$2.50 for First Prize to Go to Mrs. T. Gordon Smyth-Mrs. Lyndell and Mrs. Bhulm Win $1 Each

FIRST PRIZE, $2.50 Mrs. T. Gordon Smyth 1216 North Eighteenth street MENU Fried Cutlets of Fresh Fish Bliced Tomatoes Polato Puff Cheese and Pepper Salad Fresh Pench Cake

SALES SLIP Three green peppers..... Oen-half package pimento cheese. ayonnaise dressing ne box peaches.... lour and shortening sugar and lime for same

SECOND PRIZE, 81 Mrs. B. Lundell 1726 North Twenty-fifth street Stewed Pork Hearts Pointoes Stewed Tomatoes

Carrots Vinsigrette Stuffed Baked Apples Butter SALES SLIP Four pork hearts... Seasoning and thickening Half small carrier potatoes. Soft tomatoes

Seasoning
Three ears corn
One bunch carrots
Vinegar Sugar and coffee: Two rips bananas ... *

> THIRD PRIZE, $1 Mrs. A. Bhulm Holland, Bucks county MENU

Posched Eggs Hungerian Sauce Stuffed Baked Tomatoes Corn Pudding Potato Salad Huckleberry Pio

FALL BRIDE MAY SERVE A GOLDEN-ROD BREAKFAST

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

Dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you please m me through your paper, would be an appropriate menu what would be an appropriate menu for a wedding breakfast? Also what amount should be purchased for approxforty people? Thanking you for this information. MISS A. H. L.

Goldenrod makes a beautiful fail decoration and the color scheme is casily carried out in the table and menu decorations. The arrangements for the wedding breakfast naturally mean that the table must be dainty and simple as possible in all its arrangements. A large ball of goldenrod can be easily made and hung from the chandelier by a made and hung from the chandeler by a replace party riphon with streamers to golden satin ribbon with streamers to then roll in fine bread crumbs. the ball hung so that it is about eight. Have the dealer serve the frozento ten inches high, from the center of the table. Flace mirror directly bethat it reflects back the goldenrod : have a wreath of smilax surround of the mirror, with a spray of golden-d peeping out here and there. The streamers come directly from the chandelier to the corners of the table Have the streamers of the smilax forming between the golden streamers and lay them flat on the table.

Some Attractive Menus

Chilled Grapefruit Salted Nuts

Sunshine Mousse Si Sunshine Mousse Si Coffee Small Cakes Fruit Punch

Celery
Oyster Bisque With Whipped Cream
Chicken a la Newburg
Watercress Sandwiches Midget Rolls
Salted Nuts
Pineapple Sherbet Fancy Cakes Pineapple Sherbet Fancy Cakes Bonbons Fruit Punch Ralsins Coffee

The materials that you will need for forty people for Menu No. 1: Twenty large grapefruits. Two pounds of unshelled almonds for

Two pounds of sweet breads, Four dozen eggs, Three quarts of milk,

One quart of cream for the golden-One peck of potatoes.

One pint of cream. One-quarter pound of butter. Bir eggs, One cup of milk,

One quart of vegetable oil for the potato croquettes.

Three large sandwich loaves of bread

One and one-half pounds of butter Seven quarts of frozen custard, cut els portions to quart.
Four pounds of fancy cakes,
Three pounds of candies,

One dozen oranges. Four grapefruits. One large battle of maraschino cherries.

Four pounds of sugar. Four quarts of carbonated water, One large can of crushed pineapple for fruit punch. Eggs and Sweetbread a la Goldenrod Soak sweetbreads in cold water and juice of two lemons for two hours. Wash and then drain and then parboil for thirty minutes. Drain and then plunge into cold water and pat dry and cut in pieces the size of a walnut. Place Three quarts of milk, One quart of cream. One-half pound of butter, Four cups of sifted flour. and stir with a wire whip to blend the flour. Bring to a boil and cook for three minutes. Now add one dozen well-beaten eggs and beat continually five minutes. Remove from the fire and add salt and white pepper to taste.

