

COX STARTS HIS OREGON CAMPAIGN

Pacific Coast Republicans Keeping Liqueur Issue to the Front

HONOR GUEST AT BANQUET

Salem, Ore., Sept. 13.—Governor Cox opened his Oregon campaign today with a speech in this city this morning, and will speak again in Portland tonight. His throat, which has been giving him some trouble, was examined yesterday by a specialist, who advised him to cancel some of his engagements. He declined to do so.

The governor was honor guest at a dinner last night given informally by local Democrats. The candidate made no speeches.

In Portland, as in other cities in Oregon and Washington, Governor Cox found that Will H. Hays, national Republican chairman, had anticipated his coming by having the Carroll letter, purporting to link the New Jersey liquor interests with the Cox campaign, displayed prominently in Republican papers.

Inquiry by the governor disclosed to the satisfaction of himself at least the purpose of the Republican effort to magnify the "wet" issue in Oregon and Washington. He determined it was because of the very pronounced sentiment for the ratification of the League of Nations and the consequent antipathy in many Republican quarters over the position of Senator Harding on the question.

Governor Cox will base his plans accordingly. He will hammer the Republican stand on the league in every speech in this state, beginning here today. He will seek to make that the paramount issue between himself and Harding, at least in so far as Oregon is concerned. He harbors no doubt as to his ability to expose what he regards as the hypocrisy of the Republican efforts to submerge the league issue.

LIQUOR FOES MEET

Anti-Saloon League Wants Number of Permits Reduced

Washington, Sept. 13.—Revision of the regulations under which prohibition enforcement is to be carried out for 1921 probably will be largely influenced by two conventions that are to meet in Washington between now and the end of September.

The National Anti-Saloon League meeting starts here today, and the principal discussion is to center around additional means for making the United States absolutely arid and the defeat of candidates who favor a liberalization of the Volstead law.

Revision of the methods of prohibition enforcement is scheduled to take place October 1, when most of the existing permits for the handling of whisky and alcohol expire. The Anti-Saloon League is anxious not only to restrict the number of permits but also to reduce the number of substitutes that have taken the place of whisky among consumers of alcoholic beverages.

ROOSEVELT GOES TO N. H.

Democratic Nominee Leaves After Attending Uncle's Funeral

Foughkeape, Sept. 13.—Franklin D. Roosevelt left here last night for New Hampshire, to continue his campaign speeches.

Mr. Roosevelt attended funeral services held yesterday for his uncle, Warren Delano, of New York and Barrington, who was killed last Thursday at the Barrington station, when his favorite horse bolted into the path of an express. A special train bore Mr. Delano's body to Fair Haven, Mass., for burial.

Bullet Fired by Highwayman Kills Two Women Motorists

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 13.—Two women were fatally wounded when an automobile in which they were riding was held up Saturday night on the highway at Stetson. Their alleged assailant, Mike Mazurich, twenty-eight years old, an overseas soldier, is in the Middlesex General Hospital with a bullet in his right side, having been shot by a posse of soldiers from the Raritan Hospital when, in resisting arrest, he stabbed one of them.

The victims of the hold-up are the Misses Sadie and Susan Felter, school teachers of this city. They were in the machine of Frank Whitlock, treasurer of the New Brunswick Trust Co. Only one shot was fired by the highwayman, the lone bullet, killing the sisters as they sat on the rear seat of the car.

Reading Fire Causes $5000 Loss

Reading, Pa., Sept. 13.—Fire of undetermined origin yesterday destroyed the warehouse of J. H. Cassell, a grocer, causing $5000 loss and endangering Cassell's nearby store and the store of E. W. Deitrich and the Boston Shoe Co. Firemen, led by former Assistant Chief Charles Ehman, rescued women and children in apartments above the stores in families of Benjamin Keller, Edward Richards, E. H. Schuler, Edward Smith, Thomas Jackson and Norah Davis.

Gasoline Flames Burn Farmer

Milville, N. J., Sept. 13.—While Victor Estadt, a farmer residing near here, was washing his hands in gasoline to remove grease, he struck a match to light his pipe and an explosion followed. The farmer's clothing ignited and before the flames could be extinguished he was severely burned about the face and hands.

CATHOLICS DISCUSS SECULAR AFFAIRS

Part Women Voters Are Expected to Take Included in Program

COLBY PRAISES CHARITIES

Washington, Sept. 13.—The part women voters are to play in civic affairs especially with relation to social problems, as a result of the adoption of the suffrage amendment, and the cost of living are among the subjects outlined for discussion by the national conference of Catholic societies, preliminary sessions of which took place yesterday in the Catholic University.

