

P. R. R. MAIN LINE WRECK Twenty-five cars were derailed in a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train wreck at Wayne yesterday morning at 3:50. The four tracks were blocked for several hours. No one was injured. Ledger Photo Service.

COPENHAGEN GIRL SCOUT. Miss Estrid Ott, nineteen-year-old Danish scout, is now a guest of New York city on the first lap of her trip around the world. International.

ITALIAN REPRESENTATIVES. Colonel Bardillon (left) and Count Raineri-Biscia have arrived to attend an impromptu allied conference in Washington. Central News Photo.

ON THE SHOULDERS OF GOLF ENTHUSIASTS. "Chick" Evans was carried off the golf grounds at Roslyn, Long Island, after he won the national amateur championship on Saturday. Central News Photo.

SHOT PUT WINNER. W. Rigling, a member of the Meadowbrook Club, had to toss the shot nearly forty-two feet to win the event at the Navy Day sports carnival. Ledger Photo Service.

ENJOYING NAVY DAY. A group of sick sailors watch the events of the day at the Philadelphia Navy Yard from their wheel-chairs. Ledger Photo Service.

NAVY YARD MEN IN SACK RACE. H. Tyler, of the machine division, winning the closed event. Ledger Photo Service.

MARINES PULL HARDEST. The tug-of-war team representing the marines defeated the S. S. Columbia during the Navy Day events at the Philadelphia Navy Yard on Saturday. Ledger Photo Service.

AN AMERICAN DIVER. Louis Balbach doing some exhibition fancy high diving in Antwerp, Belgium. He took part in the Olympic events. Central News Photo.

OLDEST GUESTS. Mrs. Martha Russell, eighty-eight years old, and William Hamilton, eighty-nine years old, at the outing given on Saturday by the former old folk's committee of the Lemon Hill Association. Ledger Photo Service.

ENJOYING THE ICE CREAM. The old folk had a grand time at the Lemon Hill pavilion. Mrs. Anna Yeager Brown, eighty-five years old, was a guest. Ledger Photo Service.

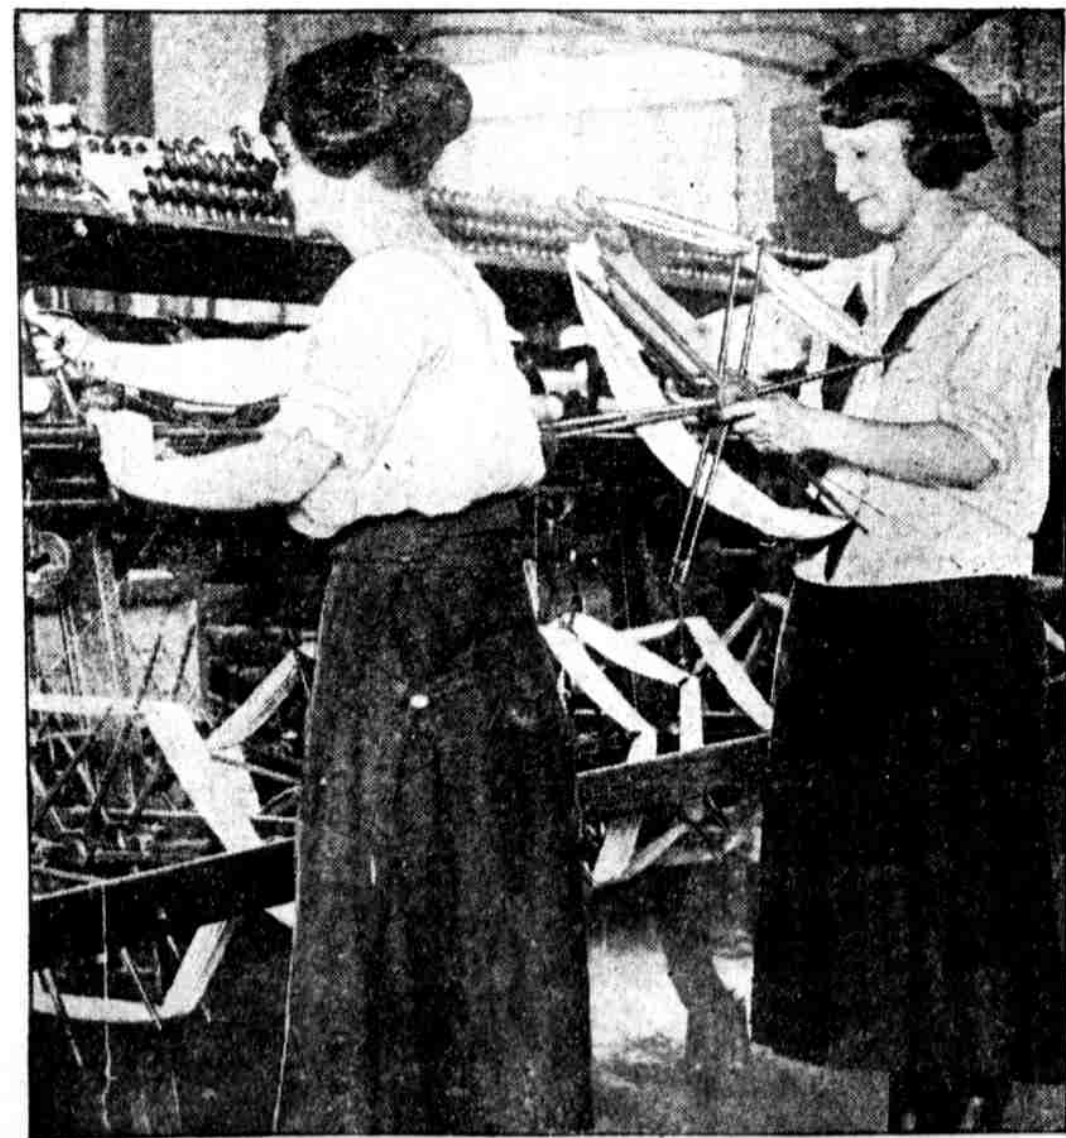

CORNERSTONE LAID BY STATE MASONS. Grand lodge officers join with Tacony Masons in laying the cornerstone of the Wissinoming Presbyterian Church. Ledger Photo Service.

POLICE HAVE MACHINE GUNS. For use in riots and for chasing auto thieves, the New York police have been given machine guns. International.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING A WINDING MACHINE. Mrs. Eva Bishop, 2946 North Third street, at the machine, while Miss Mikolet, 2976 Leithgow street, is adjusting a skein on a swift at the Quaker Lace Co., Fourth street and Lehigh avenue. Ledger Photo Service.

MATTHEW C. BRUSH discusses leadership of men in an interview on the editorial page. Ledger Photo Service.

WILLIAM H. FOLWELL, who is chairman of the committee on Republican campaign funds in Pennsylvania. Ledger Photo Service.

A MARVELOUS SWIM. Henry Sullivan, of Lowell, Mass., during his successful effort to swim the English channel. He was in the water eighteen hours. Central News Photo.

LIFE GUARDS BUSY YESTERDAY. John Fairlow, Harry Leddy and Patrick Miller, Atlantic City life guards, pushing off to warn careless bathers yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

SUFFRAGE EDITOR. Miss Florence Boeckal, editor of The Suffragist, the official organ of the national suffrage organizations. Paul Thompson.

WINS LU LU GOLF TOURNAMENT. Edward C. Clary, the Bala golfer, defeated Maurice J. Jones in the final round at the Lu Lu Temple Country Club. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS JEANETTE DE TALLO, 1252 Pierce street, Philadelphia. Photo by Stephenson Studio.