One tablespoon of paprika, One teaspoon of mustard. Juice of six lemons. The prepared sweet breads. dozen hard-boiled eggs, cut ouarters. Heat slowly by setting the pan in larger pan of hot water. To serve: Cut THE WINNERS OF THE PRIZE MENU CONTEST ARE ANNOUNCED TODAY

.There are three prizes given every week for the best dinner menu submitted for four people. It must not cost more than $1.50.

$2.50 $1 $1

Be sure to put your full name and correct address on the menu. Also the date of sending it. The foods suggested must be staples and in season. And you must send a sales slip, too, which will give the cost of all materials used

The winners for last week will be anounced on Monday. Address all menus to

MRS. WILSON'S MENU CONTEST EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER INDEPENDENCE SQUARE

SALES SLIP

spices
Four tomatoes
Bread, seasoning
Three ears corn One pound potatoes. Onion, green pepper. Three-quarters box huckleberries. Bread, butter

The honor list includes Miss Elinor Merian, Mrs. W. Ryan, Eva B. Smith, Mrs. William J. Schilling, Miss Edna Esbin, Mrs. Harry C. Meyers, Mrs. G. L. Burger, Mrs. S. Rugel, Mrs. M. O. Washburn, Marie E. Cooper, Mrs. F. G. Combes, Sara A. Magingan, Mrs. Rose Zitomer, Mrs. Rose Perry, Dorothy M. Snyder, L. Haffner, Mrs. J. M. Greiner, Mrs. Frank R. Pierson, Mrs. Jennie Burke, Mrs. Donald E. Eastlake, Thelma E. Dietz. I hated to hurt her feelings

'How old are you anyway? Why do you rise so late fill with the prepared mixture and then Copyright, 1820, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson, dust lightly with paprika and serve. I always get up at five." This with a virtuous air.) Material for Cream-Puff Shells 'Then I sleep in the afternoon." One and one-half cups of water. 'What's that you say?

Two-thirds cup of shortening. Place in a saucepan and bring to boil. Now add one and one-half cups of sifted flour. Stir and cook until the mixture forms a ball on the spoon. Re-MISS A. H. L.

To the bride and her family, the preparation of the wedding menu is often a complex problem. If the wedding is to be in the fall months, you must first select a color scheme and be sure that the decorations are artistic and restful; once this is done, you have for this first select a color scheme and be sure that the decorations are artistic and restful; once this is done, you have for this first select and bake in a bot oven for this first select and then and beautiful the egg is entirely incorporated; and six eggs and then and bot oven for this first select and bake in a bot oven for the success of the select and the select an and restful; once this is done, you have for thirty-five minutes. Turn the heat down halfway after twenty minutes. Goldenrod makes a beautiful fall dec-

Fruit Punch

Juice of three dozen lemons, Grated rind of four oranges. Juice of one dozen oranges.

Turn into two large punch bowls and add pulp of grapefruit, maraschino cherries, crushed pineapple and leaves picked from a bunch of mint. make a sirup with sugar and two quarts of water. Boil for ten minutes and then cool and add to the fruit. When ready Eggs and Sweet Bread a la Goldenrod to serve, add a large lump of ice and Dainty Bread and Butter Sandwiches the carbonated water. Serve.

Oyster Bisque

Chop 100 oysters fine and then turn into a large saucepan and add Three quarts of milk. One quart of cream.

One cup of flour. Beat with a wire whip to dissolve the flour and then bring to a boil and season and serve in bouillon cups with a spoonful of whipped cream and dust with paprika.

Chicken a la King Cook the chicken until tender and then cool and cut in pieces. Make a sauce as for egg and sweetbread goldenrod and add the chicken, mushrooms parboiled, two cans of pimentoes, chopped in pieces. Serve in the same manner as for the goldenrod.

Materials Needed for Menu No. 2 Twelve large stalks of celery. Two quarts of alives, One hundred large oysters, Three quarts of milk. One quart of cream,

One-half pound of butter, Scanoning, I welve pounds of stewing chicken. Tico pounds of mushrooms. Two talk cans of pimentoes, One-half dozen bunches of Breads, salted nuts, sherbet, cake, bonbons and fruit punch as for ment Every bit of this menu may be pre-pared the day before and heated when ready to serve.

