OF COURSE, women are entered Of from all over the United States, but being a Philadelphian, I'm naturally more interested in those from my own town who are to take part. And I think it is very interesting to see how popular tennis is with the younger set, that is, the girls who are sixteen, seventeen and eighteen and in the junior entries for the tournament. Especially is this true of the younger rirls about Chestnut Hill.

HEAR that Helen and Beatrice Sewell will play, and you know Relen is quite a 'wiz.' (She won Helen is quite a 'wiz.' (She won omething big in Cape May); Virginia Carpenter, who with her father, won in he mixed doubles at the Huntingdon Valley tournament a couple of month touise Dixon, who is a cousing Molly Thayer and takes after her in her love of the game; Marguerite Boyle, Mary Geary, Caroline Graham, Evelyn roline Remak and Katharine orter, and I am sure there are others
