New "Spero" Gingham From Looms That Weave for the Makers of Scotland's Finest Gingham

Can't tell the name, but it's equivalent to "best" in talking of gingham. Fine—164 threads to the inch—the finest "gingham weave" we know of!
And absolutely fast color—such beautiful colors. Two-tone plaids on white—but every tone "clear as a silhouette"—even the most delicate and flower-like.
Two color plaids, too, and black-and-white effects.
From dainty "checks" up to big three-quarter-inch plaids—hard to tell which brings out color beauty most!
No wonder the maker isn't afraid to stamp "Best in the World" on these Gingham. 32 inches wide, at $1.25 a yard.
Fine Scotch Dress Gingham Reduced to 85c a Yard—
38 inches wide. Plenty of the "shadow plaids" that somehow give gingham the softness of sheer weaves.
Broken plaids, too, and checks. And plenty of colors in each style. 38 inches wide. Special 85c yd.

$5000 Worth of Fine American-Made Gingham Special at 65c a Yard
Dark "school plaids" and dainty checks and stripes and plain colors that will make the prettiest, freshest morning dresses that ever "began a day right."

"Bride-Millinery" and "Occasion Millinery"—Paris Millinery Opening

—in greater-than-ever variety in this—
Paris Millinery Opening
And if there ever was a hat that looked like an adorably girlish bride, it is the great nut-brown velvet beauty pictured, with its soft brown lace falling over the glorious brim and tying in a dream of a little bow at the side.
Great black hats with great nodding plumes—in the new "Harlequin colorings."
Tiny smart brown and black hats with wonderful ornaments.
Currant-red hats. And wonderful gray hats.
Paris "Occasion Millinery" begins at $25—
Gimbel "Occasion Millinery" begins at $12.50. —Millinery Salons, Third floor

"Kuppenheimer" and "Society Brand" Suits and Overcoats For Autumn

Overcoats, $35 to $75 Suits, $35 to $75
Other Fall Lines, $27.50 to $60

There is a new style note in—
Men's Clothing for Fall
Particularly is it noticeable in young men's styles. You'll thank goodness that pinched backs and back vents that sometimes showed the shirt—that extremes are gone, and that the splendid smartness of good form rules.
Clothes fit—no return to older form of draping that did not denote fit—but coats hang naturally. It calls for good tailoring, and in—"Kuppenheimer" and "Society Brand" finds splendid expression.
Style and all-wool-ness.
Silk-and-wool worsteds, unfinished worsteds, chevots, cassimeres, tweeds.
And the FALL OVERCOAT is the present urgent need—the extra bit of protection against autumn chill.
Raincoats—that "look it" and that don't—$15 to $50. Very special
1200 Men's Suits at $27.50
A few are two-piece—prices cut deeply. Mostly fall-weight three-piece suits—medium and dark colors; single- and double-breasted.
The price is a third better than you had dared to hope.