Things You'll Love to Make

Kitchen Table Runners.

PLK9-13

It is much easier to launder two runners than a table cloth. Therefore you will like to make these two for your kitchen table. (They match the kitchen show towel presented a short time ago.) Hem or hemstitch two strips of liness or linene, one and one-half yards long—a plain hem with blue stitching is attractive, too. Cut from blue material eight plates (circles) and four cups and saucers like those in the picture above. Applique them on the white as shown. Two such runners and a show towel would make a much appreciated gift for a kitchen shower.

DAINTY TROUSSEAU ACCESSORIES

Nimble fingers, good taste, a bit of lace, a bit of ribbon and see the magic dainty things the girl who wants to make most of her trousseau herself can do. One camisole is a straight piece of taffeta, another one of satin, and a row of hemstitching around the center of the width gives an air of daintiness a whole width would not have. The coat, skirt and blouse hangers have satin ribbon fulled over cotton stuffing, cunning dolls' heads, on which are made little hoods, give a pretty finish to the lovely things. Ruffles of lace and ribbons, variously arranged, make up the three silk bags

She was so kind of heart

'How much did you pay for that?'

'How much money do you make?'

"Was your husband older than you?

What did this cost a yard?"

"Do you ever use rouge? Your cheeks look so red today!"

"Is your fur coat real seal?"

INCHES FROM

The Golden-Plated Rule By Lillian Paschal Day

How She Questioned!

Once upon a time I had a neighbor. "Do they pay for what you write?" "Editors are queer, aren't they?" "D'ye think you'll ever be famous?" I'd wriggle and squirm and twist. She was so interested in all I did. I'd hem and haw and cough. But she asked me things like these She would not let me off.

So one day I screwed up courage. I fired a regular fusillade. Never once took time for breath. Just rattled' em off like bail: "Do you support your husband? 'Do you think you both were stung? 'Have you paid for your clothes?' 'How much did they cost?" 'Have you got any manners?" 'Why don't you use them?" 'Fools rush in where angels don't ! "Can you mind your own business?" "Try it and leave mine alone."

She never spoke to me again.

Today's Inquiries When the handle of a suitcase is broken, what emergency handle can be made?

2. What is a good remedy for beetles on the asters in the garden?

3. How can bed linen and towels be quickly ironed for ordinary

4. In making an overblouse of soft chiffon, what should be done to the shoulder seams and the open-ing where fasteners are to be

How should a garden hose be arranged in order to give the flowers a thorough wetting without soaking them or bending them?

What is a new and attractive fad for cuffs on dark serge dresses?

Yesterday's Answers

When the rubber piece of a patent door-stop for a swinging door wears out, a run-down rub-ber heel can be cut to the desired size and substituted Campers or those who have can vas curtains on their sleeping porches will find indispensable a new cement that mends canvas and is waterproof without being In making an apron, make the strings longer than necessary in order to provide material for patches, that will fade with the apron. An oil-cloth dolly, that can be

An oil-cloth dony, that can be bought at the five and ten-cent store makes a good floor covering for the doll house kitchen.

A fine strainer should have soap rubbed on the wire, and the water poured through it, to clean

'Rubaicloth' is a new cashmer duvetyn with a soft silky finish.

Adventures With a Purse
NICE big, soft, spongy towels, the old-fashioned honeycomb towels, of generous length (forty inches, if the distance from my arm to my nose be standard), and with borders of blue line! That's what I found—and for seventy-five cents each! Honeycomb, you probably know, is a material with tiny quarter-inch squares through it, rougher than a regular linen or huck towel, yet slightly dressier-looking than the ordinary turkish towel. I certainly consider these towels a real bargain.

