the store the set furges for the set for your on the lable in reverse ways made of these the is the country over could grow many of these fruits that are used of	Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find just as well take a carload out as not but it seems I am doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but other might enjoy going, and when one has the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the high- ways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say. "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who't them? Have you joined any men's clubs: Surely since you've been in Philadelphis you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soon be in the mids of pleasant times. He solitary of Shawmut Shawmut being the Indian name fo the locality now occupied by the olde or blaxton, the first white man to set to the trem? Human to set the ince is said to have been in proton of Boston, William Blackstone or blaxton is said to have been is graduate of Cambridge who had take of other is said to have been is graduate of Cambridge who had take of the religious liberty which he ex- pected to find in the new word—a lib erty which had been denied him in the oid. Soon after landing he became dis gusted with the Puritans in searc of that religious liberty which he ex- pected to find in the new word—a lib erty which had been denied him in the oid. Soon after landing he became dis gusted with the Buritans in searc of that religious liberty which he ex- pected to find in the new word—a lib erty which had been denied him in the oid. Soon after landing he became dis gusted with the box of liberality an state intolerance which marked the "Tord's bretheren," so; in 1628. he with drew to the wildegnees and lived as the intolerance which marked the marked with the boy of "Boston to Binckston and to the popular tradition that ho are to ride about the country on and to the popular tradition that ho are the down i	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city- lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we
Lettuce 10 Coffee 11 Seasoning 11 Seasoning 11 Apples 10 Total 1145 Mary A. Hill, 8638 North Seventsenth street. Menu Braised Rack of Lamb Gravy Cream Polatoes Corn on the Cob Lettuce Tomatoes Maxonnaise Bread Butter Coffee Jiffy Apple Pudding SALES SLIP Park of lamb chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Mile of inth chops 1 Com 2 Postates 1 Tomatoes 1 Coffee 1 Sales 1 Total 1 Total 1 Total 1 Total 1 Menu Me	Fried Potatoes Tomato Salad Rolls and Butter Feaches and Cream Tea SALES SLIP Horseshoe salmon	"Does he care for you at all?" "Yes, in his way, if you could call it caring. The third time he saw mi- he asked me to marry him, and I think it was the very fact that I refused him Today's Inquiries 1. What convenient device protects the metal handle of a coffee pot from the gas flame? 2. How can the closet under the stairs be made easy to get at and to clean? 3. When sash curtains are hung on windows that swing out how should they be secured against the wind? 4. What is an easy method of fastening a bandage on a cut? 5. How is a novel girdle for an afternoon dress made? 6. In what pretty way is a home- made silk bag weighted at the bottom? 7. When seven of surf board that is easy to ride on is made of metal tubes filled with air. 7. When a wool or cloth scarf is not long enough to reach the belt, it can be lengthened by the addition of a square of cloth to match, embroidered in wool. 8. The best remedy for fleas that have got into the house is sail, spread over the floor and moistened. 4. A convenient ironing board that is a folding one of cardboard. 5. Woolen cloths used for floor cleaning can be softened by a little kerosene or lubricating oil dropped into the last rinse water after washing. 5. The toreador hat is popular for	acquire "pet" articles. I have a "pet" hairpin and I'm sure I'd shee -wal tears if I were to loose it. " also have a pet cooking pot and it up an" eprung a leak, I was about to sig deeply and consign it to the ash- barrel when I discovered the "men- dents." A round piece of tin with a screw in the senter that fits in the leak and presto change, a new pot. Th potatoes continue to boil away cheer fully as of yore, and the cat pures of the dog snores, to complete the domesti- scene. Ten cents will buy a box con taining several of these "house wife" delight." for so I have termed them- and if I've failen short on the descrip- tion, just you look them up. The twentieth century—ah me, wha a time! New thought and the modern girl abound, but with it all each an- every one of us cherishes an affection for something a wee bit old-fashionad Perhaps its a patchwork quilt—or an old chair of the great-great-grand mothers, or the tall and stately holly hock. Some tastes run to old jewelry and those of you who like the came will be interested to know that I hav seen some breast pins in one of the stores for $1. The cameo is quit large and has a frail network of gol arofind the edge, that forms a fram for the delicate pink and white. Pinne- on a soft lace collar or caught up in th folds of a slik dress, it shows off to fin advantage. What About Growing These? The prices of currants, gooseberries raspberries and strawberries during th summer should be an invitation to al who can to grow some of these things in their own back yards. Thousands of homes the country over could grow many of these fruits that are used of the lable in terest on the store the set furges for the set for your on the lable in reverse ways made of these the is the country over could grow many of these fruits that are used of	<ul> <li>Now it seems to me that there must be a lot of people here who would like to ride with me; but how is one to find out who they are or meet them? I could just as well take a carload out as not; but it seems I an doomed to ride alone. I can enjoy myself alone, but others might enjoy going, and when one has a the room it seems a pity that some few of them could not go, too. There are others who travel the highways who are. I'm sure, willing to share their cars and pleasures occasionally with people of the right sort. How about it, you auto fans? GASOLINE GUS. Just as you say, "Gasoline Gus," there probably are many nice people who'd them? Have you joined any men's clubs? Surely since you't been in Philadelphilat you've met some "regular fellows" and nice girls. Ask one or two to go with you, and you'll soom be in the mids of pleasant times.</li> <li>Have yof Shawmut</li> <li>The solitary of Shawmut</li> <li>Shawmut being the Indian name for the locality now occupied by the olde portion of Boston, William Blackstone is said to have been a Blackatone is said to have been different of Cambridge who had take of regular of his life. Blackatone is said to have been different of Boston, william Slackatone is said to have been different of Cambridge who had take orders in the Church of England, bur outgrowing his early convictions, ha embarked with the lack of liberality an the intolerance which meaked the intolerance which marked the intolerance which marked the oid. Soon after landing he became dis gusted with the lack of liberality an the intolerance which meaked the drem to the wildenees and lived as the intolerance which meaked the drem intuit his death in 1678. In the poem, "Boston Common, Holmes makes an allusion to Blackstone in the intolerance which meaked the drem to the wildenees and lived as the mit until his death in 1678.</li> </ul>	Vacationists returning to the even those who reach Philadel the evening—can have their c ary supply of Supplee-Wills milk and cream on the following morn telephoning Park 42 (Keystone) Poplar 3503 (Bell) And this steady-going milk service will time—not only today, but every day. M serve you with this medal-winning	city- lphia in custom- s-Jones ning by be on May we