Incogniti Bowlers Quickly Dispose of Americans in First Innings Today

BY SPICK HALL

British bowling proved too big an obstacle for the New York cricket team to overcome.

Yesterday the Incogniti eleven declared their innings closed after amassing 373 runs. The New York Halifax crew went to bat and had scored but 71 runs for six wickets when stumps were drawn for the night.

When the match was resumed this morning the remaining wickets fell quickly and the side was all out for a total of 150 runs. The Americans then followed on with their second innings.

INVESTIGATE BOUT; HANLON IS FIRED

If Stalling Charge Is Proved Director Will Bar Boxers Forever

BY SPICK HALL

As a result of the Harry Willam-McVey six-round stall in the Ice Palace last night, Director Cortelyou has started a thorough investigation of the bout and Jack Hanlon, matchmaker of the club, has been 'fired.'

The investigation of the bout was started by the director this morning, and if it is proved that the negroes were 'stalling,' they will be barred forever from Philadelphia rings, according to a statement made by Cortelyou this afternoon.

"My investigation of the Willam-McVey bout," said the director, "stalling must be stopped and the fighters barred at any cost, and if this investigation proves that the men were stalling they will be barred forever from boxing in this city."

Ignored Referee

Willam and McVey were scheduled to put on eight rounds of boxing in the final of the bouts at the reopening of the West Philadelphia Palace last night, but not one round of boxing was shown.

The fighters appeared for five rounds, despite warnings from Referee Floyd, who threatened to stop the bout if both men continued to hold, pull and wrestle.

The referee was ignored and he carried out his threat by stopping the bout in the sixth round.

George F. Pawling, the president of the Ice Palace, refused to pay either Willam or McVey for their services.

There was a meeting at Pawling's office this morning and there the president stated that he would give all of the purse to charity unless he received other orders from Director Cortelyou.

However, the police regulations call for one-half of the purse to go to the boxers and one-half to charity in such a case.

Director Unconcerned With Purse

"I will have nothing to do with the financial end of the bout," said Cortelyou, when questioned concerning the division of the purse. "That is a matter that is entirely up to the club, the fighters and their managers. We are concerned only with the matter of stalling. I will not attempt to say whether or not the purse, the whole of it or any part of it should go to charity."

Cortelyou has called a meeting of the men interested in the bout to be held at his office this afternoon. McVey and his managers, Woodman and Lawrence; Willam and his managers, Cassidine and Mullin, together with Pawling and other officials of the Ice Palace will attend the meeting.

The row between Hanlon and Pawling came to a head at the meeting this morning. Hanlon, it is said, has been "fired" for insubordination. His services with the club will cease on Saturday night. A successor has been appointed as yet.

At the meeting in Pawling's office the managers of the respective boxers demanded the purse. This demand was refused by Pawling, who will not divide the funds until after the conference with Cortelyou.

TO NAME OLYMPIC COMMITTEE TODAY

Victorious U. S. Athlete Will Compete in American Legion Games September 18

Plans to welcome the Olympic athletes who carried the Stars and Stripes to victory at Antwerp will be formulated at Mayor Moore's office today, when a committee will be appointed to meet the team in New York next week.

The committee will be instructed to take the athletes to this city. Several members of the team will appear at Franklin Field on September 18 for the American Legion games.

The majority of the athletes sailed from Antwerp last night, and are due to arrive in New York the early part of next week. They will be greeted by the Mayor's committee and hosted here.

Earl Eby and Sherman Landers, the two University of Pennsylvania stars, who scored points for America at the Olympics, already are in this city and have sent in their entries for the legion meet. Eby will compete in both the quarter-mile and half-mile runs. Landers will show in the broad jump and pole vault.

Eby was the young man who took second in the international half-mile race. He trimmed E. G. D. Rudd, the famous South African, but was beaten unexpectedly by A. G. Hill. Landers was fifth in the hop, step and jump.

Entries are pouring in daily for the legion games, and a larger list than that has been received in the past. Entries close on Saturday at the legion headquarters, 1011 Chestnut street.

Play for Kendrick Cup Starts This Morning With a Large Entry

The sixth invitation golf tournament of the Lu Lu Country Club began this morning.

There will be four sixteens to qualify and there will be trophies for the winner of each flight. In the first flight the winner will get the W. Freeland Kendrick trophy, which must be won three times to become the personal property of the victor.

In the second sixteen the prize is the President's trophy, while the Governor's trophy goes to the winner of the third sixteen. For the best man in the fourth sixteen a trophy has been contributed by the Lu Lu Temple Country Club. In addition there will be trophies for the runner-up in each of the four flights, and the leaders of the flights for defeated eighties.

The W. Freeland Kendrick cup was won last year by John Beadle, of Elmerch. The only player to hold more than one leg on the trophy is J. Wood Platt, of North Hills, who has won it twice. Ed. Clary has one victory to his credit, and H. B. Newton has won it once.

The order of play is as follows: Today, qualifying round, eighteen holes, medal play; Friday, first round of match play in the morning and second round in the afternoon; and Saturday, semifinals in the morning and finals in the afternoon.

A'S GET BREAKS AND BEAT TIGERS

Mackmen Start Final Western Invasion With 5 to 4 Victory

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 9.—The Athletics profited immensely by errors of the Tigers at Navin Field in the opening game of the final western invasion.

The Tigers booted five simple chances to prevent runs, but in the end the verdict folded to the bosom of the visitors by the score of 5 to 4, had the same total in the final western invasion.

The Mack victory was a double-edged sword for the Athletics, as it would a decision of more pronounced merit Detroit outfit the Athletics, but the Tigers did not possess the same faculty for making the blows count.

The Mack victory in the ball game in the second inning where the exhibition of punting was sustained until the Mackmen accepted help four times in the fourth.