And while we are on the subject of towels—another shop has just a couple of dozen, specially priced. They are pure linen, and are priced at $1 to $2 to $

And while we are on the subject of towels—another shop has just a couple of dozen, specially priced. They are pure linen, and are priced at $1 to $2 each. Some of them look like lovely damask, and are as satiny and shiny as they can be. I would not advise you to make a special trip for these, for there is a question as to whether there will be any left. But if you are coming in town anyhow, why, then, I shall be glad to tell you where to stop to see them.

It isn't enough that little people should outgrow their tiny shoes with should outgrow the subject to detail that the Cihcinnati girl conceived the click of turning this talent into a novel channel.

Photographs of surgical operations, as she learned are seldom successful because of the difficulties of penetrating the shadows and dark spots in the human body during the time that the surgeon is performing the delicate task. Moreover, red photographs black and thus adds to the general dark tone of the resultant print. So, at first purely for practice, Miss Meakin commenced to sketch bodies in the operations, as she learned are seldom successful because of the difficulties of penetrating the shadows and dark spots in the human body during the time that the surgeon is performing the delicate task. Moreover, red photographs black and thus adds to the general dark tone of the resultant rint. So, at first purely for practice, Miss Meakin commenced to sketch bodies in the operations.

It isn't enough that little people should outgrow their tiny shoes with unfaltering regularity—they must also scuff them up, and get them in serry shape. Even Mistress Marjorie's best patent-leather pumps with the absurdly square toe, and ankle strap, are treated with fine disdain, so that frequently they are cracked and scuffed before actually worn out. But now comes a preparation for patent-leather shoes that purports to varnish over those cracks and rough places and imparts a new luster. One applies it the same as any shoe dressing, and judging from the many requests for it, it must be very good. It costs but 35c, and is recommended for patent-leather, shoes, pumps or belts.

Cincinnati hospitals and then wert to Johns Hopkins to take up the study of scientific art in earnest. Before whe was clark up the study of scientific art in earnest. Before whe was twenty-one she was placed is a hospital on a good salary and commissioned to cated operations, standing beside the presiding surgeon as he worked and making picture notes of each incision. These were then reworked and colored, forming a sort of moving pleture of the entire process in order that other surgeons might follow the operation as closely as if they had been present.

"My profession is enot one which I could recommend to every woman," says Miss Meakin. "but, from the purely commercial side it pays better than artistic art and is of benefit to humanity as well."

Tomorrow—By Making Children Com-

Please Tell Me What to Do

Want to Get Divorce Dear Cynthia—Being married fifteen months and not able to get aiong, is there any way of obtaining a divorce it both are satisfied? FROM TWO.

Why can you not get along? Have you both been willing to give in in unessential things? Divorce is such a mistake if it can possibly be avoided. You must have loved each other when you married. If you will both make real efforts to get along you will find it possible.

Why Suggest Woman President? Dear Cynthia—Please insert these few lines in reply to "Miss Twenty-One"s" poem, printed on Wednesday, Septem-ber 8, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER:

"Ex-Top Kick" and "Buddle"

Answered

Dear Cynthia—My buddie and I laughed last night—in fact, we howled—and the reason of our mirth was the letter written by the poor nut who signed himself "Sophist." Ye gods, what a flow of words! I have heard some highbrow profs and others spill the lingo, but I have never heard anybody spill such a mixture of slang and good English in all my life. And the funny part of it was that he didn't say anything.

I would suggest to that gentleman that he stick to the way he usually take and stop trying to take a lot of words that he doesn't know anything about to write to we regulars of the column, as we don't appreciate it.

Oh, come now, boys. Sophist has a right to join the regulars if he wants to. It was a mixture, wasn't it?

Says Boys Demand Kisses

Dear Cynthia—I am a girl seventeen years of age and have been going out with boys for the last year or so.

What is puzzling me is, "why do they always ask for a kiss in return for taking a girl out?" I have always refused this request, having been taught that a girl should not kiss unless engaged; but recently I met a young man who offers a very good argument, on which I'd like to hear your and some of the readers' opinions. He says, "What's the use of a boy taking out a girl end spending his money on her if she isn't going to give him something in return for it? He would have just as much pleasure in going out with another boy." I argued back that I thought it makes a girl cheap in a boy's eyes if she does because, namely, he would think that she'd kies any one who'd ask her. His reply was that the boys of today do not figure that way. I wan sort of baffied by this, and would like to hear what you have to say about it. Says Boys Demand Kisses

"What is the ferrorm."
"What difference does it make?
"She next up a spide from easile."
She next up a spide from easile."
"She put up a spide from."
"You wait till the man cooks."
"You wait the the wait till the wait the man cooks."
"You wait the wait the man cooks."
"You wait the the wait the man cooks."
"You wait the the wait the man cooks."
"You wait the the wait t

But I can't for the life of me see why you're so interested. If you're so interested, If you can't will be would come out all 'right.' "Yes; but I just happened to realize, Dan Wheelock and Julian were friends aside from their business relationship; and Wheelock spoke to him now with the privilege of friendship.

"See here, Julian, I find it you leave had not be seen the point of the wall done and she wall done and she would come to a similar for any making, between responsible; and all these months from their business relationship; and Wheelock spoke to him now with the privilege of friendship.

"I just happen to know, that's all." "I just h

Art in a Hospital

WHAT'S WHAT By HELEN DECIE

An examining board recently took exceptions to the "vamp" attire and be-havior of several girls applying for civil service examination—"peek-a-boo ber 8. EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER:

Miss Twenty-One:
We are inclined to think that your
"Victory of 1920" is a little off course.
The world may be turning upside down.
Airight, but there are one or two things that would right it as well as put it right side up.
We believe that a woman should have political rights as well as a man, but it would take more than a woman's "gentle state of affaira." So why should the greatest and best country of all have a woman President? How about $?

"SEMPER FIDELIS."

"SEMPER FIDELIS."

"SEMPER FIDELIS."

"Twenty-One."

Exceptions to the "vamp" attire and behavior of several girls applying for civil service examination—"peek-a-boo waists, ballet skirts and goo-goo eyes — were ruled out of order in candidates for government positions.

The illustration depicts two highly paid highly efficient young business women of New York. The natty indoor and outdoor costumes are the last word in a serviceable smartness which is neither too-invitingly vampish nor too-repellently dowdy. The autumn office dress illustrated is of blue serge, with black satin belt, vestee, buttons and sleeve bands. The little collar should be of hand embroidery or of real lace; it is the one precious individual note in an ensemble, which, otherwise, is a most practical business uniform.

Twenty-One.

The Woman's

Remove Grease Stains

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Can you tell me how to remove grease spots from a dark, brown, unwashable wall paper, also a cream color paper? How may fly specks be removed from light paper and also from mirrors and different articles of furniture?

MRS, F. R.

Place a clean piece of white blotting paper over the spots on the wall and hold a hot iron over it. This should take the grease out. Fly specks may be rubbed off of mirrors and window don't appreciate it.

THE EX-TOP KICK panes with wool steel. A thin bladed knife very carefully applied should be able to take the specks off paper and furniture, but it is very easy to scratch or tear with it.

How to Word Invitation

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Kindly advise me through your helpful column how to word invitations to a silver wedding in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary. Would also like to say dinner will be served at 6 o'clock. MARIE E. R.

Word your invitation thus:

2425 Walnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. R — request the honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith's presence at dinner on Thurs day evening. September 23, at 6 o'clock in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. September the eleventh.

If you have the invitations engraved leave off the words "in honor of twenty-fifth anniversary," and at the end of the invitation have the years 1895-1920 in-called her to help get supper. She arose, descended to the kitchen and quietly set to work. Her mother wisely said nothing of the raincoat, as she could see that Anne was troubled.

"Poor child," she thought, "after she has been cheated as many times as most of us, she'll not believe as simply as she does now."

After supper Anne went to her room. Usually she sat in the dining-room with up, laid it over the foot of the bed, and stooped once more to pick up the newspaper. Folding it neatly, her eyes fell upon the "want" column. "Wanted—A young girl to help care

Boys and GIRLS of growing food that builds good bone and muscle. They grow fast and burn up lots of energy so they need easily digestible and highly concentrated foods.