More than 1000 Catholic leaders, representing the clergy, the Catholic sisterhood and lay organizations are expected to attend the conference which will continue through the week. The superior council of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will have its annual meeting in conjunction with the conference.

Archbishop Bonzano, apostolic delegate, officiated at the opening mass today, while at the first session last night the speakers included Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state; Thomas J. Duffey, chairman of the Ohio Industrial Commission; Charles L. Brown, president judge of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia; and Helen P. McCormick, assistant district attorney, of Brooklyn. Secretary Colby, explaining that he was "an incorrigible Protestant," declared "there is no charitable work in ### the world that is carried on with such gusto, with such conviction, with such intrepidity, with such quiet modesty and with such effectiveness as the Catholic charities of the world."

"There never was a time in the United States," he asserted, "when the charitable impulse that feels a general solicitude for the other man, for the other nation, for the less favored, less advantageously situated peoples was so called for. The charity that sends you into the slums, the charity that sends you into the sick room, the charity that sends you to the battlefield, must send you to your afflicted humans wherever they may be."

Judge Brown speaking of the socializing of civil justice said: "Justice, which is the essence of our religion, would bring an end to disputes between men. With the shining advent of peace would come its fruition. So we can say with Daniel Webster, in the true spirit of religion, 'justice is the highest concern of man on earth.'" He then told of new developments in court reforms and the work of the Municipal Court in Philadelphia, which he said had done some things that had attracted worldwide attention.

FARMERS TO BALK APPLE PROFITEERS

Warren County Growers Will Sell Entire Crop Direct to Consumers

Bevidere, N. J., Sept. 13.—Farmers of Warren county are preparing to defeat the schemes of apple speculators by co-operative marketing of the bulk of their great apple crop directly to the consumer. The county has a crop of 50,000 bushels of first-grade apples and probably 100,000 bushels of lower grades, the greatest apple harvest in its history, largely due to the adopting of modern methods of culture on old orchards. The growers have arranged, with the aid of the state bureau of markets, to start the apples into public markets this week, under a program that has aroused interest of farmers and consumers throughout the state. The farmers will sell the first-grade apples, graded under state supervision at about $1 a bushel, in bulk, on the farm. Big trucks will cart the fruit in bulk to various cities, where women's clubs and other civic organizations have arranged to have it sold from the trucks on the street.

The public will be taken into full confidence on every cost of the operation. The amount paid the farmer for the apples, the price of hauling them to market and any other necessary overhead that must be added will be posted. Consumers will be invited to "come and get 'em" at prices that will mean a saving of $1 to $1.50 a bushel, as compared with fruit of the same grade in private markets. Owing to the high cost of baskets and barrels, buyers will be asked to furnish their own containers.

The Twenty Ounce and the King are the principal varieties of apples to be sold through the new market scheme. Both are highly esteemed as a fall and early winter apple for eating and cooking. The King originated in Warren county and its aromatic flavor has since made it a favorite of orchardists in many states.

We honestly believe the prices in the Hanscom's RESTAURANTS are the lowest of any first-class eating houses in the United States.

Our low prices plus high-class food, refined, courteous service, cleanliness, Grand Banquet Coffee, etc., should appeal to all particular people.

Bluefish Biting in Barnegat Bay

West Creek, N. J., Sept. 13.—Bluefish are running in large schools in Barnegat bay, and hook-and-line fishermen are making big catches. Flounders are also running, and are unusually large. The removal of several seines from the mouth of the bay is said to be responsible for the big run of fish.

A Man Came Home

recently from an extended trip that took him well up into Canada. He came back enthusiastic over our Producer-to-Consumer Plan, for his journey had brought home to both him and his wife a fuller realization of what our Producer-to-Consumer Plan is accomplishing for the housewives in the four States in which our Stores are located.

He told us that, in all the many towns through which he had passed, he could not find any organization that was doing what the American Stores Co. is doing toward the reduction of living costs. He said to us: "Nowhere in the approximately two thousand miles I traveled did I find any place where the cost of living, quality considered, is as low as in an 'Asco' Store."

This is gratifying testimony. It only corroborates, however, what we had sincerely believed to be the case. In other words, if you were living outside of the four States in which our Stores are located, it would cost you more for your groceries than you are now paying at our Stores. Are you taking full advantage of your opportunity? Are you reaping the full benefit of our Producer-to-Consumer Plan? Buy all your groceries at an "Asco" Store and you will learn why the Philadelphia and his wife mentioned above returned with so much enthusiasm for our economy prices. Think a moment: What would groceries be costing today were it not for the American Stores Co.?
