FAVORITES ARE RUNNING IN FORM, WHICH IS BAD, WITH THE OPENING OFSEASON AT HAVRE DE GRACE

I had a distinct plan of campaign mapped out for the match. Sad experience in former matches with Johnston had taught me the advantage of determined to start quickly. Things those well from the start, and in the space of a very short time the first set was tucked away at 6-1. Johnston had not yet started, and my exertions were telling on me.

Billy opened the second set with a terrific net attack that my best efforts could not break. He broke my service twice, and at that point I gave up the set for lost. The closing games I used here, calls for football candidates have been sounded. Large numbers of candidates have been sounded when that horrible airplane.

GETTING IN SHAPE FOR PENN

After Preliminary Training

Newark, Del., Sept. 14.—Coach Shipley, of Delaware College, with a squad of about twenty football candidates, has returned after ten days of preliminary training at Reboboth Beach. The squad is in fine shape physically and resumed practice at once or Thirty candidates have reported to Coach Kerr, of Southern High. He succeeds Dean Johnson as the coach of the downtown eleven. Kerr needs no introduction, as he has coached the basketball teams of the Red and Black for a number of years and also Rehoboth Beach. The squad is in fine shape physically and resumed practice at once on Frazer Field. They will be Joined by an other large squad when college opens on Thuraday. The preliminary work was necessary this year because of the opening same with Penn. September 25, which would give less than two weeks to pick a team after college opens. Among those who trained at Rehoboth were Captain McCaughan, Harmer, Holton, Tonkin, Wintrup, Magaw, Lilly, Williams, Repp, Ivory and Magee, of last year's varsity and scrubs, and Leamy, Donaldson, Elliott and Steel, new men who will enter college this week. Leamy is a Philadelphia boy, whilo Donaldson and Elliott are former Wilmington High stars. Steel played with Newark High last year. eleven. Kerr needs no introduction, as he has coached the basketball teams of the Red and Black for a number of veers and also has assisted Janusen in coaching the gridrien players. The class of men that turned out to make the team is not up to the standard of recent years and Kerr does not expect to put a team upon the field so strong as last year's eleven. Among the candidates who reported to Kerr are Vio Epstein, Weinstein and Silver, members of last year's champlorabile oage team. Southern's curtain raiser will be with Darby Bigh on September 27. The Northeast High School eleven will be hard hit this fall, and Coach Snyder will have no easy time in forming a team that will be able to uphold the Archives' name in the Public High School League. Schofield, O'Brien, Hubbard and Einwichter, the entire backfield, as well as Haumm and Shoemaker, are lost to the team this year. The Red and Hack worked out on its field at Twenty-ninth and Cambria streets yesterday afternson

Ursinus Guard is injured

Collegeville, Pa., Sept. 14.—The football squad at Ursinus received its first blow when Updike, the veteran guard, twisted his knee, which will lay him up for a week at least. Miller, one of last year's halfbacks, also is laid up with acute indigestion. Several new men put in their first appearance, among whom was Schwartz, subquarter of last year's varsity; Detwiler, an aspirant for one of the suaRd positions; Buchannon, a sisant suard from Riddey Park High. Stauffer, last year's star guard, also arrived on the scene. Eaptain Helffrich, in the absence of Coach Mitterling, continued the work by stying the new candidates a stiff practice in some of the fundamental principles of the game. The hope of a big year went up just a notch higher when it was announced that Gemin, a lineman on the 1915 team, was returning to college. Gemin saw service abroad and during this period played on his division team. The Catholic schools will have a football league for the first time this year in addition to the laskettail and baseball leagues. The same teams will be in the football league, namely Catholic High. St. Jos Prep. West Catholic High. La Salle and Villanova Prep. The schedule for the games will be announced in the next couple of days.