Cheese, good cheese like Kraft's Cheese in tins, is an ideal food ra-tion for growing children and they love it. Every child enjoys a delicious cheese sandwich and that cheese sandwich is equivalent in nutriment to three times its weight in lean beef.

ripened cheese like Kraft Cheese in tins, is never indigestible.

Kraft Cheese in tins is the new and right way to buy cheese. It is the cleanest, safest and most economical way to buy cheese. Kraft Cheese is put up in 8 varieties - Cheddar, Pimento, Chile, Rarebit, Swiss, Roquefort, Camem

THE FAMILY WERE VERY GLAD WHEN MOTHER CAME HOME

They Weren't Uncomfortable While She Was Away, but There Was Just Something Missing in Their Lives for Two Weeks

MOTHER came home yesterday.

M She has been away for two weeks visiting Grandma, who was sick.

She hated to go away without the family, but Grandma was lonely and she had to be with her.

We'll get along." they assured her.
"Aunt Martha will take care of the youngsters, and Daddy will manage."

Daddy hasn't suffered as far as meals and comfort are concerned.

So she went, and yesterday she came Bobby began to cry as roon as he a deep, contented sincerity in the tone. Aunt Martha merely sighed her re-Exchange declared, "I'm glad you're home." she

IT WASN'T that they had been hav-

He has had his play time with Susy and Bobby just as usual, and Susy has told him all about the events of the day, just as usual, with interruptions and interjections from Bobby.

BUT all the time there has been an undercurrent of something that

They all knew that this was just a temporary state of affairs. They were perfectly comfortable, but there was that additional something that would turn mere cold comfort into warm, cozy content.

And that something was Mother, It wasn't so much her management, her cooking, her playing or her sym-pathy that they missed, it was her

Just herself. WOU can "manage" without Mother; I you can be comfortable; you can call the place you live in "home." Aunt Martha is a beautiful cook, and she is very fond of the children.

They love her, teo, and Susy thinks' home.

They love her, teo, and Susy thinks' home.

Two Minutes of Optimism By HERMAN J. STICH

What Went Wrong Yesterday?

After hours of awkward, tortured, agonized beating about, he managed to durt it out-he had left the precious, priceless manuscript on a desk-the house.

For two long years Carlyle had not earned a cent by his pen. But with the energy and ferocity of a tiger he was ploughing his way through book that was to make men of after ages marvel. For five months more he slaved and starved till the first volume of "The History of the French Reclution" was finished. Then he loaned the manuscript to his friend. John Stuart Mill. On a certain morning, Mill called upon Carlyle. His face was gray as ash; lips trembled.

maid had taken it-and with it-started the morning fire. Carlyle was like a stricken man. But one day, pondering in his grief, looking dumbly out of his window, he cheery bricklayers building a house, brick by brick, row on row. He leaped into the air as though shocked out of a trance, electrified with a

'I, too, can bring back thought by thought and rebuild my book!" All of the manuscript he recalled and rewrote. And more

Bursting into hysterical tears and sobbing like a child, he cried:

iden wave of inspiration and determination.

What went wrong yesterday?

All Anne's predecessors had nodde

After supper Anne went to her room. Usually she sat in the dining-room with the family. But this evening she went to her room to think. Life was just opening to her, and each new problem puzzled her deeply.

She lighted her lamp and saw the raincoat where she had dropped it on the floor. Bending over, she picked it up, laid it over the foot of the bed, and stooped once more to pick up the Children like cheese dishes. Well bert and Limburger. At all dealers.

KRAFT CHEESE

Next completed novelette-

DAYTIME & EVENING FROCKS

FURS

WRAPS SUITS BLOUSES HATS

Originations and Authentic Adaptations from

CALLOT CHERUIT PARMET JANNEY BERNARD WORTH MADELEINE ET MADELEINE PAQUIN

The Blum Store

-newly re-created-

Tomorrow and Wednesday Presenting