

LEGION MEN GET NEW SCHOLARSHIPS

Awards Made by Y. M. C. A. Total $7000. Exhausting Funds for Purpose

POST RECEIVES COLORS

Awards of scholarships for former service men, aggregating more than $7000, were made yesterday by the educational service committee of the Young Men's Christian Association in co-operation with the American Legion.

As a result of the action taken at the meeting in the central branch of the Y. M. C. A., 1421 Arch street, the funds for scholarships for veterans are virtually all appropriated.

The committee passing on the requests for scholarships included Richard L. Austin, president of the Federal Reserve Bank; Franklin Spencer Edmonds, attorney; George Wentworth Carr, chairman of the Philadelphia county committee, American Legion; Rommie C. Harsick, acting chief, bureau of legal aid, Department of Public Welfare; John A. Phillips, vice president of Typographical Union No. 2; Robert Fuller, director of the Federal Board of Vocational Training; William O. Easton, executive director, Y. M. C. A., and George W. Braden, of the educational service organization of the Y. M. C. A.

of any post in the country. Its representative in the county committee is David E. McGuckin.

All-Navy Post No. 107, headed by Andrew P. Oisen, considered the new state constitution last night in the Benedict Service Club, Fifteenth and Race streets. A serious problem as to the future of this post was developed because of the fact that a great number of its members are afloat aboard the various battle craft of the United States. Commander Oisen says the membership is more widely scattered than that of any other Pennsylvania post.

Oscar H. Gruber Post, commanded by Henry Baker, claims to have established a Legion record for meeting on rainy nights. Since the first meeting last November there has been but one exception to the watery siege. Despite this the post has maintained an even keel, and has an average attendance of 60 per cent of its membership.

BRAVE POLICEMAN LAUDED

Harry J. De Lange Publicly Commended for Rescuing Boy

Harry J. De Lange, patrolman of the Fourth and Race streets station, was publicly commended at roll call in his station house today for bravery displayed August 29 last, when he jumped into the Delaware river fully clothed to save a boy from drowning.

Lawrence Dillon, eleven years old, of 812 Spring street, had fallen when he tried to climb out on a cable from Race street wharf to a ship. De Lange rescued him and gave him first aid until an ambulance arrived.

At roll call letters were read from Superintendent Mills and Director Corley to the patrolman.

"You will instruct the lieutenant of the Fourth district," Superintendent Mills wrote to the division captain, "to commend Patrolman De Lange at roll call and convey to him the high appreciation of the director and myself for the bravery displayed by him in the case, and also have delivered to him the personal letter from the director enclosed herewith."

ASIDE from the weighty reasons of safety and service, connection with a widely known and well-liked banking institution has another point of interest and value. It gives to the individual or commercial depositors a certain impressiveness and dignity in their business affairs that goes a long way toward creating confidence and esteem. You should make this your bank.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

BEGINNING TO-MORROW—SHOPPING HOURS, 9 TO 5:30 O'CLOCK

An Unprecedented Sale, Beginning To-morrow

Men's Winter Overcoats

Also a Number of Autumn-Weight Top Coats

One-Third to One-Half Under Price

Coats Worth $50.00 to $100.00 To-morrow at

$32.00 $42.00 $49.00

When we say this Sale is unprecedented, we mean in number and variety and the inclusion of the very finest Overcoats in our stock. One year ago we sold 1000 Winter Overcoats in a few days in September—and their purchasers had good reason to congratulate themselves on the wonderful value. But in this Sale are three hundred more Overcoats and two of the groups very much higher-priced than the Coats sold last year.

It is the most remarkable opportunity ever offered. These identical grades of Overcoats will cost from ONE-HALF MORE TO DOUBLE THESE PRICES when our regular winter lines are opened up—this is the plain, incontrovertible fact. This season's regular wholesale prices are not one penny less than a year ago. But these special lots include late purchases from last winter and some carried over from our own winter stock. ALL ARE LESS THAN PRESENT WHOLESALE VALUE—every one at a loss either to us or the manufacturer.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx, "Alco," Stein-Bloch and Other Makes

Great, handsome Ulsters, Ulsterettes and Chesterfield Winter Overcoats; three-quarter-length and long Coats, with patch pockets or regular pockets; most of them silk-lined. Also Autumn Overcoats, with or without belt, loose and form-fitting models. ALL SIZES AT EACH PRICE, to begin with—$32.00, $42.00 and $49.00.

Also, a Few Plain Oxford Winter Overcoats at One-third Under Price $26.50

Be here to-morrow—try to be early, not only to help us distribute the selling evenly throughout the day and to insure prompt service, but to get first choice—for a few of the finest Coats are worth more than double the price, and will go quickly.

You Would Not Ask a Famous Musician to Play On a Rattletrap Piano

Even if the musician were gracious enough to accede to such a request, his performance would be colorless, scarcely distinguishable from that of any mediocre player.

It takes the BEST Piano to bring out the full beauty of music as interpreted by the world's master musicians—a fact so evident as to hardly merit its mention.

The same applies to the REPRODUCTION of the master player's performance—that is why the world's finest and best reproducing player-action—the Welte Mignon Auto de Luxe—has been incorporated in America's finest and oldest make of Piano—

The Historical Francis Bacon

—Thus producing what may well be called the highest type of musical instrument in the world.

You are invited to hear your favorite pianist play through the medium of the—

Get Back to the Real Thing

SURE does feel good when you meet up with the genuine article. That's the way with Spur Cigarettes—they get you back to good, old-time tobacco, in a hurry.

Even that catchy brown-and-silver package looks real. No dolling up—just smart and right.

Open up and light up! That down-right good blend of Turkish, Burley and other home-grown tobaccos is just as pleasing, as comforting as in bygone times.

And you get all there's in it because Spurs are crimped—no other cigarette like it. Know what crimping means? First, no paste to taste. Next, slower burning, easier drawing—less waste between puffs.

What a helping! Twenty generous Spurs to the pack. You'll know right away that you're "home again."